SUBSCRIBE for the JOURNAL. Best Mush melons at J. W. Lose's grocery. First-class job work done at the JOURNAL office. Mr. Brigger, of Salona, tarried a few days in town. Already it may be noticed that the days are shortening. The rain on Monday evening refreshed vegetation greatly. Go to J. W. Lose's grocery and get the worth of your money. Willis Bollinger has erected a stable on his premises on Water street. Regular services in the Lutheran church of this place next Sunday morning. We noticed Maj. R. H. Forster, of Harrisburg, in Aaronsburg on Sunday last. Water melons and cucumbers are in the market and colic attacks are in order. There will be regular services in the U. B. church, of this place next Sunday evening. Though it may be ever so hot, keep cool, gentleman. It is by far the safer course to pursue. Buy your goods where you can get them the cheapest, viz. at D. S. Kauffman & Co's store. A. J. Harter, the carrier, took a flying trip to Philadelphia, last week, presumably on business. The Penn Hall Sunday school thinks of getting up an excursion to Show Shoe in the near future. John L., son of Jacob Alter, of North street, is at present seriously ill with inflammatory rheumatism. Miss Cora B. Kreamer left for the wide West this week, with the intention of paying an extended visit to friends. Mr. Harper, the father of J. C. Harper, Esq., of Bellefonte, is lying seriously ill at his residence near Centre Hall. Operations on the repair of the M. E. church are commencing this week. The basement floors have already been torn out. When one sees the impure fats that are sometimes used in soap-making he is inclined to doubt the cleansing qualities of the soap. Dreydopp's Borax Soap is made from the purest refined tallow, and is guaranteed pure and healthful. Glass Jars—the old reliable "Mason" and the new and handy "Lightning"—sold cheaper at Kauffman's store than elsewhere. A. S. Hottentstein, editor of the Milton Economist, was appointed postmaster at that place, the senate confirming him on Tuesday. Our Straw Goods must be sold at cost before the season closes. Take advantage of this fact. D. S. KAUFFMAN & CO.

Kauffman's store—the best place in town for shoes. Two boys, aged 12 and 14 years respectively, were killed by lightning on Tuesday afternoon at Clearfield, Pa., while playing base ball. A splendid stock of Pine Apples and Watermelons, and a fresh supply of Green Goods just coming in at Lose's grocery on Main street. Dr. E. J. Deshler and lady passed through town enroute for their home in Aaronsburg yesterday afternoon, having returned from their western trip safely. Col. H. S. Gross, and aged mother, of Philadelphia, arrived in yesterday evening's train, and will be the guests of Thos. Yearick's, in Aaronsburg, for a few days. Mrs. Benj. Winters and Mrs. Jos. Winters, and children, of Lock Haven, are here on a visit to relatives. Both are sisters of Christ. Woodling, residing near Aaronsburg. A postal note from Dr. D. H. Mingle informs us that he has changed his place of residence, having removed from Davis, Stephenson Co., Ill., to Dakota, same county and state. Baxter's Mandrake Bitters cure indigestion, heart burn, costiveness and all malarial diseases. Twenty-five cts. per bottle. Sold by J. Spigelmyer and D. S. Kauffman & Co., Millheim. $10 REWARD.—The undersigned offer this reward for the discovery of the parties who damaged their boat on the Woodward dam. W. R. ETTLINGER, BENJ. ORNDORF. Mrs. S. D. Musser spent a few days with friends in Millburg last week, and on her return was accompanied by her little daughter, Marion, who had been in the burg several weeks. The estate of John G. Weaver, dec'd, in Clinton Co., will be offered for sale by L. B. Stover, Trustee, on Friday, August 6th. See Orphans' Court Sale Notice under legal advertisements. If you are troubled with a "hacking cough," Down's Elixir will give you relief at once. Warranted as recommended or money refunded. Sold by J. Spigelmyer and D. S. Kauffman & Co., Millheim. The name of the Selingsgrove Times—News has been cut down to Times again and one of the publishers, Mr. Early, has with drawn from the paper, which is now under the sole control of J. G. Leshar. The Burdock plant is one of the best diuretics or kidney regulators in the vegetable world, and the compound known as Burdock Blood Bitters, is unsurpassed in all diseases of the kidneys, liver and blood. Yesterday's Millburg Telegraph records the death of James Chambers, a prominent and well-known citizen of that borough which occurred on last Sunday morning. His age was 81 years, 10 months and 6 days. Samuel Frank, executor, advertises the sale of the real estate of Michael Frank, dec'd, late of Penn