HURRAH! BARGAINS

AT THE MILLHEIM

BARGAIN * STORE.

We desire to retire from the General Mercantile business and will there## fore sell goods AT AND BELOW COST!

Our stock consists in the following, viz: Ladies Dress Goods, Cotton Jeans, Woolen and Cotton Flannels Muslin, Ginghams, Cambries, and a general line of Notions, Linen Towels, Ladies' and Children's Woolen and Cotton Hose, Cotton Yarns, Shawls, Overalls, Skirts, Glass and Queens ware, Drugs, Toilet Soaps, Woodenware, Hardware and Table Cutlery. We will give special bargains on BUGGYWHIPS, BOOTS & SHOES, HATS&CAPS. Our goods and prices must be seen to be appreciated Thanking you for past patronage, same we remain. Very truly yours,

E. C. CAMPBELL & SON

Local Paragraphs.

-Try us for fine job printing. -First of December and the la month of 1887.

-First-class job work done at the JOURNAL office.

-Trade dollars are coming down. They are only worth 60 cents now.

-It is reported that Samuel Shannon Post, G. A. R., of Centre Hall, is about -Butter and eggs are holding their own in price-20 cts. per pound and 20 cts, per dozen. -Mr. Henry Lose, of Elkhart, Ind., was in on a visit to his brother, Mr. Elias Lose, of this place. -Henry Graham, of Northumberland, killed a hog last week that weighed over 700 pounds. -The congregational Mite Society of meet in their chapel this evening.

feyer, aged 37 years and 4 months. -Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach and indigestion relieved by Shedd's Little Mandrake Pills. 40 Pills in a bottle.

-For No. 1 Hulled Roller Process E. C. Campbell & Son's store on Main

-There are some dangerous holes in the boardwalks of this borough. They breaks a limb.

lin. Pa., were visitors at the residence of the lady's parents, Mr. Jacob Gephart's, last week. -Williamsport is again infested with that nuisance, the salvation army. We were in hopes that the cranky institution had died out.

street last Thursday evening to have a Don't tail to go and hear him. social and enjoyable time.

-Ed. how is your cough? Better thank you; took one bottle Shedd's ly cured. Only 25 cents,

-On Monday the carpenters began on the frame work of Harry Clapp's new house on Penn street and the four sides were raised on Tuesday. -Editor Shoch, of the Mifflinburg Telegraph, is to Philadelphia to have an operation performed on one of his eyes which is nearly sightless. -To-day take the medicine for tomorrow, which is Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla bottle in the market. 120 doses for $1.00. All druggists. -Mr. John Bracht, residing in Frog. town, south of Millheim, broke his arm week before last, while hauling wood.

He is doing right well at this writing. -W. S. Smith, who occupied the position of associate editor on the Centre County Times, Centre Hall, has retired from his editorial duties on that paper. -Ou last Sunday evening there were services in but one church in town. Rev. Yearick, Ref., preached in the U. B. church and had a large congregation.

was yisiting at the residence of his eye sight? father-in-law, Mr. Jacob Alter, on North street, for a few days this week. -A. J. Rose, Youngstown, Ohio. writes : "I can with confidence recon.-

vous headache or catarrh Joseph's Oil. At Druggists. -A good rain visited this part of the county ou Thanksgiving day last week, and that in itself was ample cause to water was needed. -Mrs. Walter, our vis-a-vis, had quite a painful time for the past few days with sore and swollen gums, originating from a decayed tooth. Glad to say she is better again. -Goy. Curtin had the gold watch which was stolen from him during the Philadelphia centennial returned to him. It was found in the possession of a New York "crook."

is to be presented by his Republican ents but it certainly won't suit the man who stationed himself on the walk friends with a beautiful horse shoe, made of steel and finely polished, on ing time for the little ones, where it ning and tilted the boards of the walk the day of his inauguration, Jan. 2.

-Several school reports appear in another column. The percentage of ment of Millheim shows very low, no doubt owing to the diphtheria scare.

sale. Apply to or address
G. W. SWARTZ, Executor,

-Clothing, by the ton, at Kauffman's.

