A cool rain set in on Sunday afternoon.

Black Sateens just received at Kauffman's.

Beginning of autumn next Wednesday, Sept. 22.

Don't you forget the band festival next Saturday.

First-class job work done at the JOURNAL office.

The trees are beginning to dress in their autumn shades.

J. Spigelmyer is preparing to move into the new store room on Main street.

Davis & Lorett's show in the town hall on Tuesday evening was attended poorly.

Noah Stover is having a porch erected on the north side of his residence on Penn street.

Bob Kreamer, of Water street, feels about ten foot taller since the arrival of that new baby girl.

Mr. Geo. B. Haines, of Wolf's Store, paid the JOURNAL office a friendly call on Monday.

Mrs. J. O. Deininger, in company with Mrs. Dinges, of Centre Hall, were seen in town on Saturday.

We tip our hat in acknowledgement of E. K. Nuarr's treat of several clusters of luscious grapes.

SOMETHING RARE.—First-class New York Cheese, full cream, at J. W. Stover's store on Main street.

H. J. Kurzenkabe came up from Harrisburg on Monday and spent a few days in town on business.

The crowds have changed their course since the opening of J. W. Stover's new store on Main street.

Soon the unmusical tap upon the historic stove pipe by the patient paterfamilias will be heard all over town.

FOR FIVE DAYS ONLY all summer good will be sold at cost. Take advantage of the fact. D. S. Kauffman & Co.

Oh yes, we nearly forgot to mention that Geo. Mensch had an increase in the family the other week. The little stranger is a girl.

The young folks who love a little fun should be on hand at the band festival on Saturday evening next and join in the cake walks.

For nice, cheap and fresh Watermelons, Cantelopes, Sweet Potatoes, Bananas, Peaches, &c. go to D. S. Kauffman & Co's store.

Mrs. Sam. H. Meyer, of Aaronsburg, expects to make sale of her personal property at the toll-gate, on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 25.

The Grangers' picnic on Nittany Mountain to day will about wind up the picnic season. The weather is getting too cool for out-door sports.

Mr. Peter Wolf, of Jersey Shore, and Wm. Orndorf, of Woodward, both JOURNAL subscribers, gave our sanctum brief calls on Monday forenoon.

The Rebersburg band will make things lively at the band festival in the rink next Saturday evening. While taking your refreshments you can enjoy the concert.

Jacob Burkert, of Rebersburg, announces sale of Wagons, some farm implements, and household furniture, on the premises in said town, Saturday, Oct. 2nd.

Sanford Miller, one of the typos on this paper, who on account of sickness was compelled to abandon the case the greater part of last week, is able to be at his post again.

A very pleasant farewell party was given Miss Mable Musser at A. J. Harter's residence by a number of her young lady friends on Monday evening. But oh, those men (?)!

Mr. Henry Miller, the painter, had the misfortune to fall from a ladder while painting at Centre Mills last week and sustained painful bruises. He manages to be about again.

As the fall season is advancing we are prepared to supply our many customers with Flannels, Cotton Flannels, Yarns, &c. at the usual low prices. D. S. Kauffman & Co.

Among the improvements going on in town at this time are the well which A. J. Harter is digging on his premises on Penn street and the stone-walk P. S. Meyer is having constructed in his front yard.

The new barn on J. H. Reifsnnyder's farm, west of Millheim, was raised on Tuesday and quite a crowd of people were out from town to assist in the work and share some of the fun incident to such raisings.

J. Eisenhuth informs the public that he has added to his drug stock the celebrated KEYSTONE MALT WHISKY and other pure liquors. Sold only on prescriptions of physicians, for medicinal use. 33-6m.

Some of our citizens are making preparations to lay in their winter coal. W. J. Springer had a very attractive little building put up in his front yard for that purpose. Jake believes in beautifying the town, ahem.

The framework of the new steeple of the Methodist church is towering high in the air and promises to compare well with the others. The repairs about other parts of the church edifice are also progressing nicely.

Don't Experiment. You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems, at first, only a cold, and you permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure and get the genuine. Because it can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottles free at J. Eisenhuth's Drug Store.

Mrs. Sarah Zeigler desires us to announce that in connection with her bakery on Perry street she conducts a first-class eating house, where good meals can be had at any time and at very reasonable rates.

NOTICE.—Harry Cohen, of the New York cheap store, wishes to give notice that he will not open the store before the 15th of October, on account of the Jewish holidays which fall in the first and second week of October.

The band boys have concluded to sell oysters at their festival next Saturday. This makes variety enough to suit everybody. Ice cream for the warm-blooded, and a hot stew of oysters for the chilly. Don't fail to be there.

