GRAND CLEARANCE SALE!

The undersigned wishing to quit the mercantile business take pleasure in informing the public that they will sell AT AND BELOW COST their entire stock of General Merchandise, consisting of all kinds of LADIES' DRESS GOODS, COTTON AND WOOLEN FLANNELS, J. E. A. S. CASSIMERS, a full line of NOTIONS, WOOLEN AND COTTON YARNS, GENTS' WOOLEN UNDERWEAR, OVERALLS, SHAWLS, SKIRTS, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS & SHOES, GLASS & QUEEN'S WARE, HARDWARE, WOODEN WARE, DRUGS, GROCERIES, etc.

The goods are nearly all in good condition and will be sold at very low prices. Close buyers will find this a rare opportunity for bargain. As "ocular proof is the best demonstration," you are most cordially invited to call, examine and price the goods. Accepting an early visit to our store on Main street, we remain,
Very Respectfully Yours,
E. C. CAMPBELL & CO.

—Try us for fine job printing.
—SUBSCRIBE for the JOURNAL.
—Clothing, any kind, any price at D. S. Kauffman's.

—First-class job work at done the JOURNAL office.
—Sweet Potatoes and Oysters just received at J. W. Stover's.

—Mill Hall recently organized a brass band with seventeen members.

—Don't forget to take a look at the stock of carpets at D. S. Kauffman's.

AT GREEN & SPIGELMYER'S—1000 pair of Boots and Shoes now ready.

—Typhoid fever prevails in the neighborhood of Swengel and Millmont, Union county.

—Men's Lumberman's and Driving Boots, hand and machine made, at Musser's shoe store.

—Buy your coal now—the longer you wait the more you pay. Consult A. J. Campbell's market prices.

—A slight shock of earthquake was felt at Shireleysburg, Huntingdon County, on Sunday a week ago.

—J. W. Stover took a short trip to Bellefonte on Monday, being called there on tax collector's business.

—The round trip fare from Coburn to Bellefonte to-morrow will be $1.73, including a ticket for Barnum's great show.

—The many remarkable cures Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes are sufficient proof that it does possess peculiar curative powers.

—Wenrich, the man who stabbed Drumbeller at Selinsgrove last Fourth of July, was sentenced to 25 months in the penitentiary.

—A cold and raw wind sprang up on Monday night, accompanied by some showers of rain, and ever since the atmosphere has been falling.

—Clayton Weaver, one of Hartman's foundry hands, of this place, is doing some carpenter work for Thos. Greninger, in Tyngsboro, this week.

—Miss Susan C. Wise, of Aaronsburg, left this week for Linden Hall, to stay with Mrs. Jacob Morris, for several weeks, and probably all winter.

—Our townsman, G. W. Stover, was presented with a lovely little daughter by his wife on last Sunday. Wash feels like putting on a new harness now.

—The cool waves whisper "Protection for your Persons," and gently usher you to the best line of underwear at D. S. Kauffman's to keep warm.

—A large flock of wild geese were seen to pass over the valley yesterday morning, and according to the sayings of old timers we will now soon have a snow.

—Woodward and Aaronsburg are going to have singing schools the coming winter under Prof. Lowell Meyer. What is Millheim going to do about it?

—Musser & Smith's corner store room on Main street is occupied for the time being by a gentleman who seems to deal in dry goods, novelties and tinware.

—Miss Auman, a sister of our neighbor, W. N. Auman, has secured a position in the Knitting Mills at this place, and is making her home at her brother's house.

—Did you see those colored glassmugs in Stover's grocery? They are little beauties in themselves and are brimful of Royal Baking Powder. Only 12 cts. a piece.

—Miss Mary Frank, who made her home with Mr. Jonathan Hartner on Penn street, took sick with a sore throat and went over home to Madisonburg to recuperate.

—Please bear in mind that the JOURNAL office turns out the handsomest gale posters in the valley and at low prices as any office in the county. Send or bring in your orders.