-Messrs. J. H. and F. P. Musser left on an extended hunting trip last Monday. They are both reputed shots in town over night on Tuesday. and will no doubt return with a deer cr two. If so, you'll hear from them.

-- Miss Lizzie Scholl, who had been making her home in Northumberland county the past summer, returned home last week and will spend the winter with her parents on North street.

-The scholars of the grammar school had three days off last week. Mr. Foreman, the teacher, did not consider it worth while to resume school for one day after thanksgiving, hence the three day's vacation.

-The State Board of Agriculture will meet at Lewisburg next Wednesday, Dec. 7th. Subjects of great importance to farmers will be discussed and the programme throughout will be an interesting one.

-Mr. James Wert, of Boalsburg, prides himself of being the owner of an eighteen-month-old Peicheron colt, that weighs 1074 pounds. James seems to be as successful in raising horseflesh as he is in raising crops.

-Mrs. J. H.B. Hartman was to Boalsburg last Friday on a visit to her brother, James Wert. As it happened that the gentleman butchered his porkers on that day Mrs. Hartman was given an opportunity to make herself useful.

-You couldn't invest 25 cents in a better way than to go and hear Rev. Steck's lecture in the Lutheran church next Saturday evening. The proceeds Coburn. Give the Coburnites a lift.

-The Jersey Shore Herald says that Christmas will not come on the first day of the week again until 1898. During the next ceptury it will occur on Sunday ten times to wit: 1910, 1921, 1927, 1938, 1949, 1955, 1977, 1983, 1994.

-If you want to buy good meat at reasonable prices, in large or small quantities, go to Getting & Kreamer's meat market on Main street. The fact that their beet, pork, veal and special inducement to customers.

-ALL Lung, Heart, Spine, Throat and Head affections, as well as all secret diseases of both sexes, are the Lutheran church of this place will specialties of Dr. Clemens, the inhalation doctor. See him at the Brockerdied on Monday of last week of typhoid 1887.

-The streets of Lock Haven are now lighted by electric lights. The people of that enterprising city like the new illumination, but they find objections Buckwheat Flour, extra quality, call at pensive article whether you take it in in Europe. the shape of telegraph, telephone or

-There was a quick change in the atmosphere this week. Saturday and S. M. Campbell will in the future be should be attended to before somebody | Sunday were beautiful and warm fall | the undertakers in this place. Mr. -Mr. and Mrs. Shoch, of New Berter air made people move along briskly in order to keep warm.

-Remember that Rev. Steck's lectures are of the highest moral character, full of instruction and very entertaining. The benefit you will derive from listening to his lecture in the Lutheran -A party of young ladies met at church at this place next Saturday will Squire Eisenbuth's residence on Main repay the admission price tenfold.

-Brother Kurtz, of the Centre Hall Reporter, must have been misinformed about the state of water in Millheim. Excelsior Cough Syrup and was entire- He says last week that Millheim had but one well with water. Not so bad as that. The lowest we know of is five wells, while on North street several springs had water continually.

-As to the G. A. R. supper which is to come off at the National Hotel on Dec. 5th, and of which we made mention last week, the statement that the public would be excluded was erroneous, and the veterans request us to say that everybody is cordially invited to attend and participate in the festivities.

-The Mill Hall band, lately organized, received their new instruments week before last, and Prof. Miller, of Lock Haven, has been engaged to teach the band how to blow. No doubt there are lots of notes lying around loos that have been pitched out of tune and that will no more be heard from .

-Jerry Kern, the embryo barber. went on a hunt the other morning and came across a flock of fine game birds. He took a wild aim and shot a tame turkey. The turkey belonged to Lewis Fansler, and Lewis will have the turkey for his butcher dinner to-morrow. But -Mr. Harry Bellman, of Selinsgrove, oh, Jerry what's the matter with your ery on Main street, which is now in such an act .- Centre Hall Reporter. full operation, turns out an excellent quality of butter. Mr. Hoy contemmend to all those suffering with ver plates enlarging his establishment as the business warrants it. We hope he will meet with abundant success and make an enterprise out of it that will be a credit to the town.

