—Of all the contemptible low fellows in the world the coward who writes anonymous letters to his neighbors is the worst. It's so much like striking a man from behind and in the dark.
—DON'T miss reading the revised and corrected Journal Store Santa Claus A. B. C. But don't conclude that the list contains all the beautiful things found at No. 20, Penn Street, Millheim.
—Prof. Bierly's singing school will be suspended until some time after the holidays, when it will be converted into a singing convention, provided a suitable place can be procured in which to hold it.
—G. Alvin Harter, a student at the Selingsgrove Seminary, came home on last Friday to spend his holiday vacation at his parent's house in Penn township. He looked in on the JOURNAL on Tuesday.
—Tuesday, the 21st inst., was the beginning of winter, according to the almanac, but in reality it had begun several weeks ago. The days are growing longer, but much more cold weather is predicted.
—The first copy of the Keystone, the new paper published at Williamsport reached this office and it compares very favorably with other journals in the state. We hope the enterprise will meet with good success.
—Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
This Salve is the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chomblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by J. Eisenhuth.
—Mr. Peter Walizer has rented the skating rink on Penn street along with the skates and has opened the building for the use of the roller skating public. He solicits their patronage and guarantees everything in the best style.
—If you come to Millheim during the holidays, as of course you will, don't fail to visit the Journal Store. Clothed in its brilliant holiday garments it is a thing of rare beauty to see, even if you don't wish to buy.
—A public installation of officers of Post 298, G. A. R. will be held Monday evening, Jan. 3rd, 1887 at 7 1/2 o'clock, in their new hall on Main street. The public are cordially invited to attend. W. A. TOBIAS, Adjt.
—NOTA BENE means take notice, and in this particular connection it calls attention to the interesting fact that several additional lots of very fine Holiday goods have been received at the Journal Store. By all means call to see them.
—The Christmas entertainment in the Lutheran church of this place next Saturday evening promises to be a rich treat for the little and the big children. Considerable time, labor and money has been spent to make it a pleasing affair.
—Rook's new hotel buss is the handsomest and most commodious conveyance on the road. It accommodates about a dozen passengers and travelers arriving at Coburn will have no difficulty in reaching Millheim safely and comfortably.

