

WILLIAM S. PIERCE, Associate Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia, died on Monday of heart disease. He was highly honored by all his associates and had just entered upon his third term as Associate Judge, to which he was elected by Republicans and Democrats, though being a republican himself.

SENATOR SHERMAN is at present on a roundtrip in the South pretending to convince himself of the industrial progress of that part of the country. The old fellow feeds the Southern people lots of taffy and takes particular care not to use any bloody script language. But the people there knew something about John before he honored them with his hypocritical presence and they are quite sure that the visit of the old republican politician is simply his initiatory step of the presidential campaign of 1888. Selah!

THE CENTENNIAL of the Constitution of the United States was recently discussed by the committee in charge of the arrangements and representatives of the papers of Philadelphia in a conference held in the Continental Hotel. The main question at hand was the manner of raising the necessary funds to defray expenses. Though Congress voted an appropriation of $100,000 for the purpose, it adjourned without final action and the committee must now depend upon the financial help given by the several states in the Union. Delaware, Connecticut and Massachusetts have already responded to the call and Pennsylvania is expected to follow suit. A bill favoring an appropriation to the centennial is now before the respective committees in both houses of the state legislature. The programme will consume three days, to be arranged as follows: First day military parades, second day industrial parades, third day general jubilee with addresses, etc.

ABOUT the constitutionality of apportioning the state into congressional districts seven years after the decennial census, ex-Attorney-General Palmer writes to the Wilkes-Barre Record this evening as follows: "The constitution commands an apportionment immediately after each United States decennial census. To be literally obeyed a special session of the legislature in the census year ought to be held, regular sessions being biennial, unless a regular session chance to occur at that time. No one ever contended for such a severe construction. Immediately does not mean instantly, but as soon thereafter as the legislature may convene. The framers of the Constitution expected a new apportionment every ten years, but the failure on the part of the legislature to perform this act works no repeal of existing apportionment laws until supplanted by new. The old laws are operative, and members elected in conformity with them are certainly entitled to seats in congress."

THE local elections in the western states on Tuesday resulted as follows: The election for associate judge of the supreme court in Milwaukee was a democratic victory, Harlow S. Orton, being re-elected. In Milwaukee county the democrats and republicans placed a fusion ticket in the field against the labor party. The fusion candidates for judge of the circuit court and of the superior court carried the day by 2000 majority. In Kansas the women availed themselves very generally of their newly acquired privilege of suffrage. At several points women were elected to membership on the school boards. At Dubuque, Iowa, the Knights of Labor ticket made a full sweep, while in Chicago, Ill., labor was largely outvoted and Roche (republican) was elected by about 23,000 majority. The municipal election in Toledo, Ohio, have a mixed result, the republicans electing their candidates for mayor, police commissioner, prosecutor, city solicitor. The democrats have the judge and water works trustee and the school board. The board of aldermen is tie. In Denver, Col., the indications are that the republicans elected the mayor. St. Louis, Mo., was carried by the democrats. In Michigan the republican plurality on the state ticket will be about 6000, while the prohibitory amendment was defeated by about 3,500.

EASTER EGGS form an important factor in making the Easter holidays a season of happiness and joy. Few however are aware of the deep meaning which lies in the time honored custom of presenting Easter eggs. In looking at the etymology of the word "Easter" we find that it has its origin in the Anglo-Saxon word Eastre, from Ostara, a goddess of light or spring in whose honor the people of the ancient world celebrated the equinoctial season, by giving colored eggs to their friends to remind them that like the egg contains the germ of life so nature is being awakened to new life in the spring of the year. Later on, the first christian workers endeavored to harmonize the old heathen usage with the christian religion by connecting another and more important lesson with the former celebration. The Easter festival was subsequently observed by the church in commemoration of Christ's resurrection and the Easter eggs continued to figure as part of the programme, but were used as an illustration of the thought that as slumbering life in the egg only needs help to be awakened, so has the world through the death and resurrection of our Saviour gained everlasting life. This is the deeper meaning of the Easter egg, and it will be a profitable lesson for parents to give to their children along with the eggs on Easter morning.

The bill introduced by Representative Shafer, of Clinton county, entitled an act to secure to laborers a lien for their work and labor done in and upon and about the cutting, peeling, skidding, hauling, sliding, banking, drying and running of saw logs, squared timber, pop timber, hoop logs, railroad ties, bars and other timber and lumber, and the House finally on Tuesday morning. The bill will meet the hearty approval of all lumbermen. In the afternoon session a number of bills were passed finally, among them the one authorizing the councils of the boroughs of this commonwealth to regulate and fix the amount of license to be paid by persons or firms engaged in the business of auctioneering within the limits of the same.

