—The festive spring bonnets perched upon the heads of the ladies, are making their appearance and are duly admired and—criticized.

—The veterans of this place will meet to-morrow evening for the purpose of organizing the G. A. R. post, spoken of in our last issue.

—D. A. Musser and wife, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. Walter, took a short trip to Bellefonte on Tuesday, returning yesterday morning.

—“A stitch in time” often saves consumption. Down's Elixir used in time saves life. For sale by J. Spigelmyer and D. S. Kauffman & Co.

—Mr. Charles Wetzel, who during the winter held a position in Musser & Smith's hardware store, has retired from said place and left town week before last.

—If you want to know where goods can be bought to best advantage, consult the advertising and local columns of your home newspaper and you will never go amiss.

—Bad drainage causes much sickness. Bad blood and improper action of the liver and kidneys is bad drainage to the human system, which Burdock Blood Bitters will remedy.

—Robinson's building of the little Wooden Church in the Methodist auditorium on last Friday evening was an interesting entertainment and was enjoyed by a fair-sized audience.

—A gentleman of the Hebrew persuasion holds forth at present in part of Mr. Jacob Sankey's property on Main street, with a dry goods store. A red flag designates his place of business.

—M. L. Blair, Alderman 5th Ward, Scranton, Pa., stated Nov. 9, '83: He had used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for sprains, burns, cuts, bruises and rheumatism. Cured every time.

—Just received several new patterns of Sunbury prison-made rag carpets, as well as new Brussels carpet. They are regular beauties and sold at popular prices. D. S. KAUFFMAN & CO.

—Our skillful marble cutter, Mr. A. C. Musser, can cut a straight line and with a much brighter eye since the arrival of that pretty little girl at his house last week. All parties doing well.

—Costiveness is the primary cause of much disease. Dr. Henry Baxter's Mandrake Bitters will permanently cure costiveness. Every bottle warranted. Sold by J. Spigelmyer and D. S. Kauffman & Co.

—Quite a number of new fences have been going up on the Water street premises lately. The property holders on that street think it soon time for the town council to pay some attention to road improvements in their district.

—The care, precision, neatness and perfection exhibited by the very appearance of Simmons Liver Regulator proves that it is the best prepared medicine in the market, fully carrying out the motto: “Parissima et Optima,” (purest and best.)

—If you are in need of anything in the line of Spring Millinery Goods, be it a ribbon or a full-trimmed hat or bonnet, go to Mrs. Anna M. Weaver's place on Penn street, where you will find a complete and well-selected stock and the latest styles.

—In Henry & Johnson's Arnica and Oil Liniment is combined the curative properties of the different oils, with the healing qualities of Arnica. Good for man and animal. Every bottle guaranteed. For sale by J. Spigelmyer and D. S. Kauffman & Co.

—Mr. Elias Lose, of Penn street, did a good deed in reconstructing and raising the stone crossing, which connects the sidewalk with that of Mrs. Weaver's. The crossing had been about 6 inches too low and was a treacherous place to pass over on dark nights.

—Hartman's foundry have in employ that splendid mechanic, Mr. Henry Snyder, and the blacksmith work consequently moves right along now. Several necessary repairs were also made on the foundry building last week and they are making ready for a brisk summer trade.

—The only reliable catarrh remedy on the market to-day is Ely's Cream Balm, being free from poisonous drugs and other offensive odors. It has cured thousands of acute and chronic cases when all other remedies have failed. It quickly cures cold in the head and catarrhal headache. Price 50 cents. 17-4t.

—Only three licenses were granted by Judge Furst on this side of the mountain, viz: At Centre Hall, Old Fort and Spring Mills. Millheim, Coburn, Rebersburg, Aaronsburg were cut off and the fellows who are in the habit of indulging must patronize the western part of Pennsylvania or think of “sour grapes.”

—There are excellent prospects that a six mile railroad will be built this summer from Bear Meadows to Oak Hall. A capitalist from New York city has been examining the lumber interests of that vicinity with the object of making a large purchase and if the purchase is completed the railroad will be built. —Bellefonte Daily News.

