DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR STATE TREASURER, CONRAD B. DAY. OF PHILADELPHIA.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

For Jury Commissioner-JOHN ROAN, For Coroner-Dr. H. K. HOY.

DAY's candidacy for the state treasury is a case where the office seeks the man, not the man the office.

THE democratic ticket in Pennsylvania in short is-Conrad B. Day, an honest business man for a position of trust and business.

By getting out a full vote, Pennsylvania's democracy will elect Conrad B. Day, on the 3rd of next month. Bear this in mind, democrats, and work for success.

Onio's state election, on Tuesday of last week, resulted in a republican victory. Judge Foracker was elected governor with a plurality of about 19,000 over Hoadly. Dr. Leonard, the temperance candidate, received about 25,000 votes, which is more than the prohibitionists ever before had in the state. The legislature is republican by a majority of 3 on a joint ballot. The result is no disappointment t odemocrats, as Ohio, tike Pennsylvania, is arepublican state, and the election of a democrat can only be expected under extraordinary circumstances. The constitutional amendment, changing the time for elections from October to November, was carried.

In nearly all elections so far, the de mocracy of this county has proved itself wide awake and willing to do its full duty. We hope it will not be found wanting in this fall's battle, but advance in close ranks and assist in the election of our excellent candidate, Conrad B. Day, by a strong vote: Our state chairma , W. U. Hensel, is confident of success, provided all democrats make it a point to cast their balcast in your community for an honest and unfit political boss.

Against Quay.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16 .- The Republicans and Independents opposed to the election of Colonel M. S. Quay to the office of State Treasurer, have sent out over 5,000 circular letters to Republicans throughout the State. At the headquarters a couple of clerks are engaged in sending out mail matter, and during the next two weeks the gentlemen interested in the movement to defeat Colonel Quay expect to do a great deal of work. Letters are being received from parties expressing sympathy with the efforts that are being made, the writers promising their aid. A circular will be sent out indicating three ways in which to defeat the Republican candidate: 1st, for Republicans to remain away from the polls; 2nd, to vote a blank for the office of State Treasurer; and 3rd, to vote for Conrad B. Day, the Democratic candidate.

The New Tax Law,

The people of Pennsylvania would do well by an early and careful study of the new tax law passed by the recent Legislature and approved on the 30th of June last. It works a radical change in the taxation of personal property, not so much in the fundamental system of taxation as in the stringent methods by which it is administered and enforced.

By the new law all mortgages, monments bearing interest, except notes or bills for work or labor done or obligations given to banks for loans, and all public loans or stocks, except State or National or Building Association, and all money loaned or invested in other States, are now taxable at the rate of three mills on the dollar for State purposes and they are by the same law "exempt from all taxation except for State purposes." This three mill tax covers all bank, saving fund, safe deposit, guarantee and every form of financial stocks. All stages, pay a three mill tax on their value, and all annuities over two hundred dollars, except those granted by the State or National government, pay a like tax. The radical change in the method of enforcing the new tax law consists in requiring every citizen to make return under oath of all mortgages and other investments or incomes made taxable, and in case of refusal to-make return under oath, the assessor is remand, to which estimated return the the prisoner to the penitentiary for six | The best liquor for Medical Use. proper County Commissioners or years.

Boards of Revision shall add fifty per tion." Such return may be corrected from assessments, only by the taxable person presenting good reasons under oath for the failure to make the return.

Our tax system in Pennsylvania has been very loose and inefficient so far as it related to personal property and money at interest, and the result has been that only a very small proportion of the money at interest pay any tax at all. Under the new law there can be no evasion of the lawful tax without absolute perjury, and there is a dangerous as well as disgraceful method of evasion. without a remedial statute. - Times.

NEW YORK, October 17. - Judge Foraker has accepted an invitation by the Republican State committee to stump the State of New York for Dayenport.

Dr, White's New Office.

HARRISBURG, October 16. - The Governor to-day appointed Dr. J. William White Trustee of the Eastern Penitentiary, in place of Mr. Harrison, deceased. A large number of letters had been written to the Governor requesting his appointment.

"John Ploughshare" Against Quay.

Alfred Sharpless, one of the most intelligent Republican of Chester county, widely known by his terse and vigorous writings over the nom de glume of "John Ploughshare," sends the following note to the Local News of West Chester:

Mr. EDITOR-In your edition of the 12th you copy from the Philadelphia Press as an item of news, from a Media correspondant, a communication in which it is stated that the Republicans of the county are "practically united, and a majority of those who have formerly acted with the Independents have declared for the whole ticket." Now, this is not true, and if Mr. Cooper is placing any reliance upon such information he will be badly left. But he is not doing so, for our state ticket and that thousands of earnest Republicans will let it go by default, if they do not lots for Day next Tuesday a week. See and Delaware counties, who have never to it that you and your neighbors are been identified with any Independent movement, have asked me "what shall a reporter in excellent English that he at the polls, and do not rest until you be done with a ticket that is so distaste and his friends had left a more or less ed that a full vote has been ful to our sense of duty, and so injurious to the interests of our party?" My advice has been to go and do what you and upright man and against a corrupt | think is honest and right, let the con sequences be what they may. -Do your own thinking and voting and you will be better satisfied with yourselves if not with the results. It is discouraging that our grand old party with its noble principles should be brought so near to ruin for the sake of keeping a few machine roosters, who can never be satisfied, in fat offices all their days. In the interest of truth and honesty.

> Yours. JOHN PLOUGHSHARE.

BIGLER, Pa., Oct. 15 .- Boon's Mountain has been the scene of a thrilling and fatal hunting adventure. Two young trappers, named Albert Archer and Richard Anson, while on the Clearfield side of the mountain, heard the cry of a panther. Archer went in the direction of the animal, leaving his companion to follow. Reaching a clearing in the forest, Archer came upon the feline. Before he could raise his rifle the cougar pounced upon him and inflicted such terrible injuries with its teeth and claws that, upon the arrival of Anson, Archer was dead. Anson fired several shots at the retreating creature, but none of them took effect. The lumbermen have organized a hunting party, and a rigorous search will be made for the panther.
