—A number of our citizens were to Bellefonte last week "courting." —A few Millheimers were to the Madisonburg concert last Saturday.

—Some of our teachers publish their monthly school reports in this issue. —Two Splendid Show Cases for sale, cheap. Inquire at the Journal Store.

—Wilkesbarre and Williamsport were recently connected by telephone. —Fresh Bolognas, Oysters and Oranges just received at Kauffman's store.

—Mr. David Ruhl and wife of Hartleton, spent Sunday with their friends in town. —We think Millheim will enjoy a building boom this coming spring and summer.

—Rev. M. L. Deitzler is holding protracted services in the St. Paul church down the valley. —Two school houses in Green township, Clinton county, are reported to have been destroyed by fire.

—Go and hear the debate on "Art and Nature" at the meeting of the Literary Society this evening. —Skating rinks are fast going out of date and are generally being converted into opera houses and town halls.

—The revival services in the Methodist church by Rev. Heckman have so far proven interesting and successful. Several seekers have come to the altar. The services will continue during this week.

—"Quincy troubled me for twenty years. Since I started using Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, I have not had an attack. The Oil cures sore throat at once." Mrs. Letta Conrad, Standish, Mich.

—The colored glass memorial windows of the new Evangelical church have arrived and most of them have been put in place. They are beautiful and their tasteful tints greatly adorn the church.

—The Overseers of the Poor of Millheim Borough desire to place a boy, about 15 years of age, strong and healthy, into the care of a reliable man. For further information address Jonathan Harter, Millheim, Pa.

PUBLIC SALE.—Mr. David Shafer, of Madisonburg will sell at public sale on Thursday, March the 18th, on his premises, Six valuable Horses, Twelve head of Cattle, Fourteen large Hogs, Seven Shoats, and a lot of farm implements.

WHAT ARE YOUR SYMPTOMS, SUFFERER?—Are they a furred tongue, headache, oppression after eating, constipation? If so, you are dyspeptic and bilious, and nothing will meet your case so efficiently as Simmons' Liver Regulator.

—Last Sunday evening, after the services in the St. Paul church, Mr. J. C. Motz and lady got into their sleigh to return home, but they had hardly started when they struck a snow bank and were upset. Fortunately neither of them were hurt.

—Dr. Frank, of Rebersburg, moved to town on Tuesday. His fitting arrival on Monday. The doctor proposes to get down to business at once and will cheerfully answer all medical calls. Office and residence on Penn street, two doors north of the Journal building.

—Mr. B. F. Bierly, of Monticello, Ind., who has been on a visit to his parents in Brushvalley for the last five weeks, was a caller at the Journal office last Monday. He expects to return to his western home next Monday and ordered the JOURNAL to be sent ahead.

—By the sudden death of Mr. Bilger, who was associated with Mr. Philip Stover in the publication of the Havana Republican, N. Y., Mr. Stover is left in sole charge of said paper, which is rather a heavy responsibility for the gentleman, he being an entire stranger in that community.

—Coburn will have a musical convention next week under the direction of Jos. Kleckner and Lowell Meyer. A strong musical team and a genial pair of conductors. It will be a jolly week for Coburn and the valley will fairly ring with the echoes of song. It will commence on Tuesday evening and close on Saturday following with a first class concert.

—The people of Spring Mills are anxiously looking forward to the coming concert, next Saturday evening, Jan 30th. The singing class, under the direction of Prof. P. H. Meyer, will render Vocal and Instrumental Choruses, Duets, Songs, Anthems, &c. All should go and hear the concert and thus be assured that the term of the class was a great musical success. Admission 15 and 20 cents.

—Editor Moore, of the Williamsport Breakfast Table, was arrested again on a charge of libel last Monday. The prosecutor is Lewis Miller, whose sister, a Russian Jewess, died a few days ago. Rumors of an unnatural death were printed in that paper, as well as in others published in the neighborhood, but Moore of the Breakfast Table seems to be the victim of the Jew's wrath.

—Our Coburn correspondent sends us a real graphic description of that little town this week, and we poor Millheimers feel kind of small when reading of its growth and advantages. We congratulate Coburn's citizens on their enterprising and plucky spirit, but will strive with all our might to get nearer and nearer to them from year to year until we can join hands with sister Coburn and say "We are one." See?

