F. P. VONADA,
25-ft. Madisonburg, Pa.

—Two new announcements of candidates for Associate Judge appear in this issue. Henry Beck, Esq., of Madisonburg, is the one, ex-sheriff W. L. Musser, of this place the other. Both have grown gray in the service of their party, and are well known to the voters of the county, so any comments from us are superfluous and on the matter will have to be left to the judgment of the people.
—There will be a bush meeting in the grove of William Wolf, about three miles east of Aaronsburg, near St. Paul's, beginning August 4th, 1887. It is the same ground which was occupied last year. No huckstering of any kind will be allowed within the limits prescribed by law.

—The quarterly meeting of the Dr. Association will take place immediately after preaching on Saturday afternoon.
—One of the first sensations on last Thursday morning was a very elevating (?) mouth battle on Main street between two of our citizens, whose names we withhold for their own sakes. Their positions were not exactly from the Bible nor even from Shakespeare or Byron, but they were heavy enough to jingle in the ears of the more refined people and they furnished amusing and instructive material for our newspaper.

—ICE CREAM FESTIVAL.—The Rebersburg Cream Ladies' Mite Society hereby respectfully invite the public to an Ice Cream Festival, to be held on Saturday afternoon and evening, July 30th, 1887. To avoid confusion all are requested to apply to the money changers' stands for tickets before calling for ice cream. Good quality and plenty of it will be served by the young ladies to those holding tickets. The proceeds are for the benefit of the church. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.
—By turning to the legal advertisements on our second page our readers may notice the announcement of Messrs. D. S. Kauffman and E. H. Long, stating that they have by mutual consent dissolved their partnership. Mr. Long has retired from the firm and D. S. Kauffman, the senior member, will continue the business in his own name, and will be assisted by that partner and assistant salesman, A. A. Frank. This business transaction was consummated on Monday evening and we understand Mr. Long intends starting a grocery store in Aaronsburg at some other place Mr. Kauffman, while thanking the public for their patronage in the past respectfully requests a continuance of the same, and using slight adjectives the best treatment and farrest dealing.

—An invalid, alleged to come from Snyder county, was hauled through Millheim in a buggy last week, for the purpose of consulting our people's sympathy for his case. His story runs that he has been in the late war, where he contracted a malignant fever, which has been in his system ever since, finally driving him to the brink of the grave. He had been in the hands of several doctors in Snyder county are so numerous that they could not be mentioned. He was finally cured by a physician who used a cure called "Harris' Compound." He is now well and has returned to his home in Snyder county.

Local Correspondence.
REBERSBURG.
Prof. C. L. Granley started his school last week and has sixty scholars. No doubt it will be a successful term of school.
Sam'l. Lambert, of Lock Haven, paid a flying visit to his brothers and sisters in this place on Saturday and Sunday.
Miss Roub, of Bellefonte, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. Benj. Roub's.
On last Thursday Benj. Lambert and his son Stanley met with quite an accident. They were on their way to Lock Haven with some produce. Somewhere between the tollgate and Peter's mill the front axle of their wagon broke and Mr. Lambert was thrown out and dragged a considerable distance before he could get loose from the wagon and lines. He received a number of painful bruises. A piece further on the boy was thrown out and received three very ugly cuts on his right leg near the knee.
Dan'l Royer sold a valuable horse, and Jacob Gophart a good cow.
The farmers are busy plowing and new is scarce. NAXON.
SMITH TOWN.
News are scarce and the writer is almost too busy to gather them up.
The farmers who are not done hauling in their grain have a hard time of it through this wet weather.
Some have commenced to cut their oats which yields a very good crop.
Miss Minnie Bierly is among us playing the needle.
The visitors in this vicinity for the past week were too numerous to mention.
Two ladies of the Lutheran congregation of Coburn were through here to see how much milk and small change they could gather up for their festival next Saturday evening.
Corn and potatoes look very promising. JEMMI.
PENN HALL.
Geo. M. Musser and wife from Williamsport will spend part of the hot season with their parents.
Prof. Stahler from Lancaster filled Rev. Yearick's pulpit on Sunday.
S. J. Herling and wife visited friends at Sunbury last week. The Squier was a witness in a pension suit at that place.
D. J. Musser is shipping a car load of walnut lumber to Williamsport.
E. B. Barthe is clerking at Penns Cave part of the time.
Joseph Smith's broken rib is slowly improving.
Messrs. G. F. Mark and C. F. Musser started to school on Monday with the intention of preparing for Gettysburg College. We wish the boys success. DENVER DAN.