The bill requiring the payment of certain premiums to the fire department of cities and incorporated boroughs by fire insurance companies not organized under the laws of this commonwealth, but doing business therein for the relief of disabled firemen and regulating the disbursement thereof, also passed finally by 144 yeas to 23 nays.

ARBOR DAY proclamations are in order and in pursuance with the custom Governor Beaver issues the following:

In the Name and by the Authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. In pursuance of a goodly precedent, and in compliance with a request of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania contained in a concurrent resolution, approved the 30th day of March, A. D. 1887, I have appointed and designated, and do here appoint and designate,

FRIDAY, THE 22D DAY OF APRIL, A. D. 1887, AS ARBOR DAY. And I do earnestly recommend to the people of the Commonwealth that they devote the whole or at least a portion of the said day to the trees and shrubbery wherever it may be proper and convenient so to do. Let school directors, teachers, and scholars unite in making it a day for the adornment of the grounds surrounding the school houses throughout the Commonwealth. Let the people of our towns and villages make it a day for the planting of trees along their streets. Let the people in our rural regions see to it that their highways are beautified by the planting of trees upon their borders. Let families observe the day in the planting of trees and shrubbery in the grounds surrounding their homes. Let the farmers see to it that the waste places on their farms are turned to profitable account by the planting of timber, nut, and fruit trees thereon. Let the people understand that upon the general observance of this day, and the practice rises which arise therefrom, in large measure depend the continuance of regular seasons of rainfall, the tempering of our climate, the beauty of our homes and highways, and the remunerative return for labor bestowed upon lands not otherwise productive.

The observance of Arbor Day is becoming general in many of our states; its necessity is recognized by those who have given the greatest care and study to the subject; and its practical usefulness is testified by all who have engaged in it. In case the day herein designated should be unsuitable in any portion of the Commonwealth let an adjournment be had to some future day which will suit the climate and convenience of the locality.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the Commonwealth at Harrisburg, this 1st day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and of the Commonwealth the one hundred and eleventh.

By the Governor: JAMES A. BEAVER, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our regular correspondent.) WASHINGTON, April 4, 1887. Probably never before in the history of the United States Treasury Department has a Secretary been appointed who was so universally popular as is his new head. Not the faintest sound of criticism or complaint of Mr. Fairchild is to be heard from any source. When the first rumors of Secretary Manning's resignation were circulated about the Department, the wish was expressed by his subordinates on all sides that the Assistant Secretary would be promoted to succeed him.

Without discussing such profound questions as Mr. Fairchild's financial policy, it can be truly said that not in years has there been a Secretary of the Treasury so heartily congratulated and never before did a Secretary open his doors to shake hands and receive the personal congratulations of those under him, even down to the lowest rank. It was in last September, during the absence of Secretary Manning and certain other important officials, that Mr. Fairchild, as Acting Secretary of the Treasury, performed an immense amount of taxing brain work. It was at a period which was probably the busiest in the history of the Department. He performed his difficult task with such marked ability and energy that it could not be otherwise than win for him the admiration and confidence of the country at large as well as of the President. It is said that Mr. Cleveland then made up his mind that in the event of Secretary Manning's permanent retirement from the Cabinet the man who had for so long and so ably been the practical Secretary of the Treasury should be rewarded for such distinguished merit.

The appointment of Mr. Fairchild is also an evidence that the strong, conservative financial policy under which the country has passed from an era of profound depression to the eye of a new period of prosperity and hope is to be continued for the remaining two years of the present administration. The effect of his promotion will be to prevent any injurious agitation of the money market, such as might have occurred if a man in whom the public had less confidence had succeeded Mr. Manning. Now current values will not be disturbed by the smallest fraction. Everything inside and outside of the Department will move on without a ripple and, except that Mr. Fairchild has performed his difficult task with such marked ability and energy that it could not be otherwise than win for him the admiration and confidence of the country at large as well as of the President. It is said that Mr. Cleveland then made up his mind that in the event of Secretary Manning's permanent retirement from the Cabinet the man who had for so long and so ably been the practical Secretary of the Treasury should be rewarded for such distinguished merit.

The Commission is not authorized to employ a clerk or a messenger without the approval of Mr. Lamar, the Secretary of the Interior, and their bills of expenses will not be paid unless endorsed by him. The Commissioners seem to be economically inclined, and instead of riding about the city in carriages, they may be seen walking or using the street cars.

