VOLUME 60.

The New Year is at hand and the JOURNAL with this its first issue begins the sixtieth year of its existence. The past year, 1885, was an encouraging one to the publisher, because we have won many new friends and have largely increased our subscrip tion list. The job department as well has in the past year been greatly improved and the custom we have received in that branch was actually far beyond our expectations. Urged on by these pleasing results we greet our old and new readers with friendly wishes, at the same time assuring you that we will put forth strenuous efforts to make volume 60 of the JOURNAL as welcome a guest at your homes as it has been before. With these few words and the best wishes for the new year we enter upon another year's work of journalism, and ask the continued patronage of our old patrons and solicit the work and favor of a general public.

ONE of the remarkable features of the New Year, as far as calendar count is cencerned, is that Easter will fall on the 25th of April, the latest date that it may be celebrated at all A fact which has not occurred since 1734 and will not occur again before 1943.

With a Wish for a Successful New Year.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.-President Cleveland contributed $100 to the Grant Monument Fund yesterday. Accompanying the contribution is the hope that the Association will succeed in its object.

One hundred horsemen and two hundred hounds participated in a fox chase in Chester County. Among the riders were two gay and festive old sports aged eighty and eighty-two years respectively.

The lumber trade is assuming such vast proportions in the vicinity of Newton Hamilton that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company cannot furnish a sufficient number of cars to make the necessary shipments.

-In case of hard cold nothing will relieve the breathing so quickly as to rub Arnica & Oil Liniment on the chest.

Bridges Down.

MONTOURSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 5 .-- The water here is 24 feet and rising. A bridge between this place and Williamsport was swept away this morning, and also one located near Muncy Valley. There are great fears of bridges going on the Catawissa branch of the Reading Railroad.

Destruction at Williamsport.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Jan. 5 .-- The river here has reached 54 1-2 feet, the highest since the big flood of 1865, when it was 27 1-2 feet. Several million feet of new logs went down this morning, chiefly owned by Payne & Cochran and Munson & Howard, of this city. The water surrounds the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad station in this city, and the tracks are covered both above and below the station. Almost the entire territory between the canal and the river in this city is submerged, and considerable damage has been done. Three hundred barrels of flour were destroyed at A. Goop's mill.

The Columbia Bicycle Calendar for 1886.

A truly artistic, elegant and con-venient work in chromo-lithography and the letter press is the ColumLia Bi cycle Calendar for 1886, just issued by the Pope Manufacturing Company, of Boston. Each day of the year appears upon a seperate slip, with a quotation pertaining to cycling from leading publications and prominent writers on both sides of the ocean. The notable cycling events are mentioned; the concise opinions of the highest medical authorities; words from practical wheelmen, including those of clergy-men and other professional gentlemen; the rights of cyclers upon the roads general wheeling statistics; the benefit of tricycling for ladies ; extracts from cycling poems; and much other matter interesting to the public in general, and the cycler in particular, appear from dayto day. In fact, into a little measure is crowded in a highly attractive way the past, present and future of cycling-a virtual encyclopædia upon this universally utilized steed of steel." The calendar proper is mounted upon a back of heavy board, upon which is exquisitely executed, in water-color effect, Gov. HILL, of New York, was inaugurated last Friday with appropriate ceremonies. About 2.500 men were in line of the procession attending the occasion. The popular governor in his inaugural address said he assumed the office untrammeled by a single promise inconsistent with the welfare of the office. In further remarks he said : I reiterate the sentiment and join in the declaration to the people of the State in behalf of administrative reform. Similar to that which was expressed years ago by Samuel J. Tilden to the people of the city of New York in respect to municipal reform : "In your cause I will follow where any shall dare to lead, or lead where any shall dare to follow.

ABOUT 6000 people shook hands with President Cleveland on New Year's day during the public reception: State, Civic, Military and Foreign dignitaries exchanged greetings of the day with the distinguished executive, and while these pleasant cere . monies were in progress, an immense crowd of citizens, amounting to thousands, stood in waiting on the avenue in front of the White House, until their time came to grasp the hand of Grover Cleveland with good wishes for 1886.

THERE will be a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee. at the Bolton House, in the city of Harrisburg, Pa:, at 4. o'clock P. M. on Wednesday, January 20th, 1886, to select a Chairman and Permanent Secretery, and seven members as the State Executive Committee; and to transact such other business as the Committee may determine.

W. U. HENSEL, Chairman.

GOVERNOR FITZHUGH LEE was inducted into office at noon on the first of January in the presence of the general Assembly of Virginia. At the opening of the inaugural ceremonies great enthusiasm was manifested. The oath of office was administered by Hon. L. L. Lewis, President of the Supreme Court. It was a bright day for democratic governors.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN.-W. H. McNeill, the president of the Lancaster National Bank at Clinton, Mass. absconded about the 29th of December and has not been heard from since. It is thought that he got away with about $125,000. Another emigrant to Canada.

Powerful influences, consisting of bankers of Pittsburg, Baltimore, New York and this city, are being brought to bear to accomplish such legislation.

-MUST Go. The horrible nauseous worm-seed compounds called yermiuges and worm syrups, many of them as worthless as they are obnoxious, have hah their day. It's downright cruelty to compel a child to take them, when Mc Donald's Celebrated Worm Powders, so easy and pleasant to take that children will take them and never know medicine is being administered, can be procured for the small sum of twenty-five cents. Any case of failure to cause expulsion where worms exist, the money promptly refunded. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO.,
