R. A. BUMILLER, Esq., Editor Millheim Journal.—Dear Sir: Some parties are circulating the report that I am not a candidate for Prothonotary. Now I desire to say to the Democrats of Centre County, that I am a candidate in earnest, and want to make the nomination if I can do so honorably, and hope the people will give my case fair consideration with the rest.

Democratic State Convention.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION of Pennsylvania will assemble at the Opera House, in the City of Harrisburg, at 10 a. m., on WEDNESDAY, Aug. 18th, to nominate candidates for Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Auditor General, Sec'y of Internal Affairs and Congressman-at-Large.

The Convention will consist of 359 Representative Delegates, selected under the rules of the party from the respective Assembly Districts of the State, one for each 1,000 Democratic votes cast for Governor at the last preceding gubernatorial election, or for a fraction of 1,000 such votes, amounting to 500 or more, in the respective districts, provided that each representative district shall have at least one delegate.

W. U. HENSEL,
Chairman Dem. State Com.

J. B. LIGHT, Sec'y.

COL. A. WILSON NORRIS' speech at Gettysburg to the soldiers would better have been left unsaid. It may turn out to be a troublesome bumble bee in his campaign hat.

THE recent Republican state convention furnished another strong proof that the Republican party of Pennsylvania is run by a powerful machine. It was truly a Republican feast, with a set programme, and the ticket nominated stands upon a platform of empty phrases, with probably one exception, the prohibition clause. As far as the nominees are concerned, the ticket is not an iota stronger than the one in 1882, and is likely to meet the same fate. Gen. Beaver, at the head of it, was a brave and illustrious soldier, and has an irreproachable private character, but he is and always will be an unlucky political star.

AS MAY be seen in the notice at the head of this column the democratic state convention of Pennsylvania will be held in Harrisburg on Wednesday, August 18th. Of course, the nomination of a candidate for governor commands the general and foremost attention. Though there are quite a number of candidates mentioned, the probabilities are that the convention will settle down to either Lieut. Gov. Black or Senator Wallace. At all events much care should and, we think, will be taken to select a candidate that will give general satisfaction, especially since the republican ticket and platform have some weak points, that may, by a diplomatic management of the democratic forces, become the means of republican defeat.

J. L. SPANGLER, Esq., of Bellefonte, announces himself as a candidate for Congress in this issue. As every county in the district presents candidates for the congressional nomination, it is most advisable to have Centre follow suit and keep up with the rest. Otherwise it would be disputable ground and would become a regular battlefield for all the other aspirants. As far as Mr. Spangler's record is concerned we deem it hardly necessary to write up a lengthy article, as he is well and favorably known by many. However we would remind our democratic readers that he is one of the best barristers in the county, a man possessing the necessary qualifications to appear in the congressional halls acceptably, should he be nominated and elected, and that he has always been a most active and zealous worker in the party.

EX-GOVERNOR CURTIN, our much esteemed congressman from this district, submits a statement to his constituents, informing them of his reasons for retiring from Congress at the end of his present term. The circular letter appears in this issue and the gentleman's many friends will read of his retirement with heartfelt regret. His congressional career was certainly a brilliant one and during his two terms of office he endeared himself to the soldier as well as to the laborer. His patriotic devotion to his country and his fearlessness in always advocating measures that would be for the public good have made him one of the most prominent members of the House and it is actually a pity when a man of his type retires from public life. But such is the whirligig of time. After years of faithful service the best statesmen step down and out to make place for new material.

AMONG the announcements this week may be found the name of Hon. C. T. Alexander, of Bellefonte, for the State Senate. It will be remembered that the gentleman was a candidate for the same office four years ago, but withdrew from the contest before the convention. We understand that Mr. Alexander thinks he is justly entitled to the nomination and consequently proposes to make a determined run for it. Several years ago Mr. Alexander was a member of the Senate and he is well-known in the county and district as a staunch and faithful democrat, deserving the support of his party.