or in exchange for leather, by 47-4t A. J. HARTER, Millheim, Pa.
—Mr. Henry Crouse, of Aaronsburg, shipped 3400 pounds of poultry on Tuesday. It must require a vast amount of work to gather up such an amount of fowl flesh and it certainly speaks well of Mr. Crouse's activity and business qualifications.
—YOUR tooth is too sound to be extracted, yet you cannot endure the agony it is inflicting. Your only resource is a bottle of Zingari Tooth Drops. Relief certain, and only costs 15 cents.
JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents, Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.
—NOTICE.—The pupils of the Millheim Schools, of twelve years and under, are hereby requested to meet at the Penn Street School House, on Christmas morning at 9 o'clock sharp, to receive their Christmas presents.
B. O. DEISINGER.
—NOTICE.—The property of John Swartz, Sr., dec'd, on North street will be offered at public sale on Jan. 1st, 1847. If not sold then, it can be rented and parties wishing to rent will please apply to R. B. Hartman, Penn St., for terms and particulars.
—Work on the Knitting Mills is progressing very nicely. The frame work for the second story will be ready for a "raise" by the end of this week. It will be an imposing structure when done, the height of it being some 50 feet.
—The Reformed congregation of Aaronsburg will give an entertainment on Christmas evening (Saturday) which will consist of recitations, appropriate music, and other attractive exercises. There will also be a large Christmas tree. All are invited to come.
—Miss Mable Musser arrived in town last evening to spend her holiday vacation at home. Her parents, Mr. S. D. Musser's, as well as her many friends are delighted to greet her. College life does seem to agree very well with Mable.
—YOUNG MAN, Horace Greely advised you to go west. That is all right in a general sense, but we give you a special and much more reasonable advice—namely: Go to the Journal Store and buy a fine Christmas present for your girl, before the best of everything is gone.
—Rev. Swengle, the Evangelical minister at this place made the announcement from the pulpit last Sunday that by next spring he will cease to preach and will go on his farm in Union county. The ministry of that denomination will lose a very efficient member by Rev. Swengle's retirement.
Active, Pushing and Reliable.
Mr. J. Eisenhuth can always be relied upon to carry in stock the purest and best goods, and sustain the reputation of being active, pushing and reliable, by recommending articles with well established merit and such as are popular. Having the agency for the celebrated Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, colds and coughs, will sell it on a "posit" guarantee. It will surely cure any and every affection of throat, lungs, or chest, and in order to prove our claim, we ask you to call and get a Trial Bottle free.
—Those of our patrons who are indebted to us on subscription, job work or advertising are requested to call at this office when in town during the holidays. We expect to be at our post in all cases of failure to cause expulsion where worms exist we cheerfully agree to refund the purchase price. One box of McDonald's Worm Powders guaranteed equal to four bottles of any worm syrup.
JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents, Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.
—Wm. Raker, Esq., of Raker City, N. C., is in town at present. Mr. Raker is the founder of a company, which at present is developing a valuable mine of copper ore at aforesaid place, and of which our townsman, E. H. Long has become a member of late. We were shown a specimen of the ore and the copper produced from it and were told that the average yield is about one-third of pure copper. The mine promises to become a rich bonanza for the operators and our friend Long may reap a fortune from the plant at some future day.
—CHRISTMAS CHEER.—To enjoy a merry Christmas you will find headquarters at Mrs. S. A. Zeigler's, whose business place will be decorated and adorned for the season. The public is invited to take a look at her full supply of Confectioneries.
OYSTERS SERVED TO ORDER.
ICE CREAM, ALL FLAVORS.
FANCY CAKES OF ALL KINDS.
RYE BREAD and in fact everything imaginable in her line.
A GRAND DINNER will be served on Christmas day from 12 to 9 o'clock, p. m. Meals all hours during the holiday season. Everybody is invited. Bring your families along.
GONE TO THE GENTLE SHEPHERD.
—Bertha, the bright and promising little daughter of W. R. and Lucy Henne, of Centre Hall, after several weeks' suffering with diphtheria and scarlet fever, was called away from this world of sorrow and trials to join the Heavenly host on last Monday. To say that the little girl was dearly beloved by her parents would be but a faint expression of their deep affection for the child. But God has given and God has taken away and while the bereaved parents are the subject of sincere sympathy their burdened hearts may find much consolation in the thought that though God's way seems dark and hard it is certainly all for the best. The writer adds his hearty condolences. Bertha was about 7 years of age. A funeral took place yesterday forenoon,

—W. C. Heinle, Esq., of Bellefonte, has been appointed collector of internal revenue for this district, vice T. J. Dunkle, who retires on the first of Jan. next. Mr. Heinle's appointment was secured through Goy. Curtin and meets with general favor.

Wonderful Cures.
W. D. Hoyt & Co., Wholesale and Retail Druggists of Rome, Ga., say: We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklen's Arnica Salve for two years. Have never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced Consumption have been entirely cured, by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by J. Eisenhuth.
SENTIMENTAL AND SENSIBLE.—Time flies swiftly and the days are short. Consider this and concentrate your thoughts upon the important subject of shopping to your best advantage. Take our advice and go to Kaufman's holiday depot. A look at their shelves and counters will convince you that it is the store where to buy the best and most goods for the least money.
—The Reformed Ladies' Mite Society of Aaronsburg will hold a musical convention during the first week in February, beginning on Tuesday evening, Feb. 1st, 1887. The services of Prof. Wm. Moyer, of Freeburg, Pa. have been secured to conduct the convention. That gentleman is known as a very successful instructor and cannot fail to make the convention an interesting musical affair. Books free. All singers and lovers of music generally are invited to attend. There will be two concerts on Friday and Saturday evenings.
—Bellefonte closely escaped another serious conflagration last Sunday morning. At about 7 o'clock smoke was discovered issuing from J. C. Brachbill's furniture store in Bush's block. The combined efforts of the Logan Hose and Undine fire companies prevented the fire to spread any further. However Mr. Brachbill's entire stock of goods is ruined and the dense smoke which communicated to Valentine Smith's grocery store damaged many of that gentleman's groceries. It is believed that the fire was again the work of an incendiary.
—DO NOT crucify the children by compelling them to take the horrible, nauseous compounds usually sold as worm medicines, many of them as worthless as they are obnoxious, but get a box of McDonald's Celebrated Worm Powders. Purely vegetable. So easy and pleasant to take that the children will never know a medicine is being administered. You will in addition secure the very best vermifuge possible to produce. So sure are we of this in all cases of failure to cause expulsion where worms exist we cheerfully agree to refund the purchase price. One box of McDonald's Worm Powders guaranteed equal to four bottles of any worm syrup.

