musical or literary taste will find the and oblige entertainment of the Harry Sisters next Monday evening in the M. E. church well worth attending. Whereever they have been they are highly spoken of and are generally greeted by large audiences. We can safely assure our readers that they will not regret going to hear them. Their splendid performances are a treat to old and young, therefore come one, come all.

ACCIDENT .- Charles, the youngest son of Jacob Alter, of North street. broke his left arm, near the elbow joint, on Saturday afternoon, by falling down a flight of stairs. He and an older brother were playing around the banister at the head of the stairs, when it was proposed to have a race down the steps. Charley missed his footing and landed at the bottom with his whole weight upon his arm. The fracture is of a precarious nature and causes the little fellow a great deal of pain.

FARM FOR SALE .- The undersigned offer that certain tract of land, situate about two miles west of Madisonburg, and being part of the estate of Jeremiah Hoy, deceased, at private sale. -The people of Spring Mills will have an opportunity to enjoy one of those fine entertainments of the Harry Sisters, on Tuesday evening, May 25th. We were requested to make an announcement of their coming to that town at that time.

-An interesting article, headed "The Dry Terms" and written for the Portland Enterprise by Mr. Jonas Ettiager, a relative of Mrs. Wm. Stover, of Aaronsburg, appears on our first page this week. Another one will appear in our next issue. Read it.

-- Rev. Crittenden, of Bellefonte, was in town on Tuesday and met with splendid success in disposing of the book entitled "The Best Things," of which he is the author. When he called at this office he had not a single copy left. He expects to return to this place in a few weeks when he wili have a new supply of books.

-By all appearances Memorial Day will be creditably observed at Millheim this year. At least the G. A. R. post, as well as the fire company are making preparations for a turn out and in next week's issue we will be able to publish a full programme of the exercises. In the meantime it would be well for the town at present, and expects to give a ladies of town to hold a good supply of -Millheim looked quite lively on Monday evening. About half past 7 o'clock the band struck up some of their stirring airs, while the Grand Army men and the firemen awaited the time for their meetings, and the streets were alive with people. Besides that, it happened that a number of strangers were in town who naturally enjoyed and added to the general bustle.