Cleveland and His Votes.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The President has been engaged the past two days in personally examining the 141 special pension acts delivered to him June 24, which, by reason of the time required by the Pension Bureau to examine its records concerning them, were only ready on Saturday for his consideration. He has carefully studied all the facts presented in the reports made by the Congressional committee in each case and the special reports prepared for his information by the Pension Bureau, which are very voluminous and complete. The result of his investigation is, 20 bills vetoed and 120 approved and signed, one having been recalled. During this session of Congress 545 special pension acts have become laws, and 90 have been vetoed.

Announcement of Curtin's Retirement.

To the Citizens of the Twentieth Congressional District:

Having contemplated for some time my retirement from Congress at the expiration of my present term, I now announce to the citizens of the Twentieth Congressional District that I will not again be a candidate for re-election.

I make this announcement now in answer to the many citizens of the District, of different political parties, who have written me asking that I again allow my name to be used.

The office of Member of Congress is not a sinecure. I am constantly pressed with duties and engagements which I try to fulfill, but which have too often failed from the impossibility of success. Among these, not the least onerous and painful, are the numerous applications for official position, where success is possible under the most favorable circumstances only to very few.

It has happened also that the claims for aid in obtaining pensions made on me, not only by the surviving soldiers retired in Pennsylvania, but by those who have left the State, have added very largely to my labors. I need not say that I have willingly responded to these calls from the men who offered their lives for the preservation of the Government; and I may be allowed to add that my efforts in behalf of them, not only in the Bureau of Pensions, but in my place in Congress, added sometimes by my own personal knowledge and testimony, have not been fruitless.

And here I desire to express especially my deep gratitude to the surviving soldiers of the District, who, with remarkable unanimity, have earnestly and enthusiastically sustained me. Their confidence and friendship, given to me early in the war, have never been withdrawn, and one of the most grateful reflections of my life is that I shall retain that confidence and friendship until the end.

important trusts during the last third of a century, I can not close this announcement of my withdrawal from Congressional life without again expressing my grateful sense of obligation to the people of the District and State of my birth, amongst whom I have always lived, and by whom I have been supported and sustained with a constancy and devotion which I can never forget.

Very Respectfully,
A. G. CURTIN.

Caught by the Cars.

Distressing Railroad Accident in Altoona.

ALTOONA, Pa., July 9.—Two little girls, aged 2 and 3 years respectively, were run down by an engine at the Twenty-fourth street crossing on the Hollidaysburg Branch Railroad this evening. One was so badly injured that death may ensue at any moment. The other, although badly injured, will recover. The little ones had strayed away from home and were walking on the track, hand in hand, when struck. The engineer whistled repeatedly and reversed his engine, but his efforts to stop were futile.

Terrible Accident to a Farmer.

ALLIANCE, O., July 9.—A terrible accident occurred at Strasburg, a small hamlet six miles west of here yesterday. Daniel Lutzinger was unloading hay on Simon Mandra's farm with a horse hay fork, and as a forkful of hay was ascending the fork sprang loose from the hay and one of the prongs struck Mr. Lutzinger just above the left eye, tearing off the top of his skull and a small portion of the brain, the wound presenting a sickening appearance. He will probably die.

—ONE dose of McDonald's Great Blood Purifier or Sarsaparilla Alternative is guaranteed to contain more alternative properties, more truly remedial power than three doses of any other known alternative or blood purifier. Many other blood remedies are good enough in their way, only that you are compelled to buy a gallon of medicine to get a pint of remedy; the manufacturer having sacrificed strength and usefulness to palatability and profit. McDonald's Blood Purifier is put up in seventy-five cent bottles containing as much as most dollar bottles of other makes. Dissatisfied purchasers can have their money refunded.

Two Fatal Accidents.

EASTON, Pa., July 9.—Two fatal accidents occurred yesterday in Baskill township, Northampton county. Mrs. Jacob Welty, aged 49 years, was instantly killed by falling headforemost from a cherry tree. In the fall her forehead struck the ground with great force, and her neck was broken. A two-year old son of John Kaske was knocked down and run over by one of his father's horses, and died several hours later from his injuries.

They Went in Swimming.

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., July 9.—Yesterday Alexander Weaver living several miles from here, in the country, accompanied by a companion, both quite young, went to a store some distance from the house. On their way home the boys concluded to go in swimming in Pine Creek. The water was deep and young Weaver was drowned. His body was recovered.