—The Greenbriar communication not having come to time this week we are only able to extract the most important items from Zitski's collection:

After a protracted illness Mr. Snively is able to be about again.
Many of our folks intend taking in the entertainments at Aaronsburg.
Miss Elmira Stover is spending the holidays with her friend, Mrs. J. F. Torbert, Williamsport.
Mrs. John Wingerd's condition is still critical.
The protracted meeting in the mountains is still in progress. Eight seekers are at the bench at present.
Mr. Daniel Kersterlet is employed on Whitmer & Lincoln's saw mill at Penns Cave.
IT WILL PAY YOU!—It will pay you to call and look over the superb stock of Holiday Goods displayed in our Fancy Goods Department. No collection of like goods can surpass it in completeness or excellence, and nowhere else will you find LOWER PRICES. Our exhibit embraces a choice line of Plush Work Boxes and fancy Plush Autograph Albums, Odor Cases, Toilet Cases, Fancy Plush Whisk Holders, Cigar Cases, Snoker's Sets, fine fancy China Cups & Saucers for men, women and children. Also a full line of Toys for the little folks at J. EISENHUTH'S, Main Street, Millheim, Pa.
—We see by the Selingsgrove Times that W. B. Porter, who sometime ago gave a number of entertainments in this town, has as many acquirements as a pugilist as he has as an actor. He closed a week's engagement at Newport and on the last night a gang of toughs attempted to create a disturbance. The door keeper called for assistance, when Porter seized a policeman's club, leaped from the stage and began to use it freely on the heads of the unruly members of the audience. Several of the toughs were knocked down, and one of them, Harry Wingert, had his head split open. During the melee the ladies screamed in terror and flocked on the stage. Miss Kate Howe, of Newport, fainted, and it was at first thought she had died from the fright. There were no arrests, the Sterling Comedy Company being permitted to quietly leave the town.
CHRISTMAS FEAST.—The proprietor of the National Hotel, W. G. Rook, will get up an elegant Christmas Supper on Christmas day, Dec. 25th, to which he cordially invites all his patrons as well as the public in general. The following will be the bill of fare, which will speak for itself:
SOUP: Tomato Broth, a la Boston.
ROAST: Roast Turkey Stuffed, Cranberry Sauce; Roast Canvass Duck, Spiced; Roast Saddle of Veal, Currant Jelly; Filet of Beef, aux Champignons.
ENTREE: Pigeon Pie, baked; Fricassee of Chicken, Brown Sauce; Chicken Croquets, Tomato Sauce; Vegetables of the chicken.
DESSERT: Mince Pie, Lemon Custard, Peach Custard, Plum Pudding, Brandy Sauce, Tapioca Pudding with Cream; Oranges, Bananas, Apples; Coffee, Tea, Chocolate.
A FEW POINTERS FOR THE LADIES.
—A sure way to catch cold is to enter and depart from houses which are perhaps at summer heat inside while the air outside is at zero with the same amount of wraps. They will not lay off their tight fitting outer garments while in the hot room which makes them exceedingly warm at the time and chills them when they leave the house. Much injury to health would be avoided by abolishing this bad fashion. Another habit which is very detrimental to the comfort and ease of the public is to occupy the seats at places of public entertainments with the high and large hats which fashion prescribe for the ladies this season. Mrs. President Cleveland sets a commendable precept to the ladies of the National capital by removing her bonnet when entering such a place and they follow her example almost universally. Thus it will not be necessary to twist off your neck in attempting to look around a big hat.
—John F. Weaver, a gentleman who was born and raised near Farmer's Mills, in Penns Valley, and who had served in the late war as a private in Co. G, 5th P. Reserves, and was seriously wounded at Fredericksburg, was instantly killed on the railroad, near Reconvertre, Greenbriar Co., West Va., on the 14th instant. The unfortunate man was in the employ of the C. & O. R. R. Co., inspecting trains. He was attending to his duty on the day named, and was standing on the track, grease cup in hand, inspecting a passing freight train. So intent was he on this duty that he failed to notice a locomotive which was making a "fly switch" and moving backward around a slight curve on the same track on which he stood. It is said that no warning was given by the engineer. He was struck by the tender and carried some 250 feet, when he fell on the track and the engine and tender passed over him. He was fearfully mangled and death must have been instantaneous.

