—The congregational mite society of the Lutheran church of this place meets in the chapel this evening.
—D. R. Foreman, clerk in the Probationary office, Bellefonte, was hereabouts last Saturday, looking first-rate.
—Wednesday and Thursday, September 7th and 8th, are the last days for the registration of voters. Don't forget.
—Mrs. Eliza Wolf, of Millin Co., enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. B. O. Deininger, of Main street last Saturday.
—Among those in attendance at the Republican convention at Bellefonte was D. K. Musser, the shoeman, of this place.
—The great boom in the Dry Goods trade at D. S. Kauffman's store in Millheim is due to his wonderfully low prices.
—Freight car robberies are frequent at Reading. About $8000 worth of goods, chiefly liquors, have been stolen within a month.
—Prepared by a combination, proposition and process peculiar to itself, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown.
—Be sure and call at J. H. Musser & Son's shoe store where they just got in the finest lot of new shoes ever brought to town.
—Crops for the season. A whole earload of stone crows at Kauffman's. Don't fail to call there when in need of this useful article.
—Clinton county has a new postoffice called "Parvix," which will be opened for business to-day. It is located at Cedar Springs Mills.
—We noticed T. J. Mingle, of Fort Scott, Kansas, on our streets on Tuesday evening. He is here on a visit to his parents and brothers.
—Among the visitors to this borough last week was Miss McClanahan, of Centre Hall, who had registered at the National for several days.
—The Leitzell family at Rebersburg are having a reunion this week. Mr. F. E. Leitzell and wife, of Millinburg, are among the attendants.
—Seebold & Rankle's general store at Middleburg was robbed of $800 worth of goods last Monday night, says the Post. No clue to the thieves.
—COMING TO BELLEFONTE.—P. T. Barnum & Co's Monster Show is coming to Bellefonte next month and will exhibit there on Friday, Oct. 14th.
—The cool wave on last Thursday had a shivering effect upon people and warmer wraps were brought out to keep even with the changed atmosphere.
—The oyster season begins to-day and the ladies of the M. E. Mite Society will be the first to sell them in this town at their festival next Saturday.
—Ladies, tell your husbands that they can get a fine black suit at my store for the wee sum of $5.00. Why wear old clothes?
—D. S. KAUFFMAN.
—Now that both parties in this county have their tickets in the field the fight is on in real earnest. Now democrats, for a long pull a strong pull and a pull together.
—An altogether new society, called the "Order of Tontii" has been organized lately in Phillipsburg, this county. Secret orders are getting to be as plenty as candidates for office.
—John M. Road, the mason of North street, who has had a severe tussle with dysentery, is on his pins again and under favorable circumstances will be able to do some work soon.
—Miss Maggie Miller is visiting her former home, Centre Hall, for a few weeks. She will also visit her father, John Miller, at Bellefonte, who is employed in Bezzer's meat market.
—The Millheim boroughites are on the qui vive to witness the opening of the large Knitting Mills which is likely to occur some time next week. The knitters say "let 'er go Gallagher."

—A complete glass and queensware assortment at Kauffman's.
—A good book and a good woman, says an exchange, are excellent for those who know how to appreciate their value. There are many people, however, who judge both from the beauty of the cover.
—Voters and particularly democratic voters, should bear in mind that Wednesday and Thursday, September 7th and 8th, are the last days for registration. Do not fail to attend to this matter.
—At Gettig & Kremer's Meat Market on Main street, you can buy fresh hard at 8 cents a pound. Fresh beef and pork always on hand and sold at lowest prices. Call at the Millheim Meat Market.
—The turpicks leading to Coburn and passing through this borough is receiving some attention at present. From two to three men are at work on that road filling up ruts and holes with cobble stones.
—We are glad to state that Alvin Ertel, the boy who had his arm torn off and was otherwise badly injured at Musser's saw mill, last week, is doing remarkably well and bids fair to pull through all right.
—Hon. W. K. Alexander, from this place, left for Allen town to attend the democratic state convention, which convened there yesterday, being one of the delegates chosen by last year's county convention.
—New shoes, for any foot, and at any price, received daily at my store. Ladies, avail yourselves of the chance of securing a pair of the best Kid shoes for $1.75 and $2.00. Only to be had at D. S. Kauffman's place.
—Mr. Walter Byard, and his brother and two sisters, all of Bellefonte, and Miss Cassidy and Miss Freed, of the state of Ohio, were the guests at Hon. W. K. Alexander's residence on Main street last week one day.
—Mrs. Susan M. Harter took a sudden notion to go to Harrisburg on Monday morning, and the afternoon of the same day saw her board the train. No doubt her daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Kurzenkabe, was glad to see her.
—STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—Mr. Mench, of Penn township, lost two head of cattle last week. They were in the pasture field when a thunderstorm came up, during which they were struck by lightning and instantly killed.
