

Counterfeiting a Decreasing Crime.

"Not so much counterfeiting is going on now as there was five or six years ago," remarked United States Marshal Monroe to a Grand Rapids (Mich) Leader reporter. "The manufacturers and shovers of the queer have come to realize that if the nefarious trade is carried on any length of time, detection is almost certain. We have captured, convicted and sentenced between thirty and forty counterfeiters during the past four years, and all the old gangs have been broken up. The new generation of counterfeiters are mostly country boys who, in their simplicity, believe that they can handle the bogus coin without fear of detection or punishment. They are almost invariably captured before they have realized from their investment. The old convicts, who make the coin in some secret place after serving their time in prisons for past crimes, are either captured or rope in other innocents, who, in turn, trade in the stuff and get caught. The maker of the coin is sooner or later captured as well as the boys who handle it. But the people are rapidly learning they cannot counterfeit the coin of the realm with impunity, and with a few more years of vigorous enforcement of the laws, violation of the laws in this respect will be almost unknown in this section of the country."

She Knew the Styles.

It was a very particular man that sat down to the dinner table at the Stafford house recently, and he exemplified it when he gave his order. "You may give me, Mary," he said to one of the table fairies, "you may give me a delicate piece of—ah—rare roast beef well favored, and—ah—free from any extraneous matter in the way of—ah—stringy substance, a narrow piece of fat on the edge, and—ah—a little—a very little—gray—just sufficient to—ah—moisten it properly. And Mary—Mary, who had been listening attentively, here broke in: "I understand you, sir. You simply want your meat bias, with Charlotte Russe flouncing, shirred up the back with a Pompadour rind roll on the outer edge. Do you want buttons on it?" The particular guest couldn't reply.

DOWN'S ELIXIR

N. H. DOWN'S
Vegetable Balsamic
ELIXIR
For the cure of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Croup, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Hoarseness, Influenza, Spitting Blood, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs. In all cases where this Elixir is used its efficacy is at once manifested, conquering the most inveterate of these troubles.

It is not curative, if properly attended to. At its commencement it is but a slight irritation of the membrane which covers the Lungs; then an inflammation, when the cough is rather dry, local fever and the pulse more frequent, the cheeks flushed and the countenance more anxious. It is free from strong opiate and astringent articles, which are so drying a nature as to be in great danger of destroying the patient. This medicine never dries or stops the cough, but, by removing the cause, consequently, when the cough is cured the patient is well. Send address for pamphlet giving full directions, free. Price 35 cts., 50 cts., and $1.00 per bottle. SOLD EVERYWHERE.

DR. JOHN BULL'S Smith's Tonic Syrup
FEVER and ACUE
Or CHILLS and FEVER,
AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PAINLESS cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear his testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every way more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of WATSON'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.
