24-4

The ladies of the M. E. Mite Society of this place purpose holding a festival on the afternoon and evening of July 3d, in the skating rink on Penn street. We hope the patronage by our town people will be large enough to fill the ladies' treasury box to the brim.

—Miss Maggie Miller, the daughter of J. H. Miller, who came down from Centre Hall last week to pay a visit to her father, was taken sick and confined to her room in the National hotel ever since. At this writing, we are glad to hear, that the lady is growing better.

—Rev. E. H. Dornblaser, of Wheeling, W. Va., was in Aaronsburg a few days, visiting at his father-in-law's, John Bright's house. He was accompanied by his little daughter, Irene, whom he left at her grandfather's until his return from the Gettysburg commencement.

—A subscription list is in the hands of our grocer, J. W. Lose, to raise funds for a selection of works, which will be displayed on the "Sheep Hill," east of town, on Saturday night, July 3d. Let the subscriptions be liberal, so that a fine display of pyrotechnics may be had.

—W. J. Springer and Geo. L. Springer, our wide-awake barbers, display a wonderful amount of enterprise. Both hung up attractive new signs at their respective places of business and both are bending to accomodate their customers in the best tonsorial manner. "Competition is the life of trade."

—Oh! Oh! This howling, jumping, raging toothache! I would give anything for relief. Well it won't cost you much. 15 cents will get you a bottle of the Great Zingara Toothache Drops. Guaranteed. For toothache and neuralgia the Great Zingara has no equal. Keep them in the house, they may save you hours of agony. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

—Mr. D. A. Musser has the carpenters at putting a new fore-bay in the foundry dam, where last winter's flood tore out the old one. The foundry will then be in first-class running order again, with Messrs. F. Knarr and D. Luse as proprietors, who are prepared to turn out all work in their line in the best mechanical manner.

—The nuisance committee of our town council should not tolerate the free growth of Canada thistles within this borough. They are a mean weed on the fields, but when they are allowed along the sidewalks and in the alleys of the borough, the sight of them will give visitors and strangers an unfavorable impression of Millheim.

—Mrs. D. A. Musser, accompanied by her son, Milton, left on Tuesday morning for West Union, Iowa, to pay a visit to her daughter, Mrs. T. R. Stam and also to her second son, Clymer, who makes his residence with his sister at that place. We hope the travelers will arrive safely at their destination and have a pleasant return trip.

—On Tuesday forenoon we were favored by a pleasant call from Hon. Leonard Rhone, the efficient member of the legislature from this county. The gentleman seemed very unconcerned about his political fences, presupposing that they are all in good condition. He is one of the few who do not seek office. The office must seek him.

—Every bottle of Arnica & Oil Liniment is warranted by the proprietors to give satisfaction or money will be refunded. For sale by J. Spigelmyer and D. S. Kauffman & Co.

—Ladies will find relief from their headache, costiveness, swimming in the head, colic, sour stomach, restlessness, etc., by taking Simmons Liver Regulator. It is mild, safe and pleasant.

—If you want to enjoy the luxury of using the best soap in this country, try Dreydoppe's Bore. Soap, an article that has been tested by time to ensure the ingredients necessary for a soap that can be used for all purposes.

—The Main Street grocery takes the lead for the best stock Oranges, Lemons, Bananas and Pine Apples. A large invoice of Canned Fruit on the road.

J. W. Lose, Prop'r.

—D. W. Zeigler's new house on Penn street is now completed. The painters put on the final touches last Saturday and the shades are real pretty and make it one of the most elegant buildings in town. Danny also repaired and relaid his sidewalk and everything around his premises looks neat and clean now. The Penn street bakery and ice cream saloon is beginning to be a popular place of business.

Candidates are busy "how-do y'doing" and shaking hands. Mr. L. A. Shaeffer, of Bellefonte, a candidate for the office of prothonotary, was in town last Saturday to investigate how many loyal friends he may count on to give him a lift at the primary election. His announcement may be found at the proper place in this issue. If Lew gets the nomination he will get the solid support of the party in November.

—It must be a bop so case when a young gentleman is so enamored with his lady companion, whom he takes out riding, that he forgets to pay the toll. Oh, Danny, what must the old gentleman have thought when he had to foot the bill. Don't forget that when once you wear the matrimonial yoke you'll not slip the halter so easy—the spring bonnet will have to be paid for and you will have to "stand up to the rack, fodder or no fodder."

NOTICE.—A Select School will be opened at Aaronsburg on Monday, July 24th, 1886, to continue eight weeks. All persons desiring to attend will please hand their names to M. M. Musser, of Aaronsburg. Special attention will be given to such as are preparing for College or for teaching in the Public Schools. Terms to suit the times. For further information address the teacher,

M. O. NOLL,
Lewisburg, Pa.

23-6
—W. T. Auman, a graduate of Union Seminary, New Berlin, came home on Saturday, to spend his vacation here. Next fall he expects to enter the theological department of Franklin & Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., with the intention of preparing himself for the pulpit. Mr. Auman is a very studious young man and has a natural talent and love for oratory. We wish him success and hope he will make his mark in his chosen profession.

—B. O. Deininger, Esq., and Cashier Walter, of the Millheim Bank, were off to Gettysburg this week, to attend the commencement exercises of the theological seminary at that place, the former gentleman being one of the trustees of that institution. Mr. Walter, no doubt, had gone to visit the historical points of interest, which are quite numerous there, but, owing to the inclemency of the weather, returned yesterday morning.

