Local Paragraphs. Over the fence is out. Don't ask us how we feel. All o'board for Salt River. Try us for fine job printing. Subscribe for the Journal. First class job work done at the Journal office. There will be an opening for a good dentist in this place after January 1st. County Superintendent Wolf is at present on the road visiting the schools. Mrs. Alice Gingerich, of Lemont, was in town on a visit to her parents, Dr. Starn's. Kate Stover, a daughter of Noah Stover, Penn street, is down with typhoid fever. Rev. Sam. Jones, the famous western preacher, will lecture in Williamsport, Nov. 23. Israel Confer is building a new fence along the front of his residence on Penn street. Mrs. Jon. Harter paid a visit to her friend, Mrs. Clara Greenoble, at Spring Mills, last Thursday. Mrs. Brown, nee Julia Rocky, of Hubersburg, spent several days in Millheim among old friends. A new boardwalk and a log crossing were laid in front of Mrs. Hannah Miller's premises on North street. Mrs. Dr. Miller, of Unionville, was in town on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Daniel Lusk, residing south of town. Next year will be leap year. Knowing one's health will make the matrimonial campaign lively and interesting. Miss Lyde McElroy, the teacher of the boys' primary school, spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Centre Hall. Johnny Hardenberg came to town the other day and is staying with his grand parents, John Auman's, on Main street. Election news came in very meagre yesterday and we are not able to give our readers as complete returns as we should like to.

This week the Millheim band wiped out all indebtedness on their new instruments. They also procured several new pieces of music. The farm residence of J. M. Williams in Clinton county was destroyed by fire on Monday afternoon. Loss $2,500; insurance $1,000. Look out for a very complete and novel stock of holiday goods, which B. O. Reininger, of the Journal store, will be getting in very shortly. Lloyd, a son of John Kertler Penn street, and Johnny, the youngest son of Wm. Reifus, of North street, are housed up with sore throats. Last Saturday a week Mr. P. Myer & Co's carpenter shop at Lewisburg was destroyed by fire. Loss $500. Origin of the fire unknown. Peter Wolf, of Jersey Shore, Pa., was hereabouts this week on business and also to pay a visit to relatives. He was a caller at this office last Monday. The first natural gas well tapped east of the Allegheny mountains is now flowing near Penfield, Clearfield county. The Caledonian coal company struck the well on their lands. FOR SALE.—The property of John Swartz, Sr., late of Millheim, deceased, situated on North street, is offered for sale. Apply to or address, G. W. SWARTZ, Executor, Lewisburg, Pa.

The Michigan Insane asylum is said to be filled with young men who lost their reason by smoking too many cigars. We know of a few young fellows, and they don't live a thousand miles from here, who are strongly addicted to this injurious habit. Stick to your sound senses, boys.

David and Israel Rhul, two brothers of Mrs. A. J. Harter, of this place, were here last week to visit their father Geo. Rhul, who is convalescing from his serious illness. Our former townsmen, John H. Kreamer, who had been residing in Girardville, Schuylkill county, for the last two years, has removed to Altoona, to make that his future place of residence. Don't fool yourself by believing that you are much smarter than other folks, for you ain't, says one of our exchange papers. There is an average among men and if you come up to it be satisfied. A party was given at their residence by Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Zeigler in honor of their daughter Annie's birthday on last Friday evening. The central attraction of the affair was a sumptuous supper. The drouth which still continues in this section causes the pure water supply to fall alarmingly short. There are but four wells in town now with water and many of our people are compelled to drink raw water. Merchant D. S. Kauffman and John Hick, the restaurant man, were to look Haven on Monday and took in the jail at that place, taking a peep at the prisoners confined there on suspicion of the Culvey murder. The Lutheran congregation of Aaronsburg will celebrate the Lord's Supper next Sabbath morning in the German language and in the English language in the evening. Divine services at St. Paul's in the afternoon. Ephraim Rupp, administrator of the estate of Samuel Rupp, late of Haines township, de'd., advertises said estate at public sale, to take place on Saturday, November 19th, inst., at one o'clock. See notice on second page. Among the Coburn items will be found an account of a bad accident which befell our friend C. C. Brungard, of Miles township. Our Rebersburg correspondent reports the gentleman improving, which we are very glad to hear. R. D. Bierly, of Rebersburg, had his left arm badly cut by a sharp axe on last Saturday. The axe was lying on a shelf overhead, unknown to Mr. Bierly, who was at work in the shop, when the axe came down on him with the result stated.

