PROPOSALS

For printing by Subscription,
A Work, to be entitled,
THE FIRST VOLUME OF Pennsylvania State Trials.

THE want of sufficient information of the late trials of Great-Britain in the early periods of that government is now lamented: Hitherto there hath been but one trial in the state of Pennsylvania on impeachment:—and here also it is to be regretted, that, being neglected at the time, the public are now left without sufficient information on the subject of that trial, it is however in this work designed to refer what can be collected thereof from sources of indisputable authority, so that the same shall be preserved from oblivion.

Another impeachment and the second is now depending. An officer is charged by the late House of Representatives, who hath for many years been largely confided in by this state, and hath long been at the head of the financial department of the same, and it imports the citizens to know his conduct, and the circumstances which may be brought forward on his trial.

In this work the Editor will be careful to state the facts, as they may be brought forward, and to lay all the evidence and papers before the public.—With this view—

The following Terms are respectfully submitted to the Public:

I. The Work shall be printed in octavo, with a good type, on fine paper, and delivered to subscribers at the respective places where the subscriptions are taken in, as soon as the work shall be completed.

II. As no confidure can well be made, as to the length of the present trial, the size of the volume cannot be ascertained at this time.—But the price shall not exceed that of some of the latest publications in this city.

III. It will contain all the preliminaries and incidental circumstances that may occur during the trial of John Nicholson, Esquire, Comptroller-General of this commonwealth, with the arguments of counsel on both sides, together with the articles of impeachment, and the pleas and replications at large, the several resolutions of the two branches of the State Legislature, respecting this impeachment, and the final decision of the SENATE respecting that officer.

To which will be prefixed, as much as can be collected from authentic documents, of the impeachment, trial, and acquittal of the late Francis Hopkinson, Esquire, Judge of the Court of Admiralty for the state of Pennsylvania, during the late war, never before published.

No money will be required before the delivery of the book.

Subscriptions will be received by Francis Bailey, No. 116, High-street; Wrigley and Bertram, No. 149, Chestnut-street, and by the different booksellers in this city; Jacob Bailey, Lancaster; Yundt and Patton, Baltimore, and by the Editor.

EDMUND HOGAN.

N. B. The price will be enhanced to non-subscribers. Feb. 18. taw if

An Essay on Slavery:

Designed to exhibit in a new point of view, its effects on morals, industry, and the peace of society. Some facts and calculations are offered to prove the labor of freemen to be much more productive than that of slaves; that countries are rich, powerful and happy, in proportion as the laboring people enjoy the fruits of their own labor; and hence the necessary conclusion, that slavery is impolitic as well as unjust. LATEST

Foreign Intelligence.

VIENNA, Nov. 13.

Dispatches of such importance have been received from our ambassador at Berlin, as not only to occasion an immediate conference, but the immediate sending of messengers to all the courts in alliance with ours.

MANHEIM, Nov. 21.

Relative to the unfortunate attack upon Bitche we learn, that 1600 Prussians were at one time actually in the place, but were after a severe conflict, driven out.—this gave the French courage, and they immediately attacked the whole cordon, and retook Bliescastel, and all the posts on the Blise.

PARIS, Nov. 22.

In the sessions of the 23d a letter was read from the representatives of the people at Strasburg, mentioning that they had attacked the enemy on the 18th at three points, and after a brisk action, took a redoubt, and had hopes of being at Weissenbourg next day.

Decreed upon the proposal of Ruhl, that advantage should be taken of the advance of the victorious armies into Germany to make the inhabitants of Frankfurt pay the 2 millions imposed on them by Custine.

In the sessions of the 25th a letter was read from the representatives of the people with the army of the Moselle, dated Deux Ponts, Nov. 21, in which the whole progress of the army is mentioned to taking possession of Deux Ponts, which they did without opposition.

In the same sessions a letter from Strasburg, dated Nov. 19, stated assignats and money to be at par in that city.

Several churches sent their plate to the convention.

LONDON, Dec. 4.

By accounts from France there is advice that the Royalist army is divided into 2 columns, one of which went against Granville, the other went against St. Maloes.

December 6.

Different letters were yesterday received in town, which confirm the report given in our last paper of the success of lord Howe's fleet capturing 5 sail of French men of war.

The French have stopped their newspapers from coming out of the country for a short time; it is supposed they have some secret they wish not to be made public.

The Frankfort Gazette of the 29th ult. announces, that within 2 days Landau would be in the power of the Austrians.

The head quarters of the Prince of Cobourg are now at Mons. The French in the night between the 23d. and 24th ult. precipitately abandoned the town and district of Beaumont.

M. Chambon, the fugitive deputy from the National Convention, was found concealed in a farm house, and sacrificed by the people.

Towards the conclusion of the session of the National Convention of the 25th ult. Chenier made a report respecting the crimes imputed to the memory of Count de Mirabeau. After entering into a relation of his political career, and enumerating the services he had rendered his country, he accused him of being a partisan of royalty, under the veil of being a zealous advocate for the people, for the purpose of advancing his own interests, and moved that Gabriel Riquetti Mirabeau should be removed from the Pantheon, and Marat placed in his stead which the Convention decreed.

MR. FENNO,

WHILST the sons of pleasure, and the devotees of Comus, triumph in the victory which they have obtained over the industrious and serious part of the community, with regard to Theatrical entertainments, they ought to beware of insulting the feelings of their mourning fellow-citizens. There are many of this description, who cannot forget those tremendous scenes of desolation and woe, which were exhibited here a few months since; whose hearts still bleed at the recollection of many dear and valuable friends torn from their embrace, and the pictures of distress which they daily saw; but which the gay and wealthy patrons of pernicious amusements cannot realize, as most of them fled trembling, to a distance. Those children of misfortune have no