township, to take place on the premises in Haines township, about 3 miles east of Aaronsburg, August 12th. See bills. An exchange says "fruit is so plenty this season that there will be no occasion for stealing it." That's all right, but it goes against the constitution of the average boy not to have a lift at the neighbor's apple tree. A misstep will often make a cripple for life. A bottle of Henry & Johnson's Arnica and Oil Liniment at hand, will not prevent the misstep, but used immediately it will save being a cripple. Sold by J. Spigelmyer and D. S. Kauffman & Co., Millheim. The building of the new U. B. parsonage at the lower end of Penn street is progressing rapidly now. The framework was raised on Saturday and will be under roof before the end of the week. The structure is roomy and will make a handsome appearance when done. A very close duplicate of ours must have been walking the streets of Bellefonte on Tuesday morning, or else the sight of the Daily News editors was dimmed by an over-dose of benzine. We know our shadow is long but it surely wasn't seen in Bellefonte on Tuesday. Don't fail to take in the band picnic near Rebersburg next Saturday. For one you will have an opportunity to listen to the Zion and Millheim bands, the two best musical organizations of the kind in the county, besides all the other attractions usually found at such places. NOTICE.—All persons who have dealings with us are requested to call on us and settle their accounts between this and the first of August, next. After that date the accounts will be put in the hands of a collector. WHITMER & LINCOLN. Coburn, July 15th 1886. The Millheim band had its regular annual election of officers last Monday evening. The president and treasurer were reelected, while Dr. J. F. Harter, was elected secretary, vice P. H. Musser. Any communications to the band should be addressed to J. F. Harter, secretary Millheim Cornet Band.

Our Drugs are positively pure and our drug department is filled with all the popular Patent Medicines. D. S. KAUFFMAN & Co. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Evangelical ch. at this place purpose holding a festival on Saturday evening, August 14th, instant, in the Skating Rink. The object of the ladies is to secure funds to complete the furnishing of the church. Last Sunday Rev. Lenard was duly installed as pastor of the Rebersburg Lutheran church, at which occasion Rev. M. L. Deitzler, of Aaronsburg, is said to have preached a splendid sermon. A number of Lutherans from this place attended the installation services. Don't fail to notice the "New Comet" advertisement of J. W. Stoyer in another place. Mr. Stoyer is ready for business and requests everybody to visit him in his new and elegant store-room on Main street. He carries a splendid stock of goods which he sells as low as the next man. Give him a call. The schoolboard had a new sidewalk laid down in front of the school house on Penn street. It is a first class walk and enables pedestrians to move along smoothly, which is more than can be said of the old walks. The patches on most of our boardwalks are getting as numerous as those in a crazy quilt. Mrs. E. W. Mauck is off on a visit to her parents at Lightstreet, Columbia county. During his wife's absence her husband, who is acknowledged to be the best paper hanger in this neck of woods, papered the sitting room of their residence in the finest style possible, no doubt just to please his better half. The job is actually worth going to see. Rev. C. J. Burkert, of Springfield, Ohio, is at present sojourning in Rebersburg, his native place, having been called home to the side of his mother's sickbed. Mrs. Burkert suffers with dropsy, but we are glad to state is somewhat better again. The reverend gentleman expects to preach in the U. B. church at Rebersburg next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Keller's summer school commenced on Monday morning with a large number of scholars. As had been his intention to grade the school, his daughter, a well-educated young lady, with several years experience in teaching has taken charge of the primary class, and both the departments are in splendid order. The term promises to be one of the most successful ever taught in town. PICNIC.