FRANKLIN county democrats held their convention last Tuesday, and the session is reported a very harmonious one throughout. They nominated candidates for treasurer, prothonotary, clerk of the courts, register and recorder and county commissioners.

QUEER, isn't it ? The democratic ing, bruises, humors, eruptions, boils governor of New York recently appointed Col. Fred D. Grant, oldest son of U. S. Grant, quarantine commissioner of New York City, and the republican senate of that state promptly rejected him. Here is food for thought.

THE republican state convention will be held in Harrisburg on the seventeenth of August. The democratic state convention will take place in Allentown, August 31st. Both conven- in embyro is really picturesque, and they will have to nominate candidates for state treasurer and judge of supreme court.

WHAT about the revenue bill since Governor Beaver bluntly refuses to call an extra session of the Legislature ? According to the calendar the year 1888 will be a leap year, beginning their beloved fellow citizen, the wealthy bank. with a Sunday and ending with a Monday. There will be five eclipses and Venus will be the reigning planet. The political prospects for the year 1888 are, the republican party will make a big leap into obscurity, the year will begin with the Democrats in power and end with a victory for the democratic party, and Cleveland will be the reigning planet, who will eclipse all the stars in the Republican sky. If we prove a false prophet, we'll take it all back.

Ex-SPEAKER RANDALL in conversation with a reporter on the Revenue question said that he believed the house favored the repeal of the tobacco tax. He thinks there will be an effort made to revise the tariff, but he sees no necessity for an extra session. While he earnestly hopes there may be no financial legislation which is likely to disturb the present satisfactory economic conditions, he admits that the revenue must be reduced. His evident reluctance to tamper with the tariff at this stage is no doubt a sign that he looks ahead to the coming presidential campaign and considers it for the best of the party to leave good enough alone.

NEVER mind the farmer ! but take good care of the corporations, seems to be Governor Beaver's motto. Among his bulk of vetoed appropriations is the one of $40,000 to the state agricultural board and another of $5000 to the annual agricultural exhibitions of the grangers at Williams Grove. He says there is no money to spare for such things. But when the people ask for a revenue law which will tax the rich corporations and which would provide ample funds for such things he turns a deaf ear to their appeals. Welf, we must not forget that the cor-porations made Beaver governor and one favor is worth another. Great excitement in Texas, Great excitement in Sease of Mr. J. E.