—Glad to report that Mrs. Emma Tomlinson, of this place, has sufficiently recovered from her late illness to take a trip to Harrisburg to spend several weeks among relatives there. She departed for the state capital last Saturday.
—On Friday forenoon, Dietrick Lamade, one of the proprietors and business managers of the Williamsport Grid, received his sentence, which was a fine of $500. This ends the Grid libel suit, which commanded so much of the people's attention.
—The scriptural admonition "be fruitful and multiply" has been heeded by several of Millheim's pater familias of late and the population of this borough counts two better now. All parties concerned are well, we are glad to say, and Clark and William are accordingly proud.
—A birthday party took place at Rev. C. Wortman's residence on Penn street last Saturday evening. The affair was gotten up in honor of Daisy, Rev. Wortman's youngest daughter, and quite a number of little girls had congregated together to help to celebrate this anniversary.
—It is reported that besides the Millheim band there will be present at the Veteran picnic at Coburn, next Saturday a week, the Millinburg band, the Challenge band of Spring Mills, and the Rebersburg band. Accordingly there will be any amount of blowing on that day.
—The drove of horses being shipped to this place from Paw Paw, Ill., by Messrs. Mutterbaugh and Zerbe, will arrive next week, when their sale, announced elsewhere, will take place at the National Hotel. Horsemen, look out for a fine stock of draft and driving horses.
—Any person who wants paying work as local or traveling agent for warranted nursery stock should apply at once to Jas. E. Whitney, nurseryman, Rochester, N. Y. No experience necessary, and complete outfit is furnished free, steady work the year round and all stock warranted to be in good condition.
—On the occasion of last Sunday's Harvest Home services the Lutheran church at this place was tastefully decorated with the products of the season. Rev. Deitzler preached a splendid sermon and the services were interesting in general. A good collection was also held for benevolent purposes.
—Mr. Geo. W. Holloway & lady, of Burkant, Ohio, called at this office on Monday, when Mr. H. informed us that they would leave for Millinburg the next morning. From there they will run up to Lock Haven and after a week's stay there depart for their western home. Before leaving Mr. Holloway had his name added to our list of western subscribers.
—As announced last week the Ladies' Mite Society of the M. E. church of this place are making arrangements to hold a festival in the rink building on Penn street next Saturday afternoon and evening. The refreshments will consist of ice cream, cakes, and oysters. The proceeds of the festival will be used to pay a debt still resting upon the new church bell and everybody is invited to attend.
—LOOKS LIKE BUSINESS.—J. H. Musser & Son, the proprietors of the Main street shoe store, are getting ready for a lively fall and winter trade, and in order to facilitate matters and introduce a better system, they have procured about four hundred new and neat boxes to accommodate that many pair of shoes, properly labeled. Besides making a fine display upon their shelves the boxes at once give the assurance of a large and varied stock of goods.
—The wagonloads of dry goods, sugars and groceries in general hauled to Kauffman's daily indicate large sales and make my store headquarters for general merchandise.
—D. S. KAUFFMAN.

—E. H. Long and family, of Farmers' Mills, passed through town on Sunday.
—The Misses Dora and Clara Kauffman, of Lower Augusta, were visiting in town several days.
—The "Gold Band" cigar at Kauffman's store can't be beat for a delicious, comfortable puff. Also just received a big lot of fresh Tobacco.
—D. S. K.
—Besides ex-assemblyman Alexander, Ex-Gov. Curtin, Ex-Speaker Randall, Ex-Attorney General Cassidy and Wm. M. Slingerly, of the Philadelphia Record, are among the political lights that are illuminating the democratic convention at Albentown this week.
—The danger of an epidemic which threatens a Luzerne county town, a statement of which may be found a second page, should serve as a warning to all communities in the state. As to the sanitary condition of a town, board of health reports can never be too watchful and strict.
—With but one or two exceptions the class of teachers which stood examination at this place on last Monday acquitted themselves creditably and came out with fair certificates. We learn that our local talent did exceptionally well, Mr. C. Geppart, who will teach the North street school this winter, having carried off the best certificate issued.
—Quite a change has been wrought in the Musser & Smith business block of late. The tin and stoverium, which branch of their hardware establishment is being run by Sammy Weiser, has been moved to the second floor of the rear building and the vacated room on the first floor is now occupied and filled by Gheen & Spigelmeyer's china store.
—Rev. T. F. Dornblaser and children, from Topoka, Kansas, are in town and guests at B. O. Deininger's residence. Rev. D. delivered one of his interesting lectures to a fair audience in Rebersburg on Tuesday evening. The lecture was under the auspices of the Luth. Women's Missionary Society of that place.
