Mr. Stoyer had the misfortune to have his arm broken by the fall. Mr. Fiedler fell on his head, the crown of his hat receiving a cut of about four inches, but strange to say he escaped without bodily injury. —Our merchants should put their foot down on loading of little boys in their stores in the evening. In most instances they prove more or less of a nuisance in crowding the counters and passages and an annoyance to purchasers and salesmen, and in all cases a store is the wrong place for our small boys. They become listeners to conversations which are not at all for their ears and often witness things that are of no earthly help to their moral well fare. —Then let parents and guardians cooperate with the merchants in their efforts to stop this bad habit of loading by keeping their boys at home, make the evening pleasant and interesting to them and induce them to spend their time profitably, instead of idling hours away at the stores and street corners and drink in the unhealthy influence of common clash.

—Dedication and Conference. —Both the ladies and gentlemen of the Evangelical congregation of this place have a busy time of it this week, preparing for the dedication next Sunday. The choir is practicing appropriate music for the occasion, and the church interior receives final improving touches, such as laying carpets, cleaning, etc. But everything will be completed and in first-class trim by Saturday. —The dedication of the new St. Luke Evangelical church of Millheim will take place next Sunday, Feb. 28th. Bishop Dubbs, D. D., of Cleveland, Ohio, will be present and will conduct the services, assisted by different clergymen from the conference district. MUSICAL COLLEGE.—The 28th Session of Six Weeks opens Monday evening, April 26th, 1886, for the Teaching and Training of Young Ladies in Vocal and Instrumental Music. Address, F. C. Moyer, Musical Director, Freeburg, Pa. ROLLER FLOUR FOR SALE.—The undersigned will in the future keep on hand a supply of the Oriental Roller Flour, manufactured by Messrs. Kurtz & Son, Centre Hall. Having added another capacity to their mill, they are now able to put before the public a more superior quality of flour than is offered anywhere in the county. A. J. HARTER.

—There is the very best prospect that next week's conference of the Evangelical church will be well attended and will prove a very interesting session. All those who contemplate being in town during the conference are requested to call at D. S. Kauffman & Co's store on Main street, where you may find the fullest stock of general merchandise in town. Prices to suit the times. Neighboring News. SMITH TOWN. The vendue boom has commenced and our folks are taking them all in. Henry Keen has rebuilt his smoke-house and has it again filled with pork. Mrs. John Harshbarger, who has been confined all winter, was out on Monday and Tuesday, and fresh air seems to agree right well with her. John Kimpfort is hauling material for a new house to be erected the coming summer. Frank Weiser, Aaronsburg's blacksmith was in our town last week on important business. Mrs. Anna Frank, of Millheim, is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Duck, this week. The latter is slowly improving from her illness. On Monday when Jerry Kern watered Al. Keen's horses, one of them kicked at him, but fortunately both hind feet passed his head, only scraping a little on each side. A narrow escape indeed. Several persons from this place contemplate going West next week. Charles Frankenberger is on the sick list. Smith Town was beaten this time at Tuesday's sham court. But we are not discouraged. JUMBO. AARONSBURG. Don't you want to buy a dog? There are a few converts here to the prohibition party, the result of the recent temperance lecture in Millheim. Chas. H. Stover dressed and shipped a calf four weeks old that weighed 140 pounds. Let's hear from you, boys. Rev. Hassel preached his farewell sermon in the Evangelical church on last Sabbath. A surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Kurtz and family by a number of their neighbors and friends on last Friday evening. Pleasant conversation, ice cream, cake and music was the programme for the evening. "Yesterday [Sunday 21st] you were 56 years old—to day [the 22nd] 34 years ago, you were married." Such was the unlooked for intelligence brought to Jessie Wate on the day of the above last named date by his children and grandchildren. Some very nice presents were left for the parents by their children. R. V. and Mrs. Deitzler accompanied by their guest Rev. Diven were invited to take dinner with the family. On last Saturday morning while Alfred Kreamer, living on J. G. Meyer's farm below town, was engaged in some work the open end of the barn floor, one of the large gates came flying to with fearful force, hit Mr. Kreamer and pitched him across the floor against a threshing machine. He was found in an unconscious condition. In the forenoon of the same day, while Albert Stambach was attending to his mules and horses in his father's, the Rev. Stambach's barn, one of the mules kicked Albert on the left limb, immediately below the hip. After an examination it was found that the limb was broken. Their family physician being out of town, Dr. Stam was called to dress and set the limb. No doubt the officiating clergyman has already sent the announcement to the JOURNAL of the marriage of Mr. Turb Kreamer, of Millheim, to Miss Phoebe Stoyer, of North St., Aaronsburg. The same took place at the Lutheran parsonage on last Sunday evening. ANOTHER. Rebersburg and Vicinity. The citizens of Rebersburg and neighborhood talk about building a town hall. Certainly very much needed here. Harvey Corman sold his home to Reuben Gramley. Harvey will this spring turn his face westward, intending to locate somewhere in Kansas. Several capitalists of Lock Haven will commence prospecting for coal on the farm of John Hubler, near Rebersburg, next week. They are positive that coal can be found there. Thos. Morris is our champion coon hunter. Last week he killed twelve raccoons in three days. Who can beat that? Last week while several gents from Madisonburg were in town attending election, they stopped at the hotel for dinner. Our wide-awake landlord, being aware of the fact that farmers as a rule have good appetites, he loaded his table with the best the market would afford. The "roasted beef" as they called it, stood no chance at all and was enjoyed with undeniable delight. Those who were in possession of the comical facts were full of merriment with the joke and finally the landlord had to succumb to the general chuckling and laughter and give the thing away. It was "roasted goose" instead of beef. William Heckman bought a house of Samuel Condo for $675. William believes in having the cage before the bird is caught. Geo. Guistwite is making preparations to build a new house on the timber land which he lately purchased of Daniel Royer. The JOURNAL is a welcome visitor around here and is read by nearly every family. Those who are not subscribers, manage to borrow it somehow. [Pie, ye mercenary mortals! Ed.] Miss Laura Royer, who had been seriously ill, we are glad to state, is slowly recovering. Sqrnon.

