

Table with 2 columns: Name and Position. Includes Democratic County Ticket, Democratic State Ticket, and Democratic County Ticket.

GLADSTONE, the "grand old man," who is called in England, in his dedication of the invitation to be present at the Constitutional centennial in Philadelphia, took occasion to pay a high compliment to this country in saying that the constitution of the United States was one of the most remarkable compositions that was ever framed by human mind.

Errors from St. Louis point to a repetition of the disgraceful conduct of which many members of the Grand Army were guilty at the recent gathering at Wheeling, West Va. It is said that President Cleveland's friends in that city have determined to use his portrait as part of the decorations for the coming G. A. R. demonstration.

Revolution begun. From the Philadelphia Times: The members of the party in Ireland are disappointed only by the unsuccessfulness of the party led by the majority members of a cabinet of the present.

WANTON VIOLENCE. From our special correspondent: Washington, D. C., Sept. 10, 1903. In a public session at the Capital, the charge of public violence and disturbance is still the latest controversy at this time.

What of the third term business that our republican contemporaries in Belgium make such an ado about. We don't see why Commissioner Grant, after having proved himself a faithful and conscientious officer during the last two terms, should not be elected to a third term.

The foreign delegates to the Medical Congress after meeting with their American brethren in a visit to Mr. Vernon, and after a brief excursion to Niagara Falls before turning their faces homeward to a gain here the billows of the busy deep.

Miscellaneous News. Refused to Make West a Citizen. New York, Sept. 12.—The clerk of the naturalization bureau of the court of common pleas to-day declined to administer the oath of allegiance to John Mott, who made application to citizenship.

THE GAME LAWS. As the fall hunting season opened on the first day of September, the following digest of the laws may be valuable information to all who love the chase.

NO PERSON SHALL kill or pursue any wild deer, save only between the 1st of October and the 1st of December of any year, under penalty of $40, nor have in his or her possession, or for sale any wild deer or fresh skin of such fawn in his possession under penalty of $50.

NO PERSON SHALL kill, or have in possession after being killed, any gray, black or fox squirrel between January 1 and September 1—penalty, $5 for each squirrel; hare or rabbit, between January 1 and November 1—penalty, $5 for each rabbit; wild turkey between January 1 and October 15—penalty, $10 for each turkey; upland or grass plover, between January 1 and July 15—penalty, $10 for each plover; woodcock, between January 1 and July 4—penalty, $10 for each woodcock; quail or partridge, between January 1 and October 15—penalty, $10 for each quail; ruff or grouse or pheasant, between January 1 and October 1—penalty, $10 for each pheasant.

NO PERSON SHALL kill, or have in possession any wild turkey, grouse or pheasant, or quail or partridge, or woodcock, by means of any blind, torchlight, trap, snare, net, or device whatever, under penalty of $10 for each bird.

NO PERSON SHALL catch, kill or disturb any wild pigeon in any city, town or village, or in any park, or on any public grounds, under penalty of $10. No person, not a citizen of Pennsylvania, may trap or hunt wild pigeons in any county, unless he shall have first taken out a license from the county clerk of such county, and pay therefor the sum of $10, for the use of the county.

NO PERSON SHALL kill, or have in possession any wild bird, or any insectivorous bird, under penalty of $5 for each bird. No person shall catch or destroy the eggs or nests of any wild bird, whether (only excepting predatory birds such as are destructive of game or insectivorous birds) under penalty of $10.

NO PERSON SHALL kill, or have in possession any wild bird, or any insectivorous bird, under penalty of $5 for each bird. No person shall catch or destroy the eggs or nests of any wild bird, whether (only excepting predatory birds such as are destructive of game or insectivorous birds) under penalty of $10.

Miscellaneous News. Refused to Make West a Citizen. New York, Sept. 12.—The clerk of the naturalization bureau of the court of common pleas to-day declined to administer the oath of allegiance to John Mott, who made application to citizenship.