Lock Haven wants the State Grange.

LOCK HAVEN, July 9.—Efforts are being made to have the next meeting of the State Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, held in this city. The citizens promise to make it pleasant for the grangers if they decide to come here.

An Exquisitely Lovely Thing.

A most bewitching picture is being brought out, entitled "Little Sweethearts." Probably no picture in any part of the world has ever met with such an outburst of applause. It is being brought out by Graham & Miller, Art Publishers, 146 Centre Street, New York. Everybody is sure to want one. They want good agents. Here is a chance to make lots of money. Boys, and girls during summer vacation can make a little pile. "Little Sweethearts" is praised by the best people in the land.

IT WENT ROUND AMONG THE NEIGHBORS.—Mr. Levi Stahl, merchant and postmaster at Fostoria, Pa., writes:

"Mr. J. A. McDonald, Reedsville, Pa. Dear Sir.—Some time ago I had a severe attack of chronic diarrhoea. Could obtain no relief. A friend gave me a part of a bottle of your Cutis' Carmelite Cordial, and a few doses entirely cured me. The balance of the bottle went around among the neighbors. Since then I have written to New York and Philadelphia for the medicine but could not procure it. I traced up the bottle we had and found it was purchased of Mr. Jacob Cowan, merchant in Altoona, and from him obtained your address. Please forward me one dozen bottles by express at once, as I do not wish to be without it in my family and wish to sell it in my store." Single bottle Cutis' Carmelite Cordial guaranteed to cure any case of cholera, dysentery, diarrhoea, cramps, pains and all irritation of the bowels incident to change of climate, diet and water.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.—The town council held their regular monthly meeting last Saturday evening and after the reading and approval of the minutes the clerk read a communication from D. F. Fortney, Esq., the council's attorney, in relation to the rights and duties of the council to make a plan of the Boro', establish and change streets, enact a new body of ordinances and other matter, upon which the following preamble and resolution was offered:

WHEREAS, the general ordinances of the Borough of Millheim, enacted by the council and approved by the Chief Burgess, April 21st, 1879, are in some points defective of their object and in others of doubtful legality, therefore, Resolved, that a committee of three, of which the President shall be one, be appointed who shall with the assistance of the clerk and attorney revise the said ordinances, so as to make them more effective and in conformity with the laws of the commonwealth. Said committee to report at the next regular meeting. After some discussion the resolution passed unanimously, the committee consisting of J. F. Harter, A. C. Musser and A. Miller.

Another resolution offered is the following:

Inasmuch as it is very necessary as well as required by law that the location of all streets, lanes and alleys should be definitely fixed, therefore, Resolved, that a special committee of three, of which the President shall be one, be appointed to make a complete survey and plan of the borough and to name the streets and alleys. Said committee is hereby authorized to employ one or two surveyors or engineers to carry out this resolution, provided that no new streets or alleys be opened nor any changes made in the location or width of any streets, lanes or alleys now existing, except by direction of a majority of the council. Said committee shall ask and demand from any person in whose possession the same may be, all plans, drafts, decrees of court or other papers relating to the Boro' and report to the next regular meeting.

The resolution was passed and J. F. Harter, Henry Fiedler and A. C. Musser appointed as a committee.

On motion it was voted that the clerk be and is hereby instructed to purchase at the expense of the borough, a copy of the latest edition of Purdon's Digest for the use of council.

On motion the tax rate was fixed at 24 mills for the current year.

It was voted that the street commissioner under the direction of the street and alley committee shall construct new crossings of plank, not less than four inches thick, at the alleys between A. Miller and Mrs. Albright, between Wm. Walker and B. F. Kister and between J. F. Harter and D. Scholl.

LAY THEM AWAY.—We mean the horrible, nauseous worm-seed compounds called worm syrups and vermifuges; many of them as worthless as they are obnoxious. They have out-lived their usefulness. People do not want them since McDonald's Celebrated Worm Destroyer, so easy and pleasant to take, can be had from any dealer.

Everyone who has tried them say they are the nicest and best vermifuges ever discovered. The children take them and never know a medicine is being administered. Any case of failure to cause explosion where worms exist the money promptly refunded in every instance.