—Mrs. E. J. Brumgard, one of our enterprising milliners, left for the eastern cities on Monday, to purchase a fine stock of Spring Goods. As usual, she will upon her return astonish the ladies by her elegant selections and it will be to their interest to call on her early and get the best choice. Place of business, Wilt's brick house on Main street.

—When Dr. Stam gets through with the improvements on his premises on Penn street, he will have a real attractive and pleasant home. This week he had men at whitewashing all his out-buildings, the carpenters are enclosing the yard with a neat picket fence, and the tinner put on new spouting. The old, dilapidated look has entirely departed from the property.

—By some oversight we failed to mention in last week's paper that Mr. S. W. Smith, of Centre Hall, was a caller at this office and presented the writer with a sample box of Dr. Smith's celebrated save-of-which he is the manufacturer. He was doing Millheim and vicinity and sold a goodly number of boxes. The salve has a splendid reputation for its healing qualities.

—Friday and Saturday evening large crowds of people were attracted by the “medicine man” who offered his unfailing cures for sale in front of the National hotel. He introduced his goods by a number of clever tricks and his audience greatly enjoyed his slight of hand performances. As to his success in disposing of medicine we hear he sold a good amount of the stuff.

—INCREASED buoyancy of spirits, perfect assimilation of food, improved appetite, gain in flesh, sound refreshing sleep, heightened color in the cheeks and lips, added brilliancy to the eyes, follows the use of McDonald's Great Blood Purifier or Sarsaparilla Alterative. A bottle or two used in the family would obviate the entire train of spring maladies. Dissatisfied purchasers can have their money refunded. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

—Notwithstanding the fact that nearly everybody is being squeezed by the hard times, the building and improvement boom in this town still keeps up and our mechanics have all the work they want.

—J. Wm. Miller, the younger son of our townsman, Mr. Henry Miller, left for Centre Hall yesterday afternoon, where he has a permanent job at tin-smithing with J. A. Reesman. We wish Will the best success in his new home.

—As spring advances with its occasional cool evenings the ladies stand in need of light Summer Shawls. We can help them out, if they will only come and examine the fine line we carry in this stock. D. S. Kauffman & Co.

—On last Monday Jerome Spigelmyer commenced selling out at cost all his goods at his stores in Millheim and Madisonburg, preparatory to moving into Musser & Smith's new room on Main street, June 1st. This a good chance to buy goods cheap.

—Among other proceedings of interest to this section at the late term of court were the cases of Wm. S. Musser and Jos. Klunker whose applications for license are being held over until the June session, pending the trial of charges brought against them.

—Mr. Stewart, of Pleasant Gap, and his gang of men are running the brick yard, west of town, on full time. Mr. S. has the contract for getting out the necessary amount of pressed brick for Musser & Smith's new hardware building. The brick are made by steam process.

—Jos. R. Mann and wife, of Mill Hall, left on Friday for Larned, Kansas, which place they propose making their permanent home. We regret to see them leave Clinton county, but trust fortune will throw a broad smile upon them while dwellers in the wild west. —Clinton Democrat.

—Mr. Geo. Limbert, who during last winter so efficiently taught the primary school of Millheim, greeted his many friends in this town last Saturday. He is attending Prof. Hosterman's high school at Spring Mills this summer, and will no doubt enter upon next winter's term of teaching with a richer store of knowledge. He favored the JOURNAL with a pleasant call. Come again.

—It is now conceded on all sides that there is not and never has been a remedy of such remarkable efficacy as Curtis' Carmelite Cordial, in curing cholera, dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera morbus, summer complaints, cramps, pains in the bowels, or any intestinal irritation whatever. A single dose brings remarkable relief and a single bottle is guaranteed to cure any case or money refunded. A remarkable pain killer and valuable household remedy. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

—A copy of the New York Star, the only straight out democratic daily in New York City, is on our table. It announces the removal of its offices to new and elegant quarters, giving an illustration of the Star building and its business offices. A surprising and overwhelming increase in its circulation made the removal to more spacious rooms necessary and its general tone and appearance are indicative of permanent and prosperous existence.