THE GAME LAWS. As the fall hunting season opened on the first day of September, the following digest of the laws may be valuable information to all who love the chase.

NO PERSON SHALL kill or pursue any wild deer, save only between the 1st of October and the 1st of December of any year, under penalty of $40, nor have in his or her possession, or for sale any wild deer or fresh skin of such fawn in his possession under penalty of $50.

NO PERSON SHALL kill, or have in possession after being killed, any gray, black or fox squirrel between January 1 and September 1—penalty, $5 for each squirrel; hare or rabbit, between January 1 and November 1—penalty, $5 for each rabbit; wild turkey between January 1 and October 15—penalty, $10 for each turkey; upland or grass plover, between January 1 and July 15—penalty, $10 for each plover; woodcock, between January 1 and July 4—penalty, $10 for each woodcock; quail or partridge, between January 1 and October 15—penalty, $10 for each quail; ruff or grouse or pheasant, between January 1 and October 1—penalty, $10 for each pheasant.

NO PERSON SHALL kill, or have in possession any wild turkey, grouse or pheasant, or quail or partridge, or woodcock, by means of any blind, torchlight, trap, snare, net, or device whatever, under penalty of $10 for each bird.

NO PERSON SHALL catch, kill or disturb any wild pigeon in any city, town or village, or in any park, or on any public grounds, under penalty of $10. No person, not a citizen of Pennsylvania, may trap or hunt wild pigeons in any county, unless he shall have first taken out a license from the county clerk of such county, and pay therefor the sum of $10, for the use of the county.

NO PERSON SHALL kill, or have in possession any wild bird, or any insectivorous bird, under penalty of $5 for each bird. No person shall catch or destroy the eggs or nests of any wild bird, whether (only excepting predatory birds such as are destructive of game or insectivorous birds) under penalty of $10.

NO PERSON SHALL kill, or have in possession any wild bird, or any insectivorous bird, under penalty of $5 for each bird. No person shall catch or destroy the eggs or nests of any wild bird, whether (only excepting predatory birds such as are destructive of game or insectivorous birds) under penalty of $10.

Miscellaneous News. Refused to Make West a Citizen. New York, Sept. 12.—The clerk of the naturalization bureau of the court of common pleas to-day declined to administer the oath of allegiance to John Mott, who made application to citizenship.

THE GAME LAWS. As the fall hunting season opened on the first day of September, the following digest of the laws may be valuable information to all who love the chase.

NO PERSON SHALL kill or pursue any wild deer, save only between the 1st of October and the 1st of December of any year, under penalty of $40, nor have in his or her possession, or for sale any wild deer or fresh skin of such fawn in his possession under penalty of $50.

NO PERSON SHALL kill, or have in possession after being killed, any gray, black or fox squirrel between January 1 and September 1—penalty, $5 for each squirrel; hare or rabbit, between January 1 and November 1—penalty, $5 for each rabbit; wild turkey between January 1 and October 15—penalty, $10 for each turkey; upland or grass plover, between January 1 and July 15—penalty, $10 for each plover; woodcock, between January 1 and July 4—penalty, $10 for each woodcock; quail or partridge, between January 1 and October 15—penalty, $10 for each quail; ruff or grouse or pheasant, between January 1 and October 1—penalty, $10 for each pheasant.

NO PERSON SHALL kill, or have in possession any wild turkey, grouse or pheasant, or quail or partridge, or woodcock, by means of any blind, torchlight, trap, snare, net, or device whatever, under penalty of $10 for each bird.

NO PERSON SHALL catch, kill or disturb any wild pigeon in any city, town or village, or in any park, or on any public grounds, under penalty of $10. No person, not a citizen of Pennsylvania, may trap or hunt wild pigeons in any county, unless he shall have first taken out a license from the county clerk of such county, and pay therefor the sum of $10, for the use of the county.