—Druggists as a rule are extremely jealous and careful of the honor of their profession, and are loth to praise a medicine which they do not from personal knowledge know to be a meritorious article. They all agree however, that for smallness of dose, easiness to take, an effectiveness as a worm destroyer, McDonald's Celebrated Worm Powders are the best and most desirable verminfuge in their stock, and do not hesitate to recommend them. Dissatisfied buyers can have their money refunded.

JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

DEATH.—Our townsman, Mr. Geo. Mensch, lost an interesting child, aged two years, by death on Monday night. The little girl had been sick for several weeks, suffering with brain fever, and though the best medical aid and most faithful nursing were given her, the merciless reaper of death would cut down the tender plant. The afflicted parents may find the best consolation in the assurance that "Bessie" is "resting safely in Jesus' arms," and in the thought that she will not be subjected to the trying ordeals of this world. The funeral takes place this (Thursday) forenoon, when the remains will be taken to the cemetery for interment.

—The four greatest and most desirable properties of a successful medicine are perfectly combined in McDonald's Blood Purifier or Sarsaparilla Alternative. It malassimilates food and dispenses its effects are speedy and happy. For disfiguring humors of scrofula and tetter, the loathsome sores of venereal diseases, the burning torturers of erysipelas, no other medicine can possibly equal it. As a spring medicine, perfect blood purifier, efficient and safe diuretic and aperient, it meets with gratifying favor from the medical profession and the people. Dissatisfied buyers can have their money refunded.

JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

—Among those who were to Centre Hall from this place last Sunday to attend the dedication of the new and elegant Lutheran church there, were Jon Harter and wife, S. D. Musser and family, E. J. Brundage and family, G. W. Harter and wife, Harry Deibler, E. I. Musser, R. E. Harter, S. P. Alter, M. O. Musser and E. E. Knarr. All of them speak highly of the interesting services they witnessed and have only words of praise for Centre Hall's handsome and comfortable church edifice.

As we understand, the entire amount necessary to wipe out the whole indebtedness could not be raised, but good security was given for the balance wanting and Dr. Conrad dedicated the building to the worship of God with the solemn and impressive rites of the Lutheran church.

—On Tuesday forenoon we were favored by a pleasant call from Hon. Leonard Rhone, the efficient member of the legislature from this county. The gentleman seemed very unconcerned about his political fences, presupposing that they are all in good condition. He is one of the few who do not seek office. The office must seek him.

—Every bottle of Arnica & Oil Liniment is warranted by the proprietors to give satisfaction or money will be refunded. For sale by J. Spigelmyer and D. S. Kauffman & Co.

—Ladies will find relief from their headache, costiveness, swimming in the head, colic, sour stomach, restlessness, etc., by taking Simmons Liver Regulator. It is mild, safe and pleasant.

—If you want to enjoy the luxury of using the best soap in this country, try Dreydoppe's Bore. Soap, an article that has been tested by time to ensure the ingredients necessary for a soap that can be used for all purposes.

—The biggest stock of Seersucker Dress Goods in town at D. S. Kauffman & Co's store, Millheim, Pa.

—A party of ladies and gentlemen from this place, numbering about twenty, picnicked near Pine Creek Cave last Monday afternoon and also explored the cave. They were joined by Rev. M. L. Deitzler and wife, who arrived on the ground later in the day. A splendid time was had and a motion to indulge in a similar party in the near future carried unanimously. There is certainly no greater pleasure to be found at this season than to enjoy a few hours under the bower of sheltering forests and feast the eye upon the rich panorama presented everywhere by mother nature.

—We call the attention of our readers to the change in Musser & Alexander's marble advertisement and wish to add that on a brief visit to their shop the other day, we were agreeably surprised at the fine display of tombstones which this enterprising firm have just received from the city. They are also very busy at work on a large stock of marble in the rough. Among the finished jobs is the monument for M. G. Mingole, of Lock Haven, is one of the most attractive. It will pay you to call on them when in need of a suitable stone to mark the resting place of departed friends.

—Messrs. E. H. Long and A. A. Frank, of D. S. Kauffman & Co's store, extended an invitation to the band to come to the store last Monday evening where a treat to cakes and lemonade awaited them. The boys gave a ready response and discoursed some of their select music. It may be taken for granted that the store room was densely crowded with people during the concert. Business was combined with pleasure, as the band voted to procure white flannel shirts with navy blue collars and cuffs, for summer wear, and ordered the above firm to send for samples of goods to select from. If ever there was an organization in this town that can boast of remarkable grit and snap it is the Millheim Cornet Band.

This month completes the twelfth year of their existence and their assets amount to over $100, most of which was earned by hard work and but comparatively little help from our citizens.

THE TORNADO AT BOILING SPRING.—About as near an actual tornado as often visits this portion of the country swept down upon Boiling Spring Thursday last, and was referred to in the DAILY NEWS of Friday. People who observed it closely assert that the formation and movements of the clouds were peculiar. At noon a small cloud scudding across the sky from over the hill northeast of Mr. Teller's house, before advancing very far it came in contact with another cloud and the two descended on the hillside, prostrating seven apple trees. Then descending nearer the water the tornado struck a cluster of willow trees, twisting them in a fantastic shape. While in the grasp of the wind the trees seemed to be revolving rapidly, and when released some of the branches which had been torn off were carried away, while others dropped to the ground. The fact of the storm tearing off part of the roof of Mr. Keller's barn has been already related and it is believed that had not the willow trees diverted the course of the wind the barn would have disappeared. The last object touched by the tornado was Eckenrode's barn. Both of the doors were driven in, but the building was not otherwise damaged. About thirty or forty yards of fence were destroyed, stout posts being pulled out of the ground. —Bellefonte Daily News.