COBURN. Mr. A. M. Greeninger has sold his stock of dry goods and groceries, and rented his store room to Messrs Durham Bros & Co., of Watsonstown, who will move here the first of March and open up. Mr. John Gingerich, one of our first-class citizens, is going to move his family to Jersey Shore in a few days. Sorry to lose you, John. We understand that Mr. Henry Whitmer has purchased a lot just north of the bridge, and intends erecting a large implement and hardware store soon. It is a capital idea, and we are satisfied that Mr. Whitmer will make a success of his enterprise. VanPelt & Shoop of Centre Hall shipped a car load of Champion rappers and binders to this place this week, and they are all sold, too. Miss Regina and Sam'l and Emory Gettlig, of Tusseyville, are visiting with their cousins, "Squire Gettlig's" family this week. Rubie Bracht, one of our young men, intends moving to the land of the "Setting Sun" next week. His absence will be muchly mourned by one of Coburn's fair maids. Rubie give us a title. "Squire Gettlig intends moving his family to Spring Mills in the spring and take charge of I. J. Grenoble's store at that place. The Spring Mills will find the "Squire a first-class business man. Mrs. R. F. Vonada is visiting in Rebersburg this week. Andy Campbell had an agreeable trip to Flat Rock during the week. We really did envy you your trip, Andy. DAMFINO. BELATED ELECTION RETURNS. —Haines township elected the following: Collector of Taxes, Michael Fiedler; Supervisors of Roads, Geo. B. Stover, Henry Behm; School Directors, A. F. Kreamer, G. W. Kister; Overseers of the Poor, John Bower, Michael F. Hess; Assessor, W. E. Keen; Asst. Assessors, Adam Bartgos, Noah Weaver; Auditor, P. T. Musser; Township Clerk, Benj. Hasley; Constable, H. J. Cudge. West Precinct.—Judge of Election, Aaron Weaver; Inspectors, Charles Bower, Zakariah Thomas; Registration Assessor, Willis Musser. East Precinct.—Judge of Elections, T. W. Hosterman; Inspectors, R. E. Stover, Howard Musser.
