Try us for fine job printing. The flies are taking a vacation now. First-class job work done at the Journal office. Millheim has been exceedingly dull for the past week.

DEATH PLUCKS A DEAR ONE.—The tolling of the Lutheran church bell on Sunday morning told the sad news of the death of Herbert, the youngest son of our townsman, Mr. S. D. Musser. His sickness was of very short duration, starting with quinsy and afterwards forming into membranous croup, with a touch of diphtheria.

—Bessie Sturgis, the little niece of Mrs. A. Walter, is confined to the house with a bad cough. —Commissioner John Wolf stopped in for a half hour's pleasant chat on Tuesday afternoon.

—Mr. Campbell, who at present resides at D.A. Musser's mill on Mill street, expects to leave for Centre Hill next Tuesday, where he has found employment in Kurtz's roller flouring mill.

—Some throat seems to go the rounds among the children in this town. Walter, the youngest son of C. W. Albright, Mary Stam, a child of A. Huey, and J. H. B. Hartman's daughter, Mary, are all confined to the house with sore throat. The disease seems epidemic.

REAPER DEATH MOWS DOWN ANOTHER TENDER FLOWER.—This community had hardly survived the sad impressions of Herbert Musser's death, when the doleful strokes of the church bell announced the departure of another little one yesterday morning.

PHOTOGRAPHS AND TYPENOTES.—The undersigned wishes to give notice that he is still carrying on the picture business in Bell's gallery on North Street, and he guarantees first-class work throughout. The public are cordially invited to give me a call.

A DANGEROUS EPIDEMIC THREAT.—The very low state of water, caused by the dryness of the weather, is claimed by our local physicians to be the cause of the number of cases of diphtheria which we have in town at present, and which has already cost the lives of two children.

THE STABLE AT MILL HALL FALLS HEIR TO A SMALL FORTUNE.—Constable Robert C. Clair, of Mill Hall, received a letter a few days ago from an attorney at Marblehead, Mass., informing him that a man named Thomas H. Hinton, of that place, had died in the month of August and had bequeathed to Mr. Clair all his property which is estimated to be worth $18,000.

FOR SALE.—A house and lot in Aaronsburg, belonging to Miss Susan C. Wise. For terms apply to Frederick Lambert.

FOR SALE.—The property of John Swartz, Sr., late of Millheim, deceased, situated on North street, is offered for sale. Apply to or address G. W. SWARTZ, Executor, Lewistown, Pa.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.—John Hick, the restaurant man, offers his property on North street for sale taking either the cash or else trade in on a team of heavy draft horses.

—An exchange says that it may be of advantage at this season to remember that a piece of zinc placed on the live ends in a hot stove will effectively clean out a stove pipe, the vapor produced carrying off the soot by decomposition.

—A large barn of Scott Woods, near Julian Furnace, this county, was totally destroyed by fire on last Monday morning, together with all the stock and this year's crop. No insurance.

—Mrs. Robb's little child, of Eagleville, which was seriously hurt by being thrown from a buggy in Lock Haven, recently, died a few days ago.

—A. O. Deisinger, E. q. of Clarkstown, Pa., saw several days last week to pay his brother and sister, as well as other friends in this place a visit. As Mr. D. is extensively engaged in the manufacture of cigars he nearly always carries his samples along.

—U. S. Shaffer, executor of the estate of Simon Small, late of Miles township, dec'd., advertises three acres of land, situated near Madisonburg, at public sale, to take place Nov. 19th. See bills.

—Prof. Louis P. Bierly, who has been spending his vacation among friends near Wolf's store during the past few months, went back to Conyngham, Luzerne Co., to resume his duties as teacher of one of the common schools there.

—County Chairman McClain, accompanied by Ass. Prothonotary Foreman, was in town last Thursday to arrange for a democratic meeting at this place, to be held Saturday evening, Nov. 5th, and to be addressed by Hon. A. G. Curtin and Hon. J. H. O'Neil.