—Mr. J. H. Woerner and family, of Nittany Valley, have removed to this place, and reside at the toll gate, formerly kept by Mr. Jacob Heinle, dec'd. Mr. Woerner is a harness maker by trade and in connection with taking toll will carry on the harness making business. He wishes to inform the public that he is prepared to do all work in his line in the most satisfactory manner and asks for a liberal share of patronage.

—B. O. Denninger, the Journal store man has been cleaning up this week preparatory to the arrival of a new lot of goods. His stock of stationery, blank and schoolbooks, bibles and hymnbooks, cards of every description, as well as fancy articles of innumerable variety is constantly being replenished and can not be excelled anywhere in the valley. Remember anything in his line may be found at his store in the Journal building, Penn street. Prices to suit the times.

—We received information the other day of Mr. Emanuel Motz's marriage to a Southern lady, which occurred several weeks ago. Mr. Motz, who is operating a gold mine in either North or South Carolina, we forget which, will be remembered by many of our readers. His three children, Misses Lola and Mattie, and Mr. Carl, the former two attending the New Berlin Seminary, the latter holding some position in Williamsport, several years ago had their home in this town.

—A band of gypsies encamped in A. R. Alexander's woods, below town, this week. They made themselves quite conspicuous by their fine horses, which they were trying to sell or trade off, while the female member of the gang is told fortunes to those who are anxious to have a look into the future. Another branch of their business was professional begging. These Nomadic tribes seem to exercise a strong fascination on some of our town people, and many paid a visit to the camp on Monday and Tuesday evenings.

—RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—The first quarterly meeting of Brush Valley Circuit of the Evangelical church will be held at Madisonburg on Saturday and Sunday, May 8th and 9th. Business session on Saturday at 2 o'clock, p. m., and preaching in the evening at 7.30 o'clock. On Sunday the S. school meets at 8.30 o'clock, a. m., and communion services will be held at 10.30 a. m. Preaching at 7.30 in the evening. Rev. J. M. Estling, P. E. of the district will be present to officiate. All lovers of Zion are requested to attend these services. H. S. BASOM, Pastor.

—Bring your boy for his spring outfit. We offer magnificent selections of Men's, Youth's, Boy's and Children's Clothing at very low prices. Don't fail to give us a trial.

D. S. KAUFFMAN & CO.

—OBITUARY.—On Tuesday morning between the hours of seven and eight o'clock, death entered the home of Mr. W. C. Hubler, of Penn township, and took away his much-beloved wife. The lady had been suffering for nearly a year from what was supposed to be dyspepsia and several weeks before her death her recovery had been despaired of. Mrs. Hubler was a daughter of the late John Musser, tailor, of Haines township, and was 44 years old. She belonged to the Reformed church and was always known as a very quiet, christian woman. A sorrowing husband and two grown daughters are the surviving members of the family who deeply mourn the loss of a dear wife and mother.

The funeral will take place this [Thursday] forenoon at 9 o'clock, when her remains will be conveyed to Wolf's cemetery in Haines township, for interment.

—Superb—ourChenilleFrings. Come and see our elegant variety. D. S. Kauffman & Co.

CULTIVATION AND REFINEMENT.—Hon. B. S. Hewitt, ex-Speaker House Representatives, writes:—

“J. J. McDonald. Dear Sir:—I have been buying my flavoring Extracts for years from a Pittsburgh manufacturer. Recently we tried a bottle of yours and found it very good indeed. Enclosed find five dollars. Send me its value in your Vanilla Extract.”

Moral.—Always ask for McDonald's Flavoring Extracts.

Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

—Prof. Harry, who a few years ago gave such an excellent entertainment in the old Ev. church of this place, was in town last week to make arrangements for a similar entertainment to be given in the M. E. church, on the 24th instant.

Prof. Harry is the father of three wonderful little girls, aged respectively 8, 11 and 14 years, who are pronounced by all who witnessed their fine performances upon the violin and their marvelous vocal executions, to be the youngest highly educated children in the country. They are natural electionists and read and pronounce distinctly several languages. The entertainment will be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Mite Society of the Methodist church and should for that reason be well attended. We advise everyone who has a chance, to go and embrace the opportunity of enjoying a rich and refined treat.

