—The residence of Michael Ulrich on Main street was a scene of gayety last Thursday evening. It was well filled with friends of Miss Alice Ulrich, it being the seventeenth anniversary of her birthday. She was the recipient of numerous valuable and appropriate presents.

CHOICE CLOVERSEED FOR SALE.—The undersigned has a large quantity of extra cloverseed on hand and for sale. Persons in need of this article will please call on me at my residence in Haines township or address me at Aaronburg, Pa. W. W. BOWER. 42-6t.

—A new boardwalk has been laid along the eastern side of the new hardware. To make the connection a little smoother the council should reconstruct the crossing between said walk and the bridge over the mill race. By the way that bridge is a perfect model of beauty and strength. Isn't it now?

—A gentleman from Beavertown, Snyder Co., whose name we could not learn as he failed to register, was married to a Miss Smith, of Potter's Mills, the event having taken place at the Musser House, on Wednesday evening of last week. The wedding party departed in private conveyances on the following morning.

—An effort is being made by some who have literary propensities to organize a literary society in this place and a meeting is proposed in the Grammar school room on Penn street for next Monday evening to effect an organization. All those who take any interest in matters of this kind are requested to be present.

—Why not provide for more street lamps in this town? While the central part of Main street is illuminated in the best style, other parts of town are entirely neglected and present a dreary and uncomfortable look on dark nights. Let the citizens and council of this borough agree on some plan to remedy this defect.

A HEAVY PAIR.—Two porkers were killed yesterday morning by merchant Stover, the combined weight of which was 885 pounds. A good deal of guess work had been going on as to the weight of these hogs, and Dr. Stam's guess being furthest from the mark he paid for the cigars and things looked quite smoky after that.

—John F. Breon, of Spring Mills, and Jacob Snively, of Penns Creek, were welcome callers at the Journal office on Monday. Both are old and regular JOURNAL subscribers and it does one good to have a chat with such men. Mr. Snively is in his seventies and is one of the old school. To listen to his recollections of "ye olden times" is as interesting as it is pleasant.

REDEDICATION.—The reopening of the M. E. Church at Millheim, will take place on Dec. 11th and 12th. Rev. Geo. Leidy, Presiding Elder of the Altoona District, and Rev. E. J. Gray D. D. President of the Williamsport Dickinson Seminary will be present to preach, and conduct the services. All neighboring Pastors and their congregations are cordially invited to be present on the occasion.

ISAAC HECKMAN, Pastor.

IN THE SILENT HALLS OF DEATH.—It is with feelings of awe and regret that we write up the numerous deaths which occurred in town and around us since our last issue. One after another the neighbors and acquaintances whom we were accustomed to meet in our daily walk pass away and leave us wondering who will be next and when our time will come.

On Saturday, about noon, Samuel Weiser, Sr., suddenly died at his residence on Main street. The old gentleman had been ailing more or less for the last few years, but several weeks before his death felt exceptionally well. On the day of his death he carried an armful of wood to his room, which seemed to exhaust him very much and he set down in a chair to rest, when death overtook him then and there. His oldest daughter, Mrs. Reiarick, who was in the next room, alarmed by his quick and heavy breathing ran to his side. She was just in time to catch her dying father in her arms and see him breathe his last. It is thought to have been a case of heart disease. Mr. Weiser was born June 2nd 1808 and had reached the ripe age of 78 years, 5 months and 18 days. He was one of the oldest and best known citizens of Millheim and raised a family of five sons and two daughters, all alive and married. His funeral took place on Tuesday forenoon when Rev. Swengel held the services in the Evangelical church, of which deceased was a member.

On the same day news reached this town that J. A. Motz, of Charlotte, N. C. had died suddenly on Thursday, Nov. 18th. Deceased was a brother to Em'l. Motz, in whose mines he was employed for the last eight years and who brought his body to Woodward, his native place, on Monday morning for burial. His age was 58 years, 8 months and 13 days. He was the father of Miss Mary Motz, deceased, who formerly resided in this place. The particulars of his unexpected death are as follows: He and several miners were working in the mines and were engaged in blasting. They had charged a large rock and when the charge exploded the heavy mass of stone fell on Mr. Motz's head, which was crushed to almost a jelly and he was instantly killed. Physicians who were called on the ground at once prepared the body of the unfortunate victim for its homeward journey.

Mrs. Polly Heckman, of Nittany Valley, is another victim of the merciless reaper Death. This aged and much esteemed lady died at her residence on Thursday morning of a complication of ailments incident to old age. Deceased was 75 years old and was the mother of Adam Heckman, a son-in-law of our townsman Jacob Sankey. She was a consistent member of the Lutheran church for 52 years and was well and favorably known for her christian fortitude and friendly disposition. Her funeral took place on Monday forenoon when her remains were laid to rest in St. Paul's cemetery, Nittany Valley.