Last Friday County Superintendent Wolf examined the teachers for Penn township and Millheim borough in this place. We hear that the majority of the teachers stood the examination well and received fair certificates.

Read the new stove and tinware advertisement of Jacob Eisenhuth, appearing elsewhere in this week's JOURNAL. He has in his employ Mr. D. I. Brown, a first class mechanic, and is prepared at all times to fill orders for spouting.

J. F. Gilbert & Co., the merchant tailors from Millersburg, Pa., are at present stopping at the Musser House and will remain in town until Saturday. They will be glad to receive orders for suits during their stay, and guarantee satisfaction.

AND STILL THEY COME.—The Clymer family, that celebrated juvenile cornet band, are billed for Millheim, to-morrow (Friday) evening in the town hall. As our people know the merits of this company, no favorable comments are necessary.

CARD OF THANKS.—The U. B. All-workers Society of Millheim return their sincere thanks to all those who kindly donated toward the festival. Also to a generous public for their liberal patronage.

By order of the Committee. Miss Nannie Britt, of Wheeling, West Va., and Miss Puella E. Dornblaser, of Clintondale, Pa., passed through town on Monday on their way to John Bright's at Aaronsburg. They stopped a few hours at "Brookdale," D. O. Deininger's residence.

Abs. Harter publishes the sale of his property on Main street, as well as his terminal near Aaronsburg and also personal property consisting of two ponies, two hoes, spring wagons, grain cradle, harness and household furniture. The sale to take place Saturday, Sept. 18. Read bills.

TAKE NOTICE.—I would hereby kindly give notice to all concerned that my sale notes, which are due on the 19th instant, are left at the Millheim Bank for collection, and if not paid on or soon after maturity, will be placed into the hands of a collector. C. F. DEININGER.

Bellefonte expects to have a new banking house. Several gentlemen connected with the Bellefonte Iron Company, among them E. M. Blanchard, Esq. and M. Jamison, of Philadelphia, will be the members of the company. The Daily News says that Hon. Jas. P. Coburn is mentioned as the cashier of the institution.

A look at our advertising columns on the second page will tell our readers that Millheim will get a new store by the first of next month. Mr. Cohen, who some time ago sold fancy Dry Goods and Notions in Sankey's building, will locate permanently at the store on the corner of Main and Penn streets, at present Musser & Smith's hardware.

Sam. Ulrich's mad cow created quite an excitement on Penn street last Friday forenoon. She would not be driven to the slaughter house and became so infuriated that for quite a while she prevented everybody from approaching or passing her. At last a few of our pluckier men pelted her with all kinds of missiles and succeeded in driving her out of town and back to Coburn.

Many of our young gents (?) are in the habit of running in and out of our churches during services and of course in most cases make all the noise possible. This sort of disturbance should be stopped. If they are not willing to pay the respect due the minister and congregation and attend services without transgressing the rules of the house of God and of civilized society we for one suggest that they be made to do so.

ANOTHER ENTERPRISE.—Millheim excites quite a boom at present in the line of new enterprises. The latest is a hennery on Penn street by Jerome Spigelmyer. He will during the coming winter raise chickens by incubation and expects to run the business on a large scale. As there is always a good demand in the market for early spring chickens, this industry will be a paying one.

It does beat all what a time they expect to have at the Lewisburg Fair next week. We learn that the owners of several horses having a record below 2.25 have notified the managers that they would enter for the $500 purse on Saturday the 25th. That will be the kind of trotting seldom seen in the county papers. Boys! It will not do to miss that, only $1.00 from Coburn and return by special train. It's going to be a daisy.

One who was there informs us that the entertainment recently given at Rebersburg by the Misses Shafer, of Reading, was excellent in all its parts. Bertie, the youngest of the sisters, is pronounced a fine eleectionist and her performances were highly appreciated and enjoyed by her hearers, while Katie greatly delighted her audience with her comic recitations. Both the young ladies are sure to gain public favor wherever they go.

Typoid, Scarlet and Yellow Fevers, Measles, Diphtheria, Small-pox, Cholera, &c.—Darby's Prophylactic Fluid will destroy the infection of all feve & all contagious and infectious diseases. Will keep the atmosphere of any sick-room pure and wholesome, absorbing and destroying unhealthy effluvia and contagion resulting therefrom. Will neutralize any bad smell whatever, not by disguising it, but by destroying it.

Use Darby's Prophylactic Fluid in every sick-room.

J. W. Snook bought the farm of the late Christ. Behm, southeast of town, at public sale last Saturday, at $70 per acre. The mountain land situated in Haines township, and belonging to said farm, he purchased at $136 per acre.

