One day last week while Harvey Bierly was mowing with a scythe he accidentally let it slip through his hand thereby inflicting an ugly gash which will di sable him for work for several weeks.

Adam Ketner and wife, of Lock Haven, spent several days this week among friends and relatives in this neighborhood.

Our band boys did not get over to he Greenburr band picnic last Saturday, as was expected. The boys were out in full uniform bright and early and, no doubt, some of them were fostering pleasant thoughts about the coming good time and the long table filled with the choicest of eatables. Imagine their disappointment when they recieved information that their teamster would not come as he had other engagements. The band disbanded in disgust and regretfully thought of "ye olden times."

The remains of John Harper, of Centre Hall, were brought here for interment last Sunday. They were follow-