—A picnic will be held by the Rebersburg Band, on Saturday, July 31st, 1886, in a grove located a short distance from the town. The exercises of the day will consist of addresses by able speakers, choice music by the Millheim and Green Burr bands and various games of amusement. A good dinner will be furnished for 25 cents. Ice Cream, Lemonade, Confectioneries and other refreshments will be on the ground. The program for the day is calculated to entertain everybody in a pleasant manner. Come one! Come all! G. W. WINTERS, President. G. WEBER, Secretary. The gentleman with whom we had the pleasure to ride to Aaronsburg last Sunday evening to attend Lutheran church, was real indignant when after services as he went to fetch his conveyance from the shed, he found that some undisciplined scoundrel had made it his business to let down every curtain of the carriage and do it in such a rude way as to tear the straps with which the curtains were fastened. Now we really blush for Aaronsburg, that quiet, staid town; contemptible tricks like that we don't hear of in Millheim. But we forget that Aaronsburg is no borough and is therefore deprived of the benefits of councils and high constables to look after the roughs. AARONSBURG CENTENNIAL CHURCH FESTIVAL.—The ladies of the Lutheran congregation of Aaronsburg have, for several reasons, thought it best to change the time of their Centennial Church Festival from the 14th of August to the 7th, one week earlier than published in the JOURNAL of last week. They are also now prepared to say that the festival will assume the character of olden times, and, so far as possible, will be made to look like 100 years ago. No trouble no pains will be spared to show our profound respect for this venerable burg of our ancestors. The festival promises to be interesting to both young and old. The Millheim band will be in attendance. The festival, as before published, will be held on the lawn near the Lutheran church. All are invited to attend. Remember the time is a week from Saturday. IT WENT ROUND AMONG THE NEIGHBORS.—Mr. Levi Stahl, merchant and postmaster at Fostoria, Pa., writes: "Mr. J. A. McDonald, Reedsville, Pa. DEAR SIR.—Some time ago I had a severe attack of chronic diarrhoea. Could obtain no relief. A friend gave me a part of a bottle of your Cutis' Carmelite Cordial, and a few doses entirely cured me. The balance of the bottle went around among the neighbors. Since then I have written to New York and Philadelphia for the medicine but could not procure it. I traced up the bottle we had and found it was purchased of Mr. Jacob Cowan, merchant in Altoona, and from him obtained your address. Please forward me one dozen bottles by express at once, as I do not wish to be without it in my family and wish to sell it in my store. Single bottle Cutis' Carmelite Cordial guaranteed to cure any case of cholera, dysentery, diarrhoea, cramps, pains and all irritation of the bowels incident to change of climate, diet and water. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents, Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

Rev. John Tomlinson, the former pastor of the Aaronsburg Lutheran church, but now of Abbottstown, Adams Co., arrived in Friday morning's train, pursuant to a call to preach Mrs. Ettinger's funeral sermon. He tarried among his many friends in this town and Aaronsburg until Tuesday morning, when he returned home. Rev. Tomlinson is a distinguished veteran in the Gospel service and we are free to say that nearly all of his former flock in this vicinity were truly glad to see him in their midst. The Daily and Weekly Patriot for the Campaign. THE HARRISBURG DAILY PATRIOT, the central organ of the Democratic party of Pennsylvania, will be sent, postage paid, to subscribers, from now until Nov. 10th, for $1.50; four copies to one post office $5.00. THE WEEKLY PATRIOT, a large eight page paper, only $1.00 per year. Special inducements to clubs. The coming political battle in Pennsylvania will be one of unusual interest. THE PATRIOT has unrivalled facilities for receiving the latest news and the most accurate political information from all parts of the State. Address all communications to THE PATRIOT, HARRISBURG, PA. I. O. OF GOOD TEMPLARS.—Mr. C. Dinges, Clem Deininger and others, of Centre Hall, were down on Monday for the purpose of starting a Good Templar Lodge in this place. A meeting was held in the Ev. church in the evening which was fairly attended and resulted in the organization of the Lodge: The following were elected officers: H. K. Luse, C. T. Mrs. J. F. Harter, V. T., D. L. Zerby, Sec., J. H. B. Hartman, Treas., Geo. Buck, Fin. Sec., H. D. Snyder, Marshall, Mrs. S. D. Musser, Ass. Sec., E. E. Bressler, Sentinel, Mrs. J. W. Lose, Guard, Mrs. A. Walter, R. H. S., Mrs. D. Zerby, L. H. S., S. D. Miller, D. M., A. Walter, Lodge Dep., J. F. Harter, P. C. T. Much interest was manifested in the movement and another meeting was appointed for next Monday evening, when all those who wish to join will have an opportunity to become charter members. Mr. J. B. Hooveman, of whose protracted illness the JOURNAL had made frequent mention, died