Our school directors have engaged the teachers for the ensuing winter term. Mr. Keller, who has been teaching two subscription terms during this summer, will take charge of the grammar department, and M. C. Gephart, one of our own young men gets the primary school. The North street school will be taught by D. G. Smith. The Borough schools will begin on the 4th of October.

WHAT MORE CAN YOU WANT.—The Centre Hall Reporter of last week in referring to the enter prices which are springing up in the different towns around them, says that Centre Hall could also stand a boom of that kind. Brother Kurtz forgets that Centre Hall is just establishing a second newspaper, an enterprise that surely augurs progress and increase in business. Neither Millheim nor Spring Mills can boast of the like and are consequently not as fortunate as Centre Hall.

The borough schools are likely to be very much crowded this winter, a fact that is to be greatly deplored. Our school rooms are rather defective, affording very poor ventilation and when well filled with children are anything but healthy. Besides, the teachers are hardly able to do justice to a school numbering from 25 to 30 scholars. We think it would have been policy to have a fourth school and thus distribute the work more evenly. We hope our directors will make this necessary change before another year passes.

Negotiations for the establishment of the knitting factory are progressing quietly, but as we are assured by members of the committee who have the matter in hand are on a safe way to a final settlement. We think in another week the project will have sufficient backing to proceed with business. LATER.—Messrs. J. S. and J. K. Crawford, arrived in last evening's train and a meeting of the stockholders was at once appointed for 7 o'clock last night. As we went to press about that time we are unable to give the result in this weeks issue.

MULTUM IN PARVO.—McDonald's Great Blood Purifier or Sarsaparilla Alternative is the most highly concentrated, most harmoniously and skillfully combined of all the blood medicines offered to the public. Many certificates from well-known and worthy persons could be furnished to substantiate the virtues claimed for this great medicine, but the manufacturer prefers simply to say any purchaser feeling the benefit derived from the use of a bottle not equivalent to the seventy-five cents invested in the purchase can have their money refunded. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

The picnic at Penn's Cave last Saturday was not as largely attended as was anticipated. The fact is that there were too many of the farmers and the people in general at the Grangers' Picnic at William's Grove and the reunion at Lewisburg. Nevertheless a pleasant time was had and both the birds as well as many of the picnickers took a trip through the caves. As usual Mr. Long, the proprietor of the Cave did everything to make the visitors feel at home on his premises. The day was very pleasant, the air being cool and bracing and those that were there certainly enjoyed themselves.

A. G. Heckman, of Seville, Ohio, in his letter which he renews his subscription to the JOURNAL, lists the following items as part of the state. Other articles continued improvements such as the planting of shade trees, along the front and principal drive, the macadamizing of roads, &c., are intended, and will be made as soon and as fast as the funds will permit. The Rules and Regulations, it is believed, while very liberal will fully cover every contingency and insure the good management and order of the cemetery.

It now remains for the public to second the wishes of the Directors, in order to insure the success of the enterprise, by purchasing family plots. The prices of these are as yet very low, in fact hardly half what they are sold for in other cemeteries of this class. For example a plot of 10 by 14 feet is rated at $7 to $8; 10 by 20 feet, $10 to $15, according to location.

It is manifest in view of the heavy expenditures already incurred and of others soon to follow, that these prices cannot long remain at the present low figures, while the persons intending to buy would do well to apply soon.

For further information please call on A. C. MUSSER, Superintendent.

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.—At a joint meeting of the St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church and the officers of the Lutheran Sunday School, at Millheim, Pa., held Sept. 12th, 1886, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously passed:

Resolved, that we extend to the bereaved family our warmest sympathies, commending them to the merciful arms of our Heavenly Father's care.

Resolved, that we cherish the memory of our deceased sister and will imitate her example in our Christian life and consecrate to the service of the master. We lament her absence from our society, from the church and prayer meeting, from our Sabbath schools, and the community in which she lived, but we mourn not as those who have no hope, knowing that our loss is her eternal gain.

Miss Mable M. Musser, the oldest daughter of our townsman, S. D. Musser, and one of our most charming young ladies, left Millheim on Tuesday morning for Lutherville, Md., to finish her education in a Female Seminary at that place. Her companions will learn with regret that they will lose her for the greater part of two years. The Lutheran church and Sunday school, of which she is a member will miss her much. She filled the position of organist very creditably for nearly two years, during which time she was at her post, with noteworthy punctuality. Miss Mable is a very bright young lady and with the superior advantages offered in a good seminary will no doubt cultivate her natural talents and return highly educated. The best wishes of Mable's many friends accompany her.