The peremptory closing of the Washington bar on Sunday under the new ruling of the Commissioners of the District, promises to be successful. Last Sunday nearly every establishment dedicated to the liquor traffic was hermetically sealed, and the few who took chances were so harassed that they will in future acquiesce in the established ordinance. The Sunday drinking in Washington has been fearfully great, and of course its results have been proportionally disastrous. The temperance people are jubilant over the success of the Commissioners in virtually suppressing the sale of liquor in the saloons on Sunday, and a certain District Judge has gone a step further. In the case of a hotel-keeper brought before him, he decided that a landlord could neither furnish liquor to his guests in their rooms nor wine at the table on Sunday.

"Can't eat a thing." Hood's Sarsaparilla is a wonderful medicine for creating an appetite, regulating digestion, and giving strength.

Ingersoll Admitted to the New York Bar.

NEW YORK April 1.—Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll was admitted to practice at the bar of this state today before the general term of the supreme court. When he was asked to be sworn he refused, and affirmed in place thereof. He then signed the roll.

A Western Coal Pool.

PITTSBURG, April.—The railroad coal operators of the Pittsburgh district, who ship to western points, have formed an association of the maintenance of a uniform selling price for coal. Eighty per cent. of the firms shipping west and representing $12,000,000 capital have joined the pool. An effort will be made to have the Hoeking Valley syndicate co-operate with the new association.

For cleansing and healing foul and indolent Ulcers, Sores and Abscesses and removing the bad odors arising therefrom, and for sloughing, contused and lacerated wounds, Darby's Prophylactic Fluid is the best remedy. "I have used Darby's Prophylactic Fluid in hospital and private practice for ten years and know of nothing better for sloughing, contused and lacerated wounds, foul and indolent ulcers, and as a disinfectant."—J. SIXTY-FIVE HUNDRED CARPENTERS READY TO STRIKE IN CHICAGO.

Building Operations Will be Suspended Immediately Unless the Contractors Comply with the Demands of their Employers. CHICAGO, April 3.—Six thousand five hundred carpenters employed by various contractors and shop owners throughout the city and suburbs will cease work to-morrow, and building operations in this county will be suspended indefinitely. The leaders of the carpenters, who after a long struggle last summer failed to carry out their demands for eight hours and an increase of wages, decided then to renew the contest, and think that now, when building enterprise is reviving and carpenters are wanted, the time has come to make employers yield.

Now that sudden and violent changes of weather occur every twenty-four hours, almost everyone has a troublesome cold, which if neglected, may produce results that may trouble you for the remainder of your life. Dr. Kessler's Celebrated English Cough Medicine is especially deserving praise in this class of complaints. It never fails! It never disappoints! Instructions for treatment of croup and whooping cough also accompany each bottle. Every family, especially where there is children, should have a bottle. Dissatisfied buyers can have their money refunded.

STARVATION IN TEXAS.

AUSTIN, TEXAS, April 1.—State Senator Woodward, of Calhoun county, has received a statement from Atascosa county sworn to by four responsible citizens and endorsed by the county judge, sheriff and county clerk, giving the names of the afflicted families, three, five and six of that county, whom the affiants declare are in a condition of starvation occasioned by the drought. The number of persons in each family is stated, showing a total number of 106 persons. The paper states that these families are unable to procure sufficient food and are now resorting in some cases to eating carcasses of cattle that have died from starvation and begging bread from their neighbors to sustain life. Those who would aid them if possible are themselves in distress, and have nothing that can be spared. The signers of the statement appeal for aid from the legislature, as nothing more can be expected from that source, it is left for the generous and more fortunate of other counties to render such aid as they can. The statement represents a deplorable state of affairs, and concludes by saying that whatever is done should be done at once.

A DRUGGIST'S VERDICT.—W. E. George, one of the principal druggists of Philadelphia, Pa., writes:

"J. A. McDonauld, Beesville, Pa. Dear Sir:—One of the most prominent citizens of our city and a gentleman well-known and highly respected in the surrounding country, called at our store and voluntarily offered to go before a justice of the peace and testify in an affidavit to the virtue of your Blood Purifier, saying that he had used but three bottles, and was now entirely cured of a distressing and long continued attack of erysipelas, after having tried a number of other remedies without receiving any appreciable benefit. Please send me one dozen by express. We never had a medicine in our store that sells as readily or gave such universal satisfaction as your Blood Purifier."

For scrofula, erysipelas, tetter, salt rheum, skin diseases, humors, sores, eruptions, pimples, blotches, swellings, tumors, boils, ulcers, scald head, ringworm, syphilis, and blood disorders, no remedy ever devised equals in power and efficacy McDonauld's Great Blood Purifier or Sarsaparillian Alternative. Warranted. Seventy-five cents per bottle at all dealers in the medicine. JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia Agents. Sold by J. Eisenhuth, Millheim, Pa.