at his residence on Main street, on last Thursday, the 22nd instant, at the age of 27 years, 6 months and 25 days. Deceased was a native of Lewisburg, Pa., but has been residing in Millheim for the past few years, during which time he was an invalid and unable to work. Mr. Hooveman, in former years, was employed on the L. & T. railroad and had many friends among his fellow employees, by whom he was regarded as a very obliging and pleasant young man. The funeral services were held at the residence of the deceased on Saturday forenoon by Rev. C. W. Wasson, after which the remains were taken to Lewisburg for burial. He leaves a wife and a two-year old little girl, as well as many relatives and friends to mourn his death. But their loss is his eternal gain, as his end was peace. May the Lord comfort the bereaved ones. OBITUARY.—Died at Aaronsburg, Centre county, Pa., on Tuesday evening, July 29th, 1886, Elizabeth, wife of Emanuel Ettinger, aged 82 years, 8 months and 20 days. In the death of this excellent and venerable lady the community in which she passed all the days of her protracted life and of which she was so estimable a member has sustained a loss which will long be felt. She will be sorely missed in her loving home circle, in the church whose membership she adorned, and by her many friends and neighbors in her native village. Mrs. Ettinger, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Beck, was born in the town of Aaronsburg, on the 31st day of October, in the year 1803, and never resided elsewhere. She was the fourth child of John Mathias Beck, a native of Hamburg, Germany, who came to America when a young man, settled at Aaronsburg about the year 1797, and was well known in his day as one of the most intelligent and useful citizens of Penns Valley. In early life she united with the Evangelical Lutheran Church. Until prevented by the infirmities of age and disease she was one of its most active and zealous members, and she continued to the hour of death a sincere and consistent christian woman, both in profession and example. She was ever anxious for the welfare of others—always unselfish and generous. One beautiful trait of her character was the kind solicitude she showed for the needs of the sick, the suffering and the poor. To these her heart and hand were always open, adorning her life work with sweet deeds of kindness and charity. She was joined in marriage with Emanuel Ettinger on the 6th day of April, 1824, and thus for over sixty-two years they journeyed along the pathway of life together. She was the mother of nine children. Her aged husband and four daughters remain to mourn a grievous bereavement. She was a devoted and faithful wife—a fond and careful mother. The daughters who survive her are Mrs. William H. Stover, of Aaronsburg, Mrs. R. H. Forster, of Harrisburg, Mrs. J. G. Kurtz, of Milton and Mrs. L. D. Kurtz, of Millburg. Though she lived to a ripe age, all profoundly mourn her departure, but it is not as those who sorrow without hope. Her good life and her never doubting and sublime faith in the truths and promises of the Christian religion give positive assurance that "all is well" with her in death.

Neighboring News. SMITH TOWN. Guess you thought Jumbo was asleep last week. Alaman Keen sold one of his horses the other day. The corn is topping out nicely and soon we may enjoy roasting ears. Last Saturday the plasterers finished John Kimport's new house. Jacob Keen patched up the old barn roof again. Mr. Grossman had a brake-down last week with a large load of barley. Rather provoking. Mr. A. King, the boss thresher from Texas (Millheim) was in our midst and threshed out Mr. Charles Frankenberg's and Geo. Royer's crops. A number of our folks were over in the Seven Mountains last week gathering huckleberries and returned with bushels of them. H. E. Duck and wife took in the installation services at Rebersburg last Sunday. Our harvest home picnic this year will come off at the celebrated Penn's Cave on the 14 of August. Posters giving particulars will be out in a few days. JUMBO. AARONSBURG. What has become of the borough question? And the pavements that were to be put down at the east end of town immediately after harvest? Mrs. Sabm and her daughter Anna, of New Berlin, Pa., are the guests of John H. Musser's. One hour and eight minutes is a long time to listen to an address delivered on a Sunday morning, when the thermometer registers about 94 in the shade. Prof. M. O. Noll closed his school on last Monday for the want of a sufficient number of scholars, and returned to his home at Lewisburg, Pa. Luther E. Stover, who was quite low with typhoid fever, has regained sufficient strength to sit on a chair