

Lodge & Society Directory.

Millheim Lodge, No. 885, I. O. O. F. meet at their hall, Penn Street, every Saturday evening...

With this issue we complete the fifty-eighth volume of the JOURNAL. Since we took exclusive charge of the paper last April we have been trying to give our readers a newsy local paper...

CHRISTMAS DAY.

Amid all the festivals which shine in the calendar of man's devotion there is none so radiant with holy joy and gladness as the Feast of the Nativity.

The Silver Dollar Nuisance

Nothing could more aptly illustrate the incompetency of republican statesmanship than the present agitation of the silver question in congress.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Dec. 23 1884. The House last Wednesday unceremoniously hustled Mr. Cullom's Inter-State bill to one side and substituted Mr. Reagan's bill on the same subject...

Christmas has come. It is bleak December without, but there is the warmth of atmosphere, as well as the warmth of heart.

But, alas! there is a reverse to the medal. To-day in this land of Charities how many thousands are there to whom the advent of this festival is but an intensification of misery.

What gift more acceptable to the Saviour than that out of the abundance with which we are blessed, we shall give even a little to make the joy of His festival a day of festivity to his poor also...

The general condition of business throughout the United States, according to accounts appearing in the larger daily papers, is still not rosy...

Cleveland is the fourth president from the state of New York. Only one of the other three was actually elected to the office—Martin Van Buren.

Blaine withdraws his libel suit against the Indiana Sentinel, claiming that he could never get justice in such a democratic state...

Charles Frank, of Emrichville, Jefferson county, Ohio, writes: "I had piles and fistula in ano for four years. I had suffered constantly with a discharge of matter from the parts, and sometimes from the contents of the bowels through it."

Mr. Patrick Cunningham, S. S., near Sidney street, Pittsburgh, Pa., writes: "For five years I have suffered incessantly from internal and external piles. I have tried the best physicians of Pittsburgh and Allegheny without relief."
