EVENING ADVERTISER.

[No. 57 of Vol. V.]

MONDAY, February 17, 1794.

[Whole No. 515.]

JAMAICA, ff.

An Act for giving validity in this Island to Probates to be taken, by certain Officers in the United States of America, of Deeds to be there executed, and also to Exemplifications of Wills there proved.

WHEREAS, since the separation from the crown of Great-Britain of the late colonies, now called the United States of America, great inconveniences have arisen to many of his Majesty's subjects occasionally residing in those States, for want of a legal provision respecting the probates and acknowledgments of deeds executed in the said States, and intended to operate in this island: For remedy whereof, we, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly of this your Majesty's island of Jamaica, humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; Be it therefore enacted, and it is hereby enacted and ordained by the authority of the same, That, from and immediately after the passing of this act, any conveyance, letter of attorney, or other deed whatsoever, which shall be hereafter executed in any of the United States of America, and shall be proved by a subscribing witness, or acknowledged by the party or parties, before any of his Majesty's Consuls or Vice-Consuls residing in any of those States, or before the Chief Justice of any of the said States, or before the Chief Justice or any of the Judges of the Supreme Court of the said United States, and certified under the seal of any of the said States, or the seal of the said United States, shall be, and the same is hereby declared to be, as good and effectual in the law as if such conveyance, letter of attorney, or other deed, had been respectively proved or acknowledged before a Judge of any court of record in this island; any law, custom, or usage, to the contrary notwithstanding:—Provided always, That in all cases wherein the right or property of any woman under coverture is intended to be conveyed, she shall be examined separate and apart from her husband, by the Judge who attests the probate, and the said examination shall be certified in like manner as is practiced in Great-Britain or in this Island.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the probate of any last will and testament, taken before any officer authorized to take probates of wills in any of the said States, and exemplified under the seal of the State where such probate shall have been taken, shall be, and the same is hereby declared to be, as good and effectual in the law, as if such probate had been taken before the ordinary of this island; any law, custom, or usage, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Passed the Assembly this 12th day of November, 1793.

WILLIAM BLAKE, Speaker.

I assented the Council, this 14th November, 1793.

G. ATKINSON, Cl. Council.

I consent, this 6th December, 1793.

ADAM WILLIAMSON.

FOR SALE,

By MATHFW CAREY, No. 118, Market-Street,

An Essay on Slavery:

Designed to exhibit in a new point of view, its effects on morals, industry, and the peace of society. Some facts and calculations are offered to prove the labor of freemen to be much more productive than that of slaves; that countries are rich, powerful and happy, in proportion as the laboring people enjoy the fruits of their own labor; and hence the necessary conclusion, that slavery is impolitic as well as unjust.

Congress of the United States.

IN SENATE,

Friday, February 7.

The following written message was received from the President of the United States by Mr. Dandridge his Secretary.

United States, February 7, 1794. Gentlemen of the Senate, and of the House of Representatives.

I transmit to you an act and three ordinances, passed by the government of the territory of the United States south of the river Ohio, on the 13th and 21st of March, and 7th of May 1793.—And also certain letters from the Minister Plenipotentiary of the French Republic to the Secretary of State, enclosing dispatches from the general and extraordinary commission of Gaudaloupe.

G. WASHINGTON.

The message and papers therein referred to were read.

Ordered, That the act and three ordinances mentioned in the message be referred to the committee appointed the 21st of January last, to whom were referred the laws passed in the territory north-west of the Ohio, to consider and report thereon to the Senate.

Ordered, That the other papers referred to in the message, lie for consideration.

The Senate proceeded to the third reading of the bill, sent from the House of Representatives for concurrence, entitled, "an act providing for the relief of such of the inhabitants of S. Domingo, resident within the United States, as may be found in want of support;" whereupon,

Resolved, That this bill pass as amended.

Ordered, That the Secretary desire the concurrence of the House of Representatives in the amendment to this bill.

