Plenty of snow and good sleighing.

News are scarce this week.

The writer was lately informed that Mr. J. Wilson Russel, now living on Mr. Slifer's farm at Lewisburg, will move on Mrs. J. G. Meyer's farm below town next spring. Glad to see Wilson come back.

The Lutheran Sunday school of this place will give a free public entertainment on Christmas eve (Friday even ing) before Christmas. The principal part of the evening's exercises will be a Cantata in two acts, the title of which is "The Message of Christmas," by Fanny E. Newberry, music by Martin nation piece by piece. Both teamsters Brown. Of course Santa Claus has promised to be there and do his share of the work, namely : distribute the good things to the school. Look out, boys and girls, old Santa is a tricky fellow sometimes.

On the following evening, namely Christmas evening, the public generally are invited to come to the Reformed church where an ever green tree laden with good things to eat will be placed before the audience for inspection. Of course Santa has been engaged for the evening and will keep a sharp eye on the tree and in due time disburden the tree and distribute the gifts to their proper places. Mr. J. G. Meyer has prepared and arranged an anthem in two parts expressly for this occasion. ANOTHER.

> -CATARRH is a very prevalent and exceedingly disagreeable disease, liable, if neglected, to develop into a serious consumption. Being a constitutional disease, it requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, acting through the blood, reaches every part of the system, effecting a radical and permanent cure of catarrh in even its most severe forms. Made only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

DIED

On the 2nd inst., at the residence of his son at Fowler, Mr. Jacob Coleman, aged 64 years, 10 months and 10 days.

The Oft Told Story

Of the peculiar medicinal merits of Hood's Sarsaparilla is fully confirmed by the voluntary testimony of thousands who have tried it. Peculiar in the combination, proportion, and preparation of its ingredients, peculiar in the extreme care with which it is put up, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures where other preparations entirely fail. Peculiar in the unequalled good name it has made at home, which is a "tower of strength abroad," peculiar in the phenomenal sales it has attained.
