The Governor Appoints a Legal Holiday. HARRISBURG, August 1.—Governor Pattison issued the following proclamation to-night: "I do hereby proclaim the eighth day of August, A. D. 1885, the great soldier and distinguished citizen, whose death the nation mourns, will be laid to rest, it is fitting that the people of the Commonwealth, in his future honor, should pause from their accustomed labor when the sacred and final rites of burial take place. The loss in the death of General Grant will long be fresh in the public mind. His countrymen, to whom his life service was productive of great benefits, will long feel the weight of the general sorrow.

TESTIMONIALS many times are cut from the whole cloth, and for every one voluntarily given in praise of a meritorious article an unscrupulous and dishonest manufacturer can write up a dozen for his worthless product.
