—Rains are plenty and everything grows to the delight of the husbandman.
—The plasterers have commenced work on J. W. Stover's store building on Main street.
—Jesse Kremer is building a neat picket fence at the front of his premises on Water street.
—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harter were off to Union county over Sunday, on a visit to relatives.
—FLAGS, FLAGS, FLAGS, large, medium size, and small, at the Journal Store on Penn street.
—Mr. Geo. Swartz, of Bellefonte, is at present the guest of his brother, H. M. Swartz, of near town.
—Miss Elizabeth Reighard, of this place, is absent on a visit to relatives in Millinburg and other places.
—A new Self Binder Reaper for sale cheap, will exchange on a good horse. Inquire of J. Spigelmyer.
SWEET SEED CORN.—Several quarts of Stowell's Evergreen Sweet Corn, for planting, for sale at the Journal Store.
—W. T. Auman, of the Union Seminary, New Berlin, was seen in town a few days. He returned to that school on Monday.
—W. F. Reeder, Esq., of the law firm of Hastings & Reeder, Bellefonte, was one of the guests registered at the National Hotel last Saturday.
—“A stitch in time” often saves consumption. Down's Elixir used in time saves life. For sale by J. Spigelmyer and D. S. Kauffman & Co.
—Mrs. Emmons will deliver a temperance lecture in the Ev. church on Friday evening. The people will be governed by the ringing of the bell.
—There was quite a corps of salesmen in town on Monday and our merchants had consequently all the company they wanted for the time being.
—The old Evangelical church was sold at public sale last Saturday for $100. Mr. Elias Lise bought the building and expects to convert it into a planing mill.
—Simon R. King, who formerly was bartender in Frain's hotel, has the agency for the “American” Sewing Machine and is about ready for a thorough canvass.
—Messrs. B. O. Deining and Adolph Miller took a trip to Centre Hall on Saturday to visit some friends there and see the sights. They returned safely in the evening.
—Mr. J. E. Blake, agent for the Monarch Fire Killer, wishes us to announce that he will give another test of that extinguisher in Millheim on next Tuesday evening.
—The Clergy, Medical Faculty and People all endorse Burdock Blood Bitters as the best system renovating, blood purifying tonic in the world. Send for testimonials.
—John Page, of near town, received the sad news by telegram that his sister Annie, residing near Bellefonte, had died suddenly on Tuesday. He at once left for that place.
—We see in one of our exchanges that the celebrated Repaz band of Williamsport has dissolved. It is a pity that such a splendid musical organization should go “to sticks.”
—The strike in the Clearfield region is ended. The men will resume work to-day at the old prices, the store order system is to be abolished and wages will be paid in cash every two weeks.
—Mr. Keller, the efficient teacher of one of our summer schools, left on last Friday for his home in Snyder county to spend a few days with his family. He returned on Monday evening.
—Telephone connection between Millheim and Coburn was interrupted for several days this week. It is supposed that the sharp lightning of Saturday and Monday night is the cause of the trouble.
—We noticed Mr. J. C. Meyer, of Bellefonte, prospective candidate for District attorney, pass through town on Monday, on his way to Aaronsburg, likely to spend a few days in the parental home.
—Rev. M. L. Landis, well-known to many of our readers as the former pastor of the Rebersburg Reformed church, ably filled Rev. M. L. Deitzler's pulpit in the Luth. church, of this place, on Sunday evening.
—Costiveness is the primary cause of much disease. Dr. Henry Bixler's Mandrake Bitters will permanently cure costiveness. Every bottle warranted. Sold by J. Spigelmyer and D. S. Kauffman & Co.
—Mrs. Lashell, the wife of the murderer whose awful crime is reported on our second page, is the daughter of Daniel Willow, dead, a former citizen of Millheim and is therefore well-known to many of our readers.
—It affords us pleasure to announce to our readers that Wm. B. Mingle, Esq., Centre Hall, was appointed Prothonotary of this county, vice R. G. Brett, deceased. The appointment we have no doubt, gives general satisfaction, Mr. M. being the right man in the right place in all respects.

—Fred Kurtz, Jr., a son of editor Kurtz, of Centre Hall, received the appointment of naval cadet from this congressional district.
—The annual excursion of the State Editorial Association will go this year to Atlantic city, the time fixed being the week beginning Monday, July 5th. The rendezvous will be at the Girard House, Philadelphia.
