

PHILADELPHIA had its hottest day in five years last Friday. The thermometer registered 102 1/2 in the shade at two o'clock in the afternoon and many people who were on the streets were prostrated by the intense heat and had to be carried to the hospitals or their homes.

JOHN RILEY, of Altoona, is said to be the coming democratic candidate for state treasurer. Mr. Riley has served one term in Congress creditably, has occupied a responsible position in the transportation department of the Pennsylvania railroad and is much respected by his neighbors in Blair county.

TAYLOR, the murderer of his keeper, as shown in a convict in penitentiary, suffered death on the gallows in Philadelphia last Thursday. If ever a criminal deserved to be hung it was him. He had commenced stabbing at fifteen years of age and stabbed seventeen and shot twenty-eight people in the last ten years.

JOHN ROACH, the ship builder of Dolphin fame, made an assignment of all his property last Saturday to protect his creditors and himself. The failure of this well-known head of an important industry in New York throws many men who earned their daily bread in his extensive shops out of employment and is to be regretted. It is said that Mr. Roach's property will fully cover his liabilities, amounting to about $122,217.

A Good Day for Washington. Saturday was a good day for Washington, because of the appointment of Wm. B. Webb as one of the Commissioners for the district of Columbia.

The plunder of the people of Washington and of the government as well, has been the chief aim of those who have been appointed to administer municipal affairs in Washington. The Cook and the Shepherd reigns memorable, and when such as ex-Senator West succeeded in the District Commission, there was no reason to expect faithful government. West carpet-bagged Louisiana into the Senate, and logically fell back upon Washington when he had neither State nor constituency to sustain him. West's term expired a day or two ago, and the old political buzzards flocked to the carcass. Ex-Senator Pomeroy made a high bid for the place by proposing to run the Prohibition movement in the interest of the Democrats, but President Cleveland did not hunger for such Democratic victories. He preferred to deserve popular support by selecting honest and competent Commissioners, and he tendered the position to Mr. Webb. As Webb is honest and competent, of course he doesn't want the place, but he has fortunately accepted. His appointment is notice that there is to be business government in Washington municipal affairs hereafter, instead of banded plunderers.—Times.

MR. EDITOR:—I hand you the following from a paper that comes weekly to my address. As will be seen at once, it relates to paying the preacher, and we believe it will do some of the many readers of the JOURNAL good. M.

A Pastor's Salary. If a man is fit to preach, he is worth wages. If he is worth wages he should receive them with all the business regularity that is demanded and enforced in business life. There is no man in the community who works harder for what he receives than the faithful minister. There is no man—in whose work the community is interested—to whom regular wages, that shall not cost him a thought are so important.

Of what proportionate use can any man be in a pulpit, whose weeks are frittered away in mean cares and petty economies. Every month, or every quarter, on a certain day, every pastor should be sure that there will be placed in his hands, as his just wages, money enough to pay all his expenses. Then, without a sense of special obligation, he can preach the truth with freedom, and prepare for his public ministrations without distraction.

Nothing more cruel to a pastor, or disastrous to his work, can be done than to force upon him a feeling of dependence upon the charities of his flock. He is the creature of a popular whim, and a preacher without influence to those who do not respect him or his office sufficiently to pay him the wages due to a man who devotes his life to them. Manliness cannot live in such a man, except it be a torture—a torture endured simply because there are others who depend upon the charities doled out to him. Good many pastors do not want gifts; they want wages. They need them, and the people owe them; but they take to themselves the credit of benefactors, and place their pastors in an awkward and false position. If Christians do not sufficiently recognize the legitimacy of the pastor's calling to render him fully his wages, and to assist him to maintain his manly independence before the world, they must not blame the world for looking upon him with a contempt that forbids and precludes influence. The world will be quite ready to take the pastor at the valuation of his friends, and the religion he teaches at the price its professors are willing to pay in a business way for its ministry.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Fire broke out this evening in the Post building, at the corner of Tenth and D streets, and the editorial, composing and press rooms of the Washington Post, the National Republican, the Critic, and the Sunday Gazette were completely gutted. Besides these offices the building was tenanted by the United States Electric Light Company, District Gas Inspector, Lee's restaurant, Shorter's barber shop, and Neap's lithographing establishment, all of which were burned out. The building was owned by Stilson Hutchins, and was valued at $30,000. The loss of the building is said to be covered by insurance. The press used by the Post and Republican, valued at $20,000; the Critic press, valued at $15,000, and a press owned by ex-Secretary Chandler valued at $20,000 were destroyed. The plates of Stilson Hutchins' new book, entitled "The National Capitol—Washington, Past and Present," with 5,000 copies of the book, were burned. The total loss will reach $150,000. The fire is believed to have broken out in the engine room of the Electric Light Company. Through the courtesy of the proprietors of the Star, the Post and Republican will be issued from the Star office to-morrow.

Miscellaneous News. A Little Boy Drowned. A Blind Horse Backs a Wagon With Four Occupants Into the Canal.

SELENSROVE, July 15.—About 9 o'clock this morning Mr. Benjamin Heiman was driving along the west side of the Pennsylvania canal. His wagon was covered one and the horse hitched to it was blind. In the vehicle with Mr. Heiman were Josie Oppenheimer, aged 6 years, son of Mr. Sol. Oppenheimer, a small boy named Marx and Mr. Heiman's son. When near the railroad bridge that crosses the canal and Penn's Creek, a short distance from the waste-weir, the animal became frightened by the roar of the water as it rushed over the weir, and backed the wagon and its occupants into the canal, where the water is very deep. Josie Oppenheimer was in the back part of the wagon, and was drowned. The rest of the little party were in the front part of the vehicle, and with much difficulty escaped. The horse was also drowned.

