Genius in the new Dress Goods—Beauties that grow as you look. The like you have never seen before. Ladies, your only trouble will be to make a choice from a pile of goods that is as rich and low in price as that at my store. D. S. KAUFFMAN.

All the eye-witnesses whom we have heard speaking of last week's Centennial in Philadelphia say that it was the grandest show ever gotten up in the Quaker City, and that it was attended by the greatest crowd of people that ever was in the city at one time.

In the line of advertisements we direct the attention of our readers to C. G. Bright's attractive space on this page. It is new and novel and tells the public exactly where to go to be accommodated in good style with custom made work. Call on Bright, the shoemaker.

BITTEN BY A RAT.—On Tuesday Mrs. Geo. Hazel, residing on Main St., was called up stairs by the cries of her youngest child, which was asleep in the cradle, and found that the child had been bitten in the forehead by a rat to such an extent that blood oozed from the wound quite freely.

We are glad to state that B. O. Deininger's sore neck, although not improving as rapidly as he and his family, as well as many others, who are much concerned in the state of his health, would like to see it, show signs of healing. We trust we may soon be able to report his final and complete recovery.

Any person who wants paying work as local or traveling agent for warranted nursery stock should apply at once to Jas. E. Whitney, nurseryman, Rochester, N. Y. No experience is necessary, and complete outfit is furnished free, steady work, year round, and all stock warranted to be in good condition. 26-122

Byron Houtz, of Virginia, where he has been railroading for the past two years, was in town for several days with old acquaintances. He expects to go to Denver, Colo., to enter upon a position on a railroad there. Byron seems like a man who is getting along well in this world. He is certainly gaining considerable experience in railroading.

ENTREPRENEUR AND PUSH.—Messrs. Getz & Kremer, the proprietors of the Millheim meat market have received a carload of western cattle, select stock, and will now be able to furnish their customers better beef than ever. The lot comprises twenty-seven head and were brought up from the station last Monday. They are fine cattle.

Mutersbaugh & Zerbe's public sale of horses on last Saturday afternoon was well attended and seven horses were sold, all of them fetching fair prices. Among the purchasers were Daniel Getzell, of Penn Twp., John Wolf, of Miles Twp., and Calvin Fisher, of Penn Hall. A gentleman from Huntington county bought a match team of bays.

Dr. L. H. Lettzell, of Scottdale, Westmoreland Co., Pa., was an early caller at this office yesterday morning. He had arrived on the 7.30 train east, and was on his way to Rebersburg, where he expects to spend several weeks on a visit to his parents. Mr. L. moved to Scottdale about seven years ago and practices dentistry there, having quite a lucrative patronage.

Vigor and vitality are quickly given to every part of the body by Hood's Sarsaparilla. That tired feeling is entirely overcome. The blood is purified, enriched and vitalized, and carries health instead of disease to every organ. The stomach is toned and strengthened and the appetite restored. The kidneys and liver are roused and invigorated. The brain is refreshed, the mind made clear and ready for work. Try it.

I HAD KIDNEY DISORDER and say for the good of others that Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cured me. Rev. S. C. Chandler, Lebanon Springs, N. Y. I had Stone in the Bladder and Gravel in the Kidneys. I used Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and am now well. D. Parsons, Rochester, N. Y. Price $1. Send 2-cent stamp to Dr. Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y., for a book on Kidney, Liver and Blood disorders. Mention this paper.

THE HOUSEKEEPER for October will contain a full account of the wedding of the managers of that paper, in the Minneapolis, Minn., Exposition on the evening of September 28, together with accurate descriptions and illustrations of the participants' wedding dresses as presented.

A copy of this issue will be mailed free to any of our lady readers sending their address to THE BUCKEYE PUB. CO., Minneapolis, Minn.

The thirtieth annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Pennsylvania will be held October 12, 13 and 14, 1887, in Lewisburg, Union county. Miss Frances E. Willard, President of the W. C. T. U., will be present, and make an address on Social Purity. The number of Unions has greatly increased during the past year, there being now over one thousand in the state, and this is expected to be the largest and most important meeting ever held.

UNION CO. FAIR.—Commenced yesterday and will last until Saturday and as usual, is a great event. It is claimed to be the largest and most attractive agricultural exhibition ever held in that county. The races will be a prominent feature. The G. A. B. band, of Lewisburg, will furnish music every day. Fare for round trip from Coburn $1.50. To-morrow (Friday) will be Centre county day, when a special train will leave the Fairground at 5.45 in the evening to return to Spring Mills.

