J. H. Musser shipped a car load of wheat from Coburn to the Eastern market last week. Abs. Confer, our North 2nd St. confectioner, was robbed of nearly all his confectionery, some tobacco and cigars, several old guns and between 5 and 6 dollars in cash, one night last week. Mr. William Shaffer, father of H. G. Shaffer of the Spring Mills Hotel, who was visiting friends in Akron, Ohio since the holidays, returned last week.

He says he enjoyed his visit very much. Wilmer Stover has already erected a building on his lot in the new D. H. Rote addition to Aaronsburg. resigned the Milton, Pa., pastorate and gone to Florida. We are told he went there in the interest of a northern real estate association. A Mr. Stahl and daughter from Paradise, Pa., were visiting at Dr. E. J.

Deshler's for the past 6 or 8 days. The old pulpit and platform in the Lutheran church was taken out one day last week. A new one of a more modern style will be placed there in the near future. Sam'l Rupp, for many years a resident of the lower end of Penns Valley, near Woodward, died on Sunday forenoon and was buried on Tuesday forenoon following in the Luth. cemetery in town, Rev. Yearick officiating. Mr. Rupp was past three score years and ten when he died. B. F. Edmunds, teacher of our second grade school is confined to the house

ANOTHER. THE Most Remarkable Case of all .-A gentleman writes us from Philipsburg, Centre Co., Pa., that his little girl was horribly afflicted with scrofula.

Her body was full of sores, ears discharging continually thick yellow purid matter, and her eyes so swollen and inflamed as to be almost blind. One bottle of McDonald's Blood Purifier has to all appearances entirely cured her. Our neighbors, as well as ourselves, consider the cure remarkable. A bonafide case. The Lutheran congregation of this place are talking of building a church here this summer, provided the necessary funds can be raised. It can be done if outside financial aid is given them, as it should be, for money given to erect a church is not thrown away but merely giving part of the interest back to the Lord on the principal he has loaned us. There should be another church here. It is needed and we hope they will succeed and be able to build this summer.

The disappearance of Miss Fannie Fank, the mute, in this place, last Thursday night caused quite an excitement. A party of mounted men scoured the woods all day on Friday and preparations were made to make a general search on Saturday. This however was found unnecessary by her voluntary return home, after hiding in a barn for twenty-four hours. There is some talk of sending her back to the Deaf and Dumb Institute at Philadelphia. David Ertel, after a lingering illness of five years, died on Saturday evening. He leaves a hose of friends to mourn his death.