—The Bellefonte jail is at present without prisoners. Must be a very quiet life for the sheriff, but it is a striking evidence of the good behavior of Centre county's people.

—The story of Luther Shaffer's confession about the murder of the Collyers, as published in last Sunday's Grit, is claimed to be entirely false. Shaffer has not made any confessions at all.

—MORE HANDS WANTED.—The Messrs. Crawford are in need of more hands at the Millheim Knitting Mills and will receive applications for work at their office in the factory building.

FOR SALE.—The property of John Swartz, Sr., late of Millheim, deceased, situated on North street, is offered for sale. Apply to or address
G. W. SWARTZ, Executor,
Lewistown, Pa.

—Mr. Geo. P. Ruhl, of Hatleton, Union county, arrived in town last week one day, and is lying sick with typhoid fever at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. A. J. Harter, on Penn street.

—Miss Kate Keen started away this morning to pay a two week's visit to her brother, Rev. E. D. Keen, at Liverpool, Pa. This'll be said two weeks for a certain young gentleman of this place.

—Jerry Kern, one of John Kern's sons, is studying the tonsorial art under the tutelage of barber Springer, of this place. Jerry is an apt scholar and manages to shave the easier faces with-out a scratch.

—Ulrich and Smith, our ambitious brothers of the quill, of the Centre County Times, talk of starting a daily paper at Centre Hall at some future time. Their bumps of enterprise are certainly highly developed.

—The barn of Mrs. Sue Thompson, east of Millburg, was destroyed by fire, last Friday afternoon. Some farm implements, belonging to the tenant, Mr. Bowersox, were also burned. The cause of the fire is unknown.

—Mrs. Maria Weaver's Millinery establishment on Penn street is the place to buy a stylish hat for the winter. All the new shapes kept in stock, and trimmed up in the best manner. Notice advertisement on second page.

—Jacob Keen's residence on Penn street is being improved by weatherboarding, painting and other repair work. This change will make another attractive and neat little home for the southern portion of Millheim.

OF PARTICULAR INTEREST.—The new millinery advertisements in this issue will be of particular interest to the ladies, who can have their pick and choice in the manifold attractions which the milliners offer for inspection.

—Dr. W. H. Davis, a well-known physician of Milton, was instantly killed by the News Express train, on the P. & E. railroad, at the Mahoning street crossing, Milton, while driving in his carriage on Wednesday morning of last week.

—Two gentlemen were in town several days last week with a fence building machine, the merits of which they exhibited on Penn street. The contrivance seemed very convenient and practical, but we did not hear of any sales made.

—All are invited to call on Miss Sadie E. Grove and examine her stock of Fall and Winter Millinery goods which have just been received from New York. Her place of business is in J. G. Meyer's house, opposite the hotel in Aaronsburg.

—Three prisoners in the Clearfield county jail attempted to escape last Saturday night. The breaking of the rope which let the first one drop into the jail yard about 25 feet frustrated their plans and the fugitive was recaptured in another cell.

—Editor Feidler and Daniel Rhoads, of Bellefonte, the latter the republican candidate for Associate Judge, were in town on Tuesday, presumably to feel the political pulse of this section of the county. Guess they found it beating strongly for Grover.

—Mrs. Louisa Harter publishes her regular advertisement of her new millinery shop in Rebersburg this week. She wishes the ladies of Brushvalley to call on her and see her nice stock of goods. She keeps the latest and guarantees satisfactory work.

—The proprietors of the Millheim meat market always make it a point to slaughter splendid fat cattle, the meat of which they have on sale at their market on Main street. This is sufficient invitation to all who prize choice beef to buy of Gettig & Kreamer.

—Next Sabbath morning at the usual hour there will be divine services in the Lutheran church at Aaronsburg in the German language and in the afternoon the annual Thanksgiving service will be held at St. Paul's church, also in the German language, by the pastor, Rev. Deitzler.