—HORSE SALE.—Messrs. Mutterbaugh and Zerbe, of Lewistown, Pa., will have a carload of Illinois horses, first-class stock, consisting of good drivers and draft-horses, at the stables of the National Hotel, Millheim, Pa., within the next 15 days, to make public sale of the lot. The horses will be brought here several days before the sale so that purchasers will have an opportunity to examine them.
—FRESH CIDER.—The undersigned is prepared to manufacture cider at a moment's notice by an improved process and by hydraulic power at his saw mill at Woodward. The press is conceded by all as the best in the market and will do satisfactory and quick work in all cases. The public are invited to bring their apples, in quantities from 5 to 500 bushels, and they will be accommodated in the best manner.
—J. C. MORTZ.
—"Help those women!" at their festival next Saturday afternoon and evening, in the rink on Penn street. We all enjoy the sweet chime of the church bells in our town, but the one on the Methodist church is not quite paid for, and the ladies of the Mite Society want to raise the money next Saturday to do so. There is a good cause and everybody should feel interested enough to patronize them.
—TO THE PUBLIC.—H. S. Clemens, M. D., specialist in all chronic affections, and who also treats diseases largely by inhalations, will visit patients once a month at Bellefonte, with office at the Brockert House, for one day only to examine them, and then will send the medicines from his regular office at the city of Allentown, Pa. Send for testimonials. Date of next visit will be Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 13th and 14th, at the usual hours. Please remember the date.
—The night-blooming cereus of Mrs. H. K. Luse, on Main street, burst forth in all its glory on Wednesday evening of last week. A number of people were at her residence to witness the opening of four magnificent blossoms. The plant is full of small buds which promise a gorgeous display in the future. Owing to Mrs. Luse's departure for Baltimore, her future home, the cereus has been given in the care of Mrs. W. H. Henny, and a person wishing to see the flowers must apply to that lady.
—RECTIFICATION.—In the court proceedings of Monday last week, which we clipped from the Bellefonte Daily News, it was stated that Mr. T. C. Weaver, of Haines township, charged with indecent assault, was sentenced to pay costs. Such is not the case. The grand jury ignored the bill and the prosecutor, Mrs. Alice J. Leitzell, is to pay the costs amounting to $70. We make this statement in its correct form in justice to Mr. Weaver, who has from the first been considered innocent of the charge by all his neighbors and friends.
—What is the matter with the managers of the Lewisburg fair? Well, nothing. Only they now have a committee out to endeavor to secure one of the greatest novelties ever shown at a county fair. They spare no time, trouble or expense, and that is why they had such a fine lot and such a grand display last fall. They promise to far exceed it this fall. Remember $1000 for trotting. No wonder they have good trotters there. Fair from September 21st to 24th.
—We congratulate our Republican friends, T. C. Gramley of Rebersburg, and J. F. Harter, of this place, upon the recognition they have received at the hands of the late Republican county convention, when they were nominated for the offices of Register and Recorder, respectively. Both are young men who would be eminently qualified for the offices, and are much respected in their communities, but they are on the wrong side of the fence and that cooks their goose as to being elected. Sad but true.
—ANOTHER BOLD ROBBERY.—Saturday evening as J. A. Heller and family were absent from home on a visit, some bold thief entered their house on Bishop street, broke open a cupboard drawer and took therefrom fifty-five dollars in greenbacks, all the money Mr. Heller had in his possession. A revolver, some notes and other valuable papers were left undisturbed. Edward, oldest son of Mr. Heller, was the first to discover the robbery, and says he dreamed the night previous of seeing the thief enter the house and take the money.—Sugar Valley Journal.
—A fine lot of Groceries just received at Stover's on Main street.

Local Correspondence.
COBURN.
The excursion to the Republican County Convention at Bellefonte on Tuesday last was rather slim, only 18 tickets having been sold.
The trains are crowded this week with people on their way to the Grangers' picnic at Williams Grove.
The ladies of the Lutheran church will hold a festival for the benefit of the new church on the grounds near the depot on Saturday afternoon and evening of Sept. 10th, when ice cream, cakes, &c., will be served in abundance for all.
The Veterans' reunion to be held in Everet's Grove, back of Coburn, on Sept. 10th, promises to be a success.
Penn township will have a republican township inspector at the fall election, Judge First having appointed Sam. Ulicz to fill the position as there was a tie in inspector at the spring election.
We have heard of some of our overly anxious politicians trading off votes for their favored candidates. Such parties do not do their dirty work, where they stoop to anything to accomplish their ends politically.
Rumor has it that one of our business men will shortly retire from business here and leave our village.
Sam. Ulicz had the steamer at work this week doing up his threshing.
The foundation wall for the new Lutheran church is rapidly approaching completion. The brick are all made and the kiln will be set and fire put in at once. The church is to be put under roof this fall if possible.