Our town people were just on their way to attend the funeral of Samuel Weiser, Sr., dec'd, when the tolling of the Evangelical church bell announced the death of Samuel Sankey, of San Francisco, Cal., which occurred at Millheim, where he was on a visit to his brother, John Sankey. A few weeks ago he arrived in that place, and soon took sick with yellow jaundice and other diseases which resulted in his death on Tuesday morning. He was a native of this place, having been born in the old Saakey homestead on Penn street July 26th, 1829. He was married to a daughter of Geo. Dreisbach, dec'd, late of Millburg and his wife preceded him to the grave last July. He was one of the "49ers" who first went to California from this section. His death was easy and peaceful. His body was conveyed to Aaronburg yesterday, where by his own request he will be buried beside his parents, to-day (Thursday) at 2 p. m.

Our Rebersburg correspondent informs our readers of the death of David Wolf, of Wolf's store, a prominent citizen of Miles township.

—The Lutheran Sunday School of this place concluded last Sunday to hold a Christmas celebration on Christmas evening, Saturday, December 25th. The evening will be spent in prayer, praising, and other suitable exercises to be followed by the distribution of gifts to the school. A committee of arrangements, consisting of seven members of the school, was appointed, who will use their best endeavors to make the affair as pleasant and attractive as possible.

DECEMBER 7TH AND 8TH, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY.—To the Public:—Dr. Clemens, graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and of twenty-five years' experience, whose principal office is at Allentown, Pa., specialist in all chronic affections, and who treats principally by inhalations, will visit Williamsport once a month for the purpose of examining patients for all chronic affections, and who are difficult to treat in any other way. After the examinations, all remedies, including inhalations, will be sent to the patients from his regular office. Will be in Bellefonte on Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 7th and 8th, 1886, with office at the Brockhoff House and will attend patients from Tuesday evening to Wednesday evening, Dec. 7th and 8th. Do not forget the dates. H. S. CLEMENS, M. D. N. B.—Send for testimonials.

—John C. Morris, of Wolf's store, called on us on Saturday last. Mr. Morris is one of the most successful tree agents that ever canvassed this neighborhood. His stock of trees which he lately delivered to his many customers gave entire satisfaction, being superior to any brought here before and he has consequently very little trouble in collecting his bills.

—A copy of the first number of Musical Tidings, published in Williamsport by W. A. Brown, formerly of Spring Mills, is on our table. It is neat in get up and its contents are of much interest to musicians. It is an eight-page paper, three columns to the page and the publisher already finds it necessary to enlarge the sheet, in order to meet demands.

THANKSGIVING DINNER.—W. G. Rook, the proprietor of the National Hotel at this place, extends a cordial invitation to all to enjoy a fine Thanksgiving feast at his house to-day. His charges will be very moderate. The following is the elegant bill of fare prepared for this occasion: SOUP: Chicken Broth, Bullion. ROAST: Roast Turkey, a la Bourgeoise; Roast Cinnamon Duck, Cream Sauce; Roast Ox-Heart Stuffed; Roast Beef; Roast Pork. ENTREE: Chicken Croquets, Tomato Sauce; Chicken Sautee, Brown Sauce; Potatoe Salad, Maitonaise Dressing; Cranberry Sauce; Blackberries. DESSERT: Apple Pie, The National Pie, Cream Custard Pie, Apple Fritters, Wine Sauce, Plum Pudding, Brandy Sauce; Bananas, Oranges, Raisins, Tea, Coffee, Milk.

BOTTOM PRICES.—The following quotations from Cohen's New York Cheap Store, corner Main and Penn streets, should be a great inducement to call on him before he leaves Millheim: Cloth, all colors, 50cts per yd. Cashmere, fine, 30cts " Winter Skirts, from 70c. to $1.25 Fine Merino Un'wear, 95c. a suit Border Handkerchiefs, 8 for 25c Hose, 7 pair for 25c Men's Pants, 45c. a pair. Red All-wool Underwear, warranted, $1.25 per suit. All-wool Blue Shirts, from 95c. up. Socks, Cotton, 5 pair for 25c. All wool Socks, warranted 17c. pair. Remember I will only remain until the last of this month and you are therefore specially invited to avail yourselves of the above bargains.

HARRY COHEN.