—Prof. Henry Drummond, of Glasgow, the author of "Natural Law in the Spiritual World," made a strong point when he told the Yale College students "there is a great deal of religion in this country, but not much Christianity." We think that's a pointer to ponder over right here at home.

—After a visit of two weeks in this place and Aaronsburg, Mrs. Joanna Keen returned to her home, Edwardsburg, Mich., last Thursday. Both her children were ailing during her stay here, which caused her to cut her visit short. We hope they may reach their western home well and in safety.

—Mrs. Brumgard's elegant stock of hats and bonnets and the other articles that go to make up her line of goods are pronounced lovely by all who are competent to judge. It is also said that her stock is larger than ever before and is constantly being replenished. Ladies, read her announcement in another column and call on her.

—Dr. J. F. Alexander, of Centre Hall, is taking his wife to Los Angeles, California, this week, to give the invalid the benefits of the balmy southern climate. Their many friends hope that the experiment may restore Mrs. Alexander's health in full. Hon. Leonard Rhone and wife, of the same place will also start on a western trip this week, to consume the greater part of this fall.

AN APPEAL FOR BUILDING FUNDS.—The building committee of the new Lutheran church of Coburn would respectfully remind those who have subscribed to said new church edifice, that they are sorely pressed for funds in order to push the work as far as possible before winter and would therefore kindly request an early payment of said subscriptions.

A VALUABLE ESTATE FOR SALE.—F. P. and T. E. Vonado, administrators, offer for sale all the real estate of the late Henry Vonado in Haines twp. The estate consists of three tracts of land, and situated about one mile northeast of Woodward, and all of them well improved. This estate offers a good opportunity for solid investment. See notice in this week's paper.

—Among the further improvements which are being made by the Evangelical congregation in front of their church edifice on Penn street is a substantial dogstone pavement. There is no mistake but that things about that building will be right after the job is completed. John Road, the mason, is busy hammering away day by day dressing the large and heavy sandstone.

NATIONAL HOTEL FOR RENT.—The undersigned wishes to give notice that her hotel property on Main street, Millheim, going under the name of National Hotel, will be for rent from April 1st, 1888. This popular stand is in the very best condition, has a central location, and the buildings afford all the modern accommodations. Can be rented on easy terms. For further particulars apply to or address,
404t
Miss SUSAN KREAMER.

—The most complete stock of shoes you have ever seen is at Musser & Son's shoe store.

—Miss Ida Herliacher, of Logansville, Clinton Co., a lady who is well-known to many of our readers, having figured as organist at several of Jos Kleckner's musical conventions at Coburn, was joined in holy wedlock to Mr. Cyrus T. Royer, of the same place, on Sunday, Oct. 2nd. The event occurred in the Reformed church at Logansville after the evening services, Rev. Gearhart of Lock Haven, performing the marriage rites.

—Men's Felt and Wool Boots, all grades and prices, at Musser's shoe store.

IT WON'T BAKE BREAD.—In other words, Hood's Sarsaparilla will not do impossibilities. Its proprietors tell plainly what it has done, submit proofs from sources of unquestioned reliability, and ask you frankly if you are suffering from any disease or affection caused or promoted by impure blood or low state of the system, to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The experience of others is sufficient assurance that you will not be disappointed in the result.

—Lumberman's Rubber Boots and Shoes, anything on the order, at Musser's shoe store.

—By some oversight we omitted to mention in our last issue that the Millheim post-office was visited by an inspector from headquarters the other day, who examined all books and accounts, as well as government stamps and moneys on hand, and found that postmaster Smith's affairs were in first-class shape, and without a shadow of a fault. But then P. M. Smith is a democrat and that alone is a voucher for honest transaction of official business.

—The dandy puff from the dandy cigar, the Grand Wine. A big lot just received at D. S. Kauffman's.

