LOCAL NEWS.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE JOURNAL. First-class job work done at the JOURNAL OFFICE. A large lot of old newspapers for sale at this office. This town ought to be by all means have a bill board. Our townsman, Mr. Barnhart, is said to have an extra broad grin on his face, Twins! Mr. James Rankin, of Bellefonte, was in town yesterday, looking up the insurance business. The sidewalks of town are getting worse every day. What do our borough dads propose to do? Mrs. Kauffman, of Fisher's Ferry, came up on Friday evening's train, to visit her relations in this place. Mrs. John Toner, of Beech Creek, came home last week to pay a visit to her parents, Ex Sheriff Musser. Always in season—D. S. Kaufman & Co's new stock of good. Read their new advertisement on this page. For colds, croup, asthma, bronchitis and sore throat, use Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, and get the genuine. Dr. J. F. Harter, our dentist, sports a new fingle, painted by C. W. Albright. Charley can "toot" it. We call special attention to the article entitled "The boy next door" on our outside. There is lots of common sense in it. Lots of Huckelberries this season and the mountains are visited daily by parties gathering them. They sell at 5 cents a quart. Mrs. Kurtz, wife of Editor Kurtz, and Mr. Aaron Harter, of Centre Hall paid a short visit to friends in this place last Saturday. The Selzer Band of Lock Haven contemplate going on an excursion to Penn's Cayes, near Farmer's Mills, some time this month. A. A. Frank had a new and substantial plank sidewalk constructed in front of his property on Penn street, occupied by Dr. Frank. Mr. Jacob Sankey, of this place, advertises his valuable farm, in Penn township, for sale. The sale to take place on the 18th of August. Rev. M. I. Jamison, of Clinton-dale, was a caller at this office on Tuesday forenoon. He and his wife were over on a visit to their friends. Everyday brings forth something new under the sun and the latest is the discovery of a vast bed of gold-bearing quartz near Westport, Clinton county. When one sees the impure fats that are sometimes used in soap-making he is inclined to doubt the cleansing qualities of the soap. Dreydoppel's Borax Soap is made from the purest refined Borax, and is guaranteed pure and healthful. The band has received an invitation to attend the Festival of the Rebersburg band, which is to be held in a grove near that town next Saturday a week. Mr. McNeyan, and lady, of New York city, who have been staying with landlord Musser, for several weeks, returned home on Saturday morning's train. The Great Zingari Toothache Drops, for toothache and neuralgia, have no equal. Only costs 15 cents at any drug store. Warranted. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

A carload of stone crocks on the way. Look out for bargains. D. S. Kauffman & Co. W. T. Auman expects to leave Millheim for New Berlin in a few days to teach common school in that town. Mr. A. J. Reesman, of Centre Hall, is about starting for Nebraska and Colorado, with the intention of settling in the latter state. The Orphans' Court Sale of the estate of Hon. John K. Runkle deceased, near Tusseyville, is advertised in another column. The sale will take place on the 28th of August. Mrs. E. Bartholomew and daughters spent the last three weeks at her parents' home in Nittany Hall. Her father, Mr. Jos. Shafer, brought them back to this place on Tuesday. Baxter's Mandrake Bitters cure indigestion, heart burn, costiveness and all malarial diseases. Twenty-five cts. per bottle. Sold by J. Spigelmyer and D. S. Kauffman & Co., Millheim. The Lewisburg University, is now called "Bucknell University," after Wm. H. Bucknell, of Philadelphia, who has given about $90,000 