Call for the State Convention.
The democratic state convention to nominate a candidate for judge of the supreme court, a candidate for state treasurer, and the transaction of such other business as may be brought before it, will meet at Allentown, on Wednesday, August 31st, at 12 o'clock, noon. The representation in the convention will consist of representative delegates, one for each 100 democratic votes cast for governor at the last gubernatorial election, or for a fraction of 1-100 such votes amounting to 500 or more in the respective representative districts, provided that each representative district shall have at least one delegate.

TEXAS SAYS "NO WATER IN OURS" and at the recent state election defeated the prohibition amendment by a majority of 60,805. Prohibition must have got into the wrong box when it tackled Texas.

INVITATIONS are pouring in on President Cleveland from the business men and citizens of all the cities which he may possibly pass on his proposed western trip, to stop and visit them. There seems to be a universal feeling of friendship and good will towards the President and his jewel of a wife, which is reciprocated by kindness on their side. Leaving politics out of the question there isn't a monarch or ruler on the face of the earth that is as much in the enjoyment of the love and respect of his people as a President of these United States.

THE Democratic County Convention at Bellefonte on Tuesday did its work in a systematic and harmonious way and nominated a set of men for the different county offices, who ought to and no doubt will be cheerfully supported at the fall election by Centre county's democracy. The nominees are all men of unspotted characters, endowed with the best qualifications, and have been faithful democrats all their lives. There is no necessity for multiplication of words at this time. What we want to say now and what we must do to give the ticket a hearty endorsement and go to work with a will to insure its success. As the campaign advances we shall say more on this subject.

THE Supreme Court of Louisiana recently rendered a decision in a newspaper case in which the following views were made upon the duty and province of the newspaper:
"Surely newspapers have some object higher than mere money making. As operated in modern times they are something more than mere advertising mediums, or organs purveyors of news. They are organs of public opinion, instructors of the people, advocates of certain fixed policies and principles, the promotion of which must gratify the intellectual and moral desires of their proprietors, even if they do not in all cases advance their pecuniary interests. We might well conceive that, though offered ample pecuniary inducements to advocate principles or causes which they disbelieve, or to abstain from advocating those which they approve, worthy journalists would reject such propositions with the scorn that they deserve."

POPE LEO XIII has resolved to take an active part in Italian politics and organized an electioneering committee to canvass the country in the interest of the vatican candidates for seats in the chamber of deputies. Already the vatican has a sufficient number of adherents in the representative body of the Italian legislature to make its voice potent in the councils of the nation. This plainly indicates that the pope is as much of a politician as ever and had only been abiding his time to fight for the restoration of the temporal power of the Roman church. True, since 1870 when the pope was dispossessed of his Italian dependency the backbone of his political influence seemed broken. But at no time had he given up his claim to supremacy in the worldly affairs of men and nations and the only reason that he did not exercise his authority in political matters was because the nations did not give him the opportunity to do so but managed their state affairs to suit themselves. So humiliating was this severe neglect to the proud church potentate that he would not use the streets of Rome for the greater part of sixteen years, but kept close to the gardens of the vatican. Of late, however, advances were made by several of the worldly powers, which encouraged the Roman Pontiff very much and gave him hope that the days when the sovereigns of Europe held their crowns in fear and trembling at the footstool of St. Peter's chair may yet return. The first to make a reconciliatory movement was the iron-willed chancellor of protestant Germany, Prince Bismarck, who came to Pope Leo to secure papal interference in the German elections. It was no small triumph for the vatican to have its political abilities recognized by one of the shrewdest diplomats on the continent, and when England, France and Italy began to show signs of recognition of the papal power the pope felt his importance and at once became inflated with zeal for the welfare of nations. By all appearances he now proposes to mix himself up in the affairs of Italy, Germany and France. He has in fact gone so far as to send an embassy to Ireland to watch over the condition of his subjects there and has also freely given his opinions about various matters in the United States. It shows that the Pope is after nothing less than the earth and expects to fight his bloodless battles with a consistency and perseverance characteristic of Roman Catholic politicians. If he gets too loud, however, he may stand a good chance to be crowded back to the obscurity from which he just emerged.

A RELIABLE PORT WINE.—Mr. A. Speer, of New Jersey, whose Port Grape Wine has such a wide reputation, and which physicians prescribe so generally, was the first in this country to import Port Grape vines from the banks of the River Douro, in Portugal, where the finest old time ports were made and to plant vineyards of them in New Jersey. His Port, Burgundy and Claret, which are now the best wines to be had, have become a great favorite most fashionable in New York, Philadelphia and Washington society.

