-We understand that the U. B. Sun day school also contemplate holding a Christmas entertainment.

-It would seem that the real genuine winter has come and present indications are that building operations are stopped for this season. This is by no means a pleasant experience for our Knitting Mills company as they had calculated to see the factory in operation with the beginning of 1887. However it is their intention to continue the work whenever the weather permits.

-Every day adds to the great amount of evidence as to the curative powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Letters are constantly being received from all sections of the country, telling of benefits derived from this great medicine. It is unequalled for general debility, and as a blood purifier, expelling every trace of scrofula or other impurity. Now is the time to take it. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. -Mr. Geo. P. Bible, the erudite editor of the Centre Democrat, Bellefonte, has accepted a call from the trustees of the Lock Haven Normal School to fill the vacant position of professor of elocution in that institution. We congratulate Mr. Bible upon his promotion.

-Though the weather was exceedingly unpleasant on Thanksgiving day about fifty guests enjoyed the sumptuous meals which W. G. Rook, the landlord of the National Hotel, had prepared for the occasion. The elaborate bill of fare was dished up to the letter and every course did credit to the pleasant landlady and her able cooks. All those present agreed that it was unquestionably the most delicious dinner they ever partook of and concluded that it was "good to be there." In the evening the band was invited to be present and take a hand at the supper tables. A few lively tunes by the boys topped off the pleasures of the day nicely and everybody there seemed satisfied that Thanksgiving day had been celebrated in a very pleasant manner.

A FATAL DRAUGHT. -Frank Boyer, aged about 16 years, son of Mr. W. H. Boyer, has been employed by attorney's Dill & Beale to attend to their morning file and put their office in shape for occupation during the day. This (Thursday) morning, he came early to attend to this duty, intending to go out hunting during the day, in company with a comrade, Frank Wertz, who came with him to the office. In the momentary absence of Wertz, Boyer seized a small bottle containing a liquid, and drank the contents, which prove to be carbolic acid. When Wertz returned, Boyer was on his feet, bending forward, with his hands clasped across his stomach, and evidently suffering excruciating pain. He could not give Wertz any explanation, in consequence of his distress. Wertz ran out for assistance. Mr. Steller, of the Cameron House, came across the street, and the two obtained medical assistance at the earliest possible moment. The doctors did all they could to relieve the sufferer, knowing, however, that the draught could not fail to produce death. After suffering about an hour and a half, he was released by death. -Lewisburg Chronicle.

-It is in order now for every manufacturer to praise and extol the virtues of his cough medicine, and claim it to be superior to any other. On square business principles the proprietor of Dr. Kessler's Celebrated English Cough Medicine says if you are not satisfied with the relief and benefit obtained, if you do not consider it well worth the price paid for it, then take the remedy back to your dealer and get your money.

Neighboring News.

AARONSBURG. Dr. E. J. Deshler and Jesse Wert connected their pavements with a substantial crossing.

L. D. Kurtz and his daughter, Lizzie, from Millburg, were here to attend Mr. Saukey's funeral.

Some fellow paid a nocturnal visit to H. H. Weaver's smoke house. The would-be thief was disturbed and left without even a sausage.

Some of the brick pavements in the neighborhood of our post office need repairing very badly.

Mr. J. F. Clark, from New Jersey, a student of Bucknell University, Lewisburg, in company with Chas. Musser, spent a few days with the latter gentleman's parents, Mr. M. M. Musser's. Molly looked as pleasant as a basket of chips.

Miss Fritz, from Mt. Carmel, Northumberland Co., is visiting at Mr. D. H. Lenker's.

Blacksmith Frank Weiser is putting up a new shop immediately south of Lew Meuch's barn, on Rachel's way.

Some one reported that there will be a musical convention in our town some time this winter. Although not definite we hope the report will finally prove correct.

Mr. John Bright living northwest of town has lately been confined to a bed of sickness. He is under medical treatment.