The large barn of Michael Coner, on the farm adjoining that of Jno. A. Woodward, near Howard, together with all the contents, burned down last Friday night. There were 16 hogs, 4 head of cattle and a good team of mules in the barn and all perished. Geo. Royer and family, on North street are moving to Bellefonte this week, where Mr. Royer has found permanent work at his trade, carpentering. Their goods were taken to Coburn station on Tuesday for shipment. His home in "Texas" is for rent now. Next year (1888) will be a peculiar one in this respect, that the last three numerals which compose it will be the same figures, a circumstance which can occur only once in a century, or more strictly speaking, once in 111 years; it will be a 111 years before another "three of a kind" (1888) will be repeated.

Some one, who is supposed to understand the subject, estimates that a farmer, in raising twenty acres of corn, travels 375 miles. In plowing the ground with a sixteen inch, three horse plow, he travels 175 miles, to harrow the ground before planting, he walks twenty-five miles and to cultivate it, 185 miles. There is a new "devil" in the Journal office who has already learned to torture y scribblers with the everlasting copy. His name is Newton Bright and his intentions are to make the art preservative his life work. News seems a steady young man, who promises to make a good printer. Miss Salina Gephart, daughter of our townsman, Mr. Jacob Gephart, has returned from the west. She had spent the greater part of a year with her brother, A. J. Gephart, at Great Bend, Kansas. Miss Gephart is looking right well and western life and climate seems to have agreed with her. Her many friends in town gladly welcome her back. Rev. Swengle's residence on Main street closely escaped being burned down the other day. One of the fires which was evidently filled with soot caught fire and was soon a column of flames. Some clothing hanging near the chimney place upstairs was ignited by the heat and but for the timely discovery of the fire the house would have been entirely destroyed.

GRAPES FOR CHANGEABLE WEATHER.—The effect of changeable weather on ladies of delicate constitutions is very depressing and serious, and something strengthening is needed to assist nature in withstanding the strain. Nothing more effective can be found than Steer's Port, Burgundy and Claret Wines, which are in general use in New York and other hospitals. For sale by druggists. A CENTRE COUNTY DIES IN THE WEST.—Samuel Zeigler, who several years ago moved from Madisonburg, Pa., to Carlisle, Pa., died at the latter place on the 9th of October, of typhoid fever. He leaves a widow and two children, and to mourn their loss. Many of our readers who know Mr. Zeigler will be glad to read this sad bit of information which was sent us by Chas. D. Keck, of Carlisle, under date of Oct. 29th. Sellingsville, that musical town, is the first heard from this season with a festival of song. The Musical Association there have arranged for their seventh annual convention to be held during the Christmas week. A chorus of 175 to 200 members will participate. Entirely new music from the best composers will be used and concerts will be given Dec. 29, 30 and 31. We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend.

THE FATAL ACCIDENT TO FREIGHT CONDUCTOR MICHAEL DUPRYENNE, an account of which will be found among the Coburn news, is indeed a sad affair which elicits the sympathy and regret of all who knew the gentleman. Mr. Dupryenne was of Italian birth and at the time of his death was in the prime of manhood, being only about thirty years of age. He was married only a short time and leaves a young wife who must be nearly distracted by grief. NOTHING TO EQUAL IT.—I have been selling Simmons Liver Regulator for the past six years. My customers pronounce it the best ever used. One of my customers whose health was in a wretched condition from a very bad and stubborn case of Dyspepsia, used the Regulator and was entirely cured. I am using it myself for Torpid Liver, caused by close confinement. I find nothing to equal it and highly recommend its use. Respectfully, C. P. Hisey, Druggist, Edinburg, Va.

W. S. Mueser, of the corner hotel, had a serious mishap last Sunday evening. He had just started out driving and when in front of his house in stepping out of the buggy his foot caught in the lines and caused him to fall. He unfortunately happened to strike the stepping stone with his left shoulder, which had been sore for many years from a shot wound. His injuries proved exceedingly painful but under the skillful treatment of his family physician he was enabled to be out again by Tuesday. However he feels the effects of his fall, which may make him much trouble yet.

