—The plasterers are laying John Kerstetter's new house on Penn street.

—Mr. James A. Wirt, of Boalsburg, was a welcome JOURNAL caller last Saturday.

—For want of space the Journal Store advertisement was crowded out this week.

—Gate posts seem to be the favorite spot of lovers to study the face of the moon just now.

—Rev. M. I. Jamison and family, from Clintondale, are visiting at Jacob Keen's this week.

—A list of Sheriff's Sales may be found under legal advertisements in this week's issue.

—Mr. Ed. Miller, at present of Selinsgrove, visited his sister, Mrs. Dr. Frank, in this place a few days.

—Mrs. Uriah Spangler, of Kansas, is at present on a visit to her father, Mr. John Hosterman, near Wolf's store.

—The writer and family return their best thanks to Mrs. Samuel Weiser, for a magnificent bouquet of flowers.

—Mr. Ruhl, of Hartleton, was one of the visitors of town over Sunday, and the guest of his daughter, Mrs. A. J. Harter.

NOTICE.—Persons who ordered pictures enlarged from H. A. Grip, Tyrone, Pa., can procure the same at Kauffman's store.

—Mrs. Michael Seitz, and family, of Northumberland, spent several days with her mother, Mrs. Jesse Kramer, on Water street.

—E. W. Mauck is making fence around his lot on Penn street and is getting ready for laying the foundation of a new residence.

—Give us a call before you take your orders for job work elsewhere. We can give you low prices and guarantee first class work.

—Sheriff Musser's residence on Penn street received some extra touches of paint on Tuesday, which gives it a better appearance.

—The most expeditious way to get into "hot water" in this town is to be elected to serve as councilman. It is an enviable office!

—Next Sunday is Whitsunday, commemorative of the descent of the Holy Ghost upon Christ's disciples at the time of Pentecost.

—Messrs. R. B. & C. W. Hartman, the founders men of this place, were on a business trip to Lycoming county on Monday and Tuesday.

—Mr. Charles Yeager and wife, of Millinburg, were the guests of J. W. Lose, last week. Mr. Yeager is a brother of Mrs. Lose.

—New Cabbage, Pine Apples, Peas, Bananas, and all kinds of fresh fruit can be had at D. S. Kauffman & Co's store on Friday and Saturday.

—Dr. J. F. Harter left on Wednesday afternoon to go a fishin'. We understand that he joined a party from Lewisburg and that they will spend a few days along the mountain streams in town.

—The plasterers having finished their job in Stover's new store room on Main street, that building will be ready for business in a few weeks.

—Millheim had quite a number of visitors in the last few weeks, all of whom seem to be delighted with and to enjoy their stay in town.

—Mrs. Robert Mills and children, of Lock Haven, were here a few days last week, visiting at the home of their relatives, Mr. G. W. Harter.

—W. L. Bright shipped another carload of cattle to Philadelphia on Tuesday afternoon. He had bought most of them in Nittany Valley.

—If you want to enjoy the luxury of using the best soap in this country, try Draydoppe's Laundry Soap, an article that has been tested by time and found to contain all the ingredients necessary for a soap that can be used for all purposes.

—Light Dresses are seasonable wear now, and the largest stock and lowest prices in this line will be found in D. S. Kauffman & Co's store.

—An exchange recommends sprinking buckwheat flour over the plants as effectual in destroying cabbage worms. This seems a simple remedy and deserves a trial.

—When you expect to go away, or when you have visitors just please apprise us of the facts and the JOURNAL will be glad to furnish the news to the rest of mankind.

—Mrs. W. S. Musser and daughter are taking this morning's train for Millinburg to attend the marriage of Miss Kate L. Shriener, of that place, to a Mr. Chambers.

—Our band has voted to pay Coburn a visit next Saturday evening. They will leave here at about 5 o'clock and expect to give the people of that town a first class serenade.

—A pure and reliable remedy—a compound fluid extract of roots, leaves, barks and berries is Burdock Blood Bitters. They cure all diseases of the blood, liver and kidneys.

—Mrs. Housman and Miss Hattie Meek, of Altoona, paid a week's visit to their sister, Mrs. J. F. Harter, of Main street. They departed for their home yesterday afternoon.