-The choir of the Lutheran church give thanks, considering how bad the at Salona will give a grand musical and elecutionary entertainment next Saturday evening. The exercises will be under the direction of D. B. Krape and his son, Prof. Harry S. Krape, pianist, both well-known to some of our readers. Miss Schoch, of Selinsgrove, a fine musician, will assist in the programme.

-We hear that the superintendents of the various Sunday schools in town have by mutual agreement determined not to have any entertainments during the holidays this year. Such an ar--Sheriff-elect Cooke, of this county, rangement may suit the superintendchildren. It will be a dull, uninterestought to be just the reverse.

-Selinsgrove and vicinity had its full share of robberies the past two weeks. the attendance in the primary depart- The residence of Philip Dieese, near Kantz, was robbed week before last. Simon B. Peck's confectionery shop FOR SALE.—The property of John Swartz, Sr., late of Millheim, decrased, situate on North street, is offered for The First National Bank was to be the next point of operation, but the robbers Lewistown, Pa. were captured near Elmua, N. Y.

-- Dry Goods, by the car load, at

--- Mr. W. G. Rook, of Berwick, was --On Tuesday they were surveying the ground for a new depot at Belle--- J. H. Reifsnyder, Esq., Dr. Frank and W. T. Mauck, all of this place, were to Bellefonte on Tuesday. -- Lewisburg's Electric Light Com pany which has lately been chartered, starts with a capital stock of $50,000.

-- Ex-sheriff Pie's foundry and mamen are thrown out of employment.

-- Rev. Jamison and wife, Mrs. Brown and Miss Leahr, all of Nittaney Valley, came to town on Monday noon, and spent several days with friends here.

-B. F. Richard, who had been spending most of last summer in Wood-as the afternoon train east does not surance of $1800. leave Bellefonte to return to Coburn only for fifteen days,

-- Ellis Hosterman, of Centre Hall, s reported dangerously ill from the effects of a hemmorrhage. Ellis has many friends at this end of the yalley and lasting recovery.

we had the pleasure of meeting that a- starting housekeeping at once. We greeable insurance man, Mr. Todd, who mutton is always fresh should be a is a member of the firm of Colt & Todd. of Northumberland. He represents the reliable Penn Mutal Life Insurance several of our citizens carry policies.

CARRYING COALS TO NEWCASTLE -This is considered folly, but it is an astounding fact that Speer's Wines raissuch a reputation for purity and excellsteamers that leave New York for Europe. It is erjoying an enviable reputation at home and is used by the leadwith the costs. Electricity is an ex- ing physicians in America, as well as

--- By reference to a notice in another seen that Messrs. Jonathan Harter and days, something like the Indian sum- Harter, the senior member of the firm, mer, while on Monday a stiff North- has had considerable experience in the esterner sprang up and the sharp win- business and parties needing the "stew." services of the new firm may count on first-class accommodations. It is the purchase a new and handsome hearse between this and spring.

-The wonderful healing properties of Darbys Prophylactic Fluid in case of Accidents, for Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Wounds, etc. Its prompt use will inand prevent Erysipelas, Grangrene, or Proud Flesh. Owing to the cleansing and purifying qualities of the Fluid the most obstinate Ulcers, Boils, Carbuncles, and running Sores are rendered pure and healthy and speedily cured, no other application being necessary. -Clayton Weaver, the industrious Hartman's foundry, has laid the foundation to a prosperous future by becomproperty on Penn street, now occupied by Rev. C. Wortman's, for $800, and will take possession of it in the spring. Clayton has proved himself a sober and useful citizen since he moved here about a year ago, and we are glad to see him settle down in this borough permanently.

--- Boots and Shoes, by the hundred, at Kauffman's.