—The sermon delivered by Rev. De Long (Reformed) of Lewisburg, in the Methodist church last Sunday evening was listened to by a large and appreciative congregation and is highly spoken of by all who heard it.
—It required exactly a day and a half to move the truck house back about ten feet. D. L. Zerby and Thos. Hockman did the work and Dr. Stann feels more contented since he can get a glimpse of Main street.
—B. F. Kister has removed his shoemaking shop from Snook's corner to his new place of business, next door to his residence on Main street, where his friends and customers will find him prepared to wait on them.
FOR THE CHILDREN.—Let the children drink the Simmons' Liver Regulator and keep well. It is purely vegetable, and safe to take either alone or in connection with other medicine. Mild in action and pleasant to take.
—Did you know? No. Then go and see for yourself that John W. Lise's grocery is headquarters for all kinds of groceries, provisions, fruits, cigars, tobacco, confectioneries and all other kinds too numerous to mention.
—To look at the amount of goods being hauled from the station by our mechanics, one would think they could stock half of Centre county. It don't in the least look like hard times, until you come to examine your pocket book.
—In Henry & Johnson's Arnica and Oil Liniment is combined the curative properties of the different oils, with the healing qualities of Arnica. Good for man and animal. Every bottle guaranteed. For sale by J. Spigelmyer and D. S. Kauffman & Co.
—The office of the Selinsgrove Times, owned by T. Benton Ulrich, was sold to J. G. Leshler last week. This week the Freeburg News and the Times will be consolidated, and will be published by Early & Leshler, in Selinsgrove, under the name of the Times-News.
—Meyer & Kremer's meat market was supplied with a $160 refrigerator this week. It is a very fine arrangement and one that is almost indispensable in a first class meat market. Mr. Gettig, the butcher, will now be able to keep his meat in first-class condition.
—D. W. Zeigler's new house on Penn street is now finished, all but the coat of paint which will be applied some time next week. It is a very imposing residence, and an ornament to the street. Mr. Z. may justly feel proud of his “White House.”
—The masons have commenced work on the new U. B. parsonage on Penn street. After that building is up only four lots are left vacant on the western side of Penn street and parties wishing to build on that street will soon have to take lots on the other side.
—Work on the interior of the hardware building on Main and Penn street is progressing rapidly this week; all the floors have been laid and if the carpenters continue to rush things as they did this week the new store-rooms will soon be completed.
—A sure sign that business is brisk at Mrs. Maria Weaver's millinery shop on Penn street, is that the proprietress is obliged to go to the eastern cities for a new stock of spring millinery goods. She is bound to keep up with the demands of her many patrons and the ladies will find her new selections of the latest and tastiest styles.
—The Union county agricultural fair will be held from the 22nd to the 25th of September, this year. Heretofore it occurred in the first week of October, which was generally in the wet season of the year. The agricultural society of Centre county, in order to avoid getting wet and being out of pocket, abandoned their annual affair altogether.
SETTLEMENT NOTICE.—As we wish to close our books we request all persons who have unsettled accounts with us to call at our place for settlement not later than June 15th, 1886. Parties who fail to comply with this request between this and the above date will be compelled to do so by law.
BARTGES & BRO.
Madisonburg, Pa., May 20, '86.
—A pleasure carriage, drawn by a four hand team of spanking horses, and containing a party from Philadelphia, among them Col. B. K. Jamison, one of the rich bankers of the Quaker City, passed through town on last Wednesday afternoon en route for Bellefonte. Having had dinner at Aaronsburg they did not stop in Millheim, to the sad disappointment of the corner committee.
—We had the pleasure of joining our friends, E. H. Long and A. A. Frank, on a ride to Spring Mills, via Coburn—Penns Creek, last Sunday afternoon. To be frank in the matter the roads were excellent (?) and with Ale for driver the ride didn't seem long at all, barring a few obstructions which the writer removed. The whole party enjoyed the trip hugely, and it afforded an abundance of variety and amusement.
—You will find McDonald's Improved Liver Pills so satisfactory as a corrector of a torpid liver, as a regulator of the bowels, as an eradicant of biliousness, that you will regret not having tried them sooner. Money refunded to dissatisfied purchasers.
JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO.,
Philadelphia Agents,
Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

—The only reliable estarrh remedy on the market to-day is Ely's Cream Balm, being free from poisonous drugs and other offensive odors. It has cured thousands of acute and chronic cases when all other remedies have failed. It quickly cures cold in the head and catarrhal headache. Price 50 cents. 17-4t.