THE Toledo Bee in commenting upon the work of the recent Ohio Republican convention and speaking of Blaine as against Sherman, the choice of the convention, for president in 1888 makes the following pungent observations about the Plumed Knight and gives a number of sharp pointers to Blaine politicians:
Well, as to that, I have to say if the Irish question and the Irish vote are the main things sought, then Mr. Blaine had better seek office in Ireland. This is America, and the men on whom we depend in a national election are American citizens. In fishing for big fish it's not best to cast our net in a pool, but seek the broader and deeper waters of the sea. For every vote the Knight of the Plume would get by a direct appeal to the Catholic Irish democracy he would lose three votes of Protestant American republicans. A vote based solely on personal grounds, not on principle, is sure to be offset by other votes similarly fought. Magnetic men have their good points, but while the positive pole of a magnet attracts the negative repels. Blaine is not by any means as strong as he was in 1880. Those who know him best—and the people are getting to know him pretty well—know that he is a political Jesuit, courteous in manner, cordial and plausible in speech, but silent, crafty and unscrupulous in the promotion of his schemes; professing open friendship while stabbing secretly; keen in the scent of money, not particular as to the mode of its acquisition, and lavish in his expenditure for his own political advancement.

BETTER THAN VACATION.—This is pre-eminently the vacation month, when thousands seek rest and recreation. But to those who suffer the depressing effects of summer debility, the disagreeable symptoms of scrofula, the tortures of, biliousness, dyspepsia or sick headache, there is more pain than pleasure in leaving home. To such we give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial. It will purify your blood, tone up and strengthen your body, expel every trace of scrofula, correct biliousness, and positively cure dyspepsia or sick headache. Take it before you go, and you will enjoy your vacation a thousand fold.

WASHINGTON LETTER.
(From our regular correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 8, 1887.
Secretary Fairchild has issued a circular inviting proposals for the sale of a large amount of 41 cent United States bonds and 4 per cent bonds and also Pacific railroad bonds, with a rebate of 2 per cent per annum on the amount prepaid. Explanations of this action Secretary Fairchild says he thought it the best thing he could do under the circumstances—his purchase of bonds being for the purpose of providing for the sinking funds and the anticipation of interest is for the purpose of removing the surplus from the treasury. The Secretary previously applied to that fund. The Secretary through the cooperation of the bondholders, and that if they do not accept the terms of his offer to them, it would mean that they are not greatly in need of money.

Centre County Patrons' Exhibition.
EXCURSION TO CENTRE COUNTY AND FROM WHERE AND WHEN.
The committee of the Centre County Patrons' Exhibition have been completing arrangements with the Baltimore Valley, Lewisburg & Tyrone and Bellefonte & Leominster roads to run excursion trains over their roads for the Patrons' Picnic and Exhibition to be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, September 13, 14 and 15, which will go to return on Friday, September 16, at 11 o'clock. Tickets will be sold at 75 cents, and will be provided for transportation to the picnic grounds. This will give all an opportunity to attend the fourth annual picnic in Centre county, which will be the largest gathering ever held in the county. For further information apply to Hon. Leonard Rhoads, chairman, Centre Hall.

Miscellaneous News.

Two horses belonging to Daniel Yoder, of Marion township, Berks county, collided with their heads while pasturing the other day, causing paralysis, and both have died since.

An Early Frost in York State.
WELLSVILLE, N. Y., Aug. 7.—There was a white frost in this section this morning and the thermometer registered about forty degrees above zero.

Cut in Twain in a Saw Mill.
ALTOONA, Pa., Aug. 7.—While William Vick, aged 20, employe at Burke's saw mill, Baker's Summit, near this city, was engaged in running a saw his suspender caught and drew him onto it, cutting him in twain. Death resulted almost instantaneously.

He Was Trying His New Revolver.
NEWPORT, Pa., Aug. 7.—Elmer and Harry Schrom, aged 17 and 11 respectively, sons of George Schrom, editor of the Newport Ledger and corner of Perry county, went to the outskirts of town yesterday afternoon to shoot at mark with a new revolver they had just purchased. Elmer had shot off a number of loads and he thought all the cartridges were empty. He used his knife to pick them out of the chamber when one exploded and the ball entered Elmer's arm near the shoulder taking a downward course and making an ugly wound. The ball has been extracted and it is thought the arm can be saved.

