

- Democratic County Committee, 1887. Chairman: J. W. ... Members: H. Y. ...

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

- FOR SENATE JUDGE, J. ROSS THOMPSON. FOR STATE TREASURER, B. J. McGRANN.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

- FOR ASSOCIATE JUDGE, JOHN GROVE. FOR SHERIFF, JOHN NOLL. FOR RECORDER, W. GALER MORRISON.

GOVERNOR FORAKER, of Ohio, imagines that Mrs. President Cleveland snubbed him at the reception at Philadelphia, because she failed to shake hands with him.

MASSACHUSETTS Democrats met in convention last Tuesday and nominated a full state ticket as follows: Governor, H. B. Lovering; Lieut. Governor, Walter E. Cutting; Secretary of State, John J. Murphy; Treasurer, Henry C. Thatcher; Attorney General, John W. Corcoran and Auditor, William T. Coke.

JOHN GROVE for Associate Judge should be the undivided choice of Centre county's democracy. He is a man of ripe years and experience, firm in his convictions and impartial in his judgements.

A DESERVING man, a fine scholar, a life-long Democrat, social and obliging in his manner, those are a few of the many good points which Democrats ought to take into consideration in the case of W. G. Morrison, our candidate for Recorder.

As the appointment of Secretary Lamar to the U. S. Supreme Judge ship becomes more probable every day, speculation as to his successor is also getting ripe. Of late Ex-Governor Pattison's name is frequently mentioned in connection with the office.

We want to say a word about Fiedler. Not the Fiedler who gets paid to play the bed bug tune and to harp away on the third term Griest racket, but the Fiedler who was nominated by the Democratic convention for county commissioner and who ought to and no doubt will be elected by a majority that will roll up close to a thousand.

CHAIRMAN Cooper says that the Republicans of this State must expect hard work to gain a solid victory at the coming election, in consequence of the united and determined opposition of the liquor and saloon interest.

Strows tell which way the wind blows, and the above editorial, culled from last week's Lewisburg Chronicle, may be considered quite a straw.

The difference between the present Democratic national administration and former republican administrations. And then again Pattison's state government in contrast with Beaver's administration.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CENTENAL in Philadelphia, an event which had been looked forward to with the greatest interest by all the people in the whole union, was celebrated last week in the grandest way.

A Woman Acquitted of Murder. CLEARFIELD, Pa., Sept. 19.—The jury in the McCADDEN murder case brought in a verdict of not guilty this evening. Mrs. McCADDEN was indicted for the murder of Jacob Boyer, who was found dead last May, and at the time created great excitement in this county. The verdict is generally approved but there are a few who believe her guilty.

An Amicable Arrangement With the Reading Railroad Company. POTTSVILLE, September 17.—The joint committee of Knights of Labor and the Amalgamated Association had a final interview with Manager Whiting, of the Reading Road, to-day, at which Mr. Whiting communicated the official endorsement of the receivers of the agreement to advance wages eight per cent. until January 1 and then to be subject to revision.

Among the earliest of the monthlies, comes "Peterson" for October; and a capital number it is, both from an artistic and literary point of view and where fashion and household needs are concerned.