Neighboring News.

AARONSBURG.
What's the matter with our coffee drinkers?
Ground has been broken on several of the building lots in the new addition to Aaronsburg.
Rumor says we are to have another confectionery and tobacco store in our town in the near future. Well, the more the merrier.
Albert Stambach is again engaged in the lumbering business in the mountains south of town. Look out, Albert, for that kicking mule.
H. J. Crouse intends moving to Lock Haven next spring, to take charge of the boarding house formerly occupied by Samuel Mingle, deceased. Now, then, who will be our next constable, for Henry has served us, lo, these many years.
Aaronsburg has two newspaper correspondents. Of course, we know one and the other.
Boot and Shoer D. K. Musser, of the Millheimers and the neighboring public the finest and largest assortment of Boots and Shoes ever brought to Millheim. Success to you, D. K.
On last Sunday evening at the house of C. W. Bard on North 2d Street, there were united in holy wedlock, Mr. Benjamin Jackson, from near Zion, Centre Co., Pa., and Miss Agnes Stover, from below Aaronsburg, daughter of David Stover, Rev. Deitzler performing the ceremony. The groom's father was years ago a citizen of Aaronsburg.
If present reports are correct North 2d street will have two ice cream parlors next summer. Thos. Frank at the west end and Abs. Confer at the east end of the street.
Our Sunday schools, Lutheran and Reformed, are certainly doing their duties in preparing for their Christmas entertainments on next Friday and Saturday evenings, judging from the frequency of their meetings.
Prof. Moyer, from Freeburg, Pa., has been engaged by the Reformed Ladies' Mite Society to conduct a singing convention in the old Reformed church beginning at 7 o'clock. Boys, get in a supply of cubes.
A certain gentleman from a place called Smoketown, located somewhere in Brushyvalley, has taken a fancy to one of our town girls. We hope there is nothing serious in the case, because we are quite sure the old gentleman is not very willing to part with his house-keeper. Of course, being in possession of the proper license no one can object.
According to custom this will be the last issue of the JOURNAL for the year 1886. I have occupied the position of correspondent to this paper for about 18 months or more. During that time I have suffered considerable abuse at the hands of people with whom I daily associate. I was asked to do this work for the friends and patrons of the JOURNAL, most of whom are your friends and my friends, living in distant lands, and who in this way receive more intelligence in regard to the happenings of our town and vicinity than they would through a letter. As to who is the Aaronsburg correspondent to the JOURNAL? a question that has often been asked during the past year, it matters little to your readers. As a general thing the items are all the more interesting if the writer is not known. We will say in this connection through the columns of your paper, so all may see and know it, that if I have caused any ill feeling or offended any parties I ask their forgiveness and will try in the future not to touch that sensitive spot so easily provoked. In conclusion I wish you all a merry Christmas and a happy New Year. ANOTHER.

PENN HALL.

