Reports from many parts of this state and other states say that Sunday was a real cold day, cold enough to form ice one half inch thick. At some places in Berks county snow fell to the depth of two inches.

Just received 2 yard and 2 1/2 yard Floor Oil Cloth. This is the most reliable article and of the greatest use in any family, and the low price of it will astonish you.

D. S. KAUFFMAN & CO.

Mr. Christ, an experienced architect of Milton, Pa., tarried a few days in town, the guest of John Kerstetter, Jr., on Penn Street. While here Mr. Christ went a gunning with John but did not meet with any success.

Mrs. Lizzie B. Kurzenknebe, of Harrisburg, came up on Friday morning to attend the funeral of her brother's child. She is spending several days in town with her parents. Lizzie still appreciates "Home, sweet Home."

Love, put on your bridal veil and we will go to D. S. Kauffman & Co's reliable store in Millheim and save money by buying our goods there. They have anything you want and sell cheaper than any other store in the county.

READ.--The Aaronsburg Meat Market will supply parties who need larger quantities of beef for butchering time with quarters and halves and sell it as cheap, if not cheaper than anyone else. They will also deliver the beef to the house if so desired.

Last Saturday Dr. Lee, of Madisonburg, was in town and had along with him his five brothers, who were visitors at his house at the time. Neither of them are a little or tight weight as the doctor, but all of them, we are told, are a jolly set.

H. E. Duck's brick building on Main street is about completed and is an ornament to that section of the borough. We did not learn whether he has an occupant for his store room on the ground floor yet but presume it will be rented before long.

MEAT FOR WINTER.--Moyer & Kreamer's meat market on Main street will be kept open during the coming winter and persons wishing to buy large quantities of beef for butchering time will do well to apply at their place of business before buying elsewhere.

A sign in Cleveland reads "Ice Cream Salline" which is probably the worst cold spell of the season; but for the worst spell of cold Dr. Kessler's Celebrated English Cough Medicine is the best cure you will be able to find.

JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

The Methodist church of this place received their new bell the other day. Its tone is in Bb and it produces a very clear and melodious sound. The intervals between the four church bells in town are just right now to make splendid harmony when ringing together.

C. Woodling's house, Penn street, occupied by Harvey Confer is undergoing a general renovation. It is being re-roofed, weatherboarded and painted. In fact when done it will look as good as new. Improvements are beginning to be of almost daily occurrence in our town.

NOTICE.--Persons having subscribed certain sums of money to the Evangelical church at the dedication of said church are requested to make immediate payment as the subscriptions are overdue. The amounts are payable to W. R. Henney or D. L. Zerby. Building Committee.

ACCIDENT.--Henry, a son of John M. Road, of North street, was playing with a loaded pistol last Monday, when the weapon discharged and lodged the bullet in the palm of the boy's left hand. Henry suffers considerable pain. A physician was called on Tuesday to extract the ball, but the operation proved unsuccessful.

It is generally observed that our borough council must do something with the alley crossing back of Musser & Smith's hardware this fall. If left in its present condition it will very likely be the cause of serious falls and consequent damages to be paid by the borough. Better not wait to "lock the stable after the horse is stolen."

The cold snap which surprised us on Sunday and Monday put a temporary stop to out door work of which there is a vast amount to be done yet. It is to be hoped however that several weeks of moderate weather and a week's rain is back yet. It would certainly be a calamity if it should winter in with the present low state of the water.

About twenty invitations have been issued for a party which is to be held at the residence of Michael Ulrich in honor of the 17th anniversary of the birthday of their daughter Miss Alice, next Thursday evening, Nov. 18th.

It is amazing to see the fine stock of groceries in J. W. Stover's store on Main street. And it will be still more of a surprise when you hear of the low prices at which he sells his goods. It will pay you to deal with Stover.

Musser & Alexander, our marble firm, erected a fine monument on the grave of the late Mrs. T. Benton Ulrich, at Penn Hall, on Monday last. It is manufactured of foreign marble, and is a fair specimen of mechanical skill.

H. D. Snyder, who has been working in Hartman's foundry at the turning lathe, will vacate his position and Wm. M. Hartman will take his place. Mr. Snyder expects to make sale of his property, on Saturday, Nov. 20th at 1 o'clock, p. m.

Friday's Bellefonte Daily News gives an account of a Hebrew wedding which occurred at the residence of ex-Burgess A. Sternburg on Thursday last week, at which time that gentleman's oldest daughter, Cecelia, was joined in holy wedlock with Saml. H. Leichten, of Houtzdale, Pa.

The newly elected members of the legislature already visit the state capital to select quarters for the coming session. We noticed in Tuesday's Patriot that Hon. John A. Woodward, one of the representatives from this county was in Harrisburg for that purpose.