Miss Rhone, daughter of Leonard Rhone, Esq., Miss Sankey, daughter of Isaac P. Smith, Miss Mingle, daughter of Wm. B. Mingle, and Miss Bond, daughter of George M. Bond, all of Centre Hall, also left for the same seminary on Tuesday morning.

The following is the programme for the Seventh Annual Convention of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Central Pennsylvania, to be held at Bellefonte, Pa., Sept. 28 and 29, 1886: Tuesday 28th.—3 p. m., meeting of Executive Committee; 7 p. m., reception of delegates; devotional exercises, conducted by Mrs. S. A. Fair, Salona, Pa. Music by the choir; Words of welcome by Miss Rhone and Rev. C. T. Steck, Bellefonte; Response, Miss Puella Dornblaser, of Millheim; Prayers, Miss M. M. Smith, D. Britt, Wheeling, W. Va.; "Witnesses for Jesus," Rev. C. W. Heister, of the Los Angeles Mission, Cal.; Music; Collection; Benediction. Wednesday, a. m.—9-30, Consecration service, Mrs. Rev. Glodhill, Newport, Pa.; Reading of minutes; Reports of officers; Election of officers, etc.; Music; "Missionary Societies and their work," Miss Blanche E. Dale, Lemont, Pa.; "Our Mission in San Francisco," Miss Mary E. Olevine, Bellefonte, Pa.; "The Jews," Miss M. Kate Furst, Salona, Pa.; Prayer, Wednesday, by the choir; Business service, conducted by Miss S. Ohnmacht, Bellefonte, Pa.; Opening exercises, Mrs. Rev. Leisher, McAlisterville, Pa.; Reception of delegates from sister denominations and the W. C. T. U.; Music; "Missions and Temperance," Mrs. Rev. Lenhart, Rebersburg, Pa.; "Missionaries," Mrs. Dr. Dum, Mackeyville, Pa.; "Education of the daughters of the church for Mission work," Mrs. Rev. Glodhill, Newport, Pa.; Music; Question box, Rev. G. W. Leisher, McAlisterville, Pa.; Hymn; Benediction. Wednesday, p. m.—7-30 opening service; Prayers, by the choir; Reading of resolutions; Address, Rev. J. C. Zimmerman, York, Pa. (Sec'y church extension board). Greetings from pastors; Solo, Mrs. Rev. Faber, Salona, Pa.; Prayer; Benediction.

Rev. L. L. Uhl, Gunter India; Rev. J. A. Clutz, Baltimore, Md.; prominent ministers will be present to address the meetings.

FAIRVIEW CEMETERY.—A Card to the Public: At the instance of the Directors of Fairview Cemetery the undersigned Superintendent comes before the public with the following statement and information:

A burial place of ample capacity for the future, well regulated, has been for years a pressing and growing necessity in this community. This point is so obvious that argument or explanation in the premises are not deemed necessary. The Directors of Fairview have, at heavy expenses, opened to the public a cemetery which for beauty of location, extent, convenient access and good substantial fencing, is hardly second to any other in this part of the state. Other articles continued improvements such as the planting of shade trees, along the front and principal drive, the macadamizing of roads, &c., are intended, and will be made as soon and as fast as the funds will permit. The Rules and Regulations, it is believed, while very liberal will fully cover every contingency and insure the good management and order of the cemetery.

Neighboring News.

SMITH TOWN. A very welcome rain on Sunday. The farmers are cutting corn.

A number of Smith Towners took in the cave picnic last Saturday. The Millheim band on their return home thrilled our town to some choice music. Thanks. Philip Musser commenced trading with hardly anything and kept on until now he is in possession of a horse, buggy and harness. It takes shrewd trading to do that.

J. H. Frank dug a cistern last week. He is tired of the water fights. The Confer boys visited their home in Brushvalley over Sunday.

Mrs. John Henney, of Freeport, Ill., was a guest at John Kern's house last week. Charles Gutelius, of Millinburg, was here and sold one of his best spring wagons to W. F. Smith.

Mrs. Mary Smith has returned from Madisonburg, where she was visiting, and is now staying at John Kimports. J. B. Smith bought two cows.

Miss Kimpert and Mrs. Slack, from the Loop, both sisters of Mr. David Kimpert were here on a visit. Our squire took a flying trip to Adamsburg on Monday, on business.

Henry Keen, our horse dealer, bought five fine horses. On Tuesday J. H. Reifsnnyder's new barn was raised. Between 60 and 70 men were on duty and from what we heard it seems to take some very high language to raise a barn. JUMBO.

COBURN.