The ice season is at hand and many of our ice houses have already been filled.
Mrs. Grow and daughter, of Illinois are visiting at Jno. F. Heckman's at present.
The teachers of this place expect to spend their vacation at Bellefonte attending the annual County Institute.
Mr. H. M. Bidwell is again in our midst, trimming for J. C. Condo.
James R. Rush, a son of Henry Rosh had the misfortune of inflicting an ugly cut in his foot, nearly severing it from the limb, while chopping wood last week.
The debating society has suspended their meetings until the first Friday in January.
One of our Gregg township officers, who at the same time holds a U. S. office is in the habit of abusing and even maltreating his wife quite frequently. This fact is a source of disgust and indignation to the neighbors, who truly sympathize with the unfortunate lady, and we think the cruel husband would better refrain from this disgraceful conduct, else some other officer will get a hold of him and teach him a lesson in law and justice. A word to the wise is sufficient. DENVER DAN.

REBERSBURG.

Charlie Beck and his brother Henry left on last Tuesday for Beech Creek where they will seek employment.
Calvin Meyer, of Kansas, a son of our townsman Reuben Meyer is at present here visiting his relatives. Cal. looks hale and hearty and looks as jovial as ever.
One day last week James Corman lost a valuable horse. The animal had its leg broken by a kick from another horse in the same stable.
Rev. Basom (Ev.) is at present holding a protracted meeting in our town.
James Royer, son of Jeff Royer, of this place, who twenty years ago left the paternal roof and settled down in St. Louis, Mo., has at last come back to pay his parents and other relatives a pleasant visit. The old gentleman and lady being greatly delighted to see their son home again, invited the rest of their children with their families to partake of a sumptuous dinner and enjoy the novelty of a family reunion.
Two Hebrew gentlemen have rented and occupy Philip Woodling's shop, where they have opened a dry goods store.
One day last week one of our citizens came near being drowned while walking across the dam near Moyer's saw mill. The ice gave away under him and he was immersed in about five feet of water. He made a desperate struggle for life and after several attempts he succeeded in getting out, wringing wet and shivering with cold.
A tramp helped himself to an overcoat, which was left hanging in Stover's school house the other day by James Emrick, the teacher. The thief must have found the coat several sizes too small, as it was afterwards found hanging to the door knob of Wolf's store. A pair of new gloves which were in one of the pockets of the overcoat were gone, but James is very glad in having at least regained the coat.
The male scholars of our grammar school have formed a debating society which every Friday afternoon discusses subjects of great interest. SQUIBOR.

DIED

December 12th, in Ellsworth, Kansas, of diphtheria, Mand, daughter of H. H. and E. Tomlinson, aged 6 years, 10 months and 28 days.
"We had to yield her at death's dread command."
"We know the Lord gave—He has taken His own."
A pearl in God's casket, to dwell near His throne.
While we miss her so much, her lot can't be told.
She is walking the streets of Jasper and gold.
While we mourn her as dead, she speaks to us all.
Be ready to go when the Master calls.

25,000 FATAL CASES

OF TYPHOID FEVER ANNUALLY IN THIS COUNTRY.

ALL TREATED WITH QUININE.
Dr. J. S. Mitchell, of Chicago, in a clinical lecture at the Cook County Hospital, Oct. 7th, 1886, said: "A typhoid fever, no possible good can result from giving Quinine at the beginning of the disease, and after forty-eight hours the fever is usually higher than at first."
KASKINE DESTROYS THE Disease Germs in FEVERS, MALARIA, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DEBILITY, LIVER, LUNG AND KIDNEY DISEASE.
Prof. W. F. Holcomb, M. D., 54 East 23th St., N. Y. (late Prof. in N. Y. Med. College) writes: "Kaskine is superior to quinine in its specific power, and never produces the slightest injury to the hearing of constitutions."
The U. S. Examining Surgeon, Dr. L. R. Whitcomb, writes: "Kaskine is the best medicine made."
St. Francis Hospital, N. Y. "Every patient treated with Kaskine has been discharged cured."
Belleuve Hospital, N. Y. "Universally successful."
St. Joseph's Hospital, N. Y.: "Its use is considered indispensable. It acts perfectly."
Kaskine is pleasant to take and can be used without special medical counsel.