-A short time ago as the morning train from Bellefoote approached the culvert, on the Woods farm, about three miles east of Centre Hall, engineer Cherry saw an object on the track ahead, and bringing his train to a stop found it was a tie, laid across the track worse than murder, it is putting the lives of innocent persons in jeopardy, -We learn that Dan'l. Hoy's cream- and none but a fiend will be guilty of

--Rubber Wear, by the case, at

TWO DEATHS IN REBERSBURG. 81 years and 28 days, died at her resi- there was a tableau. dence on last Thursday after a short illness. Her remains were buried in the Lutheran and Reformed cemetery on Saturday, Rev. M. L. Deitzler offi-

On Friday a four-months old infant child of Geo. Smull, of Rebersburg, died and was buried in the same cemetery on the following Sunday by Rev. S. Basom.

Kauffman's. CAUTION .- On Monday Dr. Stam called at this office and requested us to say in the JOURNAL that if the young of the U. B. church last Sunday evefor the purpose of tripping the ladies who passed by from services will rejeat his infamous trick he may find himself minus several teeth. It will be extremely unhealthy for the young man if the doctor is about the next time he attempts such a trick. The young man would therefore better take warning and save himself serious trouble.

-- Special sale of shors at Musser's Shoe Store every day of the week.

--- Drugs, by the barrel, at Kauffman's

--- Mr. Ab. Miller is confined to the house with a sore throat. -- Don't forget that J. H. Musser & and shoes. --- J. W. Stover, the wide-awake grocer on Main street, is cleaning his fine F. M. Brumgard, Robert Smith, Clyde store this week, preparatory for the Luse. Pupils not tardy—Lydia Alexander, holidays. He expects to display a large Jennie Reifsnyder and Charlie Hockman. line of practicable holiday goods about which he will give detailed information in future issues of this paper. -- Rev. A. A. Miner, D. D., Boston, chine shops at Osceola were destroyed says of Rev. Steck, the lecturer who cent. of attendance, 74. Pupils present by tire on Tuesday morning. Forty will speak in the Lutheran church of every day during the month-Ida Bumiller, this place next Saturday evening : "Always graceful and easy, now gentle and suave, and then again impassioned, flery and impetuous, his eloquence, by beauty, variety and power enchains his auditory."

job, in Musser's brick mill, in this of a mile from Tusseyville, burned to J. Snyder, Katie M. Swartz, Charles W. -- Since the change in the schedule of and dwelling were burned, as Mr. the L. & T. railroad, persons from this Meese was not at home at the time of section of the county going to Belle- the fire and could not save anything. Shoe Store is more than satisfied. Are fonte, have a half an hour longer time, His loss amounts to $2500, with an in- we telling the truth?

-- Mr. John H. Miller, formerly of this place, has changed his place of -- The ladies of this vicinity who are residence from Bellefonte to Hollsopple, in need of wraps will be offered a rare Somerset county. We are not able to opportunity to secure bargains. Dur- state what business he is in, as his ham Bros. & Co., at Coburn, will open letter merely states his removal from on December 9th a full line of Ladies' Bellefonte. However, John is one of Coats, which they will offer for spor those fellows who manages to get along are for the benefit of the new church at CASH only. The sale will continue all right wherever he is and he wants the JOURNAL sent after him wherever

--- Miss Cora B. Kreamer, the youngest daughter of Mrs. Susan Kreamer, of open, giving him much relief and he is imthis place, was married to Mr. J. G. who regret to hear of his i'lness and Bowman, a gentleman in business at are very much concerned about his the same place where the young lady health. They all wish for his speedy had been residing for the last few months, Jerome, Grove Co., Kansas, The happy event occurred on Wednes. -- White in Bellefonte last Tuesday day, Nov. 23d, and the couple intend congratulate the bride heartily.