a few hours each day. His present condition is prospective to a speedy recovery. We would suggest that the church councils who have in charge our several burial grounds, see that all stone piles and other rubbish be removed at once from the grounds in question. Do please be more urgent in this matter. On account of Rev. Deitzler's illness Rev. Jno. Tomlinson, of Abbottstown, Pa., former pastor of this (Luth.) charge was called to conduct the services at the burial of Mrs. Em'l. Ettinger, dec'd, on last Friday. On the following Sunday evening he preached to a large and attentive audience. We are sorry to hear of the sickness of Mrs. Dr. E. J. Deshler. Mr. and Mrs. Deshler left Iowa for their Pennsylvania home several weeks ago. While visiting friends in Ohio, Mrs. Deshler took sick. As was reported, she was at one time not able to leave her bed, although of late she has been improving. Their arrival home is daily expected by their friends. ANOTHER. [As to the omitted item in your communication you will please notice the corrected article in the third local column.—Ed.] COBURN. Huckleberries are very plenty and the market here is overstocked, selling at four cents a quart. The first new wheat was brought in yesterday (Monday) by Jacob Gephart and purchased by Whitmer & Lincoln. On Thursday evening last the news was received here of the death of James Hooveman, who had been a sufferer for several months. A subscription was circulated around among the railroaders and others and quite a nice purse was raised for paying the funeral expenses. He was buried in Lewisburg Saturday evening. Andrew Vonada has the frame of his house up and has hands busy at work on it. The Moyer Bros. are also digging the foundation for their dwelling house. Mrs. W. W. Wolfe, of Lewisburg, is visiting at Mr. Swengles. There is some talk of our Sunday school holding a picnic ere long. W. L. Bright shipped car load of fine cows to Phila. this (Tuesday) morning. Our people are talking some politics now and the prothonotary is the main subject. As far as we are able to see and from what we have talked and learned we are inclined to believe that Shaffer is the choice of our township and think it would not be a bad choice either. VALE. REBERSBURG. The potato bug is doing considerable damage to the growing crop. Our farmers are at present engaged in harvesting their barley crop, which is good. One day last week while Ad. Wolf was taking a pleasure ride his horse took fright and ran away. A smashed up sulky wheel was the result. Geo. Crouse who was down with typhoid fever, I am glad to mention, is able to be about again. The select school which Prof. Gramley is teaching in our town is largely attended. The band picnic which will be held in a grove near town next Saturday, we hope will be a success. An invitation to come and participate in the pleasures of the day is extended to all. Three visiting bands will be on the ground. Guiswite & Co. have employed an extra set of men and now run their saw mill day and night. Huckleberries seem to be plenty in the mountains south of Wolf's Store. Many of our farmers are laying in a large supply of the berries. They sell here at 3 cts. per quart. Last week our supervisor passed through this section and notified all owners of land to cut down and keep Canada thistle from going to seed. This is a step in the right direction as this pestilential weed is fast gaining the upper hand on some farms in this valley. Frank Snyder has accepted the job on Guiswite's saw mill to run the edger, a position which Frank can well fill. SQUIBON.

SPRING MILLS. Prof. W. P. Hoosterman opened his select school with about fifty pupils. Prof. S. C. Stover will assist him. The contractors for the creamery are busy at work. The foundation is already dug and work on the walls will begin at once. The structure, we understand, is to be finished by the latter part of August. GOOD FOR MALARIA.—E. James, Thompsontown, Pa., writes: "J. A. McDonald, DEAR SIR.—Send me two dozen boxes of your Liver Pills at once. Some of our people say they have cured them of chills and fever and they do not want to be without them." JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa. DIED. On Tuesday evening, July 29th, at Aaronsburg, Centre Co., Pa., Elizabeth, wife of Emanuel Ettinger, aged 82 years, 8 months and 25 days. On the 22nd inst., at Millheim, Pa., James B. Hooveman, aged 27 years, 6 months and 25 days. MARRIED. On the 13th inst., by Henry Reinhart, J. P., James Beck, and Maggie Orndorf, both of Centre county, Pa. NEW COMET. Grand Opening of Stover's Store. This comet of extraordinary LARGE SIZE and brilliant BEAUTY appears at present in the mercantile sky of MILLHEIM.
