FOR SALE,
BY MATHEW CAREY, No. 118,
Market-Street,

An Essay on Slavery:

Designed to exhibit in a new point of view, its effects on morals, industry, and the peace of society. Some facts and calculations are offered to prove the labor of freemen to be much more productive than that of slaves; that countries are rich, powerful and happy, in proportion as the laboring people enjoy the fruits of their own labor; and hence the necessary conclusion, that slavery is impolitic as well as unjust.
PRICE 25 CENTS.

To be Sold at Public Vendue,

On FRIDAY the 11th day of April next, at the house of John Thomson, in Perth-Amboy,

The Proprietary House AND LOT OF LAND,

IN THAT CITY.
THE Lot contains eleven acres, on which is an orchard of grafted apple trees, a well of excellent water, a large stone cistern, and a very commodious stable and coach-house, and a great quantity of the best building stones in the walls of the house, which was formerly built for the residence of the Governors of New-Jersey. The situation of this Lot is so well known for its healthiness and beautiful prospect of the Raritan river to the west of the bay, and Sandy-Hook to the east, that a further description is unnecessary. The conditions of sale will be, one third of the purchase money to be paid on the first day of May next, when a good and sufficient Deed will be given to the purchaser, by WALTER RUTHERFORD, Esq. President of the Board of Proprietors of the Eastern Division of New-Jersey, and the remaining two thirds satisfactorily secured in equal annual payments.
By order of the Board,
JAMES PARKER, Register.

Congress of the United States.

House of Representatives

Monday, March 24.

A memorial of sundry inhabitants of the town of Salem, in Massachusetts praying that Congress will adopt such measures, as in their wisdom, may be deemed the most expedient and effectual to obtain a redress for the vexations, and spoliations committed on the commerce of the United States, by the subjects of Great Britain; under the authority of that government, as well as by the subjects and citizens of other foreign countries, was presented by Mr. Goodhue.

Also a memorial of sundry citizens of the state of South-Carolina, to the same effect, was presented by general Pickens.
Committee of the whole on the state of the Union, reported the following resolution, which was agreed to.

“Resolved, That measures ought to be immediately taken, to render the force of the United States more efficient.”

Mr. Parker proposed the following resolutions, which were seconded.

“Resolved, That a select corps of militia be enrolled in the United States; that all freemen capable of bearing arms from the age of to compose a select militia, and that they be armed and accounted at the general expense.”

“Resolved, That the several states shall officer the select militia aforesaid, either out of the officers of the militia now commissioned, or such other persons as they may think proper.”

“Resolved, That the said select militia be called together as often as may be directed by the legislatures of the several states, not exceeding days, in one year, and for the time they are so called out, they shall receive the same pay and rations, as the troops of the United States.”

“Resolved, That in case of invasion or insurrection, the President of the United States shall have power to call into actual service, such portion or portions of the select militia, as may be deemed necessary for the common defence.”

“Resolved, That no select militia-man shall be called into actual service for more than one year.” Committed to a committee.

Adjourned.

Gaillard the friend of Challier, killed himself because he believed that he was abandoned by the patriots.

Collet D'Herbois.—“Jacobins! Some persons wish to moderate the Revolutionary movement—take care of it—never forget what Robespierre told you on this subject. Some persons wish to make you establish a committee of clemency, for the purpose of there examining the prisoners, and to distinguish the Aristocrats from those who are not so. No clemency—be always Jacobins and Mountaineers, and LIBERTY shall be saved.”

Letters from Italy announce, that the regency of Tunis observes the strictest neutrality with the French.
