Announcement.

R. A. BUMILLER, ESQ., EDITOR MILLHEIM JOURNAL .- Dear Sir: Some parties are circulifting the report that I am not a candidate for Prothonotary. Now I desire to say to the Democrats of Centre County, that I am a candidate in earnest, and want to make the nomination if I can do so honorably, and hope the people will give my case fair consideration with the rest. Respectfully Yours,

AARON WILLIAMS.

It is believed that the final adjourn ment of Congress will occur about Monday or Tuesday of next week.

THE latest news dated July 27th states that editor Cutting has been liberated and the Mexicans will have to give up thinking of war.

HUBERT O. THOMPSON, the wellknown leader of the County Democracy of New York, and considered a politician of much ability and force, died sud denly on Monday morning, the 26th instant, of apoplexy.

COUNTY CHAIRMAN Hoy publishes in this issue the rules for the delegate election, with the list of persons who are to hold said election in their respective districts. Democratic voters should read the same and be governed accordingly at the coming election. It is always essential to a successful or inefficiency on the part of the campaign to do the work pertaining to it as intelligently as possible.

THE name of Hon. Leonard Rhone appears among the announcements this week. He is a candidate for reaomination as assemblyman and stands exactly upon the same footing with his colleague, Hon. J. A. Woodward. His excellent qualifications for the office are sufficiently known to secure for him the hearty support of the party at the approaching convention.

Ir may be of interest and importance to the public to learn that the law in all cases is on the side of the pedestrian. Few teamsters and drivers low pedestrians to cross first.

HON. P. GRAY MEEK, the editor of the Bellefonte Watchman, announces himself as a candidate for the Senate in this issue. Mr. Meek is well-known all over the county and state as one of the most zealous and faithful democratic workers, a man who always stood firm by his party and its principles, and never flinched to advocate the best means for the good of the democracy through the columns of his wide-spread paper. His claims upon the support of democratic voters are not of trifling nature and will doubtless receive due consideration.

Hon. John A. Woodward, one of our worthy representatives in the state legislature, announces himself in this issue as a candidate for renomination as member of assembly. We do not think Mr. Woodward should or will have any opposition for said office, first because it is customary in Centre county to give members of the legislature two terms and secondly because the gentleman has the fitness and courage to represent his constituents in a taithful and untlinching manner. Whenever a case can not well be bettered, then "good enough should be left alone."

DEMOCRATS in instructing their delegates for Congress should by all means throw their influence and support to J. L. Spangler, the only candidate for that office in this county, Gov Curtin has positively declined to have his name used in any wise or manner and the democratic voters of Centre county are therefore in duty bound to give Mr. Spangler their support. There is certainly no use in leaving the county open for a canvass by neighboring candidates, and by voting for Spangler the county democracy will not cast its bailots for an undeserving candidate.

THE republican ticket seems to have been sent away for repairs. General Beaver rusticates in California, and Quay is on a furlough and off for Mexico. Quay's parting instructions to Beaver are said to have been "Dear Beaver, don't talk, and don't come back until September." Col. Norris talked too fast at Gettysburg and he was shipped somewhere not a ling. Further deaths are expected by thousand miles from this place. Like- to-night. It is impossible to ascertain ly they will bottle up the rest of the ticket and make it swim down the Niagara Falls, a la Graham before the summer is past. The worst of it is, the whole Beaver ticket stands an even chance to take a trip upSaltRiver about the third of November.

A Point in Favor of Change.

The report of the year's business of the Internal Revenue Bureau is the best evidence yet presented in favor of a change in the political completion of the agents in the administration of the government. No other branch of the government has been so completely changed. Not only the head but nearly all the subordinates left by the Republican administration have been removed and Democrats put in their places. The result cannot fail to strike the average mind with favor.

According to the report the collec tions for the year just closed were previous year of $4,481,724. Changes cost of collection was not increased in proportion to the increase in receipts. On the contrary a reduction of expenses to the aggregate of $155,000 is shown, thus demonstrating that the improvement is attributable to greater efficiency or greater integrity. When the Treasury Department changed hands the boast was made that the accounts balanced, and credit honesty of the Republican officials then shown. But how is the differintegrity of the officers into question? The increase in receipts and reduction of expenses in one bureau makes a gain to the Treasury of $4,636,724. Was that amount stolen by the Republican officials, or was it allowed to be wasted by carelessness in handling agents of the Government ?-Patriot.