CHOICE CLOVERSEED FOR SALE.--The undersigned has a large quantity of extra cloverseed on hand and for sale. Persons in need of this article will please call on me at my residence in Haines township or address me at Aaronsburg, Pa. W. W. BOWER. 42-6t.

J. Israel, representing Jos. Netter & Co's wholesale clothing house, Philadelphia, occupied the sample room of the National Hotel a few days this week. When Israel unpacks his large trunks full of the best clothing there is little space left in the room for other samples. But he never fails to make some good sales.

Owing to the general excitement which prevailed on Wednesday of last week when the afternoon train from Bellefonte arrived at Coburn bringing along the latest election news, we failed to make a note of the large bunch of pheasants which C. K. Sober, the crack shot, had shot during a day's hunt. We believe he had a string of about 20 of the finest specimens.

It is whispered that Mrs. President Cleveland will not appear in Washington society this winter for special and very good reasons best known to herself. This may seem a little mysterious at first, but upon second thought it seems quite natural. In the mean time the Washington ladies feel somewhat sad at the idea of losing their leader and anticipate a dull season.

Did it ever occur to you, thoughtful and prudent reader, that Dr. Kessler's Celebrated English Cough Medicine must be an article of real merit, or how could the manufacturer ever be able to advertise "money refunded to all dissatisfied purchasers."

JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

Capt. O. W. Van Valin, of Coburn, spent several days in town this week to see to the completion of a couple dozen drafts (more or less) of his distillery. These drafts must go to the proper department at Washington and must be approved before he can go ahead with the manufacture of "Van Valin's best." John Kerstetter, Jr., of Penn street, is his draughtsman and did some real fine work.

A PREFACE is something spoken or written to introduce a general subject; and I wish only to say by way of preface--for I will have more to tell later on--that the Journal Store is now in first class trim, nice and clean as a new pin. For several weeks past I have been adding to my general stock of goods and will continue to do so for a while yet. I hope for a large trade during the coming Holiday season and expect to be fully prepared for it. My old patrons as well as the general public are most cordially invited to call for anything they need in my line, at the old place, No. 20, Penn Street, Millheim, Pa. B. O. DEININGER.

BOROUGH SCHOOL REPORT.--J. F. Keller, teacher of the grammar department reports the following for the month ending Nov. 8th: No of pupils enrolled--18 males, 27 females; Average attendance--13 males, 19 females, total 32; Per cent of attendance--82 males, 77 females, total 79.

The town council had a regular meeting last Thursday evening when all the orders due persons having worked on the Main street job were passed. Complaint was brought in by citizens of North street about the iron railing around J. W. Snook's entrance to cellar and council voted to notify Mr. Snook to remove the railing within 60 days and close said entrance with a substantial trap door. A crossing was ordered to be built at F. Catherman's alley, of plank. It was also voted that the street commissioner repair Mill street where most necessary, the cost not to exceed $25.

The frequent discovery of chunks of stone containing mineral species upon our mountains put it beyond a doubt that there are valuable beds of metallic ores of some kind in our immediate vicinity. Only a few days ago Squire Reifensnyder brought a piece to town which he had found on his mountain land and which upon closer examination showed substances which very much resembled metal. We are almost positive that a thorough investigation by some one who has the means to pursue the matter will at some future day reveal a vast amount of wealth in these mountains. The only thing wanting is some one to start the business.

QUICK WORK.--On Friday morning Ed. Schenke, clerk of the National Hotel of this place, noticed an advertisement in the Bellefonte Daily News of a horse and buggy which had been stolen from a gentleman in Huntingdon, Pa., last week, offering a reward of $50 for the recovery. Mr. Schenke remembered having seen a horse of the description given pass through town several days before and at once proceeded to Woodward in company with Henry Brown to get on the track of the thief. He succeeded in getting the necessary information from the Messrs. Guiswite, who had bought the whole outfit and traded the horse off to W. Beaver of near Millburg. On Saturday morning landlord Hook continued the chase and found the horse at New Berlin. Assisted by an officer of the law he took possession of the stolen animal, and had it locked up in Deckert's hotel in Millburg. On his return he telegraphed to the owner and on Monday brought the horse to Millheim. In the meantime Mr. Ertle, of Jacksonville, who had bought the buggy, returned the same to Mr. Rook and the owner, Mr. Charles Port of Huntingdon, came to town on Tuesday and recovered his property.

REBERSBURG.

Rev. Lenhart will administer the Lord's supper on next Sunday at 10 o'clock, a. m., in the Lutheran church of this place.

A donation party called at the house of T. M. Gramley, where C. O. Mallory and family spent the night previous to moving to Spring Mills. Many nice presents were given to the Mallory family and all present enjoyed themselves very much. Cal leaves many friends behind who wish him success in his new position at Spring Mills.

