THE Prohibitionists convened in state convention yesterday in Harrisburg, to nominate a full ticket. It is taken for granted that Hon. C. S. Wolf, of Lewisburg, will lead off as the prohibition candidate for governor.

BLAINE, the Plumed Knight of Maine, has opened the campaign in that state with addresses in which he discusses the Fishery Dispute, the Mexican Trouble, the Tariff and the Labor Question. Well, talk is cheap assemblage to order and it seemed the and he a good ways off from the presidency in 1888.

BULGARIA'S Ruler, Prince Alexan der, was dethroned, the event taking place after midnight, when the revolutionary leaders bluntly made known to the surprised prince what their mission was. Upon his refusal to yield he was made a prisoner. The dethronement creates intense excitement among the military and civil population of Bulgaria, as well as the neighboring continental powers. They seem to be doing things in a hap-hazzard way out there.

Mr. Hensel will devote his time exclusively to the management of the of laws by which labor organization may be in-Democratic campaign in Pennsylvania until the election. It is not known what he will do then but it is surmised that he will accept a position on the editorial staff of the Philadelphia Times. Mr. Hensel is a very able writer and would make a valuable member of the Times editorial department.

> THE soldiers' orphans school question was again revived by the recent report of General Louis Wagner, who was recently appointed Inspector of those schools. Gen. Wagner visited all the schools and found that in many of them there still exists gross mismanagement. The report fully sustains Governor Pattison's position, and as during the Governor's investigations the schools at this time have again been found wanting in many respects. There are poor, worn-out buildings, the privies are foul, the bedding and table-ware are poorly kept, and the water supply in most cases is very poor. In some of the schools the rooms are overcrowded and in most of these institutions wash baisins, towels, combs and brushes are very scarce. Surely there is room

At half past nine o'clock in the forenoon W. U. Hensel, the chairman of the state committee called the convention to order. After some introductory work M. C. Herman, of Cumberof Northumberland Co., then offered a resolution for the appointment of com- honored priciples of the democracy. mittees on organization, resolution, and the making of committees at once began. As soon as the committee on resolutions was announced a large number of ready-made resolutions were produced by the delegates, but all were referred to the committee. Considering the bulk of work which laid before the committees and in order to give them more time the convention took a recess until 3 o'general desire to dispose of the business with dispatch, as all the delegates were at their posts in good time. The committee on permanent organization presented the name of Mortimer F. Elliot for permanent chairman. The convention received this nomination with much enthusiasm and Mr. Elliott took his place with a few words of thanks and encouragement to the party. The report of the committee on credentials was then read and adopted. Next in order was the report of the Platform. 1. The Democracy in Pennsylvania, in convention assembled, do declare that we reaffirm the Chicago platform of 1884, approved by the people in the election of Cleveland and Hendricks; that we favor a just and fair revision of the revenue laws in accordance with the letter and spirit of that declaration of Democratic principles, and in-such revision care should be taken that such changes shall be made in spirit of fairness to all interests and without depriving American labor of the ability to successfully compete with foreign labor and without iming American labor of the ability to successfully compete with foreign labor and without imposing lower rates of duty than will be ample to cover any increased cost of production which may exist in consequence of the higher rate of wages prevailing in this community.

2. That we endorse the Democratic reform administration of President Cleveland. It has given confidence to the business industries of the country, purged the departments of corrupts.

4. That we sympathize with labor in its efforts to make industrial and moral worth, not money, the true standard of individual and national greatness, and to secure to the workers the full enjoyment of the wealth they create and sufficient leisure in which to develop their intellectual, moral and social faculties; to this end we desire the enlargement of the Bureau of Statistics, the abrogation of all laws that do of Statictics, the abrogation of all laws that do not pear equally upon capital and labor, and the prevention of the hiring out of convict labor; the adoption of measures providing for the health and safety and indemnification of injuries to those engaged in mining, manufac-turing and building industries; the enactment orporated and arbitration extended and en-forced, and a suitable apprenticeship act for the purpose of creating a better class of arti-sans and mechanics; the prohibition of the em-ployment of children under 14 years of age in workshops, mines and factories; the strict and exact enforcement of the laws relating to pluck

Seymour. We know how Pennsylvania grieved for Winfield Scott Hancock. We cherish the memory of him in the shadow of whose death we meet and the sentiment which was adopted by a National Convention of our party gives him the best homage of freemen—the pledge of our devotion to the principles and cause now inseperable in the history of the Republic from the labors and name of Samuel J. Tilden.