NO PERSON SHALL kill, or have in possession any wild bird, or any insectivorous bird, under penalty of $5 for each bird. No person shall catch or destroy the eggs or nests of any wild bird, whether (only excepting predatory birds such as are destructive of game or insectivorous birds) under penalty of $10.

NO PERSON SHALL kill, or have in possession any wild bird, or any insectivorous bird, under penalty of $5 for each bird. No person shall catch or destroy the eggs or nests of any wild bird, whether (only excepting predatory birds such as are destructive of game or insectivorous birds) under penalty of $10.

Miscellaneous News. Refused to Make West a Citizen. New York, Sept. 12.—The clerk of the naturalization bureau of the court of common pleas to-day declined to administer the oath of allegiance to John Mott, who made application to citizenship.

THE GAME LAWS. As the fall hunting season opened on the first day of September, the following digest of the laws may be valuable information to all who love the chase.

NO PERSON SHALL kill or pursue any wild deer, save only between the 1st of October and the 1st of December of any year, under penalty of $40, nor have in his or her possession, or for sale any wild deer or fresh skin of such fawn in his possession under penalty of $50.

NO PERSON SHALL kill, or have in possession after being killed, any gray, black or fox squirrel between January 1 and September 1—penalty, $5 for each squirrel; hare or rabbit, between January 1 and November 1—penalty, $5 for each rabbit; wild turkey between January 1 and October 15—penalty, $10 for each turkey; upland or grass plover, between January 1 and July 15—penalty, $10 for each plover; woodcock, between January 1 and July 4—penalty, $10 for each woodcock; quail or partridge, between January 1 and October 15—penalty, $10 for each quail; ruff or grouse or pheasant, between January 1 and October 1—penalty, $10 for each pheasant.

NO PERSON SHALL kill, or have in possession any wild turkey, grouse or pheasant, or quail or partridge, or woodcock, by means of any blind, torchlight, trap, snare, net, or device whatever, under penalty of $10 for each bird.

NO PERSON SHALL catch, kill or disturb any wild pigeon in any city, town or village, or in any park, or on any public grounds, under penalty of $10. No person, not a citizen of Pennsylvania, may trap or hunt wild pigeons in any county, unless he shall have first taken out a license from the county clerk of such county, and pay therefor the sum of $10, for the use of the county.

NO PERSON SHALL kill, or have in possession any wild bird, or any insectivorous bird, under penalty of $5 for each bird. No person shall catch or destroy the eggs or nests of any wild bird, whether (only excepting predatory birds such as are destructive of game or insectivorous birds) under penalty of $10.

NO PERSON SHALL kill, or have in possession any wild bird, or any insectivorous bird, under penalty of $5 for each bird. No person shall catch or destroy the eggs or nests of any wild bird, whether (only excepting predatory birds such as are destructive of game or insectivorous birds) under penalty of $10.

EXHAUSTED VITALITY. Health and Strength Regained. Knowledge is Power: Read! KNOW YOURSELF! HEAL YOURSELF!

THE ITHACA GUN DAMASCUS STEEL BARRELS. $35. MOST DURABLE AND BEST SHOOTING GUN MADE.

NERVOUS DEBILITY. WINDHAM'S SPECIFIC PILL. A SURE CURE FOR ALL NERVOUS AFFECTIONS.

WATCH THIS space next week. It will contain a full announcement of the large stock of goods I am buying this week and which will be shelved in my store on Main street next week. D. S. KAUFFMAN.

THE NEWSPAPER MAN'S CATARRH. CATARRH OF THE BLADDER.

KASKINE (THE NEW QUININE). Good Appetite, New Strength, Quiet Nerves, Happy Days, Sweet Sleep.

MUSSEY HOUSE. Cor. Main & North St., MILLHERRN, PENNA. W. S. MUSSEY, Prop'r. HEADQUARTERS FOR COMMERCIAL MEN. Good Family Rooms. First-Class LIVERY ATTACHED.