A Distressing Calamity. Father and Mother Witness the Burning of Their Home, with Six of Their Children.

PITTSBURG, July 17.—Last night about 11 o'clock the residence of John M. Evans, a small two story log hut, three miles from Grayhampton, Clearfield County, was destroyed by fire, and six of his children, ranging in age from 6 to 15 years, were cremated. Evans was awakened by a strange noise, and under the impression that burglars were about, took his gun and went outside to investigate. To his horror he discovered his humble dwelling in flames. He quickly gave the alarm, but before he could reach his children, who were sleeping on the second floor, the roof fell in, and in a few minutes the building was ablaze. His wife and three young children were sleeping on the lower floor and were taken out safely, but the parents were forced to see the others perish. The morning intelligence of a fearful calamity spread rapidly throughout the county and hundreds were soon drawn to the scene. The mangled remains of four of the children, charred and unrecognizable, were gathered up and buried in one coffin. The other two were apparently reduced to ashes as no trace of them could be found. The parents are crazed with grief and the whole community is excited over the affair, which has no precedent in Clearfield County. The father insists that the fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary, and in this opinion others share.

Deinger's Ready Reference Tax Receipt Book is growing in public favor. Customers from a distance are beginning to call for it. It is an admitted necessity for every taxpayer who does his business in a practical manner. It is arranged to last for ten years and sells at the low price of 40 cents. Call and see it at the JOURNAL Store.

A Queen's Opinion. J. M. Queen writes from Johnston, W. Va., that he has been severely afflicted for several years, but he was urged to try PERUNA, which he did, and he now feels that he is about over his trouble, and considers it the greatest medicine in the world. He says he has to go or send a distance of fifteen miles to obtain PERUNA, but he will repay him for this.

Mr. Aaron Shreffler, Alma, Marion county, Ill., writes: "Dr. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O. Dear Sirs: Myself and wife have taken three bottles of your medicine and received much benefit by the use of them. My wife was troubled with neuralgia, headache and weak stomach. Her headache has not troubled her for the last two weeks, and her stomach is much better. She took only PERUNA. I used both medicines, and my general health is so much improved that I feel like a new man. My stomach is very much better, and the MANALIN keeps my bowels all right. We intend to keep taking the medicine until we are permanently cured." Evans T. Jones, Prospect, Marion Co., O., says: "After having taken medicine from different physicians of this place without any relief, I was induced to try your PERUNA, which I purchased of Cook Bros., druggists, of this place, and after using some six bottles of the same, I feel very much benefited. Am sure it will finally work an entire cure." T. J. Ewing, Cattletown, Ky., writes: "In the early part of last winter I contracted a severe cold, attended with a bad cough; then, being exposed during late flood, added to my disability. I have taken your PERUNA with good results. My cough has entirely left, soreness is gone, and am increasing in flesh." Thomas Bradford, 314 Western Avenue, Allegheny City, Pa., writes: "I have had liver complaint for three years; I thought I would have to quit work; I have taken two bottles of your PERUNA, and am well."

S. Wolf & Son, Wilmot, Ohio, write: "We handle your goods, and they give good satisfaction."

From Pole to Pole. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has demonstrated its power of cure for all diseases of the blood. THE HARPOONER'S STORY. Dr. J. C. AYER & Co.—Twenty years ago I was a harpooner in the North Pacific, when five others and myself were laid up with scurvy. Our bodies were bloated, gums swollen and bleeding, teeth loose, purple blotches all over us, and our breath smelled rotten. Like by and large we were pretty badly off. All our lime-juice was accidentally destroyed, but the captain had a couple dozen bottles of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA and gave us that. We recovered on it quicker than I have ever seen men brought about by any other treatment for scurvy, and I've seen a good deal of it. Seeing no mention in your Almanac of your SARSAPARILLA being good for scurvy, I thought you ought to know of this, and so send you the facts. Respectfully yours, RALPH Y. WINGATE.

The Trooper's Experience. Marsen, Banatland (S. Africa), March 7, 1883. DR. J. C. AYER & Co.—Gentlemen: I have much pleasure to testify to the great value of your SARSAPARILLA. We have been stationed here for over two years, during which time we had to live in tents. Being under canvas for such a time brought on what is called in this country "veldt-scurvy." I had those evils for some time. I was advised to take your SARSAPARILLA, two bottles of which made my scurvy disappear rapidly, and I am now quite well. Yours truly, T. K. BODEN, Trooper, Cape Mounted Riflemen.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the only thoroughly effective blood-purifier, the only medicine that eradicates the poisons of Scrofula, Mercury, and Contagious Diseases from the system.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price 50¢ per bottle, six bottles for $2.50.

Will It Pay? There are some farmers who say, "It will not pay to use Phosphate; it costs too much." Some of these farmers to day after year on almost barren fields, and hardly raise half a crop of anything. Suppose they would buy a ton or two of Baugh's $25 Phosphate every year, and raise on one acre what they now raise on three, and make their poor land good; get plenty of wheat, rye, grass, straw, manure and the most needful of all, money. Will it pay? Of course it will. There is nothing a farmer can buy that will pay him so well for his investment in so short a time as Phosphate. Baugh & Sons, Philadelphia.