PROF. LOISETTE'S MEMORY DISCOVERY.—Prof. Loissette's new system of memory training, taught by correspondence at 237 Fifth Ave., New York, seems to supply a general want. He has had two classes at Yale of 200 each, 350 at Oberlin College, 300 at Northwick, 100 Columbia Law Students, 400 at Wellesley College, and 400 at University of Penn., &c. Such patronage and the endorsement of such men as Mark Twain, Dr. Burley, Prof. Wm. R. Harper, of Yale, &c., place the claim of Prof. Loissette upon the highest ground. At the democratic meeting last Saturday evening, which was addressed by Hons. Orvis and Curtin, of Bellefonte, the town hall was filled with an attentive crowd and perfect order prevailed through out the whole affair. It was noticed that speaking goes much easier since the hall has been raised, while musical performances sound, better than heretofore, to say nothing of the greater comfort which the audience experiences. We hope our schoolboard will finish the work so well begun, and have the renovated room papered, painted, properly heated, a bit up as soon as possible for future public gatherings. A POPULAR INSTITUTION.—The Central State Normal School, Lock Haven, Pa., will open its winter term of 12 weeks on Tuesday, Jan. 3rd, 1888, and a spring term of 14 weeks on March 27th 1888. The legislature having recently appropriated about $25,000 to this school, the money was used to put the building in the best possible order, with all the modern accommodations. An excellent faculty presides over the several branches of education and the school possesses rare cabinets and valuable apparatus for illustrating the sciences. Furnished rooms and board for $2.50 per week; tuition $1.25 a week. For further information address James Ejdun, A. M., Principal.

The people of Pleasant Gap and vicinity are holding meetings and circulating petitions with the object of asking the court to appoint receivers to condemn the Lewistown and Bellefonte turnpike and convert it into a public road. The petition must be signed by twenty-five or more resident tax-payers. The receivers must assess the damages done to the owners of the turnpike and they are to be paid by the county. The damns shall be thought excessive which they appeal; if the owners do not consider them sufficient they may appeal. If it becomes a public road without toll gates the respective boroughs and townships through which it passes will be required to repair and maintain it.—Daily News.

The grammar schoolroom on Penn street having been used for holding elections, Mr. Foreman, the teacher, took his scholars upstairs into the hall on Tuesday. The gentleman did not like to lose a day and evidently cares that school should keep Right. His pupils considered they were in a high school for once.

Now that the election is past we shall pay more attention than ever to our local department and shall endeavor to give our patrons a live and readable budget of weekly news. And in doing so our friends can greatly assist us by giving us every bit of information that may prove of interest to the rest of the world. Give us the news and we shall only be too glad to publish them.

We judge from the large number of sewing machines which Wm. A. Stover, residing near the tollgate, west of town, receives of late, that he is a successful agent who understands the satisfaction of the firm as well as his customers. He passed through town with a wagon full of these popular machines on Tuesday, on his way from the station.

Michael Ulrich, whose property narrowly escaped being destroyed by fire one day last week, desires to return his thanks through these columns to the neighbors and citizens, and especially to the members of the Hook and Ladder company, for their prompt and effective assistance rendered at the fire. Mr. Ulrich says he now fully appreciates the value of a fire apparatus and an organized fire department.

We are sorry to state that Mr. Elias Luse and son, F. D. Luse, whose plating mill in this place was recently destroyed by fire, contemplate leaving here to go into business at Fairview, Cumberland county. We should have liked very much to see those men rebuild their mill and continue to do business in town, but we understand they were offered special inducements by the citizens of Fairview, which the Messrs. Luse have concluded to accept. Thus Millheim loses a thriving enterprise and two good citizens, and Fairview may be congratulated upon their gain.

Don't Forget.—Since subscription moneys are so very slow in coming in we wish to remind those of our delinquent subscribers who find the time for exertion as well as the aptitude for it, stamped on their papers, that we desire a prompt settlement of their arrearages. As long as their accounts stand open in our books they don't do us a bit of good. It takes cash to run a newspaper and we hope our tardy subscribers will pay up more punctually in the future. We hate this dunning in the paper, but the seeming indifference of those who owe us on subscription, forces us to say something on the matter. Pay up.