towards the improvement of the institution. Malaria in any of its forms, chills and fever, congestive chills can be prevented or cured by the use of Simmons Liver Regulator, a purely vegetable medicine, superior to calomel and quinine. The estate of John G. Weaver, dec'd, in Clinton Co., will be offered for sale by L. B. Stover, Trustee, on Friday, August 6th. See Orphans' Court Sale Notice under legal advertisements. Samuel Frank, executor, advertises the sale of the real estate of Michael Frank, dec'd, late of Penn township, to take place on the premises in Haines township, about 3 miles east of Aaronsburg, August 12th. See bills. It is stated that of 341 marriages in Camden, N. J., during the month of May, 280 were of couples from Pennsylvania. Shouldn't we be surprised if Pennsylvania ministers would feel like emigrating to New Jersey. G. W. Wolf, of Fiedler, Haines township, wishes to notify the farmers that he will run his steam threshing machine throughout the season in Penns. Brush and Sugar Valleys. Persons wishing to engage his services will receive perfect satisfaction. We received information of the death of Mrs. Samuel Sankey which occurred at San Francisco, Cal. on the 2nd of July. Mrs. Sankey was a daughter of Jerry Dreisbach, formerly of Millheim and will be remembered by many. "My physician said I could not live. My liver out of order frequently vomited green mucus, skin yellow, small dry humors on face, stomach would not retain food. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me." Mrs. Adelaide O'Brien, 372 Exchange St., Buffalo, N. Y. We are in receipt of a splendid crayon portrait of Geo. R. Roberts, President of the Pennsylvania R. R. Co., executed by Root & Tinkers, N. Y., and the compliments of Murphy & Co., Varnish Markers in that city. It is an ornament to any library or sanctuary. The Pennsylvania Forestry Association publishes an eight-page paper, pamphlet form, with headquarters at Philadelphia. Its name is "Forest Leaves" and it is devoted to the advancement of forestry in this state. We acknowledge the receipt of the first copy. E. C. Campbell, one of our merchants, and W. J. Springer, the senior barber, put new safes in their places of business the other week. Several other firms, among them D. S. Kaufman & Co. have also received new safes. This looks like prosperity and an end to hard times. Our business men should not forget that the JOURNAL office turns out all kinds of business blanks, such as Letter Heads, Bill Heads, Statements, Tags, at very reasonable prices and in the best mechanical style. Give this office a trial before going elsewhere with your work. Mrs. D. A. Musser, and her son, Milton, returned safely from their western visit to T. R. Stam's last Friday morning and are very much pleased with their trip. They report Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Stam, as well as Clymer Musser, in good health and in prosperous circumstances. NOTICE.—All persons who have dealings with us are requested to call on us and settle their accounts between this and the first of August, next. After that date the accounts will be put in the hands of a collector. WHITMER & LINCOLN. Coburn, July 15th 1886. The old wooden structure, formerly known as the Evangelical church, and which was lately purchased at public sale by Messrs. Elias Lose & Son, was rolled back last week and now rests upon its foundations, spanning Elk Creek. It will make a spacious and convenient planning mill shop. Mr. L. A. Shaffer, one of the candidates for Prothonotary, was in town on Monday, (show day) to talk politics, &c. Mr. Shaffer is a very pleasant gentleman with the best qualifications for that office and if "straws tell which way the wind blows" he will hold his own very well in the race for victory.