We very much admired the tone of the new bell of the Millheim M. E. church last Sunday morning. Of course the Colonel knows how to ring it.

ANOTHER.

COBURN. From the number of people butchering around here the last week there will be no famine in the next few days. On Wednesday Sam Ard butchered and was followed on Thursday by Sam Ulrich and Adam Richard and on Friday by John Bowersox and Mrs. Evert.

On Wednesday night we had the first snow fall of any account this winter, which was kept up nearly all of Thursday and made travel very bad.

Those who had the pleasure of attending the Thanksgiving dinner of landlord Rook report an excellent time and a fine bill of fare, making a feast fit for a king.

A Mr. Jones moved his family into one half of the Reed property at this place on Saturday last. He intends working at Paddy Mountain Tunnel during the week.

We have been informed that A. T. Grenninger intends moving his family to Karthans shortly, where he proposes to engage in the lumber business.

The letter box at the station is now a fixed matter and as said before proves a great convenience to the public.

On Sunday last we noticed that general landlord Rook and that happy merchant Col. Long drive through town seated in a cutter behind a good stepper, enjoying the sleighing. We were wondering why the editor was not along.

A party of railroad boys who are camped at Ingleby, east of here, succeeded in killing a fine deer last week.

The Railroad officials some time ago changed the name of Fowler station to Ingleby station.

There was peaching here last Sunday by Rev. Stambach. Rev. Deitzler preaches here Sunday evening next.

Samuel Grenninger, of Sugar Valley, was here Sunday visiting his son Ammon.

A. J. Katherman, of Millburg, spent last Wednesday night with his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Kremer at this place. He had brought the remains of Samuel Sankey to Millheim.

Coburn has a population of about 170. There are 36 dwelling houses, 5 store buildings, one church, 2 grain houses, 1 hotel, 1 school house, 1 blacksmith shop and a planing mill, with signs of a general advance in building in the Spring. There would be a good opening for a good shoemaker, tinsmith and also a good cabinet maker in connection with a furniture store and undertaking. There is no better sight in the county than right here for a tannery and a flouring mill. We have the bark and grain right at our doors and a railroad handy for shipping purposes.

All we want is some one with the pluck and cash to take hold of it and there can be no doubt of good results. If these operations can be run on a paying basis at other points, where all the material has to be shipped and when manufactured, respiced again to market, there certainly could be money made at a point like this where the material is at our doors and would only have to be manufactured and then shipped to market.

GREEN BRIAR. Last week's snow was welcomed by all and the sleighing was made good use of.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitmer, of Hartleton, Union Co., were the guests of G. W. Stover, Friday and Saturday of last week. Pleasant and entertaining as they are they are always welcome visitors in this neck o' woods.

At last one of our hunters succeeded in capturing a deer. Henry Wingard is the lucky shot. The deer weighed 140 lbs. when dressed.

Butchering is the order of the day and invitations to come to the "meat-soups" are quite numerous. Of course your scribe never fails to accept when he is invited.

The bad condition of the roads and sickness have been the cause of very irregular attendance of our schools for the past week.

Quite a lot of fish were taken out of Penns Creek during the late freshet, some measuring 19 inches. But how did you catch them, boy? Hope not with this net, for if you did Constable Geary may teach you a lesson in law.

Samuel Grenninger, of Sugar Valley, bought Mr. Bartley's house and lot at sheriff's sale. ZITSKA.

SMITH TOWN. Hard traveling at present.

Ben. Frankenberg is nursing a very sore hand.

The steam thrasher is snowed shut. Just so with other folks who were not ready yet for a deep snow.

Jacob Broom bought three sheep costing him $50. Presumably some of Ohio's best breed.

What a broad smile has settled on Charles Frankenberg's face since he shot that wild turkey.

John Heersberger bought a 1600 weight horse last Monday.

This (Thursday) evening Mr. Foreman, teacher of the Pike school, will have a spelling bee in his school room. All are invited to come and participate in the exercises.