—On Thursday afternoon we took a pleasure trip to Woodward in company with landlord Rook of the National Hotel, who kindly furnished one of his elegant nags for the ride. Considering the jovial company we were in, the fine weather and the beautiful sight which the fertile fields of lower Penns Valley presented we may say that it was a rare spell of recreation and enjoyment for the writer.
—Snow fell at various places in this state on Tuesday. At Clarendon quite a snow storm prevailed and at Williamsport the fine flakes of snow made people hurriedly get out their winter wraps. Nearer home we learn of snow having fallen at Coburn station on Tuesday afternoon. Cool rains cause frequently take the places of door and window screens and overcoats crowd out the linen duster.
—Several heavy thunder storms, that seemed to come from all directions, swept over this valley on Saturday night. Heaven's electric battery played for fully two hours and the flood-gates of the skies seemed to be opened, the rain pouring down in torrents, and converting the two inch thick dust on the roads into mud in a short time. The day had been hot and sultry, but after the rain the air was fresh and pure.
—Some of our subscribers have heeded our reminder of a few weeks ago to pay up their subscriptions. But they happen to be the very ones who hardly ever need a reminder. When we ask our patrons to pay up we particularly mean the delinquent customers whose names appear on our books with a debt of three, four and five years' standing. And to these we would again say: We need the money and the money they remit the better for all parties concerned.
—On Tuesday afternoon the lady relatives and other friends of Mrs. Wm. Kerstetter gathered at her residence while she was from home. The occasion was a surprise party in honor of Mrs. Kerstetter's 30th birthday. She was at a neighbor's at the time and one of her children went to inform her that she was wanted at home. Upon her arrival the lady was truly surprised to see so many visitors, but the matters were soon explained and a sumptuous supper and a good time in general was had.
FAIR FOR SALE.—The undersigned offer that certain tract of land, situate about two miles west of Madisonburg, and being part of the estate of Jeremiah Hoy, deceased, at private sale. The tract contains about 100 acres of cleared land, with a dwelling house and bank barn thereon erected; also about 45 acres of timberland. Altogether a very desirable farm. Apply to or address SAMUEL WISE, ISRAEL VONADA, 19-4t Executors.
—An awful thunderstorm visited this section again on Monday evening, commencing just at the time when the people made ready to attend the entertainment of the Harry Sisters. It rained heavily all evening and vivid flashes of lightning followed each other in quick succession. It was consequently impossible for most people to leave their houses, and the audience in the Methodist church was very small. Nevertheless the Harry Sisters went through their programme to the letter and entertained their hearers in the most pleasing manner. But for the very inclement weather they would have had a fair house.
DIED.—On the 15th instant, near Elder's Ridge, Indiana Co., Pa., Mrs. Sarah Fritz, widow of William Fritz, formerly of Haines township, this county, in the 84th year of her age. Mrs. Fritz was a sister of John and Jacob Wolf, both deceased, and the last surviving member of a family of ten brothers and sisters. Her husband preceded her into the eternal world many years, and since his demise she had her home with her son, Mr. Wm. Fritz, to the time of her death. Kindly and tenderly treated by her son and family she lived to a green old age, and like a golden sheaf, fully ripe, was at last gathered into God's eternal garner above. Her end was peace.
—A. J. DeVoe, a meteorologist at Hackensack, N. J., predicts decidedly cool weather for this summer. He says that the prevailing winds will blow from east northeast with cloudy weather about four days out of five and June will enter cold and cloudy, followed by thunder showers on the 5th, and a very cold northeast storm on the 8th. And men who embark in sea shore enterprises during the month of June will be very likely to be out and injured, for it will be a cold, wet month, with strong easterly winds, and icebergs will drift unusually near the New England coast and overcoats will feel comfortable for the fourth of July. The weather this week would certainly substantiate the gentleman's unpleasant prediction.
—We notice in the Centre Democrat that the services of Prof. Alfred Bierly, of New York, and who has been spending most of the winter and spring among the good people of Brushy valley, have been engaged by the Y. M. C. A. of Bellefonte, for a term of three weeks. It will be the professor's task during that time to prepare a chorus of from 75 to 100 of Bellefonte's best voices, to render an Oratorio at a grand concert to be held at the close of the term. Personal acquaintance with Prof. Bierly and some of his musical works enables us to predict that if he meets with any encouragement at all on the part of the Bellefonte people he will make the term and closing concert a grand success.

