EXPERIENCE VS. INEXPERIENCE.—It is a matter of regret that in introducing Hood's Sarsaparilla, its proprietors are obliged to overcome a certain distrust by some people who have unfortunately bought worthless compounds mixed by persons ignorant of pharmacy. And we say to those who lack confidence, read the unsolicited testimonials in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and then prove its merits by actual personal test. We are confident you will not be disappointed, but will find it a medicine of peculiar curative value, which can implicitly be relied upon.

The best place in the valley for valentines is the Journal store.

Mrs. Wm. Maize has been confined to her residence, at the western end of Main street, by sickness for the past three weeks. It is supposed to be a case of inflammation of the bowels and the lady at times is subjected to excruciating pain. We shall be glad to hear of her ultimate recovery.

ARM BROKEN.—Grover, the three year old son of A. C. Musser, on Main street, had a fall from the lower step of the stairs leading to the second story of the house on Tuesday evening and broke one of his arms. His parents at once summoned surgical aid and the little fellow does as well as he can under the circumstances.

We hear of quite a number of persons who intend moving to Millheim from neighboring valleys and towns this spring. Right, let them come, establish homes and get into business. There is lots of room for more and they all may find something to do. Millheim is a good place to come to, especially if you mean business.

We hear that H. G. Shaffer, of Spring Mills, will become the proprietor of the National Hotel at this place. The present landlord W. G. Rook has rented a large hotel at Berwick, Columbia Co., Pa., the management of which he assumed last week, and where he will move between this and the first of April.

The horrible, nauseous worm-seed verminages and worm sprays had their day. There will be a convention of the West Branch District Lodge, I. O. of G. T., comprising Lyeomg, Clinton and Centre counties, at Centre Hall, to-day and to-morrow. Rev. W. E. Fisher, of the Lutheran church, was expected to deliver the address of welcome, but whether he will do so now since his accident, we are unable to say. The meeting on Friday evening will be public.

The musical convention at Aaronsburg is a thing of the past and that winds up the season for such gatherings. The attendance at the convention was unusually large and it was consequently a financial success. The coffers of the Reformed Ladies' Mite Society treasury are well filled and the ladies are in the best of humor. May the affair was also a success.

Prof. W. C. Meyer, of Freeburg, who wielded the baton as conductor, is a very pleasant and talkative gentleman and at the same time a good musical instructor. He was ably assisted by Miss Meyer, the organist, and Calvin & Cyrus Meyer accompanied the choruses on their cornets. There were a number of prominent musicians present, such as Messrs. Bierly, King and Lowell M. Meyer, the latter favoring the large audiences in the concerts with his select and most popular songs. Following is a list of the members of the class with their postoffice addresses and respective parts:

The Clinton Democrat thus rectifies a wrong impression which seems to prevail about the recently restored eye. There is one thing about the cure of Governor Curtin's eye. The impression is general that he was blind in one eye and couldn't see much out of the other, and that both eyes were completely cured, so that he could see as well as anybody. This was not correct. One of Gov. Curtin's eyes is a glass eye, and the other through sympathy was badly affected. It was this one eye that was cured by Dr. Loring, of Washington. Even the distinguished surgeon did not consider himself sufficiently skillful to restore sight to the glass eye.

Another of those transitory stores has opened in Musser & Smith's corner building, on a lot owned by Angstadt & Co., gentlemen, hailing from Lewisburg, we believe. We are told that the town council will make an ordinance which will after this impose a license fee on these short-lived establishments and we think that to be a very proper move. A business firm of that kind will snatch away a large amount of trade from our home merchants and at the same time is of no benefit to the interests of the community, and consequently should be taxed for the privilege of doing such quick and profitable business.

The Most Remarkable Case of All.—A gentleman writes us from Philadelphia, Centre Co., Pa., that his little girl was horribly afflicted with scrofula. Her body was full of sores, ears discharging continually thick yellow purid matter, and her eyes so swollen as to prevent her from being able to see. One bottle of McDonald's Blood Purifier has to all appearances entirely cured her. Our neighbors, as well as ourselves, consider the cure remarkable.

A bonafide case. The address of the family can be obtained from the editor of this paper.

JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents, Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.

On receipt of 30 cents, in two cent stamps, we will send you an address the prescription for this compound, which is sold at retail price by your home druggists at small cost. We take this means of giving our discovery to the public, as it is much less expensive. We will gladly refund money if it does not cure you. THE INDIANA CHEMICAL CO., Crawfordsville, Ind.

Already we are reminded that next fall will be the election for county officers by the fact that candidates are looming up in different sections of the county. For the office of Register we see the name of G. W. Rumberger, commissioner's clerk, mentioned. For Recorder, our townsman, D. L. Zerby, has concluded to be a candidate. Mr. Zerby has many claims upon his party as a consistent and working Democrat, while as a man and scholar he is particularly fitted for the office. He does not expect to make a personal canvass of the county in a way that would be a hindrance to his other work, but intends to let the voters know his utility by means of publication and then leave the result with the good will of the Democratic party.