We are requested to state that Mr. S. D. Gattig will open a subscription school at Coburn, Pa., on Monday, July 20th, inst. A NEW RESIDENT.—The fitting of Mr. Geo. Hazel, of Madisonburg, arrived in town on Tuesday. Mr. Hazel is clerk in J. Spigelmyer's store and moved into the tannery house. The dog population of Millheim is 46 males and 4 females. The former are taxed 25 cents each, the latter $1. Some ought to be taxed at least $10.00 each, for their howling and barking at night. Messrs. John Foster and Elmer Weaver, the two Aaronsburg bicyclists frequently take a "spin" through Millheim, and are watched with a great deal of curiosity as they ride along on their treacherous steeds. Post 293, (Biery's) of this place, numbering about thirty, have purchased G. A. R. uniforms and in company with our well-uniformed band will certainly make a creditable show at Lewisburg on the 9th of September. Mrs. Lewis Mench, of Aaronsburg, has the thanks of the JOURNAL scribe for a mess of nice cucumbers and tomatoes of this year's growth. The lady evidently is a successful gardener and knows what poor printers like. Mr. A. L. Potter, one of Selinsgrove's foremost attorneys, accompanied by his wife and mother, arrived in town on Friday evening and stayed with Jacob Sankey's, on Main street over night. On Saturday morning they continued their drive to Nittany Valley, to visit relatives there. D. S. Kauffman & Co. are having a new and first-class stone crossing built in front of their store on Main street. John Rhoad, that excellent mason, does the work. This crossing is a much needed improvement, as all those who have occasion to cross the street in rainy weather will attest. CHERRING WORDS.—Mr. C. J. Burkert, of Springfield, O., in renewing his subscription adds the following words of praise for the JOURNAL: "We who were formerly from the valleys of Central Pennsylvania and are now scattered through the West, highly appreciate the JOURNAL. It is newsy and fully abreast with the local papers east or west. The neighborhood correspondence is an acceptable feature." Post 52 (Tucker) has sent invitations to over 100 Posts to be here on the 9th Sept. Hope all will accept.—Lewisburg Chronicle. As far as we know nearly all the posts in Centre county are arranging to attend the reunion at Lewisburg and the Lieut. W. W. Biery Post, of this place, has extended an invitation to the Millheim Band to accompany them. It will be a red-letter day for the "boys in blue." Last Wednesday night about 1 o'clock, part of the northern wall of the brick kiln above town suddenly gave away and Mr. Armstrong, one of the hands working on the yard, was severely injured by the fall of the hot brick falling upon him. He was lying in a hammock, which was fastened near the kiln, at the time, asleep, and entirely unconscious of impending danger. His wounds were dressed and we are glad to say will have no serious results. Mr. Stewart, headboss, is unable to account for the break. Candidates seem to travel with or after the shows, at least it looked so Monday. Several gentlemen with aspirations after office were in town on that day to take advantage of the gathering and talk to as many voters as possible. Not the least among them was J. L. Spangler, Esq., of Bellefonte, candidate for Congress. Another was Mr. Aaron Williams, whose card, stating his case, appears in the first column of our second page and who, if nominated will draw the solid vote of the county's democracy for prothonotary. Last week's Clinton Democrat contains the following item: From Mr. Walker. S. E. Walker, of Nittany Valley, and husband of the lady who died from the effects of injuries inflicted by a bull tramping her, writes and says the published reports of the terrible affair were misstated in some particulars. Mr. Walker's version is, substantially, the bull did not chase the woman, but, hearing her coming behind him, and being blind of one eye, was startled and turned quickly, knocking Mrs. Walker down. It was then that the animal pawed her, inflicting the injuries which proved fatal. He says that the bull was not a cross or vicious animal but as docile as a cow. Mrs. Walker died peacefully and her death is much regretted by all who knew her. [Centre county papers please copy.] This, of course, vindicates the bull, but it does not change the sad result a particle. Main's Circus, which had been exhibiting at Rebersburg, last Saturday evening, and was well attended there, came to this town on Sunday morning and took possession of the grounds, they had rented back of Penn street. Our people residing in that neighborhood all agree in the opinion that the show people conducted themselves very quietly and decorously during their stay. On Monday morning the big canvass tent was erected and very soon a crowd gathered to await the events of the day. At noon the town was fairly filled with people, and the free exhibition and parade was witnessed by nearly everybody that could be on hand. Both the afternoon and evening exhibitions were taken in by large crowds of people and most of them pronounced the performances very good and fully worth the low price of admission.