—When in town on Decoration day, remember that a good place to buy a morsel or a basketful of provisions is at J. W. Lise's grocery on Main street. A large stock of fresh goods just received. See advertisement in another column.
MEMORIAL DAY AT MILLHEIM.—Owing to the unpleasant weather on Monday evening the special meeting of the G. A. R. post was postponed till last evening, when the final arrangements for a proper observance of Memorial Day were made. As we went to press before the time for said meeting we are unable to give the proceedings. But we are authorized to say that the post will turn out, most likely on Saturday afternoon, and that they will be joined by the Millheim band and the H. & L. company, and the regular decoration ceremonies will be gone through with. Provisions will be made for an able speaker.
—By special request of the principal, Prof. A. E. Goble, we publish below the programme of the commencement exercises of Union Seminary, New Berlin, Pa., lasting from June 6th to 16th, 1886:
Monday, June 6th, the final examinations begin. Friday evening, June 11th, anniversary of the Neocosmian Literary Society. Saturday evening, 12th, Anniversary of the Excelsior Literary Society. Sunday evening, 13th, Baccalaureate sermon by Rev. E. Kohr, Williamsport, Pa. Monday evening, 14th, Address before the Alumni by Rev. T. Bach, Franklin, Pa. Tuesday, June 15, 9 a. m. Meeting of the Board of Trustees at 2 p. m. Book reception of the Neocosmian Literary Society; in the evening, Addresses before the Literary Societies by Cornelius Smith, Esq., Scranton, Pa. Wednesday, 16th, 9 a. m., Annual meeting of the Alumni Association; 2 p. m., Library Association of the Excelsior Literary Society; Wednesday evening, June 16th, Commencement.
—West Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed church had a pleasant and profitable meeting at Aaronsburg last week. Much important business was transacted with dispatch and unanimity of sentiment. One of the most important items was the resolution pertaining to the organization of a Classical Missionary Society, in which the congregational societies shall be represented by delegates. The first convention of this society is to be held at Millinburg in September.
The religious services were all well attended. An impressive communion service was enjoyed on Sunday morning by a crowded house. A specially pleasing feature was the fact that the Saturday and Sunday services were attended not only by large numbers from the immediate community, but also by many from Brushy and Nittany valleys.
Mr. J. W. Snook, of Millheim, received a carload of crockery which he is unloading here.
Mr. Forster, representing a Bellefonte firm, has erected a shed here, where he makes quite a display of agricultural implements.
Mr. Editor, can not you send that band of your town over here some nice evening to give us some music and liven up the town. If memory serves us right, Coburn has always responded, when called upon for pecuniary aid. We have had no music for a long time, so please waken them up a little and let us hear from them. VALZ.
AARONSBURG.
To whom it may concern.—There is much in little—well said; but there is little in the use of more words than are necessary.
The entertainment advertised for last Saturday evening, 22nd, to be given by the Harry Sisters in the Evangelical church did not take place, on account of the inclemency of the weather.
Col. B. K. Jamison and friends, of Philadelphia, who are travelling for pleasure in the tallyho coach rambler, passed through town on Wednesday of last week. The party took dinner at Immel's Hotel.
On last Wednesday morning Dr. E. J. Deshler and wife left for Carroll Co., Iowa, to visit their son, Dr. J. Deshler and family. We wish the aged and respected couple a pleasant visit and a safe return.
Rev. Deitzler has for the last week or two been very busily engaged in beautifying his home with whitewash and paint. The Rev. no doubt observes that the parsonage had been very largely neglected in the past.
[By whom was it neglected?—Ed.] Billy Winkelmblech, who about a year ago was married to a Miss Hockman, left for parts unknown. We didn't learn the cause of Billy's sudden departure. ANOTHER.
WOODWARD.
The singing class, under the instructions of Pr. Snyder, meets every Saturday evening in the church.
Benj. Orndorf and Adam Weaver intend re-roofing their houses.
Several large orders for lumber created a boom in that branch of industry around here.
What's the attraction that takes two of our boys to Spring Mills Saturday evenings?
Mr. Abraham Treaster has in his cornfield some novel devices to intimidate the prowling crow. ARGENT.
REBERSBURG.