—AT GHEEN & SPIGELMYER'S.—Onions wanted at 50 cents per bushel.
GREENBURG.
One-day last week, Isaac Rodden, a peddler of the Jewish persuasion, while crossing the railroad track, accidentally got both his feet in the cattle guard and after 10 or 15 minutes had not succeeded in extricating himself from his perilous position. He rolled off the track just as the train thundered by. Isaac was unhurt but terribly frightened.
Mr. Ditzler, the horse drover from Lebanon county, was again among us. He purchased a fine horse from Mr. Reuben Harter.
Andrew Harter, Jr., is teaching the young people of this vicinity instrumental music. Mr. Harter attended the conservatory at Boston, one of the best musical colleges in the United States, for over a year and is a very competent teacher who deserves patronage.
Rosa, a five-year old daughter of C. Alexander, was badly bitten by a large dog last week. The beast inflicted a severe wound below her right ear.
J. C. Harper, Esq., of Bellefonte, called to see some of his friends in this place last Saturday.
—AT GHEEN & SPIGELMYER'S.—The China Store on Penn street is now open, full and running over. 34-2t
AARONSBURG.
Quite a number of people are raising their potatoes this week. The general yield will be medium.
Bruce, the three-year old son of Wilson Reed died, was buried on last Saturday on the Lutheran cemetery.
Our boys were up to Spring Mills on last Saturday to play the Spring Mills game of base ball. Aaronsburg took the laurels.
F. J. Weaver has gone to Lewisburg to purchase a small lot of Alderney milk cows.
Geo. W. Holloway and wife bid farewell to their many friends here on last Monday. They intend to do some visiting in the east and will arrive at their home Burkant, Ohio, about the first of September or beginning of October.
D. W. Holloway and family, of Akron, Ohio, who have been spending several weeks here, have gone further east to do some visiting before their return home.
Mrs. Dornblaser, wife of Rev. E. H. Dornblaser, of Wheeling, West Va., who had been staying with her father, Mr. John Bright, for the last few months, returned to her home in Virginia last week.
Teachers' examination took place here on last Tuesday. The selections of teachers for the different schools in the districts were made on the same day, but too late to report for this week's issue of the Journal. Will communicate next week.
Among this week's visitors in our town are the following: Mrs. Eliza Wolf, of Millin Co., the guest of Dr. E. J. Deisher's, Jennie Deininger, of Clarkstown, Pa., with her sister, Mrs. C. H. Stover; Mr. Jacob Minner, of Illinois, the guest of his brother H. A. Mingle.
Thos. J. Mingle, who had gone west about six years ago and who lived most of his time in Kansas, has returned home to pay his parents a visit. We were indeed very glad to see Thomas. ANOTHER.
—AT GHEEN & SPIGELMYER'S.—The Ladies' Cloth and Dress Goods are here.
SPRING MILLS.
James M. Rankle has gone to Lancaster Pa., where he expects to take a full course in the Franklin and Marshall college.
Mrs. Fitchman and son who have been visiting friends here for some time are now spending the week among relatives in Lewisburg.
H. W. Krumrine and Harvey From are spinning over on our streets on their bicycles.
Mrs. M. A. Barncroft, of Philadelphia, who has been here for a few weeks looking after her property has again returned to her home in the city of brotherly love.
The Picnic and festival held by the Knights of the Golden Eagle on last Saturday afternoon and evening was a grand success. C. K. Sober the celebrated glass ball shooter was on hand and did justice to himself by hitting nearly every ball. The sham battle in the evening was well played. The balloon ascension was grand indeed. The balloon rose slowly at first, but went almost straight up to an altitude of several hundred feet and then it drifted slowly in a south easterly direction for about half a mile, when it descended to mother earth again. All seemed to enjoy themselves. The hands furnished excellent music for the occasion. The eatables and ice cream were all sold which indicate that the order made quite a neat sum.
Quite a number of our citizens have gone to the Granger Picnic at Williams' Grove this week where they expect to have a fine time.
—AT GHEEN & SPIGELMYER'S.—Carpets, Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Ladies' Wraps, Dress Goods, also Ham and Roller Flour. 34-4t

THE OFF TOLD STORY
Of the peculiar medicinal merits of Hood's Sarsaparilla is fully confirmed by the voluntary testimony of thousands who have tried it. Peculiar in the combination, proportion, and preparation of its ingredients, peculiar in the extreme care with which it is put up, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures where other preparations entirely fail. Peculiar in the unequalled good name it has made at home, which is a "tower of strength abroad," peculiar in the phenomenal sales it has attained.
Hood's Sarsaparilla
Is the most popular and successful medicine before the public today for purifying the blood, giving strength, creating an appetite, and where other preparations entirely fail. It is especially beneficial to the aged and debilitated, and suited to the various ailments that effect the weaker sex.