—James C. Quiggle, justice of the peace of Wayne twp., Clinton Co., has been appointed as United States consul at St. Thomas, Ontario, by President Cleveland. He departed for St. Thomas last Friday to take charge of the office. Mr. Quiggle's father, James W. Quiggle, twenty-eight years ago, was consul to Antwerp, Belgium, having been appointed by President Buchanan, following the same follows in his father's foot steps in this case.

—Protection for the feet.—Secure it at D. S. Kauffman's in the shape of the best Boots and Shoes, Gum Boots, Overshoes, etc., to be had anywhere.

—Barnum's elastic skin man, it seems, sometimes stretches his skin by seeing how much liquor he can get into it. He got drunk in Allegheny the other night and fell among the circus horses, who evidently thought he was a new style of foot-ball, as they kicked him galore. A surgeon succeeded in sewing up the many cuts, but with great difficulty, owing both to the character of the hurts and the elasticity of the skin.

—Look out for the largest selection of Trunks and Satchels ever brought to town and which will be sold very low at J. W. Stover's. Give him a call.

—Says the Millburg Telegraph: Mr. J. Kent Strunk and Miss Stiehley, both telegraph operators, and from which there sprang that mutual, holy love that tends to bind souls as with "hooks of steel," were quietly united in marriage at Elmira, N. Y., on Wednesday last week. Mr. Strunk, the groom, was employed for several months during the past summer in the railroad office at Coburn station, and is therefore known to many people in these parts.

—You are invited to personally call at GREEN & SPIGELMYER'S and examine their new stock of Cloths and Dress Goods. 38-4t

—On last Sunday evening when John Hall and family, of this place, had returned from a ride to Pine Creek Mills, Mr. Hall jumped from the wagon to unhitch the horse and saddle him. In jumping he made a misstep and fell against the horse which took fright and made a sudden start and tramped on Hall's left leg, severely bruising it. He is confined to the house with his injury, and the shafts of the wagon in trying to get away.

—Men's and women's Felt Shoes and Slippers, the most comfortable and easiest thing out on the feet, at Musser's shoe store.

—S. Q. Mingle, of Williamsport, a former Aaronsburg boy, has been made president of the American telephone company, which has been organized in Washington, and which has for its object the transaction of telephone telegraph, electric light and gas business throughout the North and South American.

Mr. Mingle is a thorough business man and this responsible position has come to him unhesitatingly, showing that his superior business qualifications meet with proper appreciation.

—The Ladies' Cloths at Kauffman's store are leaders. Take a look at them.

—The Daily Democrat of Lock Haven said last Monday: A dispatch was received here this morning from Williamsport by Chief of Police Westbrook, to arrest a couple of tramps who were on their way to this city on a freight train. The chief and Officer Kane immediately proceeded to the lower freight yard, where on the arrival of the designated train they caught the tramps, and they are now occupants of the county jail. One of them is believed to be the fellow who murdered Policeman Johnson, of Philadelphia. He is said to answer the description exactly.

CUPID'S CAPRIES.—The marriage of Harvey Musser, Esq., of Akron, Ohio, son of Dr. P. T. Musser, of Aaronsburg, and Miss Lizzie Huston, of handsome and accomplished daughter of the late Samuel Huston, took place last Thursday at 12 o'clock, m., at the residence of the bride's uncle, Hon. Jas. P. Coburn. The affair was a quiet one, only a few of the nearest relatives and friends being present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Kerr, the Presbyterian minister of Centre Hall. The happy couple started on their trip about the same afternoon and began with a trip east, from where they will go to their future home at Akron, O., where the groom has been practicing law with good success for the last four years. The newly-wedded pair have the best wishes of the writer.

—H. H. Trumppheller, of New Columbia, Pa., was a welcome caller at this office last Saturday forenoon. He was on his way to Jacksonville, this county, where he expects to locate in the near future. He is going out of the mercantile business, having concluded to preach the Gospel, a calling for which he is eminently fitted. Rev. the present Evangelical preacher at Jacksonville is going to retire from the pulpit on account of impaired health and Rev. Trumppheller will take his place. The oratorical abilities of the latter gentleman are well known in this section of country and we predict that he will make one of the most active and eloquent ministers in the conference.