HOTSPUR REMARKS.—"The sun doth not burn as hot," therefore in the summer months it is only a measure of common prudence to guard against malarious disease, intermittent fevers, agues and bilious attacks. "Many cases of Fever and Ague, Dumb Ague and Congestive Chills were banished or entirely removed by the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator. You don't say, but I say in regard to the efficacy of that valuable medicine. Believe me when I say I was a sufferer for years and only found relief by its use."—ROBERT J. WEEKS, Batavia, Kan. Co., Ill.

T. M. Gramley, of Rebersburg, the republican candidate for register, gave us a pleasant call on Tuesday. We say pleasant because it is actually a pleasure to meet a gentleman of his intelligence and happy disposition. We had a little controversy on political preferences, in which we worsted our antagonists to the tune of one dollar for which he will read the good old democratic JOURNAL for one year. Call again.

THE WINE FOR RHEUMATISM AND DROPSY.—Dropsical and Rheumatic persons find the use of Spear's Port Grape Wine of New Jersey of invaluable benefit. Its purity and valuable properties have given it a wide reputation among the physicians throughout this country and Europe. It is excellent for debilitated females, and is used by the best families in New York and Washington as an evening family wine. For sale by druggists.

NEW GRAINFIRM.—The undersigned wishes to notify the public that he has taken sole charge of the grain business, formerly owned by Whitmer & Lincoln, and will conduct the same in the most business like manner. I will pay the highest market prices for all kinds of grain and intend keeping all kinds of coal on hand which will be sold at reasonable prices. I expect to deal fair and square and treat all alike. Thanking the patrons of the old firm I hope they will continue to deal with me under the new proprietorship, while I write all others for a share of their patronage. Respectfully, COBURN, PA. A. J. CAMPBELL, Agt.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY.—$500 of subscription money which is due on this paper for several years. We have about two hundred subscribers on our list whose indebtedness ranges from $2 to $5.00 each and though they have repeatedly received notice to settle their arrears they seem very tardy in doing so. We beg to call their attention to the fact that the expenses of a printing office must be defrayed as they become due and the delinquency of subscribers puts the publisher to a heap of inconvenience and trouble. Please settle up at once. We are giving you a cheap and newsy paper and have been waiting patiently on what you owe us.

DEATH OF WELL-KNOWN LUTHERAN MINISTER.—Rev. J. K. Miller, the pastor of the Sugar Valley Lutheran church, who had been in bad health for several months, took seriously ill at his home in Loganville, Clinton county, last Friday and died on Sunday evening, at 6 o'clock. Rev. Miller was widely known in this synod and has been in the service of the Master for many years. He also had quite a knack at business and was extensively engaged in lumber operations and owned a portable saw mill. His age was 66 years and he was a man of a large family. His funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

GONE TO REST.—We are called upon this week to report the sudden death of Mrs. Sarah Heckman, the estimable wife of John B. Heckman, residing in Gregg township, which occurred on last Friday evening. The lady died of heart disease and was sick but a short time. She leaves a sorrowing husband and a large family of children, who deeply mourn her loss. Her age was 53 years, 8 months and 9 days. Her funeral took place on Monday forenoon at 9 o'clock, when a very large number of friends assembled at the house to pay their last tribute to a much esteemed woman and neighbor. Rev. Fisher of Centre Hall, preached the funeral sermon in English and was followed by Rev. Deitzler, who made a few remarks in German. Her remains were taken to Heckman's chapel for interment.

WANAMAKER'S SOUVENIR.—John Wanamaker of Philadelphia, has issued a little souvenir of the centennial of the Constitution which contains the following important documents: The Declaration of Independence; The Constitution of the United States; Washington's Farewell Address, and Lincoln's Speech at Gettysburg. On the fourth page of the cover is printed the following paragraph: "Recognizing the importance to every American of the documents printed in this book, I hereby accept this copy from the firm of John Wanamaker, upon condition that I will observe the Centennial Anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution by carefully reading it."

The little book will be sent post-paid to any address provided the applicant agrees to sign the above obligation.

FOR THE GOOD OF THE TOWN.—As the weather is growing cooler and the nights longer, young and old, but especially the young, may well look about to find the best and pleasantest means of spending their leisure time most profitably. The home talent ought to be developed in at least some branches, such as literature, oratory, music, and therefore the foundation of a society or societies, that require study and application of the members, with weekly meetings for practice or public exercise should be encouraged. Gatherings of this kind may prove of infinite benefit to our young people and will certainly lead to a blow, at least for one evening in the week, to the abominable habit of loafing in stores and hotels. Let Millheim get up some society either of a literary or musical character so that the young idea may take aim at some worthy mark.