Squire Gettig has been appointed storekeeper at the new distillery. The steam thrasher is at work in this vicinity at present threshing for Sam'l Ulrich.

The creek is very low at present and lots of filth and rubbish in the dam which is unhealthy and likely to cause sickness. We had quite a nice and much needed rain on Sunday last.

The G. A. R. day at Lewisburg last Thursday was a success. The town was filled from one end to the other. 125 tickets were sold at our station.

Mr. H. H. Trumppheller who was lately in the store business here is a candidate on the prohibition ticket for congress.

There is some talk of an excursion to Lemont on Saturday next on account of the G. A. R. We agree with you, Mr. Editor, it would be a fine thing to get up a picnic to the Lewisburg fair ground during the fair. The railroad company will certainly put the fare at a reasonable figure and there is no doubt a large crowd would take advantage of it and have a regular old-fashioned basket picnic. Let's hear from others on the subject and see what can be done. VAL.

AARONSBURG.

J. C. Meyer, Esq., of Bellefonte, was down to look up his friends. Rev. Ivy, (Baptist), occupied the pulpit in the new Ref. church last Sunday morning.

H. H. Weaver is off to York State for another lot of Holstein cattle. Henry says its no partnership deal this time.

J. C. Rote and family from Bellefonte, are visiting the gentleman's mother, Mrs. Simon Rote.

Miss Katie Musser went to Warren, Trumbull Co., Ohio, to attend school, instead of Oberlin, Ohio, as mentioned in a former correspondence.

John Hartman and Chas. Albright, representing the Millheim band, were canvassing our town soliciting help for their festival to be held next Saturday.

Prof. Bierly, of Brushvalley, was in town last week. This means another Aaronsburg singing class for this fall and we hope a large class will be organized.

The rain on last Sunday afternoon caused a scattering in the bush meeting, which was held near Woodward. A few of our town people attended the meeting.

Thos. Harper, the Spring Mills Creamery's best man for Haines township, distributed a wagon load of milk cans among his customers in and about town.

John Behm, formerly of Penn township, but now of Michigan, was the guest of Chas. Stover one day last week.

Miss Mary Huston, from Clearfield, is visiting her uncle, Jas. P. Coburn.

On last Monday two of Mr. B. F. Dewiler's daughters, Lulu, about 4 years old and Anna, about 12 years old, were engaged in examining or playing with a feed cutting machine in their father's barn, and while the machine was running both girls got their two fingers between the cog wheels of the machine and had them badly mashed. Children should not be allowed to play with such machinery.

Teachers' examination was held on last Saturday and the following are the teachers selected for Haines township: School No. 1, Aaronsburg—D. Foreman. No. 2—B. F. Edmunds. No. 3—Miss Mary Bollinger. Wolf's school—Wm. Keen. St. Paul's not supplied. Woodward—N. W. Spangler. Vonada school—Wm. Winkleblech. Pine Creek school—Z. D. Thomas. Mountain or Cassler's school—Ad. Martin. Haines township schools will commence on the 18th of Oct. next. ANOTHER.

MADISONBURG.

Our farmers have finished sowing their wheat and a good many have commenced to cut corn.

Many of our people are making arrangements to attend the Grangers' picnic on top of Nittany Mountain on Thursday.

Prof. A. Bierly, of New York, spent a few days here last week and gave the town a canvass for the purpose of raising a class in vocal music. Hope he will be successful.

Mr. Simon Smull died on Sunday morning at 4.30 o'clock and was buried on Tuesday forenoon in the Union cemetery. He leaves a wife and seven children to mourn his loss.

Director Rossman, in Gregg township, has carpenters at work repairing Yearick's school house, 2 miles west of this town. A new roof, weather boarding, new plastering and new seats are the improvements.

STILL ANOTHER.

With your next order to your grocer, send for a sample pound of Breydopp's Bar Soap. You will find it to be the best and cheapest soap you ever used. It is used by the best families in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.

SPRING MILLS.

Geo. Mertz, the hack driver for J. W. Bibly, had a break-down one day last week while on his way from the depot to the hotel.

C. A. Weaver, of Aaronsburg, was seen in town one day last week. Maj. J. B. Fisher has gone to Minneapolis, Minn., to attend the Miller's National Convention, of which he is a prominent member.

H. G. Shafer has a fine pair of Texas ponies which he is training for the harness. No doubt he will have fine drivers after they are fully broken to the service.

REBERSBURG.

The late rains were needed very much, as the ground was hard and dry. Lewis Bierly and his brother Harvey have contracted to chop a large amount of cord wood for J. W. Snook.

Wm. Kreamer sold two fine horses and received a snug sum of money for them.