T. F. Moyer, wife and daughter have left for Milton, Pa.
J. Harter has in his possession the finest mule team in the valley.
Prof. Bierly left this place to instruct a class in vocal music at Bellefonte.
The Lutheran congregation of this town are well pleased with their new pastor.
Both Mr. and Mrs. Burkert, a much respected couple of this place are frequently sufferers with rheumatic pains.
C. C. Loose has purchased a fine horse.
L. B. Frank has made some improvements at his home.
—It is now conceded on all sides that there is not and never has been a remedy of such remarkable efficacy as Curtis' Carmelite Cordial, in curing cholera, dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera morbus, summer complaints, cramps, pains in the bowels, or any intestinal irritation whatever. A single dose brings remarkable relief and a single bottle is guaranteed to cure any case or money refunded. A remarkable pain killer and valuable household remedy.

COBURN.
Your correspondent through a pressure of business failed to report last week.
Mr. J. Harvey Smith, who was engaged in the timber business at this place several months ago, died at his home in Ashland and was buried at Pottsville on Tuesday of last week. He will be remembered here by a host of friends for his many good and noble qualities.
Miss Lizzie Katherman, of Millinburg, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Kremer.
Miss Laura Middleswarth, of Millmont, was visiting at Capt. VanValin's during the week.
The long-talked-of boardwalk is now partly laid, but should be finished to the church. Get to work again, boys, and finish it up.
Since there is no license we seldom see a drunken man around here.
Ground is now being broken for the erection of a distillery just east of Coburn.
Travel on the railroad seems to be good, judging from the well-filled trains we see passing here.
Mr. W. H. Kremer was away last week to attend the funeral of J. Harvey Smith, in Pottsville.
And now Andy Campbell wears a broad smile and is happy. Ask him what it is and he will answer—a boy—to be sure. Please inform Ale Long of the fact.
The next public enterprise for Coburn should be a hall of some kind where public entertainments can be held, as we have no suitable place for such occasions. Besides we have enough intelligent material in Coburn to form a literary society and to have debates and lectures every week. It would be a great social advantage and would have a beneficial influence on the moral interests of our growing village.
Mr. J. W. Snook, of Millheim, received a carload of crockery which he is unloading here.
Mr. Forster, representing a Bellefonte firm, has erected a shed here, where he makes quite a display of agricultural implements.

MADISONBURG.
Miss Mary Stover is at home and on the sick list.
Mrs. Lizzie Brown, of Bellefonte, is the guest of her father, Samuel B. Sharfer, of this place.
At this writing Daniel Roush is confined to the house suffering from the effects of a bad cold.
Reuben Smull, of Rockville, tarried in town a while on Sunday with his brother Simon. We are glad to see our good old friend Reuben out again. He had a hard time of it for the last three months, suffering with a healing on the side of his face.
Miss McKinney is at present paying her sister, Mrs. Dr. Lee, a visit.
Grant Shafer is at home and not able to work on account of a sprained back.
The Reformed congregation fenced in their new cemetery last week. They can feel real thankful that they need not bury their dead in watery graves, as they had to in the old cemetery.
Grandmother Imbert has gone to visit her son Fred, below Aaronsburg.
Andrew Guiser sold his horse to a man in Nittany.
Uriah Shafer has put a new roof on his barn.
On Sunday evening quite a heavy rain passed over this town, accompanied with a good bit of hail, but no damage was done.
B. W. Royer, supervisor, has his crew of men at repairing the roads.
Some of the farmers are planting their corn over.
The Evangelical congregation at Yearick's church, west of town, have erected a new fence around the grave yard.
The people at the western end of this valley have organized a Union Sunday School in the brick school house near James Duck's. The school numbers some 67 members, which is indeed encouraging.
Mr. William Yearick left last week for the West on a visit.
John S. Hoy and wife are visiting friends in Clearfield county.
Rev. Lese and wife, of Ohio, are here visiting the lady's mother, Mrs. Geo. Shafer. The Reverend gentleman preached in the Ev. church on Sunday evening.
Last Sunday while John Fisher was sitting on the little porch back of his house, he espied the head of a black snake close by and quietly calling to his wife to bring him the gun he blazed away at the snake and killed it. The following day his dog found another of that species at nearly the same place, and Mr. Fisher again fed the snake with lead. He found it to be fully as long as the other.
“Still Another” was not away from home but on a little strike. He has concluded to go to work again for the Journal at the old rates and will try to be more punctual hereafter.