HANDSOME CHURCH EDIFICE.—The M. E. church on Main street, which will be reopened on the 11th of next month and which has been remodeled and renovated throughout will be as pleasant a place for public worship as any in town. A new spire built in a modern style and of considerable height towers heavenward and the new bell which will be placed in the belfry this week will shortly send forth peals of sweet and solemn sounds, calling the church people to their worship. The interior of the church presents a very neat appearance. The old cumbersome stairway has been changed to an open and easy entrance, while the gallery in the rear of the audience chamber has been removed and the seats in that part of the room arranged in rows one above the other. The frescoed ceilings and walls look tasty and pleasing to the eye and after the seats are newly painted and the colored glass windows have been put in their places, the general effect will be very favorable. The church is being heated by two large furnaces. The basement rooms have also undergone important changes and will now make splendid Sunday school rooms. We hope the Christian people of this place and vicinity will turn out strong on the day of the rededication and assist in wiping out the church debt of our Methodist friends by liberal subscriptions. Open your purses.

Neighboring News.

COBUKIN. We are having a full share of rain. The butchering season has opened and the winter's supply of meat and sausage is being laid by. Joe Klecker slaughtered two fine hogs on Monday and on Tuesday W. H. Kreamer killed two porkers, one of which was a 400 pounder. This is a happy season for Frank Jordan as he is always on hand for a good dinner.

The force of trackmen on our railroad has been reduced to three, throwing three men out of employment.

The body of J. A. Motz, who was killed by an accident in a gold mine in North Carolina was brought here by express on Monday and taken to Woodward for burial.

The sawmill of Wm & Henry Whitmer at the cave near Rising Springs was destroyed by fire this (Tuesday) morning. The fire is supposed to have originated by sparks falling in the sawdust and smoldering there until about 3 o'clock in the morning, when the fire broke out.

A number of our citizens have received invitations to attend a Thanksgiving dinner to be given by the general landlord of the National Hotel in Millheim. The invitations are neat and the bill of fare is complete and done up in No. 1 style. We hope there will be a good turnout to show that his efforts to please are appreciated.

G. S. Meyer & Son is the name of the new firm who have started up in the room lately vacated by F. P. Barker. They intend putting in a full line of groceries.

The still house has started up but I am unable to say what they have been doing so far.

A great amount of poultry has been shipped from our station to the New York market the last few weeks.

Passenger travel has been picking up since the trains are run through on passenger train time. 35 tickets were sold from this station to Bellefonte on Monday last. VALE.

GREEN BRIAR.

Our sportsmen are out hunting almost daily, but so far we failed to notice any antlers at their houses.

The new bridge at this place is a fine structure and does credit to the manufacturers, the Columbia Bridge Company.

Mr. David Ertel, an old resident of near this place, and who had been an invalid for over five years is still very poorly.

Danl. Geary had his house repainted and now has one of the neatest looking houses along the road. He also purchased a fine horse from Rev. M. I. Jamison and in his opinion Daniel is fixed first-class now.

John Hesh, our wide-awake miller, is doing a brisk business in his mill. John is the right man in the right place and deserves good patronage.

One day last week, while Mr. John Long, of near Farmers' Mills, was passing Mr. Stover's house, his horse accidentally slipped and fell, throwing its rider to the ground. The horse sprang up, but Long's foot was still in the stirrup and but for the timely assistance of Calvin Stover it might have cost Mr. Long's life.

Report of Mountain school for the month ending Nov. 19th.—A. A. Loss, teacher: No. of pupils enrolled—males 10, females 8, total 18. Average attendance, males 82, females 98, total 90.

AARONSBURG. John Beaver of North 2nd street has his new house up and ready for the roof.

The Aaronburg singing class will meet again next Saturday evening by order of the musical director, Prof. Al. Stover.

Ed. Kister, of Boneville, is minus his digging iron. It was taken from his brother George's new ground, north of town. He will allow the parties who took it a reasonable time to return it. Remember he knows who took it. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Mrs. L. E. Stover was to Shamokin to visit her brother, Prof. W. T. Meyer. She returned yesterday, Wednesday, well pleased with her visit.

Rumor says that Thos. G. W. Edmunds will occupy the Penitentiary in this place sometime after Jan. 1st, 1887. Judging by Mrs. Edmunds' present way of housekeeping we are safe to say the traveling public will, after next spring, find the Aaronburg Hotel a first-class stopping place.

The entertainment given by the Reformed Mite Society last Saturday evening was a rich treat to all present. The house was crowded to overflowing.

Roland Wyle, son of Jacob Wyle of this place, who went to Illinois last spring, started for home about two weeks ago. While on his way he took sick in Ohio, and is at present in the hands of strangers, not able to continue his journey homeward. From the latest news received by the parents the boy's recovery and his return home are daily expected.