An immense crowd of people attended the Grangers' picnic on Nittany mountain last Wednesday and Thursday. There must have been from 8,000 to 10,000 people on the ground. The Spring Mills band was among those who camped there and they furnished the music. Over seventy tents had been struck and the exhibition of implements, furniture, organs, &c., though not very extensive, is reported to have been good. The flying horse man was there and made a little trouble, while the hackdrivers did a very profitable business. The addresses delivered by Hon. Leonard Rhone, Master Jas. F. Keller, Senator Brown, Col. J. F. Keller, Col. Downey and Col. R. H. Thomas were able discourses and were listened to with interest by all the patrons on the ground. The grounds had a festive appearance, having been handsomely decorated. The picnic was pronounced a big success.

A Novel Bet. While I am not a betting man, said F. J. Cheney, of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., I considered it my religious duty to make that fellow a bet, you see he would die before Spring, if I guess he would get him on the bet. You know some men had rather lose their life than lose a hundred, well he was one of that kind, and we both came near being out, but I saved my hundred and it only cost him ten dollars. How's that? He sent for me one day and said the doctors had all given him up to die, with the catarrh. I told him that I would bet him $100 that Hall's Catarrh Cure would cure him or I would give him $100 if it failed. He took the latter proposition. This was three months ago; you see how he looks now, don't you, as well as any one, and a dandy.—American, Toledo, O.

COBURN. The elder market is brisk now. Good older and apples are selling at $2 per lb. Major Delany, the live stock agent of the Penna. R. R. was here on Monday last and in the company of our station agent Kremer went to Millheim to adjust the damages to the carload of horses that were received here a week ago. The matter was settled satisfactorily to all parties concerned.

The corner-stone laying of the new church was a grand success. The weather on Sunday was beautiful. Rev. Shannon preached an able sermon and had an attentive audience of about 300 people, who were seated on the foundation with no covering but God's clear blue sky. The choir rendered a fine opening anthem and the services throughout were grand and impressive, $70 were raised in a short time and without any special effort. It was plainly to be seen that people not connected with the church take a deep interest in its welfare. They were willing to help it along with their means. The brick for the church are done and will be laid next week. The laying of the brick will commence as soon as possible and the work will be pushed with vigor. We are sure those who have taken the lead in erecting this house of God have reason to feel encouraged, when considering the help and sympathy that has been shown at home and abroad.

Several of our citizens had a lively time one evening last week at the brick kiln, reading clippings and boiling eggs. The only thing to mar the occasion was the return home when one of the party found he was locked out of the house by his spouse and was compelled to crawl in the window from the porch roof, the romantic episode of home being followed by a curtain lecture from his Juliet.

W. O. Toarick has accepted a clerkship in Durham Bros. & Co's store and entered up his duties on Monday last.

Quite a number from here expect to take in the fair at Lewisburg during this week.

K. H. Hawks, of Lewis, is busy making cider and delivering apples in our village. He has a large lot of winter apples for sale at reasonable prices. VALE.

AARONSBURG. The potato market was quite lively during the last week.

J. G. Meyer and wife were visiting friends down in Lebanon last week.

The Geo. A. Hilton sermon and temperance lecture created quite a talk in our burg during the past week or more.

The Granger Picnic on the Nittany Mountain had a few attendants from this place.

The Brushvalley band furnished the music for the St. Paul's and Wolf's picnic. The attendance was large and the weather fine, but it seems not warm enough to induce people to eat Tommy's ice cream.

Simon King, of Northumberland, Pa., is paying his mother, Mrs. Sarah King, a visit during this week.

On account of the organist, Mr. L. E. Stover, being absent last Sunday, Miss Marie Forster presided at the organ during the session of the Lutheran Sunday school. Taylor and his wife, with several others, attended the corner stone laying at Coburn to assist in singing. We would propose that we sing hereafter stick a sandwich in your pockets when going from home.

On last Thursday morning the Lutheran parsonage was the scene of a bridal party. Mr. Edward Swartz, of Millheim, was married to Miss Cora Stover, daughter of John Y. Stover, of below Rebersburg, formerly of Lower Penn Valley. Mrs. Swartz is at present living at W. H. Phillips'.

J. H. Musser and Thos. Yearick, who have returned from the State Fair and Constitutional Centennial. They are well pleased with what they have seen and report a very large crowd of people.

Miss Katie Musser, who had been to the Penna. State College, as reported last week, to take a course in music, has returned and since gone to Meyerstown, Pa. Katie was not very well pleased with the general appearance of things at the former place.

ANOTHER. Mrs. G. W. Stover is paying a visit to her old home and friends in Lebanon county.

Miss Olivia Smith, from Loganville, was visiting friends here the past week.

Mr. A. A. Loss is again making his home among us.

Kreider Stover has gone to Meyerstown to attend the Palatinat College of that place.

Joe Auman, whose sickness we reported last week, is again able to be about.