—The following from last Friday's Sunbury Democrat will be an interesting item of news to many of our readers who are personal friends of the gentleman named: SILVER WEDDING.—Rev. S. G. Shannon, pastor of the Lutheran congregation, of this place, has invited the entire congregation to participate in holding the 25th anniversary of his wedding, which will take place on Monday next.

—L. E. Frain's birthday party last Thursday evening was an affair of genuine enjoyment and mirth for the many young folks who were in attendance. Mr. Frain, Jr. was the recipient of many valuable and useful gifts, while his parents regaled the assembly of fair maidens and gallant lads with a sumptuous repast later in the evening, to which full justice was done. It was a bright anniversary for Lewis.

—The entertainment of the Swiss Bell Ringers on Friday evening was well attended, but on Saturday a very small house witnessed their excellent performances. The troupe is composed of eight persons, all of whom bear the stamp of refinement and genius. Many of those who had been to their entertainment pronounced it the best that had been given in Millheim for many years.

—Mr. Herman Withauer, of Panora, Iowa, one of the JOURNAL's oldest subscribers, writes us a letter, which for want of space we are unable to publish as a whole. He states that winter struck Guthrie county in earnest on the 2nd of January, when the weather became very cold, the mercury falling to 30 degrees below zero. As the people were hardly prepared for such a severe spell, they suffered awfully from the cold. Since that time it has kept on snowing almost continually and everything is snow-bound.

—Mr. C. K. Sober, of Sober's P. O., dropped into our sanctum the other day and surprised us with another specimen of his ingenuity and artistic skill. It was a finely mounted head of a deer, which our townsman, Mr. D. A. Musser, killed on his late hunt in Virginia. Mr. Sober did the work of stuffing the head with such accuracy and neatness that not a single feature of the deer's natural look was lost. It is now one of Mr. Musser's most valuable parlor ornaments.

—The following persons from this valley will "pull stakes" and go West in the earlier part of March: A. J. Grove and family, Miss Salina Gephart, and Mr. J. W. Adams, all of Millheim; J. A. Grove and family, J. A. Reesman E. Tressler, C. Dinges, of Centre Hall, and C. E. Kuarr, of Centre Hill. This party expect to locate at Larned, Pawnee Co., Kansas and have already secured reduced rates on their tickets. Persons wishing to emigrate to Kansas this spring would do well to apply to Mr. A. J. Grove, of Millheim, as a larger number of passengers will be able to get still lower rates of transportation.

—Ayer's Sarsaparilla, being highly concentrated, requires a smaller dose, and is more effective dose for dose, than any other blood medicine. It is the cheapest, because the best. Quality and not quantity should be considered.

FOR THE JOURNAL. MR. EDITOR:—The musical convention at Madisonburg, under the supervision of the Reformed, Evangelical and Lutheran congregations, jointly, was in every way a grand success. At the organization on Monday evening there were 58 singers present, which number increased daily and till Friday evening had reached a total of 98. Many singers from neighboring towns and valleys were present.

Neighboring News. SMITH TOWN. Miss Vonada, who had been staying at Henry Keen's during the summer and this winter has changed places and is now with F. P. Duck's.

—Mr. John Fisher, of Boalsburg, son of Dr. Fisher, was visiting in town a few days last week. —Mr. Luther Musser, who is possessed of wonderful musical talents, was in attendance at Aaronsburg and Madisonburg conventions. Luther is sure to make his mark yet.

—Chas. Fisher and Cal. Moyer were to the Freeburg convention last week, and report a glorious time. —On Tuesday last some of our sports accompanied by their lady friends, took a round trip via Millheim, Spring Bank, Madisonburg, and returned quite late in the evening, with bruises, broken sleighs &c., but no one seriously injured. Boys, be more careful the next time.

—Quite a number of our young folks took in the concert at Madisonburg on Saturday evening, and all seemed well pleased with the rich treat of music they enjoyed. JACK PLANE. Rebersburg and Vicinity. The weather is moderating. Surprise parties hailing from Sugar Valley are all the go.