-- Everybody seems anxious to hear of the proceedings of the term of court Company, of Philadelphia, in which in Clinton county during which Luther Shaeffer, Johnson and the two Klines are to be tried for the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Culvey. Geo. A. Brown and T. C. Hipple will be the prosecuting at--Mr. William Love, of Tusseyville, noff House, Bellefonte, December 14th, ed at Passaic, N. J., have acquired expected to defend Shaeffer and W. H. on Tuesday. Clough will plead for Johnson and the ence abroad, that they are shipped by Klines. The court will begin next

> -- Who says our republican friends in this county are not hungry for office. There are no less than forty-four applicants for the position of commissioners' clerk. The wisest thing for the newlyplace of our local columns it will be elected commissioners to do would be Rumberger, have the place another term, as he knows something about the help the new board out of many a arm.

-- Hon. Edmund Shaw, of Altoona, member of the Pennsylvania Assembly intention of Harter and Campbell to has prepared a bill, which will be forwarded to Congressman Scull to be introduced by him in the House of Representatives, and, if 'possible, passed, providing for an appropriation of $150,-000 to erect a government building in Altoona. The building is to be for the accommodation of the United States variably relieve pain, promote healing District and Circuit Courts, postoffice

A NEW FIRM .-- The undersigned wish to inform the public that after January 1st, 1888, they will conduct the undertaking business, heretofore carried on by Harter & Luse, under the firm name of Harter & Campbell, young carpenter who is employed in and will keep on hand a full line of coffins, caskets, trimmings, shrouds, burial robes, &c. All calls to attend ing a freeholder. He purchased the funerals responded to on short notice. Office at E. C. Campbell & Son's store on Main street, Millheim, Soliciting a share of the public patronage we re-

Respectfully, main JONATHAN HARTER, S. M. CAMPBELL.

-An amusing incident occurred last week at J. W. Stover's butchering. That gentleman's hogs which generally weigh very heavy, had been duly dispatched, dressed and the meat was ready to be put away when Stover requested Mr. H. H. Weiser to salt down the hams and season the sausages. pair. All the company seems to care for is Weiser hastened to attend to this im- to make all out of the road they possibly portant job and as told went over into can and if any damage is done at the many Stover's store room to get the necessary dangerous places, where it is not safe for two salt. He salted the meat and sausages rigs to pass, they do not care. The amount during the night, with the object of and everything went along smoothly of toll that is being paid by all who use the wrecking the train. Work like this is until the head butcher took occasion to pike frequently, would amount to a trifle if taste the fresh sausage and pass judgement. Maize smacked his lips and thought the sausages tasted unusually sweet. The matter was further investigated and it was discovered that the hams were sugar cured and the paid for by the township and then given to sausages had been given a good dose of the Pike Co. All who are interested in this granulated sugar. Then it dawned matter should take hold of it and help to Mrs. Catherine Smull, the widow of upon Mr. Weiser that he must have boom it along and endeavor to have the Henry Smull, late of Rebersburg, aged gotten a hold of the wrong barrel, and charter annulled and the road thrown open

-Taking advantage of the pleasant weather the writer took a flying trip to Woodward on Saturday afternoon, passing through the richest and prettiest agricultural region in the county. Crops were good there last summer and they promise to be so again next summer, judging by the appearance of the fall wheat. While at Woodward we made it our business to call on Franz ---Groceries, by the wagonload, at Geiger, the popular tailor, and found him head over ears in work, with orders to keep him in work for the next six weeks. We also paid our respects to merchant Wolf and were agreeably sur- Hazel killed a hog that had speck seven prised to find his stock very complete inches thick. I am not able to say which and he himself as busy as a nailer. On way it was measured. our road home we made Fred. Hosterman, at Fiedler's, a pop visit, and we while on his way home from Sugar Valley, had hard work to get at him behind the as he was coming up the mountain, shot and has a good stand and he knows exactly how to run it successfully and draw a large custom. Anybody who knows what a wholesome set of people hold forth in the lower vailey, and there are very few who don't know, will readily understand that our trip was an exceedingly pleasant one and bears repeti- Musser's Shoe Store ? Something you

SCHOOL REPORTS.