AARONSBURG.
Worcesterlies are very plenty in the mountains surrounding town.
Ally's Stanchuk has moved, with his family, to Lock Haven, Pa. He has engaged to work in Scott & Son's flour & feed store.
Chas. H. Stover is now preparing to make 50 qts. of ice cream at once making. Biscuits and other ice cream preparations should take note of this. They obtain his services at the use of his freezers.
H. Mingle was to Lock Haven last week to "look for something to do." Haven't heard whether he was successful in securing a job.
H. H. and F. J. Weaver are back from York state and two car loads of very fine Holstein cattle, they also brought with them about 900 lbs. of "Simons pur" maple sugar.
Mrs. Swab from near Centre Hill, daughter of Rev. Elias Stanchuk, was down during last Sabbath paying her parents a visit.
Harry son of S. H. Dehl of this place has gone to Freeburg, Pa., to take a six week course in instrumental music.
J. B. Lenker who has lately gone into the mercantile business at Lemont, Pa., was down to take in the Lutheran festival last Saturday afternoon & evening. Jim says he likes Lemont and the store business.
Hog Cholera, of a disease similar to it, is doing bad work among the farmers' hogs in the lower valley. Some farmers have lost all, and others a part of their hogs by this, it seems incurable disease.
E. E. and C. H. Stover comprising the firm of Stover Bros., tanners, are getting in a large lot of bark from the chopping north of Woodward.
Merchants doing business close by Aaronsburg, especially those catering to the hat trade will learn by this notice that Aaronsburg has a tree that bears hats. We notice it produces the Black Berry kind which has orders to be the most popular. Place your orders early gentlemen and no further questions.
The gross result of the Lutheran festival on last Saturday afternoon & evening was about $80. The committee and congregation are very well satisfied considering the inclement weather. ANOTHER.

MILLHEIM MARKET.
By Whittier & Lincoln Coburn, Pa.

COBURN.
A sailing has been put up across the bridge, which is considerable of an improvement, but could have been made more so if it had been put up properly. It seems the pike company make all their improvements when forced to do so on as cheap a scale as possible.
Our Sunday school was broken up for a few Sundays on account of the Sunday school literature not coming to hand through carelessness of the mails. The literature having arrived school was again opened last Sabbath with an attendance of 75.
Miss Ella Nese opened a term of eight weeks' school here on Monday morning.
Jacob Platt was stricken with a paralytic stroke while sitting on his steps on Friday last. At this writing he is improving.
Mrs. Coony has opened a millinery and dress-making establishment near the depot.
The Lutheran festival on Friday and Saturday evening promises to be a success, should the weather prove favorable.
The tub race will be a success, as enough money has already been subscribed for the expenses, and no doubt other sports will be added to the list and Coburn is likely to have a crowd. The Millheim band will only be the occasion with some of their select music. The boys are practicing every evening in order to get in shape to accept of the first prize. VALE.

GREENBIRR.
Quite a number of our young folks are attending school at Spring Mills.
Mr. Jacob Kern sold his house to Daniel Kreator of below Coburn.
On Wednesday last week three four-mile teams from the coal regions passed through here on route to John Decker's spring fields. contract, nine miles from Spring Mills.
Death has again visited our little town and has called for our midst Geo. A. Runk. He breathed his last on Monday morning after a two months' sickness. He was a good citizen and neighbor and his death will be keenly felt in this community. The funeral services were held at his home on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

MADISONBURG.
The fishing party mentioned in our last came home with a few fish. George Miller, one of the fishermen, has been confined to his bed ever since his return.
Sam'l Lambert, of Lock Haven, paid a flying visit to his brothers and sisters in this place on Saturday and Sunday.
Miss Roub, of Bellefonte, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. Benj. Roub's.
On last Thursday Benj. Lambert and his son Stanley met with quite an accident. They were on their way to Lock Haven with some produce. Somewhere between the tollgate and Peter's mill the front axle of their wagon broke and Mr. Lambert was thrown out and dragged a considerable distance before he could get loose from the wagon and lines. He received a number of painful bruises. A piece further on the boy was thrown out and received three very ugly cuts on his right leg near the knee.
Dan'l Royer sold a valuable horse, and Jacob Gophart a good cow.
The farmers are busy plowing and new is scarce. NAXON.
SMITH TOWN.
News are scarce and the writer is almost too busy to gather them up.
The farmers who are not done hauling in their grain have a hard time of it through this wet weather.
Some have commenced to cut their oats which yields a very good crop.
Miss Minnie Bierly is among us playing the needle.
The visitors in this vicinity for the past week were too numerous to mention.
Two ladies of the Lutheran congregation of Coburn were through here to see how much milk and small change they could gather up for their festival next Saturday evening.
Corn and potatoes look very promising. JEMMI.

HOOO'S SARPAPARILLA
COMPOUND EXTRACT
P.P.P.
Warranted Purely Vegetable
Prepared by J. C. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.

The importance of purifying the blood cannot be overestimated, for without pure blood you cannot enjoy good health.
At this season nearly every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and enrich the blood, and we ask you to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. It strengthens and builds up the system, creates an appetite, and tones the digestion, while it eradicates disease. The peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation of the vegetable remedies used in Hood's Sarsaparilla speeds its effect in all curative purposes. No other medicine has such a record of wonderful cures. If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other instead. It is a Peculiar Medicine, and is worthy your confidence.
Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists.