A Thousand Acres of Prairie Burned.
JOLIET, Ill., Aug. 5.—After the prairie fire which raged all day in the vicinity of Manhattan had been got under control, it broke out afresh further down the railroad in another place and burned over a thousand acres. One house was destroyed. In some places the flame was from twenty to thirty feet high. The fire went faster than a man could run. Everybody turned out to fight the fire, which was finally subdued near Matteson. A huge area was burned over, and in the woods the fire is still burning. It burns the largest trees down and burns them out by the roots, making holes in the ground in some places five feet deep.

Set On Fire by Lightning.
FRANKLIN, Pa., Aug. 7.—The storm passing over this city last Friday night did a vast amount of damage. A 15,000 barrel tank of oil belonging to the Eclipse oil company was fired by a flash of lightning, and for a time threatened the destruction of the entire oil works, the largest in the world. The burning oil formed a pool against the trucks of the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio and the Lake Shore roads, and they were extinguished by the fire. The loss by the fire will reach $20,000. Hugh Porter, a fireman, was accidentally hit on the head by a hose wrench and fatally injured. James Canfield and John King were fatally burned. Michael Kinser and several others were seriously injured. The fire was under control at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

More Ugly Work of the Buzz Saw.
The most horrible casualty ever chronicled in Cumberland county occurred on Saturday morning in a clearing near Biorville, a village about six miles west of Carlisle. A portable steam saw mill was being used to convert the logs which they were cut into lumber, and while assisting in bearing away the slabs John Warner was thrown upon the rapidly revolving saw and killed instantly. His head was severed completely from his body and rolled down on the bed of the mill. Both arms were cut off and his body was so gashed and mangled that it was with difficulty that the other workmen could remove him to his home, which was but a short distance. Warner was between fifty and sixty years of age, and leaves a wife and child in dependent circumstances. A fund, however, has been started in that part of the county for his relief.

A Saturday Night Murder at Mount Holly, Near Carlisle.—The Murderer— or Makes His Escape.
CARLISLE, August 7.—A horrible murder was committed last night at what is called Upper Holly, at the edge of the South Mountain. George Farroll, an employe of the Mt. Holly, Pa. Paper Company, shot and instantly killed a workman by the name of James S. Scott.

COLIC.—Persons, and especially children, are subject to this agonizing complaint, which often comes on suddenly in the night and without any previous warning. Simmons' Liver Regulator should always be at hand. A single dose will generally allay the pain. It never fails in giving relief. It is harmless, and can be given with safety to a child of the tenderest age.

Brace Up.
You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with headache, you are sallow, nervous, and generally out of sorts, and want to break up. Take Simmons' Liver Regulator. It will give you the best of health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in no other bottle at J. Eisenbutz's Drug Store.

STUNNED BY LIGHTNING.
General Grant's Son Jesse Has a Narrow Escape in Connecticut.
EAST LYME, Conn., August 7.—During a thunder storm the other evening lightning struck the boarding house of E. B. Chapman, which had among its guests Mr. Jesse Grant, a son of the late general, his wife and two children, Mrs. McGee and her two daughters, and Mr. Jenkins, all of New York. They were all in the parlor, when the room was suddenly illuminated with an extraordinary flash of lightning, and accompanied with a strong odor of sulphur. Mr. Jenkins, Mary and Daisy McGee were thrown unconscious to the floor. Mr. Grant was severely injured on the thigh, Mrs. Grant and Mrs. McGee escaped uninjured.

Disolution of Partnership.—No heretofore existing partnership between E. H. Long, trading under the firm name of E. H. Long & Co., last dissolved, and this day by mutual consent. The business will be carried on by E. H. Long, and the share of D. S. Kauffman, who collects all the accounts due the firm and to whom all claims against the same are to be presented for payment.

THE GREAT REGULATOR.
PURELY VEGETABLE.
Are You Bilious?
The Regulator never fails to cure. I most cordially recommend it to all persons suffering from Bilious Attacks, or any Disease caused by a disarranged state of the Liver. It is the best medicine ever known for Biliousness.
Do You Want Good Digestion?
I suffered intensely with Full Stomach, Headache, etc. A neighbor, who had taken Simmons' Liver Regulator, told me it was sure for my trouble. The first dose I took relieved me, and in two weeks' time I was strong and hearty as ever. It is the best medicine ever known for Biliousness.
Do You Suffer from Constipation?
Testimony of HIRSH WARREN, Chief Justice of Pa.: "I have used Simmons' Liver Regulator for Constipation of the Bowels, caused by nervous Derangement of the Liver, for the last three or four years, and always with decided benefit."
Have You Malaria?
I had experienced with Simmons' Liver Regulator since 1862, and regard it as the greatest medicine of the times for diseases peculiar to malaria and biliousness. See good testimonials under universal commendation.