REPORT of Millheim Grammar School for A Foreman, teacher : Number of pupils on Sunday. enrolled, males 20, females 33, total 55. Per Son's is just the place to tuy your boots cent of attendance 18. Pupils present every day during the month-Lily Eisenbuth, Lydia Alexander, Jennie Reifsnyder, Stella Zerby, Wallace Musser, Charlie Hockman, > REPORT of Primary Department, Millheim, for the month ending Nov. 28th, 1887, -Lyde McElroy, teacher : Number of pupils enrolled, males 28, females 27, total 55. Per Jos. Reifsnyder, John Albright, Harry Kister, Lester Musser, Harry Smith.

REPORT of Elk Creek School for the month ending October 28th, W. E. Bracht, teacher: Whole number in attendance, male 23, female, 13, total, 36; per cent. of attendance for month, male 18, female, 13, -The store and adjoining dwelling average 82. The following scholars were Bellefonte. Luther says, we had a turkey, house of D. R. Meese, about a quarter present every day during the month : Lizzie the ground last Sunday evening, about Weiser, Charles Snyder, John Kerstetter, 8 o'clock. All the contents of the store | Charles Page, Lawrence Page, George Swartz, M. A. Bracht, M. H. Smith.

--- Every person buying shoes at our J. H. MUSSER & SON.

Local Correspondence.

SMITH TOWN.

Glad to see that the improvement at the watering place, recommended in last week's JOURNAL, has been made. It is a good

Ezra Keen, a son of John D. Keen, had a severe attack of quinsy. His jaws were stiff, consequently he could not eat for some time Last Sunday his neck broke roving very fast

It nearly breaks Jumbo's heart to think that he was the fault of the sad disappointment which the two lovers experienced on last Saturday evening.

Again two of our young folks decided that to live in partnership was more pleasant than to worry through life singlehanded. They consequently took upon themselves the yows of man and wife. The subjects of this item are Elias Zerby and Anna Moyer. We are unable to give the details of the wedding, but presume the parties concerned enjoyed them selves. We wish them all the possible joy and good

Miss Elvie Decker, of Nittany Valley, in ompany with Miss Minnie Duck, of Milltorneys, while T. T. Abrams, Esq., is heim, were the guests of Mary Hershberger JUMBO.

COBURN.

Court week and a number of Penns Valley folks in attendance thereat. A number of our citizens took a sudden notion to go hunting this week as game has been repor ted very plenty.

his horse run out of the shafts, throw him down and tramp on his breast, injuring to leave the present incumbent, Mr. him so that he has been confined to his bed. Frank Higgins, of Poe Mills, had his work of the effice and may be able to a stick. Dr. Frank was called in to set the

Perry Stover had the misfortune to have truss boits no being here. We learn they the Swamp poodles. The boys visit ou were shipped from Pittsburgh on Saturday last and as soon as they reach here work will begin and the roof will be put on. Then it will be left for completion next summer. The slate for the roof are on the

The lecture in Millheim on Saturday evening promises to be a success; and it should be as all who attend will get the worth of their money, besides helping along and other government offices."-- Daily a good and grand work. So we would urge our Coburn people to turn out and assist in this work and hear something that will benefit all.

The Sunday school here will have a Christmas entertainment for the benefit of Mrs. John Weibly is away visiting for a week and that accounts for John being so Bob Vonada seems to be glad that he is postmaster this week as he thinks an em ployee of Uncle Sam cannot be taken to Bellefonte on short notice. Two engines attached to the freight or

Monday is a good sign that the business of the road is picking up considerably. We noticed several communications late ly in regard to the Turupike Co. There is a little pike running from Coburn to Millheim that needs some looking after and should certainly be put on the township. The township roads here are none of the best but along side of this pike they are excellent. There seems to be no effort made to keep the road in even ordinary reit was owned by the township, where it now amounts to a big thing in a year for the privelege of running the risk of a broken or limb and a smashed up rig. The cost of the road to the township would not be large as we understand the bridge at Coburn was Sold by Druggists, 75 Cts. to the people for free travel.

MADISONBU RG.