Neighboring News.

COBURN.

The main topic of conversation in our village during the week has been the license question. And now it is over and we thirty will be obliged to go to Spring Mills, the nearest point with a licensed house.

John Sheriff has resigned as track foreman and a man by the name of Nibbles from Watson town has taken his place.

Station agent Kremer was called away on Tuesday last by the death of a relative.

We noticed some of our citizens repairing the board walk between the station and hotel, which has been in need of repair for some time. We should now have a board walk from the church to the bridge and hope our public spirited citizens will rise up and see that something is done in this direction. It is a shame to see the people in bad weather plodding through the mud almost knee-deep to and from the church.

Mrs. Katherman, of Millburg, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Kremer.

A Union Sunday school was organized here last Sabbath. The officers elected were: Geo. Swengel, Supt., Mr. Dutweiler, Asst. Supt., S. R. Gettig, Sec., B. Kerstetter, Asst. Sec., W. H. Kremer, Treas., A. J. Campbell and A. T. Greninger, Librarians. The school starts out well and promises to be a success. $17 were raised for the purpose of getting Sunday school literature.

There is some talk of Squire Gettig removing from our village. Sorry to lose Squire G., but wish you success in your new field.

Sam. Weiser, of Millheim, had quite an adventure in our town on Sunday, hauling a woman out of the creek who had fallen in head foremost. Was she heavy, Sam?

The train going west on Monday forenoon struck and killed a cow just east of the station. The cow belonged to Joseph Kleckner.

MANY CHILDREN suffer from day to day; purry, pallid, fretful and feverish, variable appetite and restless sleep, finally die, and their parents never suspecting the real cause, that the little sufferers' stomachs are infested and eaten through with worms. Twenty-five cents invested in a box of McDonald's Celebrated Worm Powders would save the doctor's bills and the patient's life. Entirely vegetable. Easy and pleasant to take. Money refunded to dissatisfied purchasers.

JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

SMITH TOWN.

The blooming fruit trees look very promising. The rye heads are beginning to peep out already, reminding us of the time when we will be “Comin' through the Rye.”

Charley Gutelius, the popular buggy dealer, was among us last week and sold one of his fine buggies to that wide-awake young farmer, Charles Frankenberg.

W. F. Bressler was the first this spring to plant corn in this section. Mrs. Maggie Smith intends taking a western trip, starting next Monday. JUMBO.

AARONSBURG.

Umbrellas to mend—Shado!

Mrs. M. M. Musser has gone to Philadelphia to buy a stock of general merchandise.

Rev. Cur. (presbyterian) preached to a large audience in the M. E. church on last Sunday evening.

No license, no drink, wholesale or retail. No use in getting mad about it, you deserve nothing better.

D. Kline Musser, formerly of the Lewisburg University, has turned counter hopper in one of the stores in Shamokin, Pa. No more Latin and Greek, but instead, weights and measures.

Low Mench is preparing to build a new barn on the lot he lately bought of the Wm Harter estate. Of course, the old century barn must come down and make place for the new.

The report last Saturday, that Frank Sylvius, who is engaged on a lumber job in Panther Hollow in the mountains, six miles from Fowler Station, had his leg broken, is not correct. A badly sprained ankle is the latest and correct report.

W. H. Phillips and J. H. Musser were off to Shamokin last week on private business. We supposed it was private to themselves, but the boys say they were gone to buy a store. I guess the boys are right.

Oh for that reservoir to dump in all the pigs that arelet loose on our streets. It is a shame that the entire town must suffer the annoyance of pigs running at large, and belonging to a few men who are able to keep them properly inclosed. Let's have a borough.

Thos. Harter, of the Middleburg, [Pa.] Post, and his brother William, of Hartleton, Pa., spent last Sunday in town. They brought the sad intelligence of the recent and unexpected death of the wife of their brother, Israel Harter, who resides at Canal Fulton, Stark Co., Ohio. ANOTHER.

SPRING MILLS.