A new lot of Real Manchester Chambery Ginghams, all shades, just received at Kauffman's store. They are beauties. Go and see. Anammoth timothy stalk measuring 6 feet 7 inches was brought to this office by Mr. Geo. Peters yesterday. It grew on his land north of town. There will be a meeting of Centre county Pomona Grange at Centre Hall, Tuesday, Aug. 3. JAS. A. KELLER, Secretary. An interesting article from the Philadelphia Times on "Canada Thistles" appears on our second page. Since that obnoxious weed is allowed to grow freely along our highways and in some of the fields, some persons may profit by reading the piece. The personal property of the Lewisburg planning mill was sold at sheriff's sale last Saturday for $385.75. The machinery, fixtures and some lumber were bought by Messrs. C. H. Hassenpflug, A. H. Dill and J. H. Kremer and the mill will be in operation right away. NOT ENOUGH WITH ONE.—We see by our Union county exchanges that brother Foote, of the Millburg Times, has taken charge of a paper in Berwick, Columbia county, which he issues besides the Times. He divides the week between Millburg and Berwick and must be as busy as a beaver. But no difference, as long as it pays. Rev. W. H. Diven, of Salona, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends here and at Aaronsburg, and on Sunday evening filled Rev. Deitzler's pulpit in the Lutheran church of this place. He took his text from Matt. XXII: 11: 12: 13 and gave his hearers a very interesting discourse. Rev. Diven's sermons are generally to the point and are full of instruction and admonition. CHURCH FESTIVAL.—The members of the Lutheran church of Aaronsburg have decided to hold an appropriate church festival in this the 100th anniversary of the "burial of Aaron Levy" on Saturday, the 14th of August, next. The festival will be held on the lawn near the Lutheran church. The arrangements are at present incomplete, but the exercises will be suitable to the time and occasion. The public is cordially invited to attend. AN $18,000 FIRE AT HOWARD.—Last Thursday afternoon the large four-story brick flouring mill at Howard, this county, owned by W. H. Long & Co., caught fire and was totally destroyed. The loss is estimated at $18,000, with no insurance. The fire is said to have been caused by friction of the machinery and as the borough is without any fire apparatus gained rapid headway and in an hour and a half the building was in ruins. The adjoining stable and other buildings were saved. DEATH OF AN ESTIMABLE OLD LADY.—Mrs. Emanuel Ettiger, whose protracted illness and expected death is mentioned in this week's Aaronsburg correspondence, died at her residence at Aaronsburg yesterday (Wednesday) morning at a very advanced age. As the news reached us but shortly before we went to press we are unable to publish her obituary in this issue. The funeral will take place on Friday forenoon. Rev. Deitzler being on the sick list Rev. John Tomlinson, of Abbottstown, has been telegraphed for to conduct the obsequies. Col. J. W. Norris, of Philadelphia, the republican candidate for Auditor General, spent a few hours in town last Monday, when we had a pleasant talk with the gentleman, during which he remarked that he is in need of a good rest, and not being able to find it at the watering places and larger summer resorts, he chose the quiet town of Aaronsburg, where the surrounding mountains and hills shut out the busy and restless world. Col. Norris is a very sociable gentleman and a free conversationalist. Upon his arrival at Aaronsburg, last Saturday he was accompanied by our band in the evening, but feeling indisposed could not leave his room and the boys returned somewhat disappointed. SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Mr. James Witney, residing in what is called "Frogtown," a mile northeast of Millheim, while working at the new still-house at Coburn was seriously injured on Tuesday forenoon. He was rolling a log from the mountain and while thus engaged his hold on the cant-book slipped, and the heavy lever threw him about 15 feet into the air. He landed in the creek on his head, receiving several deep gashes and painful internal injuries. Dr. Frank who was called to attend the unfortunate man, says that his injuries may disable him for work for several weeks. Mr. Witney is a hard-working man with a family, who have the sympathy of the community in this trouble. Last week's Sunbury Democrat came out with a newspaper cut representing Rev. S. G. Shannon, the Lutheran pastor of that city. Right under the picture it publishes a short biography, winding up with the following eulogistic sentences: Mr. Shannon is a preacher of great force and a splendid pastor. He is also very popular with all our citizens without regard to denominations. The great work of building a new church has been inaugurated under his pastorate, and if energy and push amounts to anything it will soon be built. A pleasant man in social intercourse, loved by his people, and respected by the entire community, no man stands higher in Sunbury than Rev. S. G. Shannon. As Rev. Shannon is known by nearly all our readers, and many of them are his personal friends, the above paragraph will be read with interest and pleasure and they will readily join the writer in his wishing the gentleman "Godspeed" in his high and responsible calling.

