Senate-Hon, P. GRAY MEEK, subject to the de cision of the senatorial district convention.

BLACK is certainly a very popular candidate with the farmers and if rethe colored men as Quay did recently in Philadelphia there will be a large number of black fellows voting for BLACK.

THE rumor which was afloat this week that the island of Cuba should have disappeared from the face of the earth caused a great deal of anxious inquiry. But as none of the leading daily papers confirmed the report the matter simmered down to a hoax.

MAINE's elections of a governor, four congressmen and a legislature, which took place last Monday resulted in the re-election of Bodwell for governor by a greatly reduced majority. The Republicans carried every congressional district and elected two-thirds of the Legislature. Nothing surprising about this result, the Pine Tree state simply stuck to Taking in consideration the whole combination of disadvantages which stare the Republican party in the face in this campaign we really can not see how they expect to pull through. There is that growing, rebellious Prohibition party, which expects to poll over 50,000 votes and take the greater number from the Republican party, because that is the party which sympathizes with the cold water cause; there is Beaver's unpleasant store order record and Col. Norris talk at Gettysburg, and last but not least the offended and indignant colored voter. These are the principal obstructions in the race course of the Republican campaign which make Beaver's success in November exceedingly doubtful and brighten the chances of

THE Republican county convention met at Bellefonte last week [Tuesday] and nominated J. G. Love, Esq., of Bellefonte, and G. G. Mattern, of Potter township, for the Legislature, Geo. M. Boal, of Potter township, for Prothonotary, J. H. Lichtenthaler, of Philipsburg, for District Attorney and Jesse Cleaver, of Unionville for county surveyor. The convention also endorsed Col. Jas. P. Coburn, of Aaronsburg, for congress.

As to the merits of this ticket, as against the nominees, but to say anything more for them would be folly for a democratic journal. A fact to be regretted however, is that all of them will be sacrificed upon the political altar in November, because the Democrats of Centre County are not ready to lose the day and do not propose to let the Republicans beat them.

Boss Quay sat down ugly on the colored voters of Philadelphia the oththe dusky race, wish to run one of their number, a Mr. Gipson, for the legislature, and at the republican ward meeting appointed a committee of col cred gentlemen to wait upon Colonel Quay and enlist his influence for Gipson. At republican headquarters they were told Quay had just gone out for a few minutes and were invited to take seats on the stairs. They waited for over an hour and finally went away disgusted and bitterly feeling the insult. It is plain that boss Quay and the rest of republican ringsters do not want colored men in office. All they want are their votes. But treat ment of this kind will be apt to turn the despised colored voter and make him look around for a party that will give him a more gentlemanly reception. The following remarks made by a prominent colored man who was a member of the ill-treated committee gives the sentiment of the Philadelphia colored voter and it wouldn't be any wonder if their brethren all over the state would take up the strain and proclaim war on the party they have supported but which now abuses them:

"We don't propose to beg nor ask favors of any party, but such action ly confirms the idea that the Democratic party does more honorable and stands by more openly toward the colored man than does the Republican party. The party will see when it is too late, that the colored man will go al interests of the race and not particularly as to the especial representaasking favors when it is in our power our trade.' to demand; we are just in that position, and the second of November will tell the colored voter is no child. We desire it understood that this insult will be resented at the polls, we are tools no longer, but men."

The Labor Interests and Democracy.

terests of the State this year sympathize with the cause of the Democracy in Pennsylvania. For example publican politicians continue to insult | Thomas A. Armstrong's National Labor Tribune of Pittsburg says ; We would respectfully but urgently the brilliant hint the Democrats of posal of Chairman Hensel. Pennsylvania have recently given. For it is patent from the results of the Harrisburg convention of August 18th, that political management has taken upon itself a tendency toward progression, which to ignore will leave the party the lurch. We have no hesitation in asserting that that convention is as far in advance of contemporary conventions, in the selection of men and the formulating of measures, as were the Reputlican conventions of twenty-five years ago ahead in wisdom and honesty > of to-day. Cut out the very proper complimentary mention of the distinguished members of the party recently deceased, and the usual commendatory references to the national and State administrations, and the platform is brief and energetic. The dead wood of the conventional platform, which has so long been a sickening evidence of the insincerity of such instruments, is notable for its absence. On the other hand, the convention puts the party in trim for combat on the railroad discrimination issues, the same which the Republican convention declined to touch. As tersely as though old Judge 'Jere' Black himself had turned out of heaven on this third anniversary of his death to dictate it. this resolution says in plainest terms that the fight is for the enforcement of the constitution relating to railroads and other corporations.

In the selection of the ticket the conyention undoubtedly did wisely. Mr. Black is the son of Judge Jere. Black, and a man of fine abilities and unquestioned honesty. The offer of the Auditor-Generalship to Mr. Weihe, the president of the A. A. of I. and S. W. was in the line of brilliant management characteristic of the occasion, and no less so was the nomination of W. J. Brennen upon Mr. Weihe's declination, inasmuch as that gentleman has deservedly many friends, more especially among the miners, numbers of whom he has defended without charge during the last three years in various conspiracy prosecutions. The nomination of Maxwell Stevenson may also be regarded as a happy hit. Take it all in all, the Dems' have swung around laborwards to an extent heretofore unknown to the old parties. Justice impels us to say far as we know, nothing can be said that they have succeeded surprisingly on this round, and we can fancy only one other party that will excel it in platform and ticket; meaning, of course, the Greenback-Labor party."

Hon. James H. Hopkins Interviewed

PITTSBURG, Sept. 12.—Hon. James H. Hopkins submitted to a brief interview here yesterday. Among other things ne said: "I think that Black's chances for Governor are better than Beaver's, as the Prohibition party will Signs multiply that the labor inprobably poll 50,000 to 60,000 votes, a large portion of which will come from the Republican party. I was in York, and with Black, last week. He is re-ceiving many encouraging letters from all parts of the State, and will have a large Republican vote in his own county. Such wealthy men as the Smalls and Mr. Farquhar, the large manufacsuggest to the Republicans in those turers of agricultural implements, have States in which the fall conventions | delared for him because they know him have not been held that they brush up well. I think we will have 5,000 majortheir intellects, if they have any, and ity in that county and 15,000 to 20,000 in the State." Mr. Hopkins says he put their best foot forward, if both be will take an active part in the camnot too far gone in lameness, and take paign, having placed himself at the dis-