—One of our principal exchanges gets off the following readable item which is so full of solid advice that we clip it for the benefit of the JOURNAL readers: "Don't give way to despondency. Did you ever know a cloud so dense and black that it did not finally pass away? Was a night ever so long that morning did not follow? What's the good of fretting, anyway? It doesn't make your troubles any lighter, but it presents them through a magnifying glass. Keep a stiff upper lip and a soul above buttons. If you have obligations to meet and lack the cash to take them up promptly, it will do no good to wear out the soles of your boots walking the door and wringing your hands. Better let the other fellow do the walking and wringing, while you work along pleasantly, putting on a bold front and doing the best you can to come out at the large end of the horn."

PUBLIC SALE OF A LARGE ESTATE.—As will be seen by the large and attractive sale posters issued from this office the valuable real estate of Daniel Walker, dec'd, late of Miles township, is offered for sale by the executors of said estate, sale to take place on Saturday, Nov. 5th, 1887. It consists of one of the choicest farms in Brushvalley, with splendid buildings erected thereon, and is at present occupied by Michael Rishel. Also the one-third interest in another farm in the same township, situate about 2 miles west of Wolf's store. Also a tract of farmland of about 15 acres, which is in the highest state of cultivation. And finally a tract of fine timberland of 111 acres, covered with the very best of pine timber. The whole will be offered for sale on the first-named farm.

DOCTORS IN PRESCRIBING WINES.—The Physicians desire to give a liquor containing the attractive parts of the grape, such as iron, grape-sugar and the other elements which give to port wine its special flavor or bouquet and its singular blood making properties from the iron that is contained in the coloring principle of pure Red Wine.

Speer's New Jersey Wines, especially his Fort, are grown on a brown stone shale soil, rich in iron and from vines brought from the banks of the River Douro, in Portugal, where the finest ports in the world are made, but none reach this country in a pure state.

Speer's Wines are regarded superior to any in the market. For sale by drug gists.

A BLUE MONDAY.—We have quite a number of accidents to record which happened in this town last Monday and which, in connection with the cloudy and damp weather made it a real gloomy day for those concerned. About noon a number of little boys were playing behind the Penn street school house and little Lot, a son of Andrew Walizer got on one of the barrels which are kept there for lime and sand, and began rolling it. He fell off and had his left arm broken in two places. What makes his case the more severe is that he had the same arm fractured in the early part of the summer.

Victor, the youngest son of F. D. Luse, was next destined to be unfortunate. He was riding their horse to water, when one of our street urchins in some way frightened the horse which threw its rider to the ground, causing a painful and severe bruise to his right arm.

On the same day Frank, one of J. H. Woerner's little boys, who is attending the North street school, had one of his fingers badly smashed by a window sash coming down on his hand with full force. The little fellow suffers much pain from his injury.

To make the full full P. H. Musser, our young watchmaker, had the misfortune to have his left hand broken. He was going to haul corn that afternoon and was leading Squire Reifensnyder's horse up to some bags, but the horse shied and ran away. Philip was thrown under the wagon and the hind wheel passed over his hand with aforesaid result. The fracture of several bones has at once reduced by a physician and Musser is doing reasonably well.

In gathering wild flowers, at autumn leaves, or picnicking in the woods, we are more or less exposed to danger from poisoning by ivy or other wild vines and shrubs. The poison is under certain circumstances readily absorbed by the blood, and painful swellings or eruptions are caused. Such affections Hood's Sarsaparilla readily cures, as it expels all impurities from the blood. Even in cases of poisoning by Paris green, Hood's Sarsaparilla has been remarkably successful. It should be kept constantly in the house for all blood disorders. Hood's Sarsaparilla is prepared by C. L. Briggs & Co., Lowell, Mass. It is sold by all druggists. 100 Doses $1.