—A good serenading is awaiting the young shoemaker from Woodward. So say the boys who expect to have a jolly time of it. —For the life of us we could not guess the cause of that broad smile which spread over the face of J. C. Gephart the other day. Later on we heard the story but do not remember whether it is a girl or a boy. —Farmers, beware of dead beats and sharpers, for such are about here. —George Wate and several of his comrades will ere long pack their trunks and leave for Nebraska, where they are bound to make a fortune. —Robt. Diehl was quite unfortunate while cutting wood. His axe slipped and cut a deep gash in his foot. —Jno. Spangler bought the old Spangler farm for $7000. He is making preparations to erect a large manure shed. —Rev. Dotterer, to whom the Reformed charge of this valley has been tendered, arrived with his family and household goods last week. —That joke of Wm. G., of Pine Creek, took first-rate around here. It's so "Billy," they make the postal cards no longer. —Thos. Bierly is at present over in Sugar Valley to see the agent of S. S. Good, of Lock Haven, about renting the farm and dairy, owned by that gentleman. —A barber has made his appearance in this town and does business at the hotel. Something very much needed in our burg. —Isaac Gramley, formerly of this valley, but now residing in Cincinnati, Ohio, is at present here visiting his father, Mr. Philip Gramley. Isaac looks hale and hearty. SQUBOS.

COBURN. ITS HISTORY, GROWTH AND MANY NATURAL ADVANTAGES. Back in the early days, some nine years ago, when the ship of enterprise was just endeavoring to push its prow up through the mountains into the fertile valley of Penns, and brawny workmen were spiking down the rails of the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad, where now stands the beautiful little city of Coburn, all was a lifeless waste of earth, with the exception of a saw mill or two, whose humming sound would be heard to echo back over the hills into Penns Valley, and a little old log cabin dotted here and there along the bluffs of the mountain, was all that was to mark the signs of civilization, along the pure cold waters of Penns Creek that flowed through the walls of the Seven Mountains. The country was not wild or hostile, but the natives chased the fox and the deer over the ground where prospers and magnificence stands in the most beautiful stand. Landlords, grain merchants, railroad agents and storekeepers were about as scarce as they are in the promised land—scarcely nine years ago. But when the old iron horse first found a watering place at the forks of this beautiful river, the hammer and the axe was heard on all sides, and soon houses, workshops, stores and warehouses were springing into view which marked the enterprise and thrift which was at once prominent, and of which the place has always retained. And to-day Coburn stands at the head of all competing towns as a railroad town and a place of business and enterprise.

It enjoys a population of some 250 souls, engaged in all the different vocations of a good country town; it has a fine and healthful climate, and enjoys a sweet fragrant air from the mountains; a constant supply of good fresh water, a good school system, and fine worshiping advantages. To be continued in our next.

Prof. C. L. Gramley and lady, of Rebersburg, tarried over Sunday in Coburn, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vonada. —Mr. Sam. Ard was down to Snyder county last week, and brought with him one of the finest ponies to be had in that county. Sam. really feels proud behind his gay stepper. —Mrs. Jacob Whitmyer is lying very low with that much dreaded disease—consumption. She has made her peace and seems resigned to bow to the inevitable. —Mr. Katherman, station agent at Centre Hall, and family, and Miss Lizzie Katherman, of Millinburg, were guests of Wm. Kreamer's over Sunday.

The Lutheran prayer meeting was crowned with good success. —The Coburnites, who attended the entertainment of the Bell Ringers last Friday evening, were well satisfied with what they had heard and seen. —For the particulars of the trip up the creek last Wednesday eve, ask somebody "what knows?" —Prof. Auman, of Spring Mills, will organize a class in short hand writing in the schoolhouse this (Thursday) evening. —Monroe Kreamer, the boss carpenter from Aaronsburg, who has built himself a new house at this place, moved his family here a few days ago and has become one of our permanent citizens. He lives on Water street. —Station agent Kreamer and lady were to Bellefonte on Monday and returned with the corporation charter of the Lutheran church. —Wm. Harter, son-in-law of Mr. C. Alexander, drove to Centre Hall last Sunday and when he had taken the harness from the horse the animal ran out of the stable and directly home, leaving Mr. H. and his lady to await the coming of another conveyance.

DAMFINO. PENN HALL. Mr. John Fisher, of Boalsburg, son of Dr. Fisher, was visiting in town a few days last week. —Mr. Luther Musser, who is possessed of wonderful musical talents, was in attendance at Aaronsburg and Madisonburg conventions. Luther is sure to make his mark yet. —Chas. Fisher and Cal. Moyer were to the Freeburg convention last week, and report a glorious time. —On Tuesday last some of our sports accompanied by their lady friends, took a round trip via Millheim, Spring Bank, Madisonburg, and returned quite late in the evening, with bruises, broken sleighs &c., but no one seriously injured. Boys, be more careful the next time. —Quite a number of our young folks took in the concert at Madisonburg on Saturday evening, and all seemed well pleased with the rich treat of music they enjoyed. JACK PLANE. Rebersburg and Vicinity. The weather is moderating. Surprise parties hailing from Sugar Valley are all the go.