Miss Mary Stover is spending this week in Lock Haven at Mr. Webb's. The band project has all gone to nothing. The instruments were not in proper condi-

Mrs. Laura Marten, of Jacksonville, spent a few days in this valley with her sister, Mrs. Shafer, and other friends. Calvin Auman, of this place, slaughtered two fat porkers last week, their combined weight being 743 pounds. Hogs of that calibre are rather scarce around here. One of Henry Hazel's butchers says that huge pile of goods in his store. Fred killed a four-pronged buck, which weighed when dressed 124 pounds. Henry is not a little proud of his game. On Wednesday morning the members of the Evangelical congregation here commenced work on the new fence which is to

Last week Henry Rishel of Spring Bank, enclose their church premises. .-- What is there you don't find at AARONSBURG

We had a good soaking rain on last Surthe month ending November 29th, 1887-F. day night, with pleasant weather following

> Rev. Shoemaker and wife, of Jacksonville were here for a few days, visiting the lady's parents, Mr. Jos. Jordan's and other friends. James Swab, of the Loop, this county, a son-in-law of Rev. Stambach, of this place, died and was buried at the above place or last Sunday. The deceased leaves a wife

Rev. F. J. Frederick, formerly an Aaronsburg boy, lately supply ing the Luth charge at Oriole, Nippenoes Valley has moved to Harrisburgh, Pa., where he supplies several ongregations in the suburbs. Albert Stambach and wife, and the Miss-

and seven children to mourn his departure s Anna and Sarah Stambach, all of Lock Haven, were visitors at this place during the close of the week. They also attended the funeral of their brother-in law, Mr. James Swab in the Loop. L. L. Stover and wife took thanksgiving dinner at the lady's brother, J. C. Meyer, Miss Mary Bollinger, our primary school teacher, paid a few days' visit to friends at Gatesburg Pa. She returned on Monday

POE MILLS.

Secretary Monroe Kulp, from Shamokin. was here on Tuesday to remind the boys of another white metal day and to introduce

Last Monday our Grub train wrecked on the P. V. road between the large water tank and George Vanderbilt's. WhenGrub struck the bushes chip munks and everything left. And no wonder when a pile of Grub comes down, weighing 180 pounds. We don't know whether the signal was used or not, but suppose it was. That Thomas Cat again. One of the furred creatures somehow made war between some of our women. Mr. Cat lived with so and so, but must have got tired of the boarding, for he left and went where everybody goes. He made himself very familiar there, went up-stairs and played Jack Robinson in some of the beds. That wound the business up. Somebody swore vengeance on Mr. Cat and gave him a dose of strichnine which sent him home to his happy hunting

Poor Tom and his barrel of winter cider Tom had fixed the cider to suit himself and had given it a double portion of rye, which made a fellow hollo for foder und muder Tom had consequently a great deal of work in the cellar of late, but Mrs, soon got tired of that kind of work. When Tom was gone she went down and gave the barrel a turn, which so frightened the cider that it rut out and all over the cellar. And now poor Tom is broken-hearted, for he can neve coax that cider back into the barrel again. Such is life.

The old Jew peddler was here again. Wonder if he was delivering June bugs. By all reports he left a sample pair the other time, which took up a homestead on the back of one of our poor fellows, and it makes him scratch at a fearful rate.

The Junctionville depot was crowded on Tuesday night with passengers waiting for the special train to take them down to Poe Mills city, when the signal "Druff Nuff" was given by Capt. Oxy, and the train started at a speed that made the sparks fly arm broken on Sunday last by falling over When the boys arrived here they marched two-a-breast to Monroe's pay offices where they got their ready John Davis.

