In the Name of the French Republic.

EVERY Frenchman is forbid to violate the Neutrality of the United States. All commissions or authorizations tending to infringe that neutrality, are revoked, and are to be returned to the Agents of the French Republic.
Philadelphia, Ventose 16th, second year of the French Republic, one and indivisible (March 6th, 1794, O. S.)
The Minister Plenipotentiary of the French Republic.
JH. FAUCHET.
The Editors of newspapers within the United States, are requested to republish the foregoing notice. d

The Public are cautioned to beware of counterfeited Five Dollar Bills of the Bank of the United States, and Twenty Dollar Bills of the Bank of North America, several of which have appeared in circulation within a few days past; they are a good general imitation of the genuine Bills, but may be distinguished by the following

MARKS.

Five Dollar Bills of the Bank of the United States.

ALL that have appeared have the letter F. for their Alphabetical Mark.

The Texture of the Paper is thicker and whiter and it takes the ink more freely than the genuine paper.

The O. in the word Company is smaller than the M. and other letters of that word, so that a line extended from the top of the O, to touch the top of the M. would extend considerably above the range of the whole word.

In the word United the letters are narrower and closer together than the rest of the bill. The i and j in the word promise are not parallel, the i inclining much more forward than the j.

The engraving is badly executed, the strokes of all the letters are stronger and the device in the margin particularly is much coarser and appears darker than in the true bills. Some of the counterfeits bear date in 1791—Whereas the Bank was not in operation till December, and no five dollar bills were issued in that year.

Twenty Dollar Bills of the Bank of North America.

ALL that have appeared have the letter B. for their alphabetical mark.

They are printed on a paper nearly similar to that of the counterfeit Five Dollar Notes above described; the engraving is better executed, and they approach nearer to the appearance of the genuine bills.

The fine ruled lines through the word Twenty, in the body of the bill, are in number thirteen in the genuine bills, and but twelve in the counterfeits.

The word Company is much like the same word in the Five Dollar Bills as described above, the o being less than the m, and others following.

There is no stroke to the t in the word North whereas in the genuine bills the stroke is well defined.

The letters ent in the word Twenty, to the left hand at the bottom, do not come down to the line, but are so cut as to give an irregular appearance to the word, the tw and the y going below them.

The Signature J. Nixon, has the appearance of being written with lamp-black and oil, and differs from the other inks used in printing the bills and the cashier's signature.

It is supposed these forgeries were committed in some of the Southern States, as all the counterfeits that have appeared, have come from thence, and two persons have been apprehended in Virginia, on suspicion of being the authors of them.

The reward of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS will be paid to any Person or Persons who shall discover and prosecute to conviction the several offenders of the following descriptions or any of them, viz.

The person or persons, who manufactured the paper on which the Bills are printed.

The person or persons, who engraved the plates.

The printer or printers, of the bills.

Every person who has aided as a principal in any other way, in the counterfeiting and uttering the said bills.

THOMAS WILLING, President of the Bank United States.

JOHN NIXON, President of the Bank of North America.

By order of the Committees of the respective Boards.

Philadelphia, March 28, 1794. dtf.

FOR SALE,

BY MATHEW CAREY, No. 118, Market-Street,

An Essay on Slavery,

Designed to exhibit in a new point of view its effects on morals, industry, and the peace of society. Some facts and calculations are offered to prove the labor of freemen to be much more productive than that of slaves; that countries are rich, powerful and happy, in proportion as the laboring people enjoy the fruits of their own labor; and hence the necessary conclusion, that slavery is impolitic as well as unjust.

UNITED STATES.

NEWBEDFORD, March 24.

Wednesday 19th inst. was picked up on the fourth side of the Vineyard, the stern of a vessel, bearing the name of the sloop Sally of Halifax.—Also about 60 bbls. of Tar, with the mark S. S. and some other initials our informant has forgotten.—The body of a Negro boy, about two years old was found last Monday drifted on shore near the same place; and the yard of a square rigged vessel, with a sail snugly handed—being a large and heavy sail, supposed to belong to some large vessel. The quarter deck and some other parts of a large vessel have been found drove on shore on Noman's land.

NEW-LONDON, March 20.

Captain Williams who arrived in this port on Saturday last, from Grenada, informs us he learnt there, that the British forces which went against Martinique, had taken possession of the whole island, except Fort Bourbon.

A ship of the line being becalmed under one of the forts, met with such a reception, that she was obliged to be towed off; and had returned to Barbadoes, for new masts, &c. being in a very shattered condition.

PARIS, Jan. 5.

Amand-Louis Philip Culline, jun. born at Paris—25 years of age, formerly Minister Plenipotentiary of Louis XVI. at Berlin, Adjutant-General of the army on the Rhine, has, for Manœuvres, Conspiracies, &c. been sentenced to suffer death.

The Revolutionary Tribunal has passed sentence of death against Charles Barre, Receiver of Contributions in the district of Lassy, department of Mayence, for conspiracy against the Republic; against Rene Foizer, from Poitiers, an Ex-noble, for having assisted the Rebels of La Vendee; against Charles Faverolles, a native of Paris, and a Constitutional Priest, and Aid-de-Camp of Dumourier; and against Agatha Jolivat, the divorced wife of Barreau de Crevy, for criminal correspondence with the enemies of the Republic. The old Marshal Luckner has also been condemned to death.

Another letter from Toulon, dated Dec. 24, states, that the executions go on briskly; on the 21st, 130 soldiers and citizens were shot; and on the 23d, fifteen marine officers shared the same fate.

On the 23d, two Spanish Brigs with provisions, and on the 23d, five large Ships, three Spanish and two of them English, coming with troops from Turin, also entered the harbor, and were well received by the Republicans.

The Combined Fleets are said to have failed in a dreadful storm, which did not cease till the 23, they are supposed to have borne towards the Island of Hieres; a large ship, dismasted, has been seen from Toulon, seven leagues from the shore.

Anacharis Cloots, too, it is said, will be tried before the Revolutionary Tribunal. With respect to Thomas Paine, it is generally believed that nothing will be done against him for the present.

One of the chiefs of La Vendee, who lately summoned Nantz, has been taken prisoner, and shot at Ancenis.

A letter from Ciotat, near Toulon, dated Dec. 23, announced, that on the 20th, twenty-five marine officers were shot; that upwards of 200 Spanish women remained at Toulon, and upwards of 2000 sick and wounded who had not time to embark; that the harbor is full of dead bodies; that upwards of 20,000 of the inhabitants are said to have emigrated.
