THE RAILROAD STRIKE on the Gould lines has at last come to a close. A conference held by Jay Gould and the labor unions, after some wrangling about a few technicalities has resulted in an understanding between the two opposing parties and orders were issued to immediately resume work and traffic on the southwestern railroads. This is an exceedingly happy termination of the trouble and the country can congratulate itself that the end of this serious agitation came in as peaceful a manner. Thousands of people had been affected directly and indirectly by this wide-spread strike and the probability of a satisfactory solution reach. The progress of the strike, which seemed to grow in dimentions from day to day, was anxiously watched by the whole American people, and the country almost held its breath in fearful expectation of possible riots and bloodshed. By a few hours of cool and collected argument this much-dreaded calamity was averted and peace and good-will again reign supreme.

NEW Post Offices are being estab. lished throughout the country and in naming the same, the President, Cabinet officers and prominent congressmen of democratic faith are being remembered. Maryland has a Gorman, New Jersey a McClellan, two of Pennsylvania's new post-offices are styled after Piollet and Hay, there is a Flowers in New York, Nebraska has an office called Manning, and West Virginia one named Cleveland.

A COMPANY with a capital of $20, 000 has been formed in Philadelphia, which purposes printing a prohibition paper during the coming campaign. It will be the state organ of the Prohibition party and we presume one of its missions will be to treat the two old parties to a good dose of water through its editorials.

MR. MANNING'S CONDITION No Change for the Worse and His Friends Taking Hope.

The condition of Secretary Manning has not materially changed since yesterday. If anything, his physicians say, he is slightly better, though they still concede the extreme gravity of his case. They have at no time been very explicit regarding his condition and this has added to the apprehension as to the probability of his recovery. But the longer he continues without mater. tiful present with each paper. MUNial change for the worse or a reccurrence of the attack the greater his chances for getting well, and this encourages new hope on the part of his

His condition is watched with the deepest solicitude and his physicians and attendants are besought hourly for information. His physicians say it will be several days before the crisis is passed, and until this time the public information in detail call on your Local concern will be unabated.

The Desperate But Unsuccessful Expedient of the Belgian Rioters-The End Coming.

Brussels, March 28. There has been further rioting in Charleroi, resulting in the killing of several persons and the wounding of many others. The rioters at Jumet, upon the approach of the troops sent to disperse them, placed two hundred women in the front ranks. The troops opened fire and many of the women were wounded. The strike is extending to Namur. Additional troops have been called from Brussels to quell the Strikes are threatened at Flenu and Quaregaon and troops have been sent to those places. It is asserted that Germans organized the present labor movement.

-Now that sudden and violent changes of weather occur every twenty four hours, almost everyone has a troublesome cold, which, if neglected, may produce results that may trouble you for the remainder of your life. Dr. Kessler's Celebrated English Cough Medicine is especially deserving praise in this class of complaints. It never of this problem seemed almost out of fails! It never disappoints! Instructions for treatment of croup and whooping-cough also accompany each bottle. Every family, especially where there is children, should have a bottle. ## He Drank and Died.

SHARON, Pa., March 25.-James Ewing, a resident of Jamestown, this county, has been arrested on a charge of involuntary manslaughter, and will have a hearing at a coming session of the County Court. The circumstances are as follows: Last week while on a visit to Meadville, Ewing purchased a gallon jug of whiskey, which he brought home with him. He met an acquaintance, Daniel Blue, and with him proceeded to diminish the quantity as fast as possible. It is said that Blue drank at least three quarts of the liquor, and died from the effects of the lose in less than two hours. No attention was paid to the matter by the authorities until Wednesday, when Ewing was arrested, charged with furnishing the liquor which caused his companion's death. The dead man leaves a wife and family in extremely destitute circumstances. The neighbors are assisting them as much as possible.

The sew Bedford, June 1, 1883.

In Jac crew and myself were haid up with was a Dur bodies were bloated, gums aw often othereding, teeth loose, purple blotches all 5% is, and our breath seemed rotten. Take it and large we were pretty badly off. All our time-juice was accidentally destroyed, but the captain had a couple dozen bottles of AyEn's SARSAPARILLA and gave us that. We recovered on it quicker than I have ever seen men brought about by any other treatment for Scurvy, and I've seen a good deal of it. Seeing no mention in your Almanae of your Sarsaparilla being good for scurvy, I thought you ought to know of this, and so send you the facts.

Respectfully yours, RALPH Y. WINGATE. The Trooper's Experience. The Trooper's Experience.

Masven, Basutoland (S. Africa,) March7, 1883.

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co.—Gentlemen: I have much pleasure to testify to the great value of your Sarsaparilla. We have been stationed here for over two years, during which time we had to live in tents. Being under canvas for such a time brought on what is called in this country "veldt-sores," I had those sores for some time. I was advised to take your Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which made my sores disappear rapidly, and I am now quite w.ll.

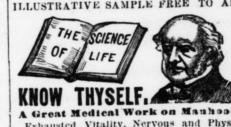

Yours truly,

T. K. Boden.