The farmers, lumbermen and traveling public in general feel like petitioning the town people not to throw their coal ashes on the road. With a heavy load on a sled it is almost impossible to get over those places and even in a sleigh it is an uncomfortable obstruction to cross.

JUMBO.

WOODWARD. C. W. Hosterman will move into the hotel property next spring.

Samuel Mowry will move into the house now occupied by Sam. Williams.

Miss Jennie Stalhecker, of Coburn, is passing this week in our village.

REBERSBURG. Mrs. Reed is slowly recovering from her late illness.

Scott Kerstetter left on last Monday for Pine Creek Hollow where he is engaged on McCool's saw mill as head Sawyer.

The carpenters as well as the masons were compelled to quit work on Austin Gramley's buildings on account of the late snow and cold snap.

S. L. Stroecker with a party from Nittany, is at present out in the Alleghany mountains on a regular deer hunt.

Mrs. Samuel Dubs, of Freeport, Ill., is at present here on a visit to her relatives.

T. F. Moyer, of the Rebersburg Hotel, left last Monday for Berwick, Columbia Co., where he thinks of renting a hotel and livery stables. Mr. Moyer will remove from this place next spring and we will lose an obliging landlord.

Wm. Hackman is at present repairing the blacksmith shop lately occupied by Samuel Coudo. Mr. Hackman is an excellent mechanic and just the man we need in this town.

Some heavy butchering was done in our burg the other day. At Sam'l Coudo's when it was thought everything was ready for action the butchers were surprised to find their utensils scattered to the four winds just as if a cyclone had struck the place. Everything was confusion when Prof. Meyer arrived upon the ground and put an end to the hog's existence by planting three bullets in its forehead. Head butcher Wate then used three knives to stab the dying porker and the whole exciting act lasted about an hour.

The hog was finally weighed and tipped the scales at 433. Mr. Bressler followed by butchering two porkers and not to be outdone in the line of pork weighing them and reports 841 pounds, one of the hogs weighing 453 lbs. This puts Bressler to the head in this valley.

John Sheets, of near Wolf's store, had the misfortune the other day to cut an ugly gash in the upper part of his foot while chopping wood.

Now Mr. Editor I must make mention of a matter which may not prove interesting reading, but which, for the sake of justice and fairness needs clearing up. It seems that there are some young men in this neighborhood who consider it a smart trick to raise and circulate false reports. I have reference to the article which appeared in my communication of last week in regard to chickens and pie stealing. The information which was handed me by certain two fellows who don't deserve the name of gentlemen, for facts turned out to be nothing but lies made up with the intention of injuring the character of the persons accused.

Furthermore it may be said that the slandered parties are the superiors of their accusers in every respect. Let these young jackanapes remember that instead of gaining any friends they have made lots of enemies by their precious news and your correspondent will hereafter spot that kind of reporters when gathering news for the JOURNAL.

SQUIBBO.

Home Evidence. No other preparation has won success at home equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla. In Lowell, Mass., where it is made, it is now, as it has been for years, the leading medicine for purifying the blood, and toning and strengthening the system. This "good name at home" is a tower of strength abroad.

It would require a volume to print all Lowell people have said in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Mr. Albert Estes, living at 28 East Pine Street, Lowell, for 15 years employed as boss carpenter by J. W. Bennett, president of the Erie Telephone Company, had a large running sore come on his leg, which troubled him a year, when he began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. The sore soon grew less in size, and in a short time disappeared.

Jos. Dunphy, 214 Central Street, Lowell, had swellings and lumps on his face and neck, which Hood's Sarsaparilla completely cured.

Mrs. C. W. Marriott, wife of the First Assistant Fire Engineer of Lowell, says that for 16 years she was troubled with stomach disorder and sick headache, which nothing relieved. The attacks came on every fortnight, when she was obliged to take her bed, and was unable to endure any noise. She took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after a time the attacks ceased entirely.

Many more could be given had we room. On the recommendation of people of Lowell, who know us, we ask you to try