—In Holland, Mich., C. J. Doesbury publishes the "News," and in its columns strongly recommends Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for coughs, colds, sore throats, catarrh and asthma.

—P. S. Meyer filled up and leveled his yard on Penn street with rich ground and sowed it with grass seed. A new front fence will be the finish to the improvements on his premises.

—The first candidate for office was on the ground and made the rounds among us last week. The gentleman was Mr. J. C. Harper, of Bellefonte, with an eye cast prothonotary ward.

—Mine host Rook, of the National Hotel and D. S. Kauffman took a trip to Bellefonte on Tuesday. Presumably Mr. Rook acted Cicero, as this was Kauffman's first visit to the county seat.

—One of the first arrivalson Monday was that of Mrs. H. J. Kurzenknecht, of Harrisburg, who came home on a visit to her parents, Mr. Jonathan Harter's. Lizzie was heartily greeted by her many friends.

—Mr. D. G. Smith, of Penn Hall, who taught the North street school last winter, was in town on Tuesday and remembered the JOURNAL with a friendly call. Always glad to see you, Domer; call again.

—Millions of us are bilious. We are a bilious race. Half of us are born bilious, with a predisposition to dyspepsia. The best known remedy for biliousness and indigestion is Simmons Liver Regulator. Try it.

—On Tuesday the first load of lumber was hauled from Henry Whitmer's saw mill in Sugar Valley to Coburn by Wm. Ulrich, of this place. It is a solid day's trip, but Ulrich's four-horse team is fully equal to the task.

—John D. Snyder, of Woodward, is circulating a petition to the proper department for his appointment as store keeper of the Woodward distillery. The paper bears the signatures of some of the most substantial men in the lower valley.

—A number of families from town expect to take a trip to the celebrated Penn's Caves, about six miles west of this place, next Saturday. The party expect to start in the morning and spend the greater part of the day at the head of Penns Creek.

—The people of Millheim enjoyed a noon concert by our band last Saturday evening. The boys were stationed on the roof of the new hardware building and from their elevated position sent out sweet strains of music that could be heard all over town.

—The longest day's work is at present done by the busy farmer who toils on from morning till night. But when he has finished his day's labor he retires with the cheerful thought of having well done and fosters pleasant anticipations of a plentiful crop.

—More people, adults and children, are troubled with costiveness than with any other ailment. Dr. Henry Baxter's Mandrake Bitters will cure costiveness and prevent the diseases which result from it. For sale by J. Spigelmeyer and D. S. Kauffman & Co.

—Mr. J. C. Heckman, of Franklin, Pa., came to town on Tuesday evening, to pay a visit to his parents and during his short stay did not forget to give the JOURNAL a call. Judging from Clevan's appearance Venango county air agrees with him.

—Fishermen should bear in mind that from the 1st of June to August 31, all net fishing (except for catching bait) is illegal, and any person found setting or using a net is liable to prosecution. All nets found in the river or creeks will be considered as lost property and taken by any person and held for the owner to call on and handed over to the fish warden. The only legal fishing allowed is with rod, hook and line, and the wardens will hold all persons to that. It is also contrary to law to take a trout less than five inches in length.

—C. K. Sober, the crack shot, again distinguished himself on Decoration day, by his remarkable skill with the rifle, the following, which appeared in the Reedsville correspondence of the Lewistown Gazette, shows a splendid record:

After the decoration exercises were concluded on Saturday evening a large crowd assembled to witness the wonderful exhibition of glass ball shooting by C. K. Sober, of Lewistown, Pa. The skill of Mr. S. is certainly high up in the art, and coupled with his different forms and manner of shooting we think his record made here stands unequalled in Pennsylvania. Following is the score. From right shoulder, broke 10, missed 0; from left shoulder, 10, 0; spring his own trap 5, 0; back to trap when sprung 5, 0; shooting with one arm, 5, 0; single balls gun upside down, overhead, 7, 1; double balls, from right shoulder, 9, 1; double balls from left shoulder, 8, 2; gun lying on table when balls sprung, 5, 0; back to trap with gun between legs, 4, 1; single balls, right shoulder, barrels through cigar box, 7, 0; single balls, left shoulder, barrels through cigar box, 5, 0; double balls, right shoulder, barrels through cigar box, 10, 0; single balls, gun upside down, overhead and barrels through cigar box, 9, 1; tossing gun up, turning once around, with barrels through cigar box, 13, 0; balls from two traps, 30 yards apart, stand on centre line, shooting from right and left shoulder, 39, 1; balls from two traps as above, with gun upside down, barrels through cigar box, 10, 0; single balls with Colt's lightning rifle, 8, 1. Mr. S. uses a 10-gauge and 10-pound Parker gun.