COBURN.

Through unavoidable circumstances no items appeared from Coburn last week.

The potato market is dull now and the demand is not as great as it was.

Coburn now boasts of two millinery establishments, Mrs. S. J. Cooney having opened out at her residence, nearly opposite the post-office.

Bartges & Son are going out of the grain business shortly. Who their successors will be has not been learned yet.

House cleaning has been the order of the day and the head of the family will come in for his share of misery in setting up stoves and matching pipe.

Mrs. Joseph Kleckner is visiting in Lock Haven and Westport.

An infant child of John Stonebraker died on Tuesday forenoon last.

Hauling brick for the new church has been in earnest and the bricklayers are on hand and commenced laying brick yesterday (Wednesday) and expect to complete the job in about three weeks if the weather remains favorable. The brick have turned out good and the building committee have made from $300 to $400 in burning their own brick.

School commenced on Monday and the new furniture has now arrived and will be put in the school house Saturday.

The distillery has started up again and the saw mill is about closing down. It is a pity that it is not the reverse as the mill is a benefit to the place and gives employment to a number of hands, while the distillery is of no possible benefit to any one.

Our Sunday school is going down hill and notice was given that it would close next Sabbath. It seems to us an everlasting disgrace on the community to close a school where there is so much material to work upon. This is a matter for the parents to move in at once. How can we expect the children to attend Sunday school and become interested if the parents do nothing to encourage them. We are sure it is of vastly more benefit to know that our children are in the Sabbath school under good influences than to have them roaming all over the country and filling their youthful minds with trash that is likely to follow them through life.

For a sample of as bad and dangerous a road as can be found almost anywhere in the state one has only to travel over the pike between Coburn and Millheim. The controlling company seem to think they are doing a magnanimous thing for the public by allowing them to drive over their road at times in mud up to the hub and so rough that one dare scarcely drive a walk for fear of breaking a light buggy to pieces and at places so narrow that in turning out people are in danger of being thrown over the bank into the creek, and then only charging the small sum of 10 cents both ways for all these privileges. They were returned to court several months ago but settled the matter. Since that time very little work has been done on the road. One man has been kept running over the road breaking up a few stones and filling up a few ruts in the road. After being notified several times they had a kind of rallying put across the bridge here. But it is just as dangerous now as before for children crossing and recrossing as they are liable to fall into the creek at any time. Their policy seems to be to make the most money out of the pike with the very least expense. The sentiment of all who use the pike is that they should be made to keep it in proper and safe condition for the traveling public, from whom they get their money, and we think they will be called upon at our next court to show cause why the road is not properly kept.

VALE.

AT GREEN & SPIGELMYER'S—Old John is a very intelligent cat. As soon as Kitchen came home from a woolen mill lately closed. Will be sold at half price. Cassimere, Flannels, etc. 38-4t

POE MILLS.

Mr. D. R. Kulp, from Shamokin, was here looking after his lumber business.

Supt. J. M. Grubb received orders for October, nine cars of miners plank and 13 cars of props.

Clayton Kulp came back from his western trip and found great changes. He asked his wife if that was the same cat he had when he left.

Sue Winters, from Bellefonte, was visiting at Albert Klinefelter's.

Ellin Lewis, of Shamokin, is here visiting John Woody's at Junctionville.

Wm. Bradford, the operator, is our great night hunter. He is training his little black dog on cotton tails.

J. B. Kitchen's one-eyed John made his appearance for the first time since the riot. Old John is a very intelligent cat. As soon as Kitchen came home from a woolen mill lately closed. Will be sold at half price. Cassimere, Flannels, etc. 38-4t

AARONSBURG.

Chestnuts are plenty now at 5 cts. a quart.

L. D. Kurtz and wife, of Millburg, were up last week, making cider and boiling applebutter.

Efforts are being made to raise a singing class for Prof. Lowell Meyer.

J. W. Russel, of Lewisburg, was up last week and disposed of a lot of