The following resolutions were passed by the United Brethren Sunday school of Millheim in memory of Katie Geary, who was a member of Mr. F. D. Luse's class: Whereas, the hand of divine Providence has removed our sister and classmate Katie Geary therefore, Resolved, That we tender our respect to her memory, and express our earnest sympathy with the friends in their bereavement, and commend them to Him who looks with pitying eye upon the bereft. That while we deeply sympathize with those bereaved friends by near and dear ties, we share with the hope of a reunion in that better world, where there are no partings and no shadings of tears. That these resolutions be placed upon the records of the United Brethren Sunday school, and be published in the Millheim Journal, also that a copy of the Journal be sent to the parents of the deceased. F. D. LUSE & CLASS, Com.

New Music.—We have before us a copy of "My Lady" Waltzes from the pen of D. B. McCloskey, who is also the publisher. We have heard it rendered on piano and organ—suitable for either—and we give it rank with the popular compositions of the day, as for the harmonic accompaniment, it certainly bears upon teachings of the old masters whose rapid and pleasing changes have become so famous, which he must have read to a great extent to accomplish that which he has in this piece. Mr. McCloskey is as yet unknown beyond a local radius as a composer and publisher, but with putting such music upon the market as he will certainly be entitled to a bountiful share of the public patronage. Send 25 cents to D. B. McCloskey, Lock Haven, Pa., and be assured of getting one of the best pieces of music issued by any publisher today.

NEGLECTING DISEASE.—One reason why cases terminate fatally that at first were not believed to be serious is because patients neglect disease in its first and faint attack. They wait until the enemy is well into the citadel and then they find it very difficult to dislodge him. It is the height of folly to treat illness as a matter of small importance, for we know not what may be developed. A man who has a family to support; a woman who has children and a house to care for—in fact, no one who thinks life is worth living fails to sickness until they feel that it is going to get the best of them, and then it is too late for a prompt, thorough and effective medicine. With Simmons Liver Regulator you can always relieve and never do harm. Little may be needed and never when you have a simple and prompt assistance may be arrested and removed at the stage, for this is the time or chance, Simmons Liver Regulator should be kept in every home ready for every emergency. No home should be without it to avert disorders promptly, which, if not taken in season, often develop into serious disease. It stimulates the torpid liver, strengthens the digestive organs regulates the bowels, and is unequalled as an anti-bilious remedy. Give it a fair trial and it will not only relieve but permanently cure.

Barn and Produce Burned. MIFFLIN TOWN, October 5.—Last night a large belonging barn to Michael Shearer located near Waterloo Junction was destroyed by fire, together with a large amount of grain, hay and farm machinery. The horses and other stock were saved. The origin of the fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. An insurance of $800 was held on the building, but none on the contents. Loss, $200.

HALLS. There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years Doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure now on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucus surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circular and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cts. CATARRH CURE. Local Correspondence. AARONSBURG.

Israel Weaver is burning a lime stack from which he expects to realize about 2000 bushels of burnt lime. Mr. Weaver, from near Danville, Pa., was up during last Sabbath visiting his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Kreighbaum. Our last week hunting party returned home without any game. The weather the past week or more has not been very favorable for hunting. District Attorney J. C. Meyer was down last week to talk democracy to his friends in the lower valley. He spent a night with his father, the Hon. J. G. Meyer. Since the report of the log cholera being at work again among the farmers' hogs along Pine Creek, a large number of our town people will do their butchering during this month.

Wesley Adams has returned from Millburg where he finished a job of house painting. Wesley reports the mountains north and south of Hartleton all on fire and quite a number of dwellings houses and barns were destroyed by the fire. Levi Stover of North 2nd St., is the happiest man on earth since he became papa of a twirl girl. Imagine Levi being ring master of the grandest circus he ever undertook to manage. ANOTHER. COBURN.

The election passed off unusually quiet on Tuesday. The usual number of politicians were on hand to put their best lies and the Democrats held their own nobly. Cyrus Brungard, of Brush Valley, met with a bad accident here one day last week. He had loaded a load of coal and left his horse standing on the scales, when the freight train came along frightening the team and causing them to run away. In trying to stop them he was thrown down and the loaded wagon ran over his shoulder. We have learned that no bones were broken and he is getting along as well as could be expected.