—The schoolboard of Millheim had its annual settlement last Monday afternoon and their financial statement is posted up in conspicuous places. That the board have been economical with the people's money can be seen by the nice cash balance in the hands of the Treasurer, viz.: $107.

—Several loads of iron fence were brought up from the depot last week, which will be erected in front of Fairview Cemetery, being a continuation of the piece of fence already there. The whole length of the front will be enclosed by this neat and attractive fence, giving it a stately appearance.

—A steel pen, which seems simple in its construction, goes through from fifteen to twenty-five processes in the course of manufacture, and occupies from ten to thirty days to complete. And yet an Esterbrook Pen is sold at the Journal Store at one cent a piece.

—The undersigned gives notice that he has this day sold his stores at Millheim and Madisonburg to Dr. Spigelmeyer, and employed D. L. Zerby collector of all accounts due J. Spigelmeyer, Agent, which must be settled within ten days from date.

—Mrs. W. S. Musser and daughter are taking this morning's train for Millinburg to attend the marriage of Miss Kate L. Shriener, of that place, to a Mr. Chambers.

—Our band has voted to pay Coburn a visit next Saturday evening. They will leave here at about 5 o'clock and expect to give the people of that town a first class serenade.

—The first candidate for office was on the ground and made the rounds among us last week. The gentleman was Dr. J. W. Stam. All interested in the great temperance cause are cordially invited to be present, and are requested to bring their Gospel Hymns along.

—Mrs. B. O. Deininger, Pres. Mrs. P. H. Musser, Sec.

—Cashier Walter is building a cistern on his premises on Penn street. Since he is the controlling stockholder of the Millheim turnpike company, he had the ground and stones which were dug out of the excavation hauled on the pile in front of his residence for filling purposes and thus he "hits two birds with one stone."

—Eye witnesses say it was amusing to see that cow run off with Bess Sturgis' little wagon on Tuesday afternoon. The cow had gained entrance into Walter's yard and was grazing when she got a hold of the string attached to the wagon and deliberately made off with it. She was caught in a neighboring alley and was relieved of her ill-gotten gain.

—Notice.—A Select School will be opened at Aaronsburg on Monday, July 26th, 1886, to continue eight weeks. All persons desiring to attend will please hand their names to M. T. Musser, of Aaronsburg. Special attention will be given to such as are preparing for College or for teaching in the Public Schools. Terms to suit the times. For further information address the teacher,

M. O. NOLL, Lewisburg, Pa.

THE LIST OF ACCIDENTS KEPT UP.

—The calamity of broken limbs seems to be getting epidemic among the little boys of our town. On Tuesday afternoon, Clyde, the youngest of C. W. Hartman's children, fell from the table in the room and broke his right arm below the elbow. Dr. Frank was called to reduce the fracture and the child is doing right well. This is the third case of that kind which occurred in town during the past four weeks and parents can not be blamed if they are getting uneasy.

—We call the special attention of our readers to the advertisement of the new Penn's Cave Hotel. The hotel is situated within a few rods to the mouth of the Penn's Cave and has been built in such a manner as to make it especially adapted for a summer resort. The cave, which is rapidly becoming one of the most popular places of pleasure in the state, is under the management of the hotel proprietor, who has left nothing undone to accommodate his guests in a first class style.

BOROUGH LEGISLATION.—The town council of Millheim had their regular monthly meeting last Saturday evening and among other routine work, passed a resolution declaring the alley between Centre and South streets open, with instructions to the street commissioner to remove all obstructions.

The resignation of Adolph Miller, as a member of the council, was not accepted. Frank Knarr was appointed collector of borough taxes.

Notices were issued to the property holders whose boardwalks are defective and will be repaired by the street commissioner to remove all obstructions.
