How a Plucky and Fun Loving Lady Avenged a Masher's Advances.

One of the lady attendants in the insane department of the county jail was returning unattended from church about nine o'clock last Sunday night, when at the corner of Dearborn avenue and Kinzie street, she was accosted by a creature in tight pants.

'Can I see you home?' softly breathed the thing, lifting his hat and bowing profoundly.

The lady, who is full of resources, quickly recovered from the first start at the unexpected insult and gaye her consent. Her destination lay a block away, and her escort beguiled the short journey with many an apt reflection upon the weather and sundry weighty topics. Now, the Dearborn ayenue side of the jail building looks more like a residence than a public institution, and the iron stairs which lead to the entrance might easily be mistaken in the dark for the front stoop of a dwelling. The young man made the mistake, and, although the lady produced a bunch of uncommonly heavy keys, and the ponderous bolts flew back with a rattle and ring, he did not correct the error with himself until he had followed her fairly within the huilding Bread, Pies & Cakes lowed her fairly within the building and the door swiftly closed behind him. Curled up on a bench lay a muscular young man, who is slightly demented so that when the lady whispered 'Catch him, John,' the lunatic leaped to his feet with a fiendish shriek and made a rush for the intruder. The dude lifted a howl of terror and started around the quadrangular corridor which skirts the cells. At this juncture two of the male attendants who had been enjoying the night on the outside, rushed in. Before they had time to close the door the terrified young man dashed by them, and, pitching himself headlong down the stairs ran into the jail court. Thinking that one of the patients was escaping, the men gave chase, and were promptly reinforced by deputies from the jail and watchmen from the criminal court. Around and around the small yard the unfortunate young man ran like a rat in a barrel until gaining the stairs to the court building he upset one of the deputies and ran out upon Michigan street and vanished in the darkness. The avenged lady smiled and the captive lunatic, who is fantastic but harmless, chuckled softly as he went back to his bench.

He Mesmerized Her.

'Do you believe in mesmerism?' shyly asked a sweet young maid, who will graduate from the Somerville High School next summer, of a young Harvard Sophomore whom she had met at Mt. Desert.

'Certainly, I do,' replied the young man promptly. 'I can mesmerize people myself.

'Oh, I don't belive it,' said the shy girl, incredulously. 'You couldn't mesmerize me, now, could you ?'

'Well, I could try,' said the young many, confidently, leaning toward her in the moonlight.

And she acknowledged to her dearest friend the next day that she did experience a sort of a queer tingling sensation about her lips something like a mesmeric shock .-- Somerville Journal.

'I don't suppose you know what hard times are,' said a man to one of the house servants of the Baroness Rothchild in Paris.

'Oh, yes, we do; for it was only this morning that I saw the baroness and her daughter playing on the piano.'
