-Mr. Jno. E. Jenkins, of Shamokin, who delivered temperance lectures in the M. E. church on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings with a view to organize a lodge of Good Templars, goes from here to Aaronsburg, where he expects to hold meetings this evening and to-morrow evening.

The Bellefonte Daily News commenting on Mr. Jenkins' address in that place, says :

"Mr. Jenkins is quite a young man but he delivered a surprisingly power ful and brilliant lecture and for an hour held his auditors' close attention. Indeed we considered his remarks in force of delivery and subject matter fully equal to any of the many excellent talks heard in Bellefonte recently, even by reople of high reputation."

AN OLD LANDMARK GONE .- We are pained to announce the death of Mr. George Breon, an old and respected citizen and farmer of Gregg township, which occurredon Sunday morning last. Mr. Breon was born and raised in the "Mountains" where he spent the greatest part of his life. Of late, as his health be came impaired, he moved to his son, Jacob Breon, living on Jonathan Harter's farm, in Penn township.

His sickness was a protracted one, but he bore it with christian fortitude and died after a year's affliction in the tlessed hope of a glorious immortality. He reached the high age of nearly 83 years. His funeral took place last Tuesday forenoon, when his remains were interred in the Georges valley cemetery. Peace to his ashes.

> -Last week's Lewisburg Saturday Neus has an account of Samuel Kieffer's terrible death on a saw mill in Kelly township, Union Co., which wepartly copy below :

The most shocking accident ever recorded in Union county occurred on a saw mill in Kelly twp, on Wednesday last. As Mr. Samuel Keiffer was endeavoring to move a heavy stick of timber on the carriage, his foot slipped and he was thrown upon a fast revolving circular saw, mangling his legs, arm and body most horribly. His right leg was cut off below the knee and the whirling steelcrashed through his body as far as the breast bone. He was thrown about six feet against Mr. Horace Bostion, who was horror-stricken at the sight of his friend's mangled and bloody body lying upon the floor quiy-
