

Mrs. Vanderbilt's "Dummy."

A New York letter relates how Mrs. Vanderbilt is able to see herself, in one respect, at least, as others see her: I came across a Vanderbilt privilege of wealth unexpectedly in the establishment of a tailor for women. A girl stood in the centre of a work room while a male expert fitted a garment to her upper figure. "That is Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt," said one. Nonsense," I ejaculated. "Willie Vanderbilt's wife hasn't red hair, nor a face at all like that." "What I mean, was the explanation, "is that the girl is posing as Mrs. Vanderbilt. The two are exactly the same size and shape. This one is hired to serve in the place of the millionairess in the laborious matter of having costumes fitted. The garment now being taken in, let out and generally adapted is for Mrs. Vanderbilt, who is at her ease in Newport, while the double endures the hour or two of tiresome standing. Mechanical forms are common for that purpose, and most of our rich customers keep them with us, which can change position, walk about, sit down, and in the other ways demonstrate perfectly the effect of the raiment under process of making. Mrs. Vanderbilt will not endure the fatigue of the thing herself, even when in town, and it was her own suggestion that a duplicate of herself be employed. On her order sought and found a perfect counterpart—a girl who was working in a cloak shop connected with our business; and she has served in lieu of Mrs. Vanderbilt for nearly a year. Not only in dimensions is she suited to the requirements, but in movements and carriage she is wonderfully like her employer; and so it is possible for the latter to see herself as others see her—in the matter of dress."

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of teething? If so, send at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Luck and Labor.

If the boy who exclaims "just my luck!" was truthful, he would say "just my laziness!" or "just my inattention." Mr Cobden wrote proverbs about Luck and Labor. It would be well for boys to memorise them:

Luck is waiting for something to turn up.

Labor, with keen eyes and strong will, will turn up something.

Luck lies in bed and wishes the postman would come and bring him the news of a legacy.

Labor turns out at six o'clock, and with busy pen or ringing hammer lays the foundation for competence.

Luck whines.

Labor whistles.

Luck relies on chance.

Labor on character.

Luck slips down to indigence.

Labor strides up to independence.

ATHE'S SARSAPARILLA has demonstrated its power of cure for all diseases of the blood.

The Harpioneer's Story.

New Bedford, June 1, 1882.

Dr. J. C. AYER & Co.—Twenty years ago I was a harpioneer in the North Pacific, when five others of the crew and myself were laid up with scurvy. Our bodies were bloated, gums bled and bleeding, teeth loose, purple blotches all over us, and our breath seemed rotten. "Take it by and large we were pretty badly off. All our lime-juice was accidentally destroyed, but the captain had a couple dozen bottles of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and gave us that. We recovered on it quicker than I have ever seen men brought about by any other treatment for scurvy, and I've seen a good deal of it. Seeing no mention in your Almanac of your Sarsaparilla being good for scurvy, I thought you ought to know of this, and so send you the facts.

Respectfully yours, RALPH Y. WINGATE.

The Trooper's Experience.

Macon, Ga., Oct. 1, 1882.

Dr. J. C. AYER & Co.—Gentlemen: I have much pleasure in testifying to the great value of your Sarsaparilla. We have been stationed here for over two years, during which time we had to live in tents. Being under canvas for such a time brought on what is called in this country "wells-sore." I had these sores for some time. I was advised to take your Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which made my sores disappear rapidly, and I am now quite well.

Yours truly, T. K. BOWEN.

Trooper, Cape Mounted Riflemen.