Patty Rhine and three of the best Poe camp quite frequently and are always wel

A number of our folks slaughtered their porkers, but somehow our camp was forgot ten. At least no sausage came around. Our two log wagons present a sickly sight

Mrs. Lizzie Kerstetter and Ellen Hoover

of Millheim, were visiting here,

The one is laid up for repairs, the other has its rotten tongue hanging out. Gilbert Wilkison started for Maine last week. Gilbert thinks there is nothing like Maine and we think there is nothing like to

E. E. Kitchen who used to be one of us but who is now employed on the Reading Railroad had the misfortune to have one o his fingers smashed while coupling cars last Wednesday night. His old chums around here all sympathize with him in his bad luck. CALIFORNIA JACK. HALL'S $100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of the MILLHEIM JOUR NAL will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally. acting directly upon the blood and mucus surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength, by ing nature in doing its work. The Proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars, for any case it fails to cure Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

CATARRH CURE.

MARRIED.

On the 27th of October, by Rev. M. L. Deitzler E. Luther Musser, of Haines township and Mary J Rider, of Coburn. On the 27th ult., by Rev. M, L. Deitzler, Charles H, Smull, of Centre Mills and Ellie E. Miller, of Madisonburg.

Millheim Market.

Corected weekly by A. J. Campbell, Agt. GRAIN, &c.

Wheat mixed with Rye bought at rye-weight nd price. Ground Plaster, $9.00 per ton.

> Special prices to lime bnrners.) PRODUCE.

HULLO!

My buttons are fastened on and I'm here again to speak, and would say in the

Be determined to have a good place to buy your Boots and Shoes and stick to it.

MUSSER'S SHOE STORE

FINE AND COARSE BOOTS.

a dozen different kinds from $2 to $5.

Women's Fine Shoes, in Kids, French Kids, Don-Everyday Shoes, there's no end to them. Calf, re a Calf, glove grain, oil grain, &c., &c. from $1.25 to $2.00.

You have never bought such shoes at the price we are offering them. In boys and girls-the same.

GO AND SEE THEM.

Don't miss. I'll be there when you come. You don't get any shoes at cost, but a mighty low profit, to hold your trade, to make you a customer. We have no low priced, worthless shoes. It must be to your interest to know this. We quarantee our representations, and don't warrant our shoes, just to sell you a pair. We won't say everything and do nothing, and you wouldn't expect us to.

A NOVELTY IN SHOEMAKING!

MAN AT THE TELEPHONE.

LEATHER BOOTS with GUM SOLES & REELS, to be the thing to two pair of get over hard and Leather frozen snow and Soles.

All other Shoe Work promptly and neatly Done. Will be at Musser's Shoe Store, Main Street, Millheim, every Saturday afternoon

C. G. BRIGHT.

MRS. L. C. BRUMGARD'S

SHOP AT AARONSBURG, PA .-

FINE DISPLAY OF FALL -:- AND -:- WINTER -:- MILLINERY

which she is receiving daily from the eastern cities reveals as much as the largest millinery establishment in the hig towns. Patron of fashion pronounce her stock the most attractive ever brought to town. Daily arrivals of the Latest Modes and Shapes in LADIES' FELT HATS & BONNETS.

frowns, Hins, frnaments and Buckles for Hat and Bonnet garnishments. Rich, Elegant

A SPECIALITY. MAIN ST., MILLHEIM, PA.

and Seasonable Trimmings

und giving the patient strength, by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The Proprietors have so much faith in its curature in the proprietors have so much faith in its curature. Groceries and Fruits where you will find the most complete line of SUGARS, COFFEES, TEA. RICE.

GROCERY STORE, MAIN STREET, MILLHEIM, PA

Apricots, Peaches, Plums, Pears, Tomatoes. Never follow but always lead with my line of Tobacco, Cigars and Confectioneries.

CERALINE, CORN, AND CANNED GOODS, SUCH AS

Full to ove flowing, my department of GLASS AND QUEENSWARE

Last but not least is my assortment of $5.25 5.40 5.40 5.25 3.25 5.25 3.00 WATCHES, CLOCKS AND JEWELRY. All my goods under this head are guaranteed and I warrant them to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. As I believe in "QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS" 1 ask you in all confidence to visit my store, being certain that it will be to your interest. BEA, Highest Market Prices paid for COUNTRY PRODUCE which is taken in exchange for goods.