AN ORNAMENT.—If there is one thing that speaks well for a town it is a well-regulated cemetery covered with fine tombstones, which give evidence that the community pays due respect to the memory of departed friends. Fairview cemetery was adorned last week with another very attractive monument, which marks the last resting place of some of the members of B. O. Deisinger's family. This family monument is composed of four pieces of different marble of the following dimensions: Base, Sutherland Falls Marble, 2 ft. 4 in. square and 1 ft 2 inches high; Sub Base, Whitney Marble, 1 ft 8 inches square and 8 inches high; Die, Tennessee Marble (dark) 1 ft 2 inches square and 3 ft 4 inches high; Urn, Whitney Marble, 10 inches in diameter and 1 foot 8 inches high. The total height of the monument is 6 feet and 10 inches, of beautiful Gothic design and excellent workmanship. Messrs. Musser & Alexander of this place, erected this artistic piece of work and the purchaser as well as the manufacturers may justly feel proud of it. It is without a question the finest monument ever erected by our marble men. Neighboring News. COBURN. The rain last week brought a number of fishermen here to spend the night fishing. Candidates are now almost as thick as flies. There are several applicants from this section for the position of storekeeper at the new distillery here. It is hard to say who will turn up best as they are all good solid democrats. W. H. Kremer purchased a family horse the other day and his boys received a team of goats as a present from some friend in Schuylkill Co. Mr. J. Frank Torbert, of Williamsport, and Judge Whitmer, of Sunbury, spent several days in town last week. Col. J. Wilson Norris, candidate for Auditor General and his family got off the train here Saturday eve and took the hack for Aaronsburg and then instead of spending a short time for rest and recreation at the hotel of Andy Immel, Esq. P. P. Barker wishes to dispose of his property on account of his poor health. This would be a good opening for some energetic, enterprising man. Mr. W. H. Kremer, of Emporia, Kansas, after spending several weeks in our village leaves for his western home to-morrow, Tuesday forenoon, leaving his wife and daughter here to spend the summer. We noticed a communication in the Keystone Gazette, of Bellefonte, written by the Millheim correspondent, which reflects on our generosity and is a slur on our village. There is not much use in saying anything in reply to such a flimsy item. It is true, as we are informed, the promoters of the festival did ask the Millheim citizens for aid, which was generously given, as it should have been, as Millheim has frequently called on our citizens for aid in getting up festivals. As for treating the Millheim Cornet Band to two dishes of cream in the dusty road, is saying what is not true as the band were asked to come here and live things up with some music and they kindly consented to come and we know that they were well treated and think they were very well repaid. This was the second visit of the band to our village in a short time and we think they were well taken care of both times and do not think the writer of the article was a member of the band. How is it, Mr. Editor, you were with the band both times when here, what do you think of their treatment? We would not be surprised if the crank who wrote the item was one of the smart chaps who were here attending the festival and eat themselves clean full of cake and ice cream, and then quietly slid out and left without paying for it. Dear Vale, don't talk, it isn't worth while to spend the wind over all that is in the item or in the writer of the same. If anybody is slurred at all it is correspondent in the Gazette.—Ed. AARONSBURG. Miss Polly Thomas has returned from her visit to Dakota. Prof. Chas. Stover of the Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., occupied Rev. Yearick's pulpit on last Sabbath. Main's show at Millheim had quite a liberal patronage from our town and east Penns Valley. On last Sunday evening the lightning struck a wheat shock in Mr. Wm. Stover's field, on the hill south of town, and the entire shock was burned to ashes. How about that rooster, boys? You had better keep quiet and let good enough alone. It was a very unbecoming act for young men of your age and position. A few farmers at Fiedler had a meeting to adopt a fixed price for harvest bands. Some agreed to pay $1.00 