Post Master Thos. Yearick and wife returned from Philadelphia last week, very much pleased with their visit among their relatives and friends.

There will be two holiday entertainments as reported up to this time in our town. One by the Lutheran S. S. and one by the Reformed S. S. As to when and where held will be stated later.

REBERSBURG. Perry Condo the other day lost a valuable horse of colic. This is quite a loss for Perry.

Mrs. Harry Deighler, of Williamsport, and Mrs. Cook Condo, of Lock Haven, are at present here visiting their many friends.

John Moyer was obliged to get himself another house-keeper, his daughter Sarah, who performed that function since her mother's death, having married and gone to Union county, her husband's place of residence.

David Meyer, of the Centre Hall landlord, spent last Sunday in our town.

The sawmill of Guistwite Co., after a week's standstill, during which time it underwent general repairs, is again in operation.

There are two young men in this town who must have an awful craving for chickens, pies, &c. They set out the other evening, for the purpose of stealing a lot of these provisions. At the first coop they visited they were confronted by the lady of the house, who claimed that she had a better right to her chickens than the thieves, and, of course, the boys left post haste. Charley in the hurry lost his gum shoe. It stuck fast in the mud and thus gave him away. By offering a few lame excuses he got the shoe back. Afterwards they entered the cellar of a poor widow and with an unquenchable appetite devoured all her pies. Now boys take a warning! Hereafter take care that you do not visit other people's coops and cellars, or you may sooner or later receive a load of shot.

A party of hunters from this vicinity are making preparations to take a general bearghant in the mountains south from here, it is said, Bruin has his headquarters.

Hog cholera is still raging in the east end of this valley. Reuben Stover lost nearly all his porkers.

On Monday, the 22nd inst., Miles township lost one of its aged and most respected citizens by death. David Wolf, the subject of this item, was liked by all who knew him. He was a faithful member of the Reformed church and his remains will be brought to this place to-morrow (Wednesday) for burial. SQUIBOD.

MADISONBURG. Mr. Steats, of Jacksonville, while working for Mr. Zeigler on a lumber job in Little Sugar Valley, had the misfortune to be caught by a falling tree and had his hip dislocated.

J. J. Ocker traded his little pony off to Mr. Fox, of Lock Haven. There are only about 17 persons attending court this week from this town and immediate surrounding.

Jacob Frank is having quite a serious time with his sore foot. A pair of new boots which rubbed his foot caused the trouble.

Adam Shafer had the misfortune to lose his fattening hogs a few days before he intended butchering them. They had that much dreaded disease—hog cholera.

Thomas Wolf was seen going up town quite late on Saturday evening. We suppose he had a LONG reason for it. STILL ANOTHER.

SMITH TOWN.

Rev. Deitzler and family were in our midst on Sunday.

Geo. Brian, one of our young men, left for Brunsvalley to attend school there.

J. B. Smith is building an addition to his barn.

Last week while Alfred Stover was hauling corn fodder his horses became frightened and ran off with the load. No more damage than a smashed wheel.

Some young—or perhaps old—seamps still steal chickens from the neighbors around here and take their "boodle" at night to the Pike School house, where by all appearances they have a regular picnic.

The water company cleaned their water channel and laid some new pipes. JUMBO.

SPRING MILLS.

There was a grand birthday party at the residence of Mrs. Sarah Zeigler, on Thursday of last week. It being Mrs. Zeigler's birthday her children concluded to celebrate their mother's birthday and the afore invited the neighbors and friends to participate in the festivities of the occasion. Mrs. Zeigler who had been absent a few days before was not aware that there would be a birthday party and was much surprised to have so many visitors call in one day. She was however more surprised when she discovered what grand provisions had been made in her kitchen for the preparation of a sumptuous dinner for all the invited guests. Mrs. Zeigler was as happy and as full of merry making as though she was at least ten years younger. May she live to celebrate many such birthdays.

On last Sunday while Samuel Harter and family were at church some one entered his house and helped himself to a new pair of boots and some clothing belonging to his son. The suspicion rests on some tramps that were seen in that locality. Hope the guilty parties may be apprehended and made to suffer the penalty of the law for their depredations.

Prof. D. M. Wolf has been on the sick list for the last week.

Geo. A. Runk who has been off to Nevada on business since last Spring is expected home this week.

P. O. Stover, Esq., of Stephenson county, Ill., spent a few days in this place visiting his many friends here. Mr. Stover has been elected county Superintendent of Stephenson county, Ill., and expects to enter upon his duties in a few weeks. He was formerly a Centre Co. boy and we are indeed glad that he has been so successful in his western home.

DIED.

On the 18th inst., in Nittany Valley, Mrs. Polly Heckman, aged 75 years.
