AND FOR SALE BY

JOHN ORMROD,
At Franklin's Head, No. 41, Second Street,

AN ESSAY ON THE

Natural Equality of Men,

On the Rights that result from it, and on the Duties which it imposes.

To which a MEDAL was adjudged, by the Teylerian Society at Haarlem.

Corrected and Enlarged.

By WILLIAM LAWRENCE BROWN,

D. D.

Professor of Moral Philosophy, and the Law of Nature, and of Ecclesiastical History; and Minister of the English Church at Utrecht.

Aliquid semper ad communem utilitatem afferendum. CICERO.

The First American Edition.

THE grand principle of Equality, if rightly understood, is the only basis on which universal justice, sacred order, and perfect freedom, can be firmly built, and permanently secured. The view of it exhibited in this essay, at the same time that it represses the insolence of office, the tyranny of pride, and the outrages of oppression; confirms, in the most forcible manner, the necessity of subordination, and the just demands of lawful authority. So far indeed, from loosening the bands of society, that it maintains inviolate, every natural and every civil distinction, draws more closely every social tie, unites in one harmonious and justly proportioned system, and brings men together on the even ground of the inherent rights of human nature, of reciprocal obligation, and of a common relation to the community.

AN APPRENTICE

To the Printing Business, Enquire at this Office.

This Gazette shall be enlarged, as it receives encouragement—The Subscription increases daily—Advertising Favours are solicited—These constitute an essential Item in diminishing the Debt side of the Account.

Congress of the United States.

House of Representatives

Monday, March 17.

Sundry reports on about sixty petitions referred to the Secretary of war, were read:

Several petitions were read and committed—viz from the manufacturers of hose, praying an inlanced duty, on imported stockings, from the clerks in the accountants office, in the War-Department:—and the gaugers in the city of New-York for an addition to their salaries.

A general report was read on the petitions of the manufacturers of sundry articles—as hats, nails, bellows, &c.

A message from the Senate by Mr. Otis, informed the House that they have passed the bill providing for the defence of certain ports and harbors, with amendments—in which they request the concurrence of the House.

In committee of the whole on the bill making provision for erecting and repairing arsenals and magazines and for other purposes—Mr. J. Smith in the chair.—In the amendments to this bill, provision was made for the appointment of a superintendent of military stores, agreeably to the recommendation of the President, in a late message—a provision was also inserted, conditioning agreeably to the constitution, for the cession of the lands by the state Legislature, on which the buildings proposed, shall be erected—These amendments were adopted by the House, and the bill ordered to be engrossed for a third reading to-morrow.

The House then took into consideration the amendment of the Senate to the bill providing for the defence of certain ports and harbors, and agreed to the same. These amendments were to strike out Machias, Penobscot, Kennebec, and Annapolis and to insert Alexandria.

Mr. Smith of Maryland, informed the House that he had certain propositions to make, which he wished to introduce to their attention with the doors shut—when submitted, it might be determined whether they should be publicly discussed or not. He moved therefore that the galleries should be cleared—this motion was agreed to—and about one o'clock the galleries were closed.

March 18.

The blanks in the bill for erecting arsenals and magazines were filled and the bill passed.

A memorial was read from the manufacturers of bar iron and others, praying that the duties on the importation of that article be not diminished.

Mr. Fitzsimons moved, that the President be authorized to employ any of the revenue cutters as packets or dispatch boats—agreed.

The bill to prohibit carrying on the slave trade from the ports of the United States has passed the Senate.

The galleries were then cleared.

PHILADELPHIA.

At a general meeting of the Citizens of the city and county of Philadelphia, held in the State-House yard, on the 18th inst. in pursuance of an advertisement for that purpose—

STEPHEN GIRARD, in the chair.

The following Declarations and Resolutions were proposed, and unanimously adopted—

WHEREAS the United States of America, since the glorious epoch of their political existence as an independent nation, have fought by every reasonable expedient to establish impartial justice in their intercourse with foreign countries, by a disposition the most candid and the most impartial, to cultivate the good will and friendship of all mankind, and particularly upon the principles of a magnani-