Something new at the house of Jno. Hosterman. Wallace Crider is papa and therefore a happy man.

Jno. Sholl is building a new bridge across the creek on his farm, the old bridge having become unsafe for crossing.

J. W. Snook has at present a number of men at work building a board fence on his farm along the public road. This is quite an improvement and other farmers should do the same.

Wm. Kreamer and Jno. Wolf were off again to a horse sale. They went to Hickory Corner, Northumberland Co., and on their road stopped off at Freeburg, Snyder county, where they struck another sale. They returned with five fine Iowa horses.

One day last week while Dan. Wolf, who is employed by Wm. Kreamer, was in the act of making a wedge he missed his aim and cut a deep gash on the back of his hand, severing the principle lead of the index finger.

Last week J. C. Morris, the teacher of the Gramley school, employed Ira Spangler to teach his school for a week. Mr. Morris delivered fruit trees for which he had taken orders during the summer months.

Miss Annie Gramley left for Bellefonte last week, where she will spend the greater part of this winter.

On last Thursday Jno. Spangler moved into his renovated house and feels very comfortable now. SQUIBB.

A Mr. Krider and lady from Ill., are visiting at D. H. Lenker's, while Mr. Dr. Luther Holloway, of Salona, and the Dr's sister Mrs. Bogle, of Ohio, are the guests of Henry Crouse on North 2nd St. ANOTHER.

SPRING MILLS.

The creamery is in successful operation at present. They manufacture the genuine gilt edged butter.

S. R. Gettig, formerly of Coburn, has moved to this place and has accepted a situation in Greenoble's store.

Cal. Mallory has also moved to this place and has accepted a situation in the Spring Mills Creamery.

Mrs. Rev. J. M. Evans is visiting friends in this vicinity.

W. H. Hettlinger's horses got loose in the stable one night last week and one of them got so badly kicked that it is feared he can not recover.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria, When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria, When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

SMITH TOWN.

Snow and mud. J. H. Frank was over to Nittany Valley and bought five head of cattle. Squire Duck sold one of his cows for $60.

Next Thursday, Nov. 11, a jury of three men will locate a public road leading from Henry Mark's along the mountain to George Schuyler, thence south to the turnpike.

Benj. Frankenberg had a lot of carpenters at work all last week, making improvements about his home.

On Friday last a big fire broke out on Brush mountain and burned several hundred acres of timberland. A party of 15 men outlined it on Friday night.

The bridges on the company road that leads to the mountain are in a very bad condition. Several horses have already tramped through the plank. The foreman of the road ought to attend to the bridges.

Miss Alice Bierly went home last Thursday to nurse a very sick brother, who was badly hurt by a fall from the hay mow.

W. F. Smith traded horses again, and we wouldn't be surprised if both parties got bamboozled.

Henry Kien sold five horses and bought six others since.

Mrs. Ney, of Aaronsburg, is spending this in our midst. SUMBO.

COBURN.

The election is now a thing of the past and all hands are glad that it is over, although not all are satisfied with the result, which could not be.

A few of our Republican friends tried to get up a jollification one evening but could not raise the enthusiasm. With a crowd of small boys and a small fire burning they created very little excitement.

Squire Gettig removed his family to Rising Springs on Thursday last, where he will engage in the store business, unless the distillery starts up shortly.

Mr. F. P. Barker intends going out of business shortly and will move on his recent purchase, the Fowler farm.

On Saturday morning last we noticed a party from Millheim driving to the train in great haste and wearing a solemn countenance and consequential air. We heard some one remark, "Where's Parker going and what's up with him?" "Oh, nothing, only going down the road." He returned in the evening all smiles and we heard him say, "Oh I was there and got him in fine style. Got away." "Why the stolen horse." Good for you, Capt.

The new bridge at Greenbriar was completed last week and turned over to the county.

The mill property of Mr. Kerstetter at Coburn, we understand, has been leased by Messrs. Wm & Henry Whitmer, with the intention of putting up a steam sawmill before long. This is a step in the right direction.

The hunters are all having good luck and quite a number of deer have been slaughtered.

Rumor has it that when the fall time comes out which will be soon, we are to have two passenger trains and two freight trains a day each way through to Bellefonte. This would be a great convenience to the traveling public.

Mrs. W. H. Kreamer is spending a few days visiting in her old home, Millburg. VALE.

NEIGHBORING NEWS.

AARONSBURG. Sausage making time is fast approaching. Last Saturday night and Sunday we had the first snowfall of this season.

Emanuel Ettinger returned from a visit to his daughters, Mrs. L. G. Kurtz, Millburg, Pa., and Mrs. J. G. Kurtz, Milton, Pa.