per day, others 75 cents and some even had the audacity to offer only 50 cts. per day. Self binders don't always work, especially if you don't know how. At this writing Mrs. Emanuel Ettiger's condition is very hopeless. Her children have all been summoned to her bedside. Her death is momentarily expected. Aaronsburg has quite a large number of visitors at present. Col. Jas. P. Coburn and Mrs. Eva Rogers are conjointly entertaining a number of their relatives from Clearfield county and others from the East, while Col. Norris and family, from Philadelphia, put up with Andy Immel, but for reasons unknown to your correspondent moved their quarters to Em'l. Cronemillers. What's got over you, Andy. William Kremer and wife, from Emporia, Kansas, were seen in town on last Saturday. N. W. Cronmiller, from Bellefonte, paid us a short, but friendly visit, and Mrs. J. W. Russell and her daughter Iva, from Lewisburg are the guests of Thos. Harpers. Pure air and pure water conspire to make our town attractive. Rev. Diven, from Salona, was the honored guest of Rev. Deitzler during the close of last and beginning of this week. It was expected the visiting minister would preach for the Lutherans in this place on last Sabbath, especially since they are not having any services for two successive Sundays. ANOTHER.

ATTENTION FARMERS.—The threshing season is approaching and the while of the steam thrasher will soon be heard throughout the country. Farmers should know whom to get in order to have their work done right. I am prepared to answer the first call and will endeavor to accommodate all my old customers, and as many new ones as may see fit to employ my services. Prof. Baney, the well-known champion thrasher and his son, will have charge of my machine, and they will call on you in good season. Do not promise your threshing to anybody before you have seen the professor. My terms will be very liberal. Yours truly, H. O. Duck. SPRING MILLS. Last Friday J. H. Bibby, one of our accommodating landlords took some of his guests to the mountains, south of this place in a spring wagon to show them the fine scenery and also to gather huckleberries. After they had arrived there he hitched his ponies to a tree and piloted his friends through the woods, leaving the ponies at their place. When he returned he was surprised to see that one of the ponies had torn the rope and was gone. He made a diligent search at once which he continued the next day but the lost could not be found. He has been on a hunt up to this writing (Tuesday) but with no success. It is feared that some one stole the animal and had cut the rope to leave the impression that the pony had torn loose and ran away. On Monday morning as the colored porter, who drives the hack from and to the depot for the Sbafer House, was turning his team at the depot, a small dog frightened the horses and a broken axle was the result of it. But no one was hurt. The band festival on Saturday was a grand success. The Logan Hose Company from Bellefonte was here in full uniform. The Zion band furnished the music which was excellent and shows that the members of that band are men of energy coupled with musical talent. The candidates for various offices were on the ground looking up their interest and their friends. We understand that the proceeds amounted to about $160. Miss Sue D. Miller is visiting friends in Tyrone, Pa. She expects to be absent about a month. T. B. Jamison has gone to Millersburg, where he intends to sell fruit and ornamental trees. Messrs. Dale and Underwood have the contract for building the new creamery building. W. A. Brown is off to Harrisburg on business. Prof. Hosterman will open his select school next Monday. The present indications are that he will have a large school. Michael G renoble who has been seriously ill for some time is on a fair way to recovery. Krumrine & Bro. expect to rebuild their shingle mill which was recently destroyed by fire. MADISONBURG. The farmers are about done hauling in grain. Mr. Calvin Runkle, of Spring Mills, commenced his subscription school in town on Monday morning. William Biery, Emanuel Hazel, Geo. Yearick and Lewis Wolf shouldered their satchels on Monday morning and started for Rebersburg, where they will attend Prof. Gramly's school. George Hazel moved to Millheim on last Tuesday, where he will clerk for J. Spigelmyer. Mrs. Shaw and son, of Clearfield, are the guests of Dr. Lee. STILL ANOTHER.