HOME DRESSMAKING.—Any lady who would like to know all the valuable secrets of dressmaking, and to learn how to cut a dress so that it is certain to fit with out trying on, should subscribe for the great home monthly, "The Housekeeper." When your children are threatened with croup or whooping-cough, beware how you let them to sleep with cough syrups whose principal ingredients are morphia and opium. The natural effort of the lungs to expel the suffocating mucus is coughing. Dr. Kessler's Celebrated English Cough Medicine contains no morphia or opium in any form, and by its stimulating actions on the kidneys, bowels and pores of the skin, more than any other remedy, assists Nature in breaking up and expelling the worst colds from the system. Money refunded to dissatisfied purchasers. Sold every where.

Neighboring News.

AARONSBURG.

Thunder showers on last Wednesday and Thursday.

The Reformed Ladies Mite Society's Musical Convention was a success. The concerts on Friday and Saturday evenings were largely attended. The gross receipts will figure up close to $140.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burd, living north of town, who have been down for the last six or eight weeks with typhoid fever, are at present on a fair way to recovery.

Michael Harper, living at M. M. Musser's, and who has been confined to the house nearly all winter by sickness has recovered sufficiently to take an occasional out door walk. He took in the convention one day last week.

Mrs. J. G. Kurtz, Milton, Pa., Mrs. L. D. Kurtz, Millheim, Pa., and Mrs. Henry Foster, Harrisburg, Pa., were here visiting their father, Mr. Emanuel Ettinger and other near relatives and friends.

Rev. Deitzler's protracted meeting is still in progress and judging by the attendance and the interest shown by the members and people generally the meeting will continue for a week or two longer. The house was crowded at last Sunday evening's services.

The news just reached us that Mrs. John S. Loman, residing below town, broke one of her limbs. As to how, when and where this accident happened we have not yet learned.

Chas. H. Stover, our tannery hick confectioner, starts out to day (Thursday) with a full line of cigars, and cut smoking and chewing tobacco. He is agent for a first class existing whole sale house. There is a loss of business now in Charley and he is bound to make things so. ANOTHER.

COBURN.

A great many of our citizens attended court in Bellefonte last week as witnesses.

Only about one more week until election time and we have as yet heard of no candidates who are anxious to be elected to the township offices. We should have a first class existing in Coburn and trust some one will be elected who is competent to fill the office.

Testimony was taken on Tuesday last at Kieckner's hotel in the suit for divorce of Thos. Keen.

On Tuesday evening last the Ladies' Mite Society of the Lutheran congregation met at the home of Mrs. Sheriff. The congregation is the youngest at Coburn, but we understand it is in a flourishing condition and their only drawback is the want of a church of their own, which we hope they will be able to erect ere long.

The rains of the past few days have raised the streams considerable and catching fish is now the order of the day.

Davy Billmyer came up from Ingleby the other day all smiles and happiness. When asked what he replied he said, "Oh, it is twins this time and boys at that."

SPRING MILLS.

Mr. W. F. Smith, from Smithtown, was here on Tuesday. He was much taken with the creamery where he spent a few hours with his old chum, Mr. Mallory.

Chas. P. Long still makes his regular visits to Nittany Valley. There seems to be some special attraction in that valley.

Jonathan Condo, from Nittany Valley, has rented Mr. Crawford's house with the intention of moving here in the spring and become a citizen of this place. He has connected himself with a large Boot & Shoe establishment of Philadelphia as traveling salesman.

Jerry Phillips, Esq., of Philadelphia, spent a few days with his brother, P. D. Phillips, last week.

Geo. A. Runk has returned from his western trip. His many friends are glad to take him by the hand and welcome him home.

REBERSBURG.

On last Thursday Benjamin Smith moved from Centre Hall to Wolf's Store where he now occupies Mrs. Sallie Wolf's house.

Guiseite & Co. have for the present quit work on their saw mill. They have removed the old engine to make place for the new one which they will shortly receive.

Clark Gramley has lately purchased a large hand power printing press.

C. C. Lose has sold his store to John Harter, his former clerk. Mr. Harter is just the man to run a general merchandise store and we wish him the best of success.

Some of our capitalists talk of erecting a creamery in this immediate vicinity. Hope it is not empty talk for we want just such an enterprise here.

Another wedding is on the tapis. This time it will be our far dealer, Well, that is what we looked for long ago, Ammon.

The members of the Lutheran church of this place contemplate erecting a new parsonage next summer on the same lot on which the Lutheran church stands. This will make a very convenient home for the pastor.

Next Saturday evening there will be a caucus meeting in the hick school house to nominate a ticket for township officers. SQUIBBO.

On the 21st of Dec. 1886, at Madisonburg, by Rev. J. Dotterer, Mr. Elias Miller to Miss Amanda Grimes.