A good serenading is awaiting the young shoemaker from Woodward. So say the boys who expect to have a jolly time of it. —For the life of us we could not guess the cause of that broad smile which spread over the face of J. C. Gephart the other day. Later on we heard the story but do not remember whether it is a girl or a boy. —Farmers, beware of dead beats and sharpers, for such are about here. —George Wate and several of his comrades will ere long pack their trunks and leave for Nebraska, where they are bound to make a fortune. —Robt. Diehl was quite unfortunate while cutting wood. His axe slipped and cut a deep gash in his foot. —Jno. Spangler bought the old Spangler farm for $7000. He is making preparations to erect a large manure shed. —Rev. Dotterer, to whom the Reformed charge of this valley has been tendered, arrived with his family and household goods last week. —That joke of Wm. G., of Pine Creek, took first-rate around here. It's so "Billy," they make the postal cards no longer. —Thos. Bierly is at present over in Sugar Valley to see the agent of S. S. Good, of Lock Haven, about renting the farm and dairy, owned by that gentleman. —A barber has made his appearance in this town and does business at the hotel. Something very much needed in our burg. —Isaac Gramley, formerly of this valley, but now residing in Cincinnati, Ohio, is at present here visiting his father, Mr. Philip Gramley. Isaac looks hale and hearty. SQUBOS.

WOODWARD. Samuel Williams purchased a lot of Aaron Stover on which he will erect a dwelling house during the summer. —C. W. Hosterman is disposing of large quantities of lumber to parties from Snyder county. —Capt. VanValin has rented at Coburn, and will move to that place on the first of April. —Some talk of Luther Kreamer removing to his farm in the spring. Too much excitement in town life for Luther. —I would suggest a support of some kind to that porch, Captain. —One house still vacant. Does no one want to rent? —On Friday there was registered—I should say observable, (for our hotel has no register, unless the one used for heating purposes) two gentlemen from Ohio, Patentees of the celebrated "Hydrotic Cider Press." J. C. Motz, Esq., secured the right to manufacture the presses East of the Alleghenies. Score another new enterprise for Woodward. —One day last week a Romeo, whose Juliet proved faithless, partook of our village hospitalities,—sumptuously so of the ardent. If with the New Year he had formed any good resolutions, they were not proof against a brief sojourn among us. —The eccentric crank held forth one night last week. "That the gift, some power would give us, to see ourselves, as others see us." ARGENTIS.

MADISONBURG. Convention is over and every person feels satisfied. It was a complete success and we all had a good time. —Peter Yearick sold a horse the other day for $200. —Landlord Bartges expects to move back to Sugar Valley in the spring. —Mr. Beck will move his family to town as soon as he can get a house. —Albert Kliefel is driving team for Mr. Moyer at Centre Mills. —Miss Annie O. does all kinds of house work by Snyder county rule. —David Bartges sold a horse to a drover the other day. —Mrs. Lizzie Brown, of Bellefonte, is paying her parents at this place a visit. —Charley Grimm sold the ponies to a man in Lock Haven. STILL.

From Pole to Pole AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has demonstrated its power to cure for all diseases of the blood. The Harpooner's Story. New Bedford, June 1, 1883. Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co.—Twenty years ago I was a harpooner in the North Pacific, when I met others of the crew and myself were laid up with scurvy. Our bodies were bloated, gums swollen and bleeding, teeth loose, purpura blotches all over us, and our breath seemed rotten. I tried all sorts of large and were pretty badly off. All our remedies were accidentally destroyed, but the captain had a couple dozen bottles of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA and gave us that. We recovered and our health seemed better. I have ever since been benefited by any other treatment for Scurvy, and I've seen a good deal of it. Being so much used to your Sarsaparilla being good for Scurvy, I thought you ought to know of this, and so send you the facts. Respectfully yours, RALPH T. WRIGHT.

The Trooper's Experience. Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co.—Gentlemen: I have much pleasure to testify to the great value of your Sarsaparilla. We have been stationed here for over two years, during which time we had to live in tents. Being under canvas for such a time brought on what is called in this country "veldt-sore." I had those sores for some time. I was advised to take your Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which made my sores disappear rapidly, and I am now quite well. Yours truly, Trooper, Cape Mounted Riflemen.