We have another serious accident to record which happened at Swengel and resulted in the death of Conductor Michael Dupryenne. "Mike," as he was familiarly called by all was attempting to stoke a car from the siding on the main track and the stake not being sufficiently strong, bent and squeezed him against the car injuring him so badly that he died from the effects Sunday, a. m. Mike was known by everybody along the line; he had a pleasant word for all and was a good and faithful servant to the company and his place cannot be easily filled. Among the employes with whom he came in daily contact he is remembered only for his many and noble qualities. As a token of esteem and regard his many friends along the line, especially his late comrades on the road had a magnificent Floral Pillow made and sent for the funeral which takes place at Lewisburg this Wednesday at 3 o'clock.

ARE YOU CONSUMPTIVE? PARKER'S GINGER TONIC without delay. It must get up here and keep Andy Campbell and the rest of the boys straight. W. H. Cassler left this a. m. for Somerset Co., where he goes into the lumber business. VALE. REBERSBURG. John Wolf was in Rockville the other day and left his horses staid untied, while he went to attend to some business. During his brief absence the horses took fright at something and ran off on a dead jump. When he recovered the run away team he found to his surprise that everything was all right and no damage done whatever. Mr. Wanley, from Ohio, brought a car-load of young cattle to this place last week, of which he sold four head to Sam. Brungard, four to Cook Loose and three to Benben Grandley. Geo. Mensch, of Millheim, was through here buying up pigeons. John Weaver, from Coburn, visited friends and relatives in this vicinity on last Sunday. Isaiah Mader, of Millburg, was up this week last week, visiting friends and relatives. Mr. C. C. Brungard who met with a serious accident at Coburn while loading coal last Thursday, we are glad to say, is recovering slowly from his painful injuries. The protracted meeting at Wolfe's closed last Thursday. John Mitech had the luck to shoot a wild turkey the other day which weighed 24 pounds. NAHOD.

GREENBRIAR. The fire in the mountains near Sober's tramway is doing considerable damage, both to timber and fences. Last Monday night a large crowd was out trying to stop its progress but with little success. Last week a gang of men under the superintendency of Jacob Sanders repaired the mountain road and much credit is due Mr. Sanders for his efficient management. Calvin Stover, of this place, is the recipient of an invitation from his old friend, I. P. Wolfe, of Aspen, Col., to attend the grand celebration of the advent of the Denver & Rio Grande railway into that place. Capt. John and his crew are at rest since Halloween.

Mrs. John Rokey, of Colarville, Ill., is visiting her son and daughter at this place. YOUNG HICKORY. POE MILLS. President Adam Gotschall, from Shamokin, was here on Tuesday with several large orders. Gilbey Wilkison, from Maine, arrived here on Thursday to see his brother Warren. The two brothers had not seen each other for twenty-three years. Reddy Hayman at Park's Glory is on the sick list. George Parkes lost a valuable horse the other day. "Old Frank" was a noble horse and elevated his master to the top of the mountain a many a time. The horse will never pull old George up again. Poe Mills is always crowded with orders and the white line is on the go almost day and night delivering lumber from the mill to the station.

Wm. Frank lost a very fine turkey the other week. He hunted for it high and low but without success. William has a kind of a notion that the turkey had been born in October and went to a birthday party but got lost. Turkeys stand a poor chance at such parties. Later on our two niggers went to a certain place, when one of them turned his chalk and discovered a pair of turkey legs on the floor. The niggers don't want to say that the turkey was stolen but they do say that if they were turkeys they would roost high when birthday parties and thanksgiving are about to take place.

Jesse Wirt and son moved into their large mansion on Water street. Dot Madisonburg Aale he sinks he is do champion saw filer, awer Patty Rine sinks he can hold him level. A hungry man from Harlin called at Mr. Kulp's. Mrs. Kulp was baking pie and had placed a hot pie on the table just before the hungry man came in. As soon as the fellow saw the pie he tackled it, but the first mouthful satisfied him. He took a straight line to the water. The result is a very sore mouth and Clayton's everlasting dislike for pie. Superintendent John Grubb was obliged to secure an assistant and for that purpose employed Miss Polly Doolittle, from Mount Joy, Rock Point Co. Nearly-day and night she was engaged in filling out orders, until last Friday when John and Polly had a rumper about a bill which had been made out for the swamp puddles. The bill called for white pine and she made it for yellow pine. The upshot of the trouble is a badly used up woman who during the fracas lost one of her dainty shoes, and who after she had been carried to bed had a bad night of it, her dreams no doubt being disturbed by visions of flying bootjacks and half-dead puddles. CALIFORNIA JACK.
