"OUR SIDE BEST," is the triumphant exclamation among American yachting people.

SUPERINTENDENT Higbee has appointed Friday, October 21st as Autumn School Arbor Day.

The Democratic ticket nominated in the city of Philadelphia last week is being recognized as a very strong one by both parties.

Since it is pretty generally known that Ben Butler draws from his extensive law practice an income of $150,000 to $200,000 annually, he is dead as a labor candidate.

The Bellefonte Gazette is doing all in its power to bring about the defeat of Mr. Griest, the democratic candidate for county commissioner.

At the last Cabinet meeting the financial situation was exhaustively discussed, with the purpose to provide against a possible recurrence of the recent stringency in the commercial world.

It is calculated that the Treasury of the Government has saved in interest by the preparation of bonds under the circular of last month the handsome sum of $3,200,000.

PRESIDENT Cleveland and his handsome wife started on their western trip last Friday in a special train of Pullman cars.

THERE is no use disguising the fact that John Roll, the democratic candidate for sheriff, is daily gaining friends not only in his own party but among the Republicans.

EXACTLY! What else could be expected from a corporation governor.

Beaver refuses to call an extra session of the Legislature, for the purpose of reconsidering the lost revenue bill, and that settles it.

The commercial failures for 1887 promise to fall behind those of any year since 1882.

The prospect at present, however, is that there will be fewer failures, in spite of the vast increase in the number of business concerns, than at any time in five years.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Perhaps I could not better begin this letter than by giving a brief description of the elegant and equipped train that is bearing the Presidential party.

An important act of the President before leaving was the appointment of Secretary Bayard and John W. Patman, of Maine, and Jas. B. Angell, of Michigan, to act as commissioners in the adjustment of the question of the fisheries troubles.

At the last Cabinet meeting the financial situation was exhaustively discussed, with the purpose to provide against a possible recurrence of the recent stringency in the commercial world.

It appears that the monetary alarm was more a matter of imagination than reality, generally speaking, for the very simple reason that the volume of currency was increased seventy five million dollars last year which goes to show that the business interests of the country are in a healthy condition.

The Naval Board has concluded to construct at Norfolk the 6,000 ton battleship, authorized by the act of Congress at a cost of $2,375,000, which is $125,000 less than the appropriation provides.

The organization of department clerks in state Associations, of which there are several, has been the occasion of one of the most sensational episodes of the present Administration.

Not only do the "Stickers" in long letter, informing them that the existence of their Association is a violation of the civil service act, and denouncing the members for such infraction they are liable to the penalties of the law.