The convention after the adoption of the platform proceeded with the nomination of candidates for Governor. P N. Guthrie, Col. Henry Mc-Cormick, William A. Wallace, Robert Emmet Wright, S. P. Wolverton, Col. Robert Deckert, and lastly Lieut Gov. Chauncey Forward Black were named. The nominations were then closed and the result of the first and only ballot was: Black, 193, Wallace, 129, McCormick, 12, Deckert 1.

The nomination of Lieut. Governor Black was made unanimous amidst enthusiasm and applause.

After the evening recess the coning R. Bruce Ricketts for Lieutenant Governor, J. Simpson Africa for Secretary of Internal Affairs, Wm J. > Why the Call for the Redemption of Bonds was Made.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Acting Secretary Fairchild made the following statement to-day in regard to the call for $15,000,000 of bonds issued yesterday: The receipts are unusually large just at this time. Silver is being absorbed by the people pretty well, and the conditions generally are quite favorable for such a call at this time. The call does not effect the money market enough to make the tight market a motive, as the bonds are mostly held by national banks, but what little effect it has is helpful, and the public may as well get the benefit of it. To suggest that it looked like following the Morrison resolution, the Secretary said, with a smile that it was more than that. He denied that the calls were made for political effect. The reason Secretary Manning had not made such calls, was that the conditions were not favorable. The thing had been overdone when he assumed control of the department and McCullough was in doubt about the result. When he went out Secretary Manning had to wait until the condition of the treasury would warrant any further reduction of the debt. To have gone on calling bonds with the treasury in the condition it was might have reduced the money to the single silver standard. It was not safe to call in more bonds at that time if the two metals, gold and silver, were to be kept on an equality.

What we are Indebted to the South

There appears in our columns to-day the advertisement of the well-known and universally used in the Southern States) Simmons Liver Regulator. Years ago it won its way into every household of the South by pure, sterling merit. It there takes the place of a doctor and costly prescriptions. The medicine is becoming widely known in the North, and wherever used the demand for it has steadily increased. I is a family medicine, containing no dangerous and deleterious qualities, but purely vegetable, and so gentle in its action that it can be safely given to any person, no matter what age-the centenarian or the crowing youngster. Working people are often in that miserable state of health which really renders them unfit for labor; but they haven't time to take medicine and be sick. Simmons Liver Regulator can be taken without causing any loss of time, and the system will be built up and invigorated by it. The Regulator promotes digestion, dissipates nasty sick headache, and gives a strong, full tone to the system. In malarious climates it is invaluable, both protecting attack from the disease and expelling the poison after it has entered the system. It has no equal as a preparatory medicine, and can be safely used when a doctor cannot be called in. Persons of the very highest character and eminence have given Simmons Liver Regulator their cordial and hearty endorsement.

CUTTING TO BE RELEASED.

The Court to Decide that He Has Been Sufficiently Punished.

EL PASO, Tex., August 22.-By a special dispatch to the El Paso Times Second Chamber of the Supreme Tribunal or this State took up the case of A. K. Cutting, and, after reviewing the entire evidence, the argument began. This did not last long. The attorneys pro and con had previously come to an agreement that the two months imprisonment already suffered by Cutting be considered a complete purgation of his crime." This makes it certain beyond a doubt that the sentence, which is to follow shortly, will conform to this agreement among the attorneys. The case was heard with closed doors.

LAWRENCE, Kas., August 22.-Mr. Mansfield, long a resident in this city. who carries on heavy mining opperations in old Mexico, has returned from the Municipal Mine, in Sonora, which he left on Tuesday. On Wednesday he visited Cutting in his cell at Paso del Norte, and says the editor was treated more like a guest than a prisoner. He was lightly guarded, had the best there was at the prison, and was held as a sort of prisoner of state. Mr. Mansfield thought the Mexican authorities would have been glad had the prisoner effected his escape, and would have put few obstacles in his way. The war feeling was decidedly on the increase on both sides of the Rio Grande. "The warlike spirit of the Mexicans," he said, "arises not so fram active hostility to our Government and to our people as from their own turbulent condition and the internal dissensions that are distracting their people and paralyzing their General Government. The more intelligent Mexicans who, under other conditions, would be opposed to war rather favor it now, as they seem to think it will serve to quiet their own factions and make their own people united and harmonious. American citizens are treated most shamefully by the Mexican States and the Mexican General Government.