—The general store of James Musser at Hart's Cove, was again broken into and robbed on Monday night, the fourth time within a few years, says last week's Millburg Post. The thieves blasted the safe but failed to get any booty, as Musser seldom keeps any money in it.

—On Monday forenoon the remains of Lizzie Schleifer, the three-year-old daughter of John R. Schleifer, of Poe Mills, were brought to town for burial. She was interred in Fairview cemetery, after which services were held in the Lutheran church by Rev. M. L. Deitzer.

—The new and large windows in the town hall, second story of the Penn street school house, greatly improve the general appearance of that building and also admit more light into the hall. We hope the hall will be completed by the 5th of November so that the democratic meeting on that day may be held in it.

—A Cumberland county farmer says that he has at last found a remedy for the pest of the farmer, the Canadian thistle. The gentleman's experiment has proved successful and is very simple. It is to cut the stalk off low to the ground and cover it with sawdust, which in a short time will completely destroy the plant.

—Notwithstanding the cold and disagreeable weather on last Saturday the Millheim band left town at 9 o'clock, a. m., sharp, to make the trip to Logansville, Clinton county and attend the band festival there. They were exactly three hours on the road reaching their destination precisely at 12 o'clock.

—Newton Hosterman and wife, of Edwardsburg, Mich., gave Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Hartger, of this place, a pleasant surprise one day last week by paying them an unexpected visit. Both are well-known to many of the Journal readers, the gentleman being a cousin of Mrs. Harter, while his wife was Miss Priscilla Walter, whose parents used to live on John Reighard's farm, south of town.

—An important element of the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is the fact that every purchaser receives a fair equivalent for his money. The familiar headline "100 Doses One Dollar," stolen by imitators, is original with and true only of Hood's Sarsaparilla. This can easily be proven by any one who desires to test the matter. For real economy buy only Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sold by all druggists.

NATIONAL HOTEL FOR RENT.—The undersigned wishes to give notice that her hotel property on Main street, Millheim, going under the name of National Hotel, will be for rent from April 1st, 1888. This property stands in the very best condition, has a central location, and the buildings afford all the modern accommodations. Can be rented on easy terms. For further particulars apply to or address MRS. SUSAN KREAMER, 40 41.

PURITY OF GRAPE PRODUCTS.—The scarcity of pure and reliable wines has kept them out of the reach of those in moderate circumstances. Mr. Alfred Speer, of Passaic, N. J., who has spent thirty two years in cultivating and acclimating the Port Wine Grape vines from Portugal, and establishing his vineyards, produces wine that has been tested by experts and pronounced the best wine in America. For sale by druggists.

Local Correspondence.

AARONSBURG. We still hear the song of the Robin. H. H. Weaver has for sale a lot of hogs, all sizes and prices. In consequence of so many hogs dying of cholera in the lower valley Henry will find ready sale for his stock.

COBURN. The new church building is going up rapidly and will be ready for the roof ere long. The loss bricklayer, Mr. Mechtly, and his men certainly understand their business and it seems for them to lay up the brick in the rapid manner they do. The kiln of brick has turned out extraordinary good and is remarkable for the small wastage.

REBERSBURG. D. H. Wolf received a fine lot of watch glasses the other day. Jos. Kreamer finished his house last week. Dan'l Kreamer, Thomas Walker and Philip Hubler each sold a valuable cow the other day.

GREENBRIAR. The gold weather has brought out the hucksters in full force. Calves and poultry must command a good price, or else some of the hucksters must shut down.

POE MILLS. Secretary Monroe Kulp, from Shamokin, was here on Tuesday to remind the boys of "white metal day."

MARRIED. On the 9th inst., at the residence of the bride's parents in Haines township, by Henry Reinhart, J. P. Albert F. Haezel and Cora E. Dennis, both of Centre county.

DIED. On the 21st inst., at Poe Mills, Lizzie Schleifer, daughter of John R. and Rebecca M. Schleifer, died of typhoid pneumonia, aged 5 years, 1 month and 4 days.