On motion,

Resolved, That the resolution passed yesterday, on the report of the committee appointed to consider the last paragraph of the message of the President of the United States, of the 30th of December last, be re-considered.

Ordered, That Mr. Burr, Mr. Ellsworth and Mr. King, be a committee to take into consideration the message from the President of the United States of the 30th December, and that the committee be directed to report a bill to carry the same into execution.

The Vice President laid before the Senate a letter from the Treasurer of the United States with his war department account, which were read.

Ordered, That they lie on the table.

The Senate adjourned to 11 o'clock on Monday morning.

Monday, Feb. 10, 1794.

The Vice President laid before the Senate, a letter from the Secretary for the department of the Treasury, in reference to the orders of Senate of the 13th of January last, for a return of sundry statements from that department, which letter was read.

Mr. Bradley reported from the committee, to whom was referred the petition of Conrad Laub and others, respecting the appointment of Mr. Gallatin a Senator of the United States, and the report was read.

On motion,

Ordered, That Wednesday next be assigned to take this report into consideration, and that in the mean time it be printed for the use of the Senate.

On motion,

That the Senate adopt the following resolution—

Resolved, That the doors of the Senate be opened and continue open, during the discussion upon the contested election of Albert Gallatin.

Ordered, That this motion lie on the table until to-morrow.

A message from the House of Representatives by Mr. Lambert, their clerk being detained by sickness.

" Mr. President, The House of Representatives concur in the amendment of the Senate to the bill, entitled, "An act providing for the relief of such of the inhabitants of Saint Domingo, resident within the United States, as may be found in want of support,"—and he withdrew.

The Senate adjourned to 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Tuesday, February 11.

Mr. Strong from the committee appointed the 24th of December last, to consider that part of the speech of the President of the United States, which recommends further provision against offences, reported a bill, which was read the first time.

Ordered, That this bill pass to the second reading.

A motion was made,

That the petition of Conrad Laub and others, citizens of Pennsylvania, stating that Albert Gallatin had not been more than eight years a citizen of the United States, at the time of his election as a Senator, is sufficient, as well in respect to the competency of the petitioners, as in respect to the matter alleged in the petition, to authorize the Senate to enquire and decide, whether the said Albert Gallatin had been a citizen of the United States, the term of years required by the constitution, as a qualification to be a Senator of the United States.

Ordered, That this motion lie until to-morrow.

On motion,

Ordered, That the letter of the Secretary for the department of the Treasury, communicated yesterday, be referred to Mr. Gallatin, Mr. Ellsworth and Mr. Taylor, to consider and report thereon to the Senate.

Mr. Vining from the joint committee on enrolled bills reported, that they had examined the bill, entitled, "An act providing for the relief of such of the inhabitants of St. Domingo, resident within the United States, as may be found in want of support," and that it was duly enrolled.

A message from the House of Representatives by Mr. Lambert, their clerk being detained by sickness.

" Mr. President, The Speaker of the House of Representatives having signed an enrolled bill, I am directed to bring it to the Senate, for the signature of the Vice President." And he withdrew.

The Vice-President signed the last mentioned enrolled bill, and it was delivered to the committee on enrolled bills, to be laid before the President of the United States, for his approbation.

On motion,

That the Secretary for the department of the Treasury be desired to report to the Senate on the petition of Arthur Hughes, referred to him during the last session.

It was agreed that the motion lie on the table until to-morrow.

Agreeable to the order of the day, the Senate took into consideration the motion made yesterday, that the doors of the Senate be opened during the discussion of the contested election of Mr. Gallatin.

Whereupon

Resolved, That the doors of the Senate be opened, and continue open, during the discussion upon the contested election of Albert Gallatin.

Mr. Bradley reported from the committee, to whom was referred the act and three ordinances, mentioned in the message of the President of the United States of the 7th instant, enacted and ordained by the Governor and Judges of the territory south of the river Ohio, "that Congress do not disapprove the same"—and the report was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned to 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.