Bitner & Horner the proprietors of the Spring Mills bottling establishment have a new delivery wagon. It is nicely painted and lettered so as to advertise the business as it goes over the road.

We will have a music printing establishment in our town in the near future. It is expected to be in operation in a few weeks.

We notice quite a number of strangers on our streets, who no doubt came here for a quiet rest during the summer months.

T. Benton Ulrich, editor of the Selins Grove Times, passed through this place on Monday evening, en route for Penn Hall, which place he intends to make his future home.

Daniel Runkle, one of our prominent citizens in attempting to cross the mill race on Monday on a foot log slipped and fell headlong into the water. He however did not sustain any injuries and was ready for a dry suit.

Quite an excitement was created on last Saturday by the mysterious disappearance of Moses Walter's child, which is only about two years old. Fears were at once entertained that the child had fallen in the mill race and a vigorous search was made. After about two hours it was learned that the child had wandered down to J. D. Horners', from whence it was quickly restored to the arms of its almost frantic mother. **

WOODWARD.

S. D. Burris, mine host of the “Traveler's Rest,” lately has been entertaining quite a number of guests.

Miss Jennie & Sadie Walter, of Lewisburg, during the week will visit their mother at this place.

The Sunday School has resumed for the summer with a large attendance.

George Vonada talks of purchasing a cider press which will surpass any press in the valley.

Our village smith shop sports a new roof.

Since you have no license up there the boys will have to come to Woodward to get the stuff to “paint the town red.” Prophet Noah with amazing forethought prepared for a flood. Our Noah, seemingly prophetic, has well provided against a dry spell. ARGENTI.

MADISONBURG.

Reuben Grimm has his house ready for the plasterers.

E. S. Shafer had the misfortune to lose his best horse last week.

Miss Ellie Miller is slowly recovering from a severe spell of sickness.

Mr. Beck's new goods have arrived. Prof. Robinson, of Baltimore city, will lecture to the Sunday schools of this place this [Thursday] evening in the Reformed church.

Miss Minnie Bierly has returned from Lock Haven.

Miss Mary Stover spent Sunday at home with her parents.

Miss Alice Nestleroad has gone to Mifflinburg to visit friends.

The Evangelical Association of this circuit will have their quarterly meeting here next Saturday and Sunday. Communion services on Sunday forenoon.

B. W. Royer purchased a horse the other day.

Miss Minnie Coats, of Farmers' Mills, is sojourning in our town at present.

H. R. Fiedler also was so unfortunate as to lose his driving mare, the little gray.

Mr. Charles Bitner, of Lock Haven, spent a few days with Geo. Reber on business.

J. Spigelmyer commenced closing out his store goods. That leaves a good opening for another merchant. Madisonburg and vicinity could support two stores. STILL ANOTHER.

—You will find McDonald's Improved Liver Pills so satisfactory as a corrector of a torpid liver, as a regulator of the bowels, as an eradicator of biliousness, that you will regret not having tried them sooner. Money refunded to dissatisfied purchasers.

JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria, When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

affects seriously all the digestive and assimilative organs, including the Kidneys. When these organs are so affected, they fail to extract from the blood the uric acid, which, carried through the circulation, causes Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

The functions of the Liver are also affected by costiveness, causing Bilious Disorders.

Among the warning symptoms of Biliousness are Nausea, Dizziness, Headache, Weakness, Fever, Dimness of Vision, Yellowness of Skin, Pains in the Side, Back and Shoulders, Foul Mouth, Furred Tongue, Irregularity in the action of the bowels, Vomiting, etc.

The Stomach suffers when the bowels are constipated, and Indigestion or follows. Fetid Breath, Gastric Pains, Headache, Acidity of the Stomach, Water-brash, Nervousness, and Depression, are all evidences of the presence of this distressing malady. A Sure Relief for irregularities of the Stomach and all consequent diseases, will be found in the use of AYER'S PILLS.

They stimulate the stomach, free the bowels, healthfully invigorate the torpid liver and kidneys, and by their cleansing, healing and tonic properties, strengthen and purify the whole system, and restore it to a salutary and normal